18 But if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law.

19 Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; adultery, fornication, uncleanesse, lasciviousnesse,

20 Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies,

21 Envyings, murders, drunkennesse, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentlenesse, goodnesse, faith,

23 Meekenesse,

23 Meekneſſe, temperance: againſt ſuch there is no law.

24 And they that are Chriſts, have crucified the flesh with the ‖ affections and luſts.

25 If we live in the Spirit, let us alſo walk in the Spirit.

26 Let us not be deſirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another.

CHAP. VI.

He wiſheth them to deal mildely with a brother that hath ſlipped, 2 and to bear one another's burden: 6 to be liberall to their teachers, 9 and not weary of well-doing. 13 He diſwadeth what they intend that preach circumciſion. 14 He gloriſieth in nothing, ſave in the croſſe of Chriſt.

1 Brethren, ‖ if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are ſpirituall, reſtore ſuch a one in the ſpirit of meekneſſe, conſidering thy ſelf, leſt thou alſo be tempted.

2 Bear ye one another's burdens, and ſo fulfill the law of Chriſt.

3 For if a man think himſelf to be ſomewhat, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himſelf.

4 But let every man prove his own work, and then ſhall he have rejoycing in himſelf alone, and not in another.

5 For every man ſhall bear his own burden.

6 Let him that is taught in the word, communicate unto him that teacheth, in all good things.

7 Be not deceived, God is not mocked: for whatſoever a man ſoweth, that ſhall he alſo reap.

8 For he that ſoweth to his fleſh, ſhall of the fleſh reap corruption: but he that ſoweth to the Spirit, ſhall of the Spirit reap life everlaſting.

9 And let us not be weary in well-doing: for in due ſeaſon we ſhall reap, if we faint not.

10 As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, eſpecially unto them who are of the houſhold of faith.

11 Ye ſee how large a letter I have written unto you with mine own hand.

12 As many as deſire to make a fair ſhew in the fleſh, they conſtrain you to be circumciſed: onely leſt they ſhould ſuffer perſecution for the croſſe of Chriſt.

13 For neither they themſelves who are circumciſed, keep the law, but deſire to have you circumciſed, that they may glory in your fleſh.

14 But God forbid that I ſhould glory, ſave in the croſſe of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, ‖ by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world. ‖ Or, wherby.

15 For in Chriſt Jeſus neither circumciſion availeth any thing, nor uncircumciſion, but a new creature.

16 And as many as walk according to this rule, peace be on them, and mercy, and upon the Iſrael of God.

17 From henceforth let no man trouble me, for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jeſus.

18 Brethren, the grace of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt be with your ſpirit. Amen.

¶ Unto the Galatians, written from Rome.

¶ THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE apoſtle to the EPHESIANS.

CHAP. I.

1 After the ſalutation, 3 and thankſgiving for the Ephesians, 4 he treateth of our election, 6 and adoption by grace, 11 which is the true and proper fountain of mans ſalvation. 13 And becauſe the height of this myſtery cannot eaſily be attained unto, 16 he prayeth that they may come, 18 to the full knowledge, and 20 poſſeſſion thereof in Chriſt.

1 PAul an apoſtle of Jeſus Chriſt, by the will of God, to the ſaints which are at Epheſus, and to the faithfull in Chriſt Jeſus.

2 Grace be to you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

3 Bleſſed be the God and Father of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, who hath bleſſed us with all ſpirituall bleſſings in heavenly ‖ places in Chriſt:

4 According as he hath choſen us in him, before the foundation of the world, that we ſhould be holy, and without blame before him in love:

5 Having predeſtinated us unto the adoption of children by Jeſus Chriſt to himſelf, according to the good pleaſure of his will:

6 To the praiſe of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the beloved:

7 In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveneſſe of ſins, according to the riches of his grace,

8 Wherein he hath abounded towards us in all wiſdom and prudence:

9 Having made known unto us the myſtery of his will, according to his good pleaſure, which he hath purpoſed in himſelf,

10 That in the diſpenſation of the fulneſſe of times he might gather together in one all things in Chriſt, both which are in † heaven, and which are on earth, even in him: † Greek, the heavens.

11 In whom alſo we have obtained an inheritance, being predeſtinated according to † purpoſe of him, who worketh all things after the counſell of his own will:

12 That we ſhould be to the praiſe of his glory, who firſt ‖ truſted in Chriſt.

13 In whom ye alſo truſted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the goſpel of your ſalvation: in whom alſo after that ye believed, ye were ſealed with that holy Spirit of promiſe, ‖ Or, hoped.

14 Which is the earneſt of our inheritance, until the redemption of the purchaſed poſſeſſion, unto the praiſe of his glory.

15 Wherefore I alſo, after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jeſus, and love unto all the ſaints,

16 Ceaſe not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers;

17 That the God of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, the Father of glory, may give unto you the ſpirit of wiſdom, and revelation ‖ in the knowledge of him: ‖ Or, for the acknowledgement

18 The eyes of your underſtanding being enlightened: that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the ſaints;

19 And what is the exceeding greatneſſe of his power to us-ward who believe, according to the working † of his mighty power: † Greek, of the might of his power.

20 Which he wrought in Chriſt, when he raiſed him from the dead, and ſet him at his own right hand in the heavenly places,

21 Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named fined, not onely in this world, but also in that which is to come:

22 And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church,

23 Which is his body, the fulnesse of him that filleth all in all.

CHAP. II.

1 By comparing what we were by 3 nature, with what we are 5 by grace: 10 He declareth that we are made for good works, and 13 being brought neer by Christ, should not live as 11 Gentiles and 12 forreigners in time past, but as 19 citizens with the saints, and the family of God.

AND you hath he quickened who were dead in treſpaſſes and ſins,

2 Wherein in time paſt ye walked, according to the courſe of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the ſpirit that now worketh in the children of diſobedience,

3 Among whom alſo we all had our converſation in times paſt, in the luſts of our fleſh, fulfilling † the deſires of the fleſh, and of the minde, and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others:

† Greek, the willes

4 But God who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us,

5 Even when we were dead in ſins, hath quickened us together with Chriſt, (by grace ye are ſaved.)

6 And hath raiſed us up together, and made us ſit together in heavenly places in Chriſt Jeſus:

7 That in the ages to come he might ſhew the exceeding riches of his grace, in his kindneſſe towards us through Chriſt Jeſus.

8 For by grace are ye ſaved, through faith, and that not of your ſelves: it is the gift of God:

9 Not of works, leſt any man ſhould boaſt.

10 For we are his workmanſhip, created in Chriſt Jeſus unto good works, which God hath before ‖ ordained, that we ſhould walk in them.

‖ Or, prepared.

11 Wherefore remember that ye being in time paſſed Gentiles in the fleſh, who are called uncircumciſion by that which is called the circumciſion in the fleſh made by hands,

12 That at that time ye were without Chriſt, being aliens from the common-wealth of Iſrael, and ſtrangers from the covenants of promiſe, having no hope, and without God in the world.

13 But now in Chriſt Jeſus, ye, who ſometimes were far off, are made nigh by § blood of Chriſt.

14 For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us:

15 Having aboliſhed in his fleſh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances, for to make in himſelf, of twain, one new man, ſo making peace.

16 And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the croſſe, having ſlain the enmity ‖ thereby,

‖ Or, to himſelf.

17 And came, and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh.

18 For through him we both have an acceſſe by one Spirit, unto the Father.

19 Now therefore ye are no more ſtrangers and forreigners, but fellow-citizens with the ſaints, and of the houſhold of God,

20 And are built upon the foundation of the apoſtles and prophets, Jeſus Chriſt himſelf being the chief corner ſtone,

21 In whom all the building firly framed together, groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord:

22 In whom you alſo are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit.

CHAP. III.

5 The hidden myſtery, 6 that the Gentiles ſhould be ſaved, 3 was made known to Paul by revelation. 8 and to him was that grace given, that he ſhould preach it. 13 He deſireth them not to faint for his tribulation, 14 and prayeth that they may perceive the great love of Chriſt toward them.

FOr this cauſe, I Paul, the priſoner of Jeſus Chriſt for you Gentiles,

2 If ye have heard of the diſpenſation of the grace of God, which is given me to you-ward:

3 How that by revelation he made known unto me the myſtery, (as I wrote ‖ afore in few words,

4 Whereby when ye read, ye may underſtand my knowledge in the myſtery of Chriſt.)

5 Which in other ages was not made known unto the ſons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apoſtles and prophets by the Spirit,

6 That the Gentiles ſhould be fellow-heirs, and of the ſame body, and partakers of his promiſe in Chriſt by the goſpel:

7 Whereof I was made a miniſter, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me, by the effectuall working of his power.

8 Unto me, who am leſſe then the leaſt of all ſaints, is this grace given, that I ſhould preach among the Gentiles the unſearchable riches of Chriſt,

9 And to make all men ſee, what is the fellowſhip of the myſtery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jeſus Chriſt:

10 To the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known by the church the manifold wiſdom of God,

11 According to the eternall purpoſe which he purpoſed in Chriſt Jeſus our Lord:

12 In whom we have boldneſſe and acceſſe with confidence, by the faith of him.

13 Wherefore I deſire that ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which is your glory.

14 For this cauſe I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt,

15 Of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named,

16 That he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be ſtrengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man,

17 That Chriſt may dwell in your hearts by faith, that ye being rooted and grounded in love,

18 May be able to comprehend with all ſaints, what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height:

19 And to know the love of Chriſt which paſſeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fulneſſe of God.

20 Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly, above all that we aſk or think, according to the power that worketh in us,

21 Unto him be glory in the church by Chriſt Jeſus, throwout all ages, world without end. Amen.

CHAP. IIII.

1 He exhorteth to unitie, 7 and declareth that God therefore giveth divers 11 gifts unto men, that the church might be 13 edified, and 16 grown up in Chriſt. 18 He calleth them from the impuritie of the Gentiles, 24 to put on the new man, 25 to caſt off lying, and 29 corrupt communication.

THerefore the priſoner ‖ of the Lord, beſeech you, that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called,

‖ Or, Le

3 With all lowlineſſe and meekneſſe, with long-ſuffering, forbearing one another in love:
3 Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.
4 There is one body, and one ſpirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling.
5 One Lord, one faith, one baptiſme,
6 One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.
7 But unto every one of us is given grace, according to the meaſure of the gift of Chriſt.
8 Wherefore he ſaith, * When he aſcended up on high, he led ‖ captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men.
9 (Now that he aſcended, what is it, but that he alſo deſcended firſt into the lower parts of the earth?
10 He that deſcended, is the ſame alſo that aſcended up far above all heavens, that he might ‖ fill all things.
11 * And he gave ſome, apoſtles: and ſome, prophets: and ſome, evangeliſts: and ſome, paſtours and teachers;
12 For the perfecting of the ſaints, for the work of the miniſtery, for the edifying of the body of Chriſt:
13 Till we all come ‖ in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the meaſure of the ‖ ſtature of the fulneſſe of Chriſt:
14 That we henceforth be no more children, toſſed to and fro, and carried about with every winde of doctrine, by the ſleight of men, and cunning craftineſſe, whereby they lie in wait to deceive:
15 But ‖ ſpeaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Chriſt:
16 * From whom the whole body fitly joyned together, and compacted by that which every joynt ſupplieth, according to the effectuall working in the meaſure of every part, maketh increaſe of the body unto the edifying of it ſelf in love.
17 This I ſay therefore, and teſtifie in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk in the vanity of their minde, 18 Having the underſtanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, becauſe of the * ‖ blindneſſe of their heart:
19 Who being paſt feeling, have given themſelves over unto laſciviouſneſſe, to work all uncleanneſſe with greedineſſe.
20 But ye have not ſo learned Chriſt:
21 If ſo be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jeſus, 22 That ye put off, concerning the former converſation, the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitfull luſts;
23 And be renewed in the ſpirit of your minde:
24 And that ye put on that new man, which after God is created in righteouſneſſe and ‖ true holineſſe.
25 Wherefore putting away lying, ſpeak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another.
26 Be ye angry and ſin not, let not the ſun go down upon your wrath:
27 Neither give place to the devil.
28 Let him that ſtole, ſteal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have ‖ to give to him that needeth.
29 Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good ‖ to the uſe of edifying, that it may miniſter grace unto the hearers.
30 And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are ſealed unto the day of redemption.
31 Let all bitterneſſe, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil ſpeaking be put away from you, with all malice.
32 * And be ye kinde one to another, tender hearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Chriſts ſake hath forgiven you. * 2 Cor. 2.10.

CHAP. V.

2 After generall exhortations to love, 3 to flee fornication, 4 and all uncleanneſſe, 7 not to converſe with the wicked, 15 to walk warily, and to be 18 filled with the ſpirit, 22 he deſcendeth to the particular duties, how wives ought to obey their husbands, 25 and husbands ought to love their wives, 32 even as Chriſt doth his church.

BE ye therefore followers of God, as deare children,
2 And walk in love, as Chriſt alſo hath loved us, and hath given himſelf for us, an offering, and a ſacrifice to God for a ſweet ſmelling ſavour:
3 But fornication, and all uncleanneſſe, or covetouſneſſe, let it not be once named among you, as becometh ſaints,
4 Neither filthineſſe, nor fooliſh talking, nor jeſting, which are not convenient: but rather giving of thanks.
5 For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean perſon, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Chriſt, and of God.
6 Let no man deceive you with vain words: for becauſe of theſe things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of ‖ diſobedience. ‖ Or, unbelief.
7 Be not ye therefore partakers with them.
8 For ye were ſometimes darkneſs, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light,
9 (For the fruit of the ſpirit is in all goodneſſe, and righteouſneſſe, and truth)
10 Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord:
11 And have no fellowſhip with the unfruitfull works of darkneſſe, but rather reprove them.
12 For it is a ſhame even to ſpeak of thoſe things which are done of them in ſecret.
13 But all things that are ‖ reproved, are made manifeſt by the light: for whatſoever doth make manifeſt, is light. ‖ Or, diſcovered.
14 Wherefore he ſaith; * Awake thou that ſleepeſt, and ariſe from the dead, and Chriſt ſhall give thee light. * Iſaiah 60.1.
15 * See then that ye walk circumſpectly, not as fools, but as wiſe, * Coloſſ. 4.5.
16 Redeeming the time, becauſe the dayes are evil.
17 Wherefore be ye not unwiſe, but underſtanding what the will of the Lord is.
18 And be not drunk with wine, wherein is exceſſe: but be filled with the Spirit:
19 Speaking to your ſelves in pſalms, and hymns, and ſpirituall ſongs, ſinging and making melody in your heart to the Lord,
20 Giving thanks alwayes for all things unto God, and the Father, in the Name of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, 21 Submitting your ſelves one to another in the fear of God.
22 Wives, ſubmit your ſelves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord.
23 For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Chriſt is the head of the church: and he is the Saviour of the body.
24 Therefore as the church is ſubject unto Chriſt, ſo let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing.

25 Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it:
26 That he might sanctifie and cleanse it with the washing of water, by the word,
27 That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle, or any such thing: but that it should be holy and without blemish.
28 So ought men to love their wives, as their own bodies: he that loveth his wife, loveth himself.
29 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh: but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church:
30 For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.
31 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joyned unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh.
32 This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church.
33 Nevertheless, let every one of you in particular so love his wife, even as himself, and the wife see that she reverence her husband.

CHAP. VI.

1 The duty of children towards their parents: 5 Of servants towards their masters. 10 Our life is a warfare, 12 not onely against flesh and blood, but also spirituall enemies. 13 The compleat armour of a Christian, 18 and how it ought to be used. 21 Tychicus is commended.

Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.
2 Honour thy father and mother, (which is the first commandment with promise)
3 That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.
4 And ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.
5 Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singlenesse of your heart, as unto Christ:
6 Not with eye-service, as men-pleasers, but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart:
7 With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men,
8 Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free.
9 And ye masters, do the same things unto them, ‖ forbearing threatening: knowing that ‖ your master also is in heaven, neither is there respect of persons with him.
10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.
11 Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.
12 For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkenesse of this world, against ‖ spirituall wickednesse in ‖ high places.
13 Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and ‖ having done all, to stand.
14 Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the brest-plate of righteousnesse:
15 And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace.
16 Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.
17 And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God:
18 Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance, and supplication for all saints,
19 And for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mysterie of the gospel:
20 For which I am an embassadour ‖ in bonds, that ‖ therein I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.
21 But that ye also may know my affairs, and how I do, Tychicus a beloved brother, and faithfull minister in the Lord, shall make known to you all things, 22 Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that ye might know our affairs, and that he might comfort your hearts.
23 Peace be to the brethren, and love with faith from God the Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.
24 Grace be with all them that love our Lord Jesus Christ ‖ in sincerity. Amen.

¶ Written from Rome unto the Ephesians, by Tychicus.

¶ THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE apostle to the PHILIPPIANS.

CHAP. I.

1 He testifieth his thankfulnesse to God, and his love toward them, for the fruits of their faith and fellowship in his sufferings, 9 daily praying to him for their increase in grace: 12 He sheweth what good the faith of Christ had received by his troubles at Rome, 21 and how ready he is to glorifie Christ, either by his life or death, 27 exhorting them to unity, 28 and to fortitude in persecution.

PAul and Timotheus the servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus, which are at Philippi, with the bishops and deacons:
2 Grace be unto you, and peace from God our father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.
3 I thank my God upon every ‖ remembrance of you,
4 Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy,
5 For your fellowship in the gospel, from the first day until now;
6 Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you, ‖ will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ:
7 Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because I ‖ have you in my heart, in as much as both in my bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are ‖ partakers of my grace.
8 For God is my record, how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ.
9 And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge, & in all ‖ judgement:
10 That ye may ‖ approve things that ‖ are excellent, that ye may be sincere, and without offence till the day of Christ, 11 Being filled with the fruits of righteousnesse, which are by Jesus Christ unto the glory and praise of God.

‖ Or, mention.

12 But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me, have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel:

13 So that my bonds ‖ in Christ are manifest in all the palace, and ‖ in all other places.

14 And many of the brethren in the Lord waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

15 Some indeed preach Christ, even of envie and strife, and some also of good will.

16 The one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to adde affliction to my bonds:

17 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel.

18 What then? notwithstanding every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Christ is preached, and I therein do rejoyce, yea, and will rejoyce.

19 For I know that this shall turn to my salvation, through your prayer, and the supply of the spirit of Jesus Christ,

20 According to my earnest expectation and my hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed: but that with all boldnesse, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death.

21 For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

22 But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall chuse, I wot not:

23 For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ, which is far better.

24 Nevertheless, to abide in the flesh is more needfull for you.

25 And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all, for your furtherance and joy of faith,

26 That your rejoycing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ for me, by my coming to you again.

27 Onely let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ, that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit with one minde, striving together for the faith of the gospel;

28 And in nothing terrified by your adversaries, which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of salvation, and that of God.

29 For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not onely to beleeve on him, but also to suffer for his sake,

30 Having the same conflict which ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

CHAP. II.

He exhorteth them to unity, and to all humblenesse of minde, by the example of Christs humility and exaltation: 12 to a carefull proceeding in the way of salvation, that they be as lights to the wicked world, 16 and comforts to him their apostle, who is now ready to be offered up to God. 19 He hopeth to send Timothy to them, whom he greatly commendeth, 25 as Epaphroditus also, whom he presently sendeth to them.

1 If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies;

2 Fulfill ye my joy, that ye be like minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one minde.

3 Let nothing be done through strife, or vainglory, but in lowlinesse of minde let each esteem other better then themselves.

4 Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.

5 Let this minde be in you, which also was in Christ Jesus:

6 Who being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equall with God:

7 But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the ‖ likenesse of men.

‖ Or, habit.

8 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the crosse.

9 Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a Name, which is above every name:

10 That at the Name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth:

11 And that every tongue should confesse that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

12 Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have alwayes obeyed, not as in my presence onely, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.

13 For it is God which worketh in you, both to will and to do, of his good pleasure.

14 Do all things without murmurings, and disputings:

15 That ye may be blamelesse, and ‖ harmelesse, the sons of God, without rebuke in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ‖ ye shine as lights in the world:

‖ Or, sincere.

‖ Or, shine ye.

16 Holding forth the word of life, that I may rejoyce in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain.

17 Yea, and if I be † offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy and rejoyce with you all.

† Gr. poured forth,

18 For the same cause also do ye joy and rejoyce with me.

19 ‖ But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timotheus shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.

‖ Or, moreover.

20 For I have no man ‖ like minded, who will naturally care for your state.

‖ Or, so dear

21 For all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christs.

22 But ye know the proof of him, that as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the gospel.

23 Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me.

24 But I trust in the Lord, that I also my self shall come shortly.

25 Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother, and companion in labour, and fellow-souldier, but your messenger, and he that ministred to my wants.

26 For he longed after you all, and was full of heavinesse, because that ye had heard that he had been sick.

27 For indeed he was sick, nigh unto death, but God had mercy on him: and not on him onely, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.

28 I sent him therefore the more carefully, that when ye see him again, ye may rejoyce, and that I may be the lesse sorrowfull.

29 Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladnesse, and ‖ hold such in reputation:

‖ Or, honour such.

30 Because for the work of Christ he was nigh unto death, not regarding his life, to supply your lack of service toward me.

CHAP. III.

1 He warneth them to beware of the false teachers of the circumcision. 4 Shewing that himself hath greater cause then they to trust in the righteous-

neſſe of the law: 7 which notwithſtanding he counteth dung and loſſe, to gain Chriſt and his righteouſneſſe, 12 therein acknowledging his own imperfection. 15 He exhorteth them to be thus minded, 17 and to imitate him, 18 and to decline the wayes of carnall Chriſtians.

FInally, my brethren, rejoyce in the Lord. To write the ſame things to you, to me indeed is not grievous: but for you it is ſafe.

2 Beware of dogs, beware of evil workers, beware of the conciſion,

3 For we are the circumciſion, which worſhip God in the ſpirit, and rejoyce in Chriſt Jeſus, and have no confidence in the fleſh.

4 Though I might alſo have confidence in the fleſh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might truſt in the fleſh, I more:

5 Circumciſed the eight day, of the ſtock of Iſrael, of the tribe of Benjamin, an Hebrew of the Hebrews, as touching the law, a Phariſee:

6 Concerning zeal, perſecuting the church: touching the righteouſneſſe which is in the law, blameleſſe.

7 But what things were gain to me, thoſe I counted loſſe for Chriſt.

8 Yea doubtleſſe, and I count all things but loſſe, for the excellency of the knowledge of Chriſt Jeſus my Lord: for whom I have ſuffered the loſſe of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Chriſt,

9 And be found in him, not having mine own righteouſneſſe, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Chriſt, the righteouſneſſe which is of God by faith:

10 That I may know him, and the power of his reſurrection, and the fellowſhip of his ſufferings, being made conformable unto his death,

11 If by any means I might attain unto the reſurrection of the dead.

12 Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which alſo I am apprehended of Chriſt Jeſus.

13 Brethren, I count not my ſelf to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting thoſe things which are behinde, and reaching forth unto thoſe things which are before,

14 I preſſe toward the mark for the price of the high calling of God in Chriſt Jeſus.

15 Let us therefore, as many as be perfect, be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwiſe minded, God ſhall reveal even this unto you.

16 Nevertheleſſe, whereto we have already attained, let us walk by the ſame rule, let us minde the ſame thing.

17 Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark them which walk ſo, as ye have us for an enſample.

18 (For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the croſſe of Chriſt:

19 Whoſe end is deſtruction, whoſe God is their belly, and whoſe glory is in their ſhame, who minde earthly things.)

20 For our converſation is in heaven, from whence alſo we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jeſus Chriſt:

21 Who ſhall change our vile body, that it may be faſhioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to ſubdue all things unto himſelf.

CHAP. IIII.

1 From particular admonitions, 4 he proceedeth to generall exhortations, 10 ſhewing how he rejoiced at their liberality towards him lying in priſon, not ſo much for the ſupply of his own want, as for the grace of God in them, 13 And ſo he concludeth with prayer and ſalutations.

THerefore, my brethren, dearly beloved, and longed for, my joy and crown, ſo ſtand faſt in the Lord, my dearly beloved.

2 I beſeech Euodias, and beſeech Syntiche, that they be of the ſame minde in the Lord.

3 And I intreat thee alſo, true yoke-fellow, help thoſe women which laboured with me in the goſpel, with Clement alſo, and with other my fellow-labourers, whoſe names are in the book of life.

4 Rejoyce in the Lord alway: and again I ſay, Rejoyce.

5 Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand.

6 Be carefull for nothing: but in every thing by prayer and ſupplication with thankſgiving, let your requeſt be made known unto God.

7 And the peace of God, which paſſeth all underſtanding, ſhall keep your hearts and minds through Chriſt Jeſus.

8 Finally, brethren, whatſoever things are true, whatſoever things are ‖ honeſt, whatſoever things are juſt, whatſoever things are pure, whatſoever things are lovely, whatſoever things are of good report; if there be any vertue, and if there be any praiſe, think on theſe things.

9 Thoſe things which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and ſeen in me, do: and the God of peace ſhall be with you.

10 But I rejoyced in the Lord greatly, that now at the laſt your care of me ‖ hath flouriſhed again, wherein ye were alſo carefull, but ye lacked opportunity.

11 Not that I ſpeak in reſpect of want: for I have learned in whatſoever ſtate I am, therewith to be content.

12 I know both how to be abaſed, and I know how to abound: every where, and in all things I am inſtructed, both to be full, and to be hungry, both to abound, and to ſuffer need.

13 I can do all things through Chriſt which ſtrengtheneth me.

14 Notwithſtanding, ye have well done, that ye did communicate with my affliction.

15 Now, ye Philippians, know alſo, that in the beginning of the goſpel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church communicated with me, as concerning giving and receiving, but ye onely.

16 For even in Theſſalonica, ye ſent once and again unto my neceſſity.

17 Not becauſe I deſire a gift: but I deſire fruit that may abound to your account.

18 But ‖ I have all, and abound, I am full, having received of Epaphroditus the things which were ſent from you, an odour of a ſweet ſmel, a ſacrifice acceptable, well pleaſing to God.

19 But my God ſhall ſupply all your need, according to his riches in glory by Chriſt Jeſus.

20 Now unto God, and our Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

21 Salute every ſaint in Chriſt Jeſus: the brethren which are with me, greet you.

22 All the ſaints ſalute you, chiefly they that are of Cæſars houſhold.

23 The grace of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt be with you all. Amen.

¶ THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE apostle to the COLOSSIANS.

CHAP. I.

1 After salutation he thanketh God for their faith, 7 confirmeth the doctrine of Epaphras, 9 prayeth further for their increase in grace, 14 describeth the true Christ, 21 encourageth them to receive Jesus Christ, and commendeth his own ministery.

PAul an apostle of Jesus Christ, by the will of God, and Timotheus our brother,

2 To the saints and faithfull brethren in Christ, which are at Colosse: Grace be unto you, and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We give thanks to God, and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you,

4 Since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye have to all the saints,

5 For the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel,

6 Which is come unto you, as it is in all the world, and bringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew the grace of God in truth,

7 As ye also learned of Epaphras our dear fellow-servant, who is for you a faithfull minister of Christ:

8 Who also declared unto us your love in the spirit.

9 For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will, in all wisdom & spirituall understanding:

10 That ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitfull in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God:

11 Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, unto all patience and long suffering with joyfulnesse:

12 Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light:

13 Who hath delivered us from the power of darknesse, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son,

14 In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveneſſe of ſins:

15 Who is the image of the invisible God, the first-born of every creature.

16 For by him were all things created that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him.

17 * And he is before all things, and by him all things consist.

18 And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the first-born from the dead, that ‖ in all things he might have the preeminence:

19 For it pleased the Father, that in him should all fulneſſe dwell,

20 And (‖ having made peace through the blood of his crosse) by him to reconcile all things unto himself, by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven.

21 And you that were ſometimes alienated, and enemies ‖ in your minde by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled,

22 In the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and unblameable, and unreproveable in his ſight,

23 If ye continue in the faith grounded and ſetled, and be not moved away from the hope of the gospel, which ye have heard, and which was preached to every creature which is under heaven, whereof I Paul am made a minister.

24 Who now rejoyce in my ſufferings for you, and fill up that which is behinde of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh, for his bodies ſake which is the church,

25 Whereof I am made a minister, according to the diſpenſation of God, which is given to me for you, ‖ to fulfill the word of God: ‖ Or, fully to preach the word of God.

26 Even the mystery which hath been hid from ages, and from generations, but now is made manifeſt to his saints.

27 To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles, which is Christ ‖ in you the hope of glory. ‖ Or, amongſt you.

28 Whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wiſdom, that we may preſent every man perfect in Christ Jesus.

29 Whereunto I also labour, ſtriving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily.

CHAP. II.

1 He ſtill exhorteth them to be conſtant in Christ, 8 to beware of philoſophie, and vain traditions, 18 worſhipping of angels, 20 and legall ceremonies, which are ended in Christ.

FOr I would that ye knew what great ‖ conflict I have for you, and for them at Laodicea, and for as many as have not ſeen my face in the flesh: ‖ Or, fear, or care.

2 That their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the full aſſurance of underſtanding, to the acknowledgement of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ,

3 ‖ In whom are hid all the treaſures of wiſdom and knowledge. ‖ Or, wherein.

4 And this I say, leſt any man ſhould beguile you with entiſing words.

5 For though I be abſent in the flesh: yet am I with you in the ſpirit, joying and beholding your order, and the ſtedfaſtneſſe of your faith in Christ.

6 As you have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, ſo walk ye in him:

7 Rooted and built up in him, and ſtablished in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thankſgiving.

8 Beware leſt any man ſpoil you through philoſophie and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the ‖ rudiments of the world, and not after Christ: ‖ Or, elements.

9 For in him dwelleth all the fulneſſe of the Godhead bodily.

10 And ye are compleat in him, which is the head of all principality and power.

11 In whom alſo ye are circumciſed with the circumciſion made without hands, in putting off the body of the ſins of the flesh, by the circumciſion of Christ:

12 Buried with him in baptiſme, wherein alſo you are riſen with him, through the faith of the operation of God, who hath raiſed him from the dead.

13 And you being dead in your sins, and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses,

14 Blotting out the hand-writing of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his crosse:

15 And having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them ‖ in it.

‖ Or, in himself.

16 Let no man therefore judge you ‖ in meat, or in drink, or ‖ in respect of an holy day, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath-dayes:

‖ Or, for eating & drinking

17 Which are a shadow of things to come, but the body is of Christ.

18 Let no man ‖ beguile you of your reward, † in a voluntary humility, and worshipping of angels, intruding into those things which he hath not seen, vainly puft up by his fleshly minde;

‖ Or, in part.

† Or, Judge against you

† Greek being a voluntary in humility.

19 And not holding the head, from which all the body by joynts and bands having nourishment ministred, and knit together, increaseth with the increase of God.

20 Wherefore if ye be dead with Christ from the ‖ rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, are ye subject to ordinances?

‖ Or, elements.

21 (Touch not, taste not, handle not;

22 Which all are to perish with the using) after the commandments and doctrines of men?

23 Which things have indeed a shew of wisdom in will-worship, and humility, and ‖ neglecting of the body, not in any honour to the satisfying of the flesh.

‖ Or, punishing, [or,] not sparing.

CHAP. III.

1 He sheweth where we should seek Christ. 5 He exhorteth to mortification. 10 to put off the old man, and to put on Christ. 12 exhorting to charity, humility, and other severall duties.

IF ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.

2 Set your ‖ affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

‖ Or, minde.

3 For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.

4 When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory.

5 Mortifie therefore your members which are upon the earth: fornication, uncleanesse, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousnesse, which is idolatry:

6 For which things sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience,

7 In the which ye also walked sometime, when ye lived in them.

8 But now, you also put off all these, anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth.

9 Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds;

10 And have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge, after the image of him that created him.

11 Where there is neither Greek, nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond, nor free: but Christ is all, and in all.

12 Put on therefore (as the elect of God, holy and beloved) bowels of mercies, kindnesse, humblenesse of minde, meeknesse, long-suffering, 13 Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a ‖ quarrell against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye.

‖ Or, complaint

14 And above all these things put on charity, which is the bond of perfectnesse.

15 And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankfull.

16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom, teaching, and admonishing one another in psalms, and hymns, and spirituall songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.

17 And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the Name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him.

18 Wives, submit your selves unto your own husbands, as it is fit in the Lord.

19 Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter against them.

20 Children, obey your parents in all things, for this is well-pleasing unto the Lord.

21 Fathers, provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged.

22 Servants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh: not with eye-service, as men-pleasers, but in singlenesse of heart, fearing God:

23 And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men:

24 Knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ.

25 But he that doth wrong, shall receive for the wrong which he hath done: and there is no respect of persons.

CHAP. IIII.

1 He exhorteth them to be fervent in prayer, 5 to walk wisely toward them that are not yet come to the true knowledge of Christ: 10 He salutes them, and wisheth them all prosperity.

MAsters, give unto your servants that which is just and equall, knowing that ye also have a master in heaven.

2 Continue in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving:

3 Withall praying also for us, that God would open unto us a dore of utterance, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds:

4 That I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak.

5 Walk in wisdom toward them that are without, redeeming the time.

6 Let your speech be alway with grace, seasoned with salt, that you may know how ye ought to answer every man.

7 All my state shall Tychicus declare unto you, who is a beloved brother, and a faithfull minister, and fellow servant in the Lord:

8 Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that he might know your estate, and comfort your hearts,

9 With Onesimus, a faithfull and beloved brother, who is one of you. They shall make known unto you all things which are done here.

10 Aristarchus my fellow-prisoner saluteth you, and Marcus, sisters son to Barnabas, (touching whom ye received commandments; if he come unto you, receive him.)

11 And Jesus, which is called Justus, who are of the circumcision. These onely are my fellow-workers unto the kingdom of God, which have been a comfort unto me.

12 Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of ‖ Christ, saluteth you, alwayes ‖ labouring fervently for you in prayers, that ye may stand perfect, and ‖ compleat in all the will of God.

13 For I bear him record, that he hath a great zeal for you, and them that are in Laodicea, and them in Hierapolis.

14 Luke the beloved physician, and Demas greet you.

15 Salute the brethren which are in Laodicea, and and Nymphas, and the church which is in his house.

16 And when this epistle is read among you, cause that it be read also in the church of the Laodiceans: and that ye likewise read the epistle from Laodicea.

17 And say to Archippus, Take heed to the ministery which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfill it.

18 The salutation by the hand of me Paul. Remember my bonds. Grace be with you. Amen.

¶ Written from Rome to the Colossians, by Tychicus and Onesimus.

¶ THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL the apostle to the THESSALONIANS.

CHAP. I.

1 The Thessalonians are given to understand both how mindefull of them saint Paul was at all times in thanksgiving and prayer, 5 and also how well he was perswaded of the truth and sincerity of their faith, and conversion to God.

PAul and Sylvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians, which is in God the Father, and in the Lord Jesus Christ: grace be unto you, and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers,

3 Remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and labour of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father:

4 Knowing, brethren ‖ beloved, your election of God.

5 For our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in the holy Ghost, and in much assurance, as ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake.

6 And ye became followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the holy Ghost:

7 So that ye were ensamples to all that believe in Macedonia and Achaia.

8 For from you sounded out the word of the Lord, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith to God-ward is spread abroad, so that we need not to speak any thing.

9 For they themselves shew of us, what manner of entering in we had unto you, and how ye turned to God from idols, to serve the living and true God,

10 And to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, which delivered us from the wrath to come.

CHAP. II.

1 In what manner the gospel was brought and preached to the Thessalonians, and in what sort also they received it, 18 A reason is rendered, both why saint Paul was so long absent from them, and also why he was so desirous to see them.

FOr your selves, brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain.

2 But even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully intreated, as ye know, at Philippi, we were bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of our God with much contention.

3 For our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile:

4 But as we were allowed of God to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak, not as pleasing men, but God, which trieth our hearts.

5 For neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloak of covetousness, God is witness:

6 Nor of men sought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, when we might have ‖ been burdensome, as the apostles of Christ.

7 But we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children:

8 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own souls, because ye were dear unto us.

9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for labouring night and day, because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.

10 Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily, and justly, and unblameably we behaved our selves among you that believe:

11 As you know, how we exhorted, and comforted, and charged every one of you (as a father doth his children)

12 That ye would walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.

13 For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because when ye received the word of God, which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but (as it is in truth) the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe.

14 For ye, brethren, became followers of the churches of God, which in Judea are in Christ Jesus: for ye also have suffered like things of your own countrey-men, even as they have of the Jews:

15 Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and their own prophets, and have ‖ persecuted us: and they please not God, and are contrary to all men: ‖ Or, chased us out.

16 Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles, that they might be saved, to fill up their sins always: for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

17 But we, brethren, being taken from you for a short time, in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more abundantly to see your face with great desire.

18 Wherefore we would have come unto you, (even I Paul) once and again: but Satan hindered us.

19 For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of ‖ rejoycing? Are not even ye, in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming? ‖ Or, glorying.

20 For ye are our glory and joy.

CHAP. III.

1 Saint Paul testifieth his great love to the Thessalonians, partly by sending Timothie unto them to strengthen and comfort them: partly by rejoycing in their well-doing: 10 and partly by praying for them, and desiring a safe coming unto them.

WHerefore when we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to be left at Athens alone:

2 And sent Timotheus, our brother and minister of God, and our fellow-labourer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith:

3 That no man should be moved by these afflictions:

afflictions: for your ſelves know, that we are appointed thereunto.

4 For verily when we were with you, we told you before, that we ſhould ſuffer tribulation, even as it came to paſſe, and ye know.

5 For this cauſe, when I could no longer forbear, I ſent to know your faith, leſt by ſome meanes the tempter have tempted you, and our labour be in vain.

6 But now when Timotheus came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and charity, and that ye have good remembrance of us alwayes, deſiring greatly to ſee us, as we alſo to ſee you:

7 Therefore, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our affliction and diſtreſſe, by your faith:

* Rom. 7. 9. 8 For now we * live, if ye ſtand faſt in the Lord.

9 For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your ſakes before our God,

10 Night and day praying exceedingly that we might ſee your face, and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now God himſelf and our Father, and our Lord Jeſus Chriſt ‖ direct our way unto you.

‖ Or, guide. 12 And the Lord make you to increaſe and abound in love one towards another, and towards all men, even as we do towards you:

13 To the end he may eſtabliſh your hearts unblameable in holineſſe before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt with all his ſaints.

CHAP. IIII.

6 He exhorteth them to go on forward in all manner of godlineſſe, to live holily and juſtly, 9 to love one another, 11 and quietly to follow their own buſineſſe, 13 and laſt of all to ſorrow moderately for the dead. 17 And unto this laſt exhortation is annexed a briefe deſcription of the reſurrection and ſecond coming of Chriſt to judgement.

‖ Or, requeſt. ‖ Or, beſeech. FUrthermore then we ‖ beſeech you, brethren, and ‖ exhort you by the Lord Jeſus, that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk, and to pleaſe God, ſo ye would abound more and more.

2 For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jeſus.

3 For this is the will of God, even your ſanctification, that ye ſhould abſtain from fornication:

4 That every one of you ſhould know how to poſſeſſe his veſſell in ſanctification and honour:

5 Not in the luſt of concupiſcence, even as the Gentiles which know not God:

‖ Or, oppreſſe, or overreach. 6 That no man go beyond and ‖ defraud his brother ‖ in any matter, becauſe that the Lord is the avenger of all ſuch, as we alſo have forewarned you, and teſtified:

‖ Or, In the matter. 7 For God hath not called us unto uncleanneſſe, but unto holineſſe.

‖ Or, rejecteth. 8 He therefore that ‖ deſpiſeth, deſpiſeth not man, but God, who hath alſo given unto us his holy Spirit.

9 But as touching brotherly love, ye need not that I write unto you: for ye your ſelves are taught of God to love one another.

10 And indeed ye do it towards all the brethren which are in all Macedonia: but we beſeech you, brethren, that ye increaſe more and more:

11 And that ye ſtudy to be quiet, and to do your own buſineſſe, and to work with your own hands (as we commanded you)

12 That ye may walk honeſtly toward them that are without, and that ye may have lack of nothing.

13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are aſleep, that ye ſorrow not, even as others which have no hope.

14 For if we beleeve that Jeſus died, and roſe again; even ſo them alſo which ſleep in Jeſus will God bring with him.

15 For this we ſay unto you by the word of the Lord, That we which are alive, and remain unto the coming of the Lord, ſhall not prevent them which are aſleep.

16 For the Lord himſelf ſhall deſcend from heaven with a ſhout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Chriſt ſhall riſe firſt.

17 Then we which are alive and remain ſhall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and ſo ſhall we ever be with the Lord.

18 Wherefore ‖ comfort one another with theſe words.

CHAP. V.

1 He proceedeth in the former deſcription of Chriſts coming to judgement, 16 and giveth divers precepts, 22 and ſo concludeth the epiſtle.

BUt of the times and the ſeaſons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you.

2 For your ſelves know perfectly, that the day of the Lord ſo cometh as a thief in the night.

3 For when they ſhall ſay, Peace and ſafety: then ſudden deſtruction cometh upon them, as travell upon a woman with childe, and they ſhall not eſcape.

4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkneſſe, that that day ſhould overtake you as a thief.

5 Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkneſſe.

6 Therefore let us not ſleep, as do others: but let us watch and be ſober.

7 For they that ſleep, ſleep in the night: and they that be drunken, are drunken in the night.

8 But let us who are of the day be ſober, putting on the breſt-plate of faith and love, and for an helmet, the hope of ſalvation.

9 For God hath not appointed us to wrath: but to obtain ſalvation by our Lord Jeſus Chriſt,

10 Who died for us, that whether we wake or ſleep, we ſhould live together with him.

11 Wherefore ‖ comfort your ſelves together, and edifie one another, even as alſo ye do. ‖ Or, exhort

12 And we beſeech you, brethren, to know them which labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admoniſh you;

13 And to eſteem them very highly in love for their works ſake, and be at peace among your ſelves.

14 Now we ‖ exhort you, brethren, warn them that are ‖ unruly, comfort the feeble minded, ſupport the weak, be patient toward all men. ‖ Or, diſorderly.

15 See that none render evil for evil unto any man: but ever follow that which is good, both among your ſelves, and to all men, 16 Rejoyce evermore.

17 Pray without ceaſing.

18 In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Chriſt Jeſus concerning you.

19 Quench not the Spirit.

20 Deſpiſe not prophecyings.

21 Prove all things: hold faſt that which is good.

22 Abſtain from all appearance of evil.

23 And

23 And the very God of peace sanctifie you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul, and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

24 Faithfull is he that calleth you, who also will do it.

25 Brethren, pray for us.

26 Greet all the brethren with an holy kisse.

27 I ‖ charge you by the Lord, that this epistle be read unto all the holy brethren. ‖ Or, adjure.

28 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

¶ The first epistle unto the Thessalonians, was written from Athens.

¶ THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL the apostle to the THESSALONIANS.

CHAP. I.

Saint Paul certifieth them of the good opinion which he had of their faith, love, and patience: and therewithall useth divers reasons for the comforting of them in persecution, whereof the chiefest is taken from the righteous judgement of God.

PAul and Sylvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians, in God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ:

2 Grace unto you, and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We are bound to thank God alwaies for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all towards each other aboundeth:

4 So that we our selves glory in you in the churches of God, for your patience and faith in all your persecutions, and tribulations that ye endure:

5 Which is a manifest token of the righteous judgement of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer:

6 Seeing it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you:

7 And to you who are troubled, rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels,

8 In flaming fire, ‖ taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ,

9 Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power:

10 When he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day.

11 Wherefore also we pray alwaies for you, that our God would ‖ count you worthy of this calling, and fulfill all the good pleasure of his goodnesse, and the work of faith with power:

12 That the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

CHAP. II.

He willeth them to continue stedfast in the truth received, 3 sheweth that there shall be a departure from the faith, 9 and a discovery of antichrist before the day of the Lord come, 15 and thereupon repeateth his former exhortation, and prayeth for them.

NOw we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto him,

2 That ye be not soon shaken in minde, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter, as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand.

3 Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition,

4 Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped: so that he as God, sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God.

5 Remember ye not, that when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

6 And now ye know what ‖ withholdeth, that he might be revealed in his time. ‖ Or, holdeth.

7 For the mystery of iniquity doth already work; only he who now letteth, will let, until he be taken out of the way.

8 And then shall that wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightnesse of his coming:

9 Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan, with all power, and signes, and lying wonders,

10 And with all deceivableness of unrighteousnesse in them that perish: because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

11 And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie:

12 That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousnesse.

13 But we are bound to give thanks alway to God for you, brethren, beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation, through sanctification of the spirit, and belief of the truth,

14 Whereunto he called you by our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of the Lord Jesus Christ.

15 Therefore, brethren, stand fast, and hold the traditions which ye have been taught, whether by word, or our epistle.

16 Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God even our Father, which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation, and good hope through grace, 17 Comfort your hearts, and stablish you in every good word and work.

CHAP. III.

He craveth their prayers for himself, 3 testifieth what confidence he hath in them, 5 maketh request to God in their behalf, 6 giveth them divers precepts, especially to shun idlenesse and ill company, 16 and last of all concludeth with prayer and salutation.

FInally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord † may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you: † Gr. may run.

2 And that we may be delivered from † unreasonable and wicked men: for all men have not faith. † Greek absurd.

3 But the Lord is faithfull, who shall stablish you, and keep you from evil.

4 And

4 And we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do, and will do the things which we command you.

5 And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into ‖ the patient waiting for Chriſt.

‖ Or, the patience of

6 Now we command you, brethren, in the Name of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, that ye withdraw your ſelves from every brother that walketh diſorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us.

7 For your ſelves know how ye ought to follow us: for we behaved not our ſelves diſorderly among you,

8 Neither did we eate any mans bread for nought: but wrought with labour and travell night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you.

9 Not becauſe we have not power, but to make our ſelves an enſample unto you to follow us.

10 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither ſhould he eat.

11 For we hear that there are ſome which walk among you diſorderly, working not at all, but are buſie-bodies.

12 Now them that are ſuch, we command, and exhort by our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, that with quietneſſe they work, and eat their own bread.

13 But ye, brethren, ‖ be not weary in well doing.

14 And if any man obey not our word, by this epiſtle, ‖ note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be aſhamed:

15 Yet count him not as an enemie, but admonish him as a brother.

16 Now the Lord of peace himſelf give you peace alwaies, by all means. The Lord be with you all.

17 The ſalutation of Paul, with mine own hand, which is the token in every epiſtle: ſo I write.

18 The grace of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt be with you all. Amen.

¶ The ſecond epiſtle to the Theſſalonians was written from Athens.

¶ THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL the apoſtle to TIMOTHIE.

CHAP. I.

Timothie is put in minde of the charge which was given unto him by Paul at his going to Macedonia. 5 Of the right uſe and end of the law. 11 Of Saint Pauls calling to be an apoſtle, 20 and of Hymeneus and Alexander.

PAul an apoſtle of Jeſus Chriſt by the commandment of God our Saviour, and Lord Jeſus Chriſt, which is our hope,

2 Unto Timothie my own ſon in the faith: grace, mercy, and peace from God our Father, and Jeſus Chriſt our Lord.

3 As I beſought thee to abide ſtill at Epheſus, when I went into Macedonia, that thou mighteſt charge ſome that they teach no other doctrine:

4 Neither give heed to fables, and endleſſe genealogies, which miniſter queſtions, rather then godly edifying, which is in faith: ſo do.

5 Now the end of the commandment is charity, out of a pure heart, and of a good conſcience, and of faith unfeigned.

6 From which ſome ‖ having ſwerved, have turned aſide unto vain jangling,

‖ Or, not aiming at.

7 Deſiring to be teachers of the law, underſtanding neither what they ſay, nor whereof they affirm.

8 But we know that the law is good, if a man uſe it lawfully,

9 Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawleſſe and diſobedient, for the ungodly, and for ſinners, for unholy, and profane, for murderers of fathers, and murderers of mothers, for man-ſlayers,

10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themſelves with mankinde, for men-ſtealers, for liars, for perjured perſons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to ſound doctrine,

11 According to the glorious goſpel of the bleſſed God, which was committed to my truſt.

12 And I thank Chriſt Jeſus our Lord, who hath enabled me; for that he counted me faithfull, putting me into the miniſtery, 13 Who was before a blaſphemer, and a perſecutour, and injurious. But I obtained mercy, becauſe I did it ignorantly in unbelief.

14 And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant, with faith, and love, which is in Chriſt Jeſus.

15 This is a faithfull ſaying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Chriſt Jeſus came into the world to ſave ſinners, of whom I am chief.

16 Howbeit, for this cauſe I obtained mercy, that in me firſt Jeſus Chriſt might ſhew forth all long-ſuffering, for a patern to them which ſhould hereafter believe on him to life everlaſting.

17 Now unto the King eternall, immortall, inviſible, the onely wiſe God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

18 This charge I commit unto thee, ſon Timothie, according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mighteſt war a good warfare,

19 Holding faith and a good conſcience, which ſome having put away, concerning faith have made ſhipwrack.

20 Of whom is Hymeneus and Alexander, whom I have delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaſpheme.

CHAP. II.

That it is meet to pray and give thanks for all men, and the reaſon why. 9 How women ſhould be attired. 12 They are not permitted to teach. 15 They ſhall be ſaved, notwithſtanding the teſtimonies of Gods wrath in childbirth, if they continue in faith.

I ‖ Exhort therefore, that firſt of all ſupplications, prayers, interceſſions, and giving of thanks be made for all men;

2 For kings, and for all that are in ‖ authority, that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godlineſſe and honeſty.

3 For this is good and acceptable in the ſight of God our Saviour,

4 Who will have all men to be ſaved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.

5 For there is one God, and one Mediatour between God and men, the man Chriſt Jeſus,

6 Who gave himſelf a ranſom for all, ‖ to be teſtified in due time.

7 Whereunto I am ordained a preacher, and an apoſtle (I ſpeak the truth in Chriſt, and lie not) a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and verity.

8 I will therefore that men pray every where lifting

...ting up holy hands, without wrath, and doubting.
8 In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparell, with shamefastnesse and sobriety: not with broidered hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly aray,
10 But (which becometh women professing godlinesse) with good works.
11 Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection.
12 But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence:
13 For Adam was first formed, then Eve:
14 And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression.
15 Notwithstanding, she shall be saved in childebearing, if they continue in faith, and charity, and holinesse, with sobriety.

CHAP. III.

Bishops, and deacons, and their wives should be unblameable, 14 and to what end saint Paul wrote to Timothie of these things. 15 Of the church, and the blessed truth therein taught and professed.

THis is a true saying, If a man desire the office of a bishop, he desireth a good work.
2 A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach:
3 Not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre, but patient, not a brawler, not covetous:
4 One that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity:
5 (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?)
6 Not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride, he fall into the condemnation of the devil.
7 Moreover, he must have a good report of them which are without, lest he fall into reproach, and the snare of the devil.
8 Likewise must the deacons be grave, not doubletongued, not given to much wine, nor greedy of filthy lucre, 9 Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience.
10 And let these also first be proved, then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless.
11 Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithfull in all things.
12 Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children, and their own houses well.
13 For they that have used the office of a deacon well, purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldnes in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.
14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly.
15 But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thy self in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ‖ ground of the truth.
16 And without controversie great is the mystery of godlinesse: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory.

CHAP. IIII.

He foreseeth that in the latter times there shall be a departure from the faith. 6 And to the end that Timothy might not fail in doing his duty, he furnisheth him with divers precepts belonging thereto

NOw the spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils,
2 Speaking lies in hypocrisie, having their conscience seared with a hot iron.
3 Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth.
4 For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving:
5 For it is sanctified by the word of God, and prayer.
6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith, and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained.
7 But refuse profane and old wives fables, and exercise thy self rather unto godlinesse.
8 For bodily exercise profiteth ‖ little, but godlines is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come. ‖ Or, for a little time.
9 This is a faithfull saying, and worthy of all acceptation:
10 For therefore we both labour, and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe.
11 These things command and teach.
12 Let no man despise thy youth, but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.
13 Till I come give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.
14 Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecie, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery.
15 Meditate upon these things, give thy self wholly to them, that thy profiting may appear ‖ to all. ‖ Or, in all things.
16 Take heed unto thy self, and unto the doctrine: continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thy self, and them that hear thee.

CHAP. V.

1 Rules to be observed in reproving. 3 Of widows. 17 Of elders. 23 A precept for Timothies health. 24 Some mens sins go before unto judgement, and some men do follow after.

REbuke not an elder, but intreat him as a father, and the younger men as brethren:
2 The elder women as mothers, the younger as sisters, with all purity.
3 Honour widows that are widows indeed.
4 But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to shew ‖ piety at home, and to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God. ‖ Or, kindnesse.
5 Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day.
6 But she that liveth ‖ in pleasure, is dead while she liveth. ‖ Or, delicately.
7 And these things give in charge, that they may be blameless.
8 But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own ‖ house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse then an infidell. ‖ Or, hired.
9 Let not a widow be ‖ taken into the number, under threescore yeers old, having been the wife of one man, ‖ Or, chosen.
10 Well reported of for good works, if she have brought up children, if she have lodged strangers, if she have washed the saints feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work.
11 But the younger widows refuse: for when they have begun to wax wanton against Christ, they will marry:
12 Having damnation, because they have cast off their first faith.
13 And withall they learn to be idle, wandring about from house to houses; & not only idle, but tattlers also, & busie bodies, speaking things which they ought not.

14 I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion
Gr. for their railing. 15 to the adversary † to speak reproachfully.
For some are already turned aside after Satan.
16 If any man or woman that beleeveth have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the church be charged, that it may relieve them that are widows indeed.

17 Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine.
* Deut. 25. 4. * Matth. 10. 10. 18 For the scripture saith, * Thou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn: and *the labourer is worthy of his reward.
‖ Or, under. 19 Against an elder receive not an accusation, but ‖ before two or three witnesses.
20 Them that sin, rebuke before all, that others also may fear.

21 I charge thee before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things ‖ without preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality.
‖ Or, without prejudice. 22 Lay hands suddenly on no man, neither be partaker of other mens sins. Keep thy self pure.
23 Drink no longer water, but use a little wine for thy stomachs sake, and thine often infirmities.
24 Some mens sins are open before-hand, going before to judgement: and some men they follow after.
25 Likewise also the good works of some are manifest before-hand, and they that are otherwise, cannot be hid.

CHAP. VI.

1 Of the duty of servants. 3 Not to have fellowship with new fangled teachers. 6 Godlinesse is great gain, 10 and love of money the root of all evil. 11 What Timothy is to flee, and what to follow, 17 and whereof to admonish the rich, 20 to keep the purity of true doctrine, and to avoid profane janglings.

LEt as many servants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour, that the Name of God, and his doctrine be not blasphemed.
‖ Or, beleeving 2 And they that have beleeving masters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren: but rather do them service, because they are ‖ faithfull and beloved, partakers of the benefit: these things teach and exhort.
‖ Or, a fool. ‖ Or, sick. 3 If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesom words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godlinesse:
4 He is ‖ proud, knowing nothing, but ‖ doting about questions, and strifes of words, whereof cometh envie, strife, railings, evil surmisings,
5 ‖ Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godlinesse: from such withdraw thy self.
6 But godlinesse with contentment is great gain.
7 For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out.
8 And having food and raiment, let us be therewith content.
9 But they that will be rich, fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish & hurtfull lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition.
10 For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some covered after, they have ‖ erred from the faith, and pierced themselves thorow with many sorrows.
11 But thou, O man of God, flee these things, and follow after righteousnesse, godlinesse, faith, love, patience, meekenesse.
12 Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.
13 I give thee charge in ℣ sight of God, who quickeneth all things, and before Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate witnessed a good ‖ confession, 14 That thou keep this commandment without spot, unrebukeable, untill the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ.
15 Which in his times he shall shew, who is the blessed and onely Potentate, the King of kings, and Lord of lords:
16 Who onely hath immortality, dwelling in the light, which no man can approach unto, whom no man hath seen, nor can see: to whom be honour and power everlasting. Amen.
17 Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not high minded, nor trust in † uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy,
18 That they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, ‖ willing to communicate,
19 Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternall life.
20 O Timothie, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science, falsly so called:
21 Which some professing, have erred concerning the faith. Grace be with thee. Amen.

¶ The first to Timothy was written from Laodicea, which is the chiefest city of Phrygia Pacaciana.

¶ THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL the apostle to TIMOTHIE.

CHAP. I.

Pauls love to Timothy, and the unfeigned faith which was in Timothie himself, his mother, and grandmother: 6 He is exhorted to stir up the gift of God which was in him, 8 to be stedfast and patient in persecution, 13 and to persist in the form and truth of that doctrine which he had learned of him. 15 Phygellus and Hermogenes, and such like are noted, and Onesiphorus is highly commended.

PAul an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, according to the promise of life, which is in Christ Jesus,
2 To Timothy my dearly beloved son: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father, and Christ Jesus our Lord.
3 I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day,
4 Greatly desiring to see thee, being mindfull of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy,
5 When I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice: and I am perswaded that in thee also.
6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance, that thou stir up the gift of God which is in thee, by the putting on of my hands.
7 For God hath not given us the spirit of fear,

but

her of power, of love, and of a ſound minde.
8 Be not thou therefore aſhamed of the teſtimonie of our Lord, nor of me his priſoner, but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the goſpel, according to the power of God,
9 Who hath ſaved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpoſe and grace, which was given us in Chriſt Jeſus, before the world began,
10 But is now made manifeſt by the appearing of our Saviour Jeſus Chirſt, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the goſpel:
11 Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apoſtle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.
12 For the which cauſe I alſo ſuffer theſe things; nevertheleſſe I am not aſhamed: for I know whom I have ‖ beleeved, and I am perſwaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him againſt that day.
13 Hold faſt the form of ſound words which thou haſt heard of me, in faith and love, which is in Chriſt Jeſus.
14 That good thing which was committed unto thee, keep by the holy Ghoſt which dwelleth in us.
15 This thou knoweſt, that all they which are in Aſia be turned away from me, of whom are Phygellus and Hermogenes.
16 The Lord give mercy unto the houſe of Oneſiphorus, for he oft refreſhed me, and was not aſhamed of my chain.
17 But when he was in Rome, he ſought me out very diligently, and found me.
18 The Lord grant unto him, that he may finde mercy of the Lord in that day: and in how many things he miniſtred unto me at Epheſus, thou knowſt very well.

CHAP. II.

He is exhorted again to conſtancy and perſeverance, and to do the duty of a faithfull ſervant of the Lord, in dividing the word aright, and ſhuning profane and vain bablings. 17 Of Hymeneus and Philetus. 19 The foundation of the Lord is ſure. 22 He is taught whereof to beware, and what to follow after, and in what ſort the ſervant of the Lord ought to behave himſelf.

THou therefore, my ſon, be ſtrong in the grace that is in Chriſt Jeſus.
2 And the things that thou haſt heard of me, among many witneſſes, the ſame commit thou to faithfull men, who ſhall be able to teach others alſo.
3 Thou therefore endure hardneſſe, as a good ſouldier of Jeſus Chriſt.
4 No man that warreth entangleth himſelf with the affairs of this life, that he may pleaſe him who hath choſen him to be a ſouldier.
5 And if a man alſo ſtrive for maſteries, yet is he not crowned, except he ſtrive lawfully.
6 ‖ The huſbandman that laboureth, muſt be firſt partaker of the fruits.
7 Conſider what I ſay, and the Lord give thee underſtanding in all things.
8 Remember that Jeſus Chriſt of the ſeed of David, was raiſed from the dead, according to my goſpel:
9 Wherein I ſuffer trouble as an evil doer, even unto bonds: but the word of God is not bound.
10 Therefore I endure all things for the elects ſakes, that they may alſo obtain the ſalvation which is in Chriſt Jeſus, with eternall glory.
11 It is a faithfull ſaying: for if we be dead with him, we ſhall alſo live with him.
12 If we ſuffer, we ſhall alſo reign with him, if we deny him, he alſo will deny us.
13 If we beleeve not, yet he abideth faithfull, he cannot deny himſelf.
14 Of theſe things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord that they ſtrive not about words to no profit, but to the ſubverting of the hearers.
15 Study to ſhew thy ſelf approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be aſhamed, rightly dividing the word of truth:
16 But ſhun profane and vain bablings, for they will increaſe unto more ungodlineſſe.
17 And their word will eat as doth a ‖ canker; of whom is Hymeneus and Philetus, 18 Who concerning the truth have erred, ſaying that the reſurrection is paſt already, and overthrow the faith of ſome.
19 Nevertheleſſe, the foundation of God ſtandeth † ſure, having this ſeal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And let every one that nameth the Name of Chriſt, depart from iniquity.
20 But in a great houſe there are not onely veſſels of gold, and of ſilver, but alſo of wood, and of earth, and ſome to honour, and ſome to diſhonour.
21 If a man therefore purge himſelf from theſe, he ſhall be a veſſell unto honour, ſanctified, and meet for the maſters uſe, and prepared unto every good work.
22 Flee alſo youthfull luſts: but follow righteouſneſſe, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart.
23 But fooliſh and unlearned queſtions avoid, knowing that they do gender ſtrifes.
24 And the ſervant of the Lord muſt not ſtrive: but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, ‖ patient, 25 In meekneſſe inſtructing thoſe that oppoſe themſelves, if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth.
26 And that they may † recover themſelves out of the ſnare of the devil, who are † taken captive by him at his will.

CHAP. III.

1 He advertiſeth him of the times to come, 6 deſcribeth the enemies of the truth, 10 propoundeth unto him his own example, 16 and commendeth the holy ſcriptures.

THis know alſo, that in the laſt dayes perilous times ſhall come.
2 For men ſhall be lovers of their own ſelves, covetous, boaſters, proud, blaſphemers, diſobedient to parents, unthankfull, unholy,
3 Without naturall affection, truce-breakers, ‖ falſe accuſers, incontinent, fierce, deſpiſers of thoſe that are good,
4 Traitours, heady, high-minded, lovers of pleaſures more then lovers of God,
5 Having a form of godlineſſe, but denying the power thereof: from ſuch turn away.
6 For of this ſort are they which creep into houſes, and lead captive ſilly women laden with ſins, led away with divers luſts,
7 Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.
8 Now as Jannes and Jambres withſtood Moſes, ſo do theſe alſo reſiſt the truth: men of corrupt mindes, ‖ reprobate concerning the faith.
9 But they ſhall proceed no further: for their folly ſhall be manifeſt unto all men, as theirs alſo was.
10 But ‖ thou haſt fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpoſe, faith, long-ſuffering, charity, patience, 11 Perſecutions, afflictions, which came unto me

‖ Or, gangren.
‖ Or, already.
‖ Or, for bearing. † Gr. as the.
† Gr. taken alive.
‖ Or, make baters.
‖ Or, of no judgement.
‖ Or, thou haſt been a diligent follower of.

me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra, what persecutions I endured: but out of them all the Lord delivered me.

12 Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution.

13 But evil men and seducers, shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.

14 But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned, and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them.

15 And that from a childe thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation, through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

16 All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousnesse, 17 That the man of God may be perfect, ‖ throughly furnished unto all good works.

‖ Or, perfected.

CHAP. IIII.

2 He exhorteth him to do his duty with all care and diligence, 6 certifieth him of the nearnesse of his death, 9 willeth him to come speedily unto him, and to bring Marcus with him, and certain other things which he wrote for, 14 warneth him to beware of Alexander the smith. 16 informeth him what had befallen him at his first answering, 19 and soon after he concludeth.

I Charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing, and his kingdom:

2 Preach the word, be instant in season, out of season, reprove, rebuke, exhort with all long-suffering and doctrine.

3 For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine, but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears:

4 And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables.

‖ Or, fulfill.

5 But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, ‖ make full proof of thy ministery.

6 For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand.

7 I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.

8 Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousnesse, which the Lord the righteous Judge shall give me at that day: and not to me onely, but unto them also that love his appearing.

9 Do thy diligence to come shortly unto me:

10 For Demas hath forsaken me, having loved this present world, and is departed unto Thessalonica: Crescens to Galatia, Titus unto Dalmatia.

11 Onely Luke is with me. Take Mark, and bring him with thee: for he is profitable to me for the ministery.

12 And Tychicus have I sent to Ephesus.

13 The cloak that I left at Troas with Carpus, when thou comest, bring with thee, and the books, but especially the parchments.

14 Alexander the coppersmith did me much evil: the Lord reward him according to his works:

15 Of whom be thou ware also, for he hath greatly withstood ‖ our words.

16 At my first answer no man stood with me, but all men forsook me: I pray God, that it may not be laid to their charge.

17 Notwithstanding, the Lord stood with me, and strengthened me, that by me the preaching might be fully known, and that all the Gentiles might hear: and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion.

18 And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

19 Salute Prisca and Aquila, and the houshold of Onesiphorus.

20 Erastus abode at Corinth: but Trophimus have I left at Miletum sick:

21 Do thy diligence to come before winter. Eubulus greeteth thee, and Pudens, and Linus, and Claudia, and all the brethren.

22 The Lord Jesus Christ be with thy spirit. Grace be with you. Amen.

¶ The second epistle unto Timotheus, ordained the first bishop of the church of the Ephesians, was written from Rome, when Paul was brought before Nero the second time.

¶ THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TITUS.

CHAP. I.

3 For what end Titus was left in Crete. 6 How they that are to be chosen ministers, ought to be qualified. 11 The mouthes of evil teachers to be stopped: 12 and what manner of men they be.

PAul a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of Gods elect, and the acknowledging of the truth which is after godlinesse:

2 ‖ In hope of eternal life, which God that cannot lie, promised before the world began:

‖ Or, For.

3 But hath in due times manifested his word through preaching, which is committed unto me, according to the commandment of God our Saviour:

4 To Titus mine own son after the common faith, grace, mercy and peace from God the Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ our Saviour.

5 For this cause left I thee in Creet, that thou shouldest set in order the things that ‖ are wanting, and ordain elders in every city, as I had appointed thee.

‖ Or, lack unfinished.

6 If any be blamelesse, the husband of one wife, having faithfull children, not accused of riot, or unruly.

7 For a bishop must be blamelesse, as the steward of God: not self-willed, not soon angry, not given to wine, no striker, not given unto filthy lucre,

8 But a lover of hospitality, a lover of ‖ good men, sober, just, holy, temperate,

‖ Or, good men.

9 Holding fast the faithfull word, ‖ as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort, and to convince the gain-sayers.

10 For there are many unruly and vain talkers, and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision:

11 Whose mouthes must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucres sake.

12 One of themselves, even a prophet of their own said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.

13 This witnesse is true: wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith, 14 Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth.

15 Unto the pure all things are pure, but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing ning pure: but even their minde and conscience is defiled.

16 They profesſe that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work ‖ reprobate.

CHAP. II.

1 Directions given unto Titus both for his doctrine and life. 9 Of the dutie of ſervants, and in generall of all Chriſtians.

But ſpeak thou the things which become ſound doctrine:

2 That the aged men be ‖ ſober, grave, temperate, ſound in faith, in charity, in patience.

3 The aged women likewiſe, that they be in behaviour as becometh ‖ holineſſe, not ‖ falſe accuſers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things;

4 That they may teach the young women to be ‖ ſober, to love their husbands, to love their children,

5 To be diſcreet, chaſte, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blaſphemed.

6 Young men likewiſe exhort to be ‖ ſoberminded.

7 In all things ſhewing thy ſelf a patern of good works: in doctrine ſhewing uncorruptneſſe, gravity, ſincerity,

8 Sound ſpeech, that cannot be condemned; that he that is of the contrary part may be aſhamed, having no evil thing to ſay of you.

9 Exhort ſervants to be obedient unto their own maſters, and to pleaſe them well in all things, not ‖ anſwering again:

10 Not purloining, but ſhewing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.

11 For the grace of God ‖ that bringeth ſalvation hath appeared to all men,

12 Teaching us, that denying ungodlineſſe and worldly luſts, we ſhould live ſoberly, righteouſly, and godly in this preſent world,

13 Looking for that bleſſed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God, and our Saviour Jeſus Chriſt, 14 Who gave himſelf for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purifie unto himſelf a peculiar people, zealous of good works.

15 Theſe things ſpeak and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man deſpiſe thee.

CHAP. III.

1 Titus is yet further directed by Paul, both concerning the things he ſhould teach, and not teach. 10 He is willed alſo to reject obſtinate hereticks. 12 Which done, he appointeth him both time and place, wherein he ſhould come unto him, and ſo concludeth.

Put them in minde to be ſubject to principalities and powers, to obey magiſtrates, to be ready to every good work,

2 To ſpeak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, ſhewing all meekneſſe unto all men.

3 For we our ſelves alſo were ſometimes fooliſh, diſobedient, deceived, ſerving divers luſts and pleaſures, living in malice and envie, hatefull, and hating one another.

4 But after that the kindneſſe and ‖ love of God our Saviour toward man appeared,

‖ Or, pitie.

5 Not by works of righteouſneſſe which we have done, but according to his mercie he ſaved us, by the waſhing of regeneration, and renewing of the holy Ghoſt,

6 Which he ſhed on us † abundantly, through Jeſus Chriſt our Saviour:

† Greek, richly.

7 That being juſtified by his grace, we ſhould be made heirs according to the hope of eternall life.

8 This is a faithfull ſaying, and theſe things I will that thou affirm conſtantly, that they which have beleeved in God, might be carefull to maintain good works: theſe things are good and profitable unto men.

9 But avoid fooliſh queſtions, and genealogies, and contentions, and ſtrivings about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain.

10 A man that is an heretike, after the firſt and ſecond admonition, reject:

11 Knowing that he that is ſuch, is ſubverted, and ſinneth, being condemned of himſelf.

12 When I ſhall ſend Artemas unto thee, or Tychicus, be diligent to come unto me to Nicopolis: for I have determined there to winter.

13 Bring Zenas the lawyer, and Apollos on their journey diligently, that nothing be wanting unto them.

14 And let ours alſo learn to ‖ maintain good works for neceſſary uſes, that they be not unfruitfull.

15 All that are with me ſalute thee. Greet them that love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO PHILEMON.

1 He rejoyceth to hear of the faith and love of Philemon, 9 whom he deſireth to forgive his ſervant Onesimus, and lovingly to receive him again.

Paul a priſoner of Jeſus Chriſt, and Timothy our brother, unto Philemon our dearly beloved, and fellow-labourer,

2 And to our beloved Apphia, and Archippus our fellow-ſouldier, and to the church in thy houſe,

3 Grace to you, and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

4 I thank my God, making mention of thee always in my prayers,

5 Hearing of thy love, and faith, which thou haſt toward the Lord Jeſus, and toward all ſaints;

6 That the communication of thy faith may become effectuall by the acknowledging of every good thing, which is in you in Chriſt Jeſus.

7 For we have great joy and conſolation in thy love, becauſe the bowels of the ſaints are refreſhed by thee, brother.

8 Wherefore, though I might be much bold in Chriſt to enjoyn thee that which is convenient:

9 Yet for loves ſake I rather beſeech thee, being ſuch a one as Paul the aged, and now alſo a priſoner of Jeſus Chriſt.

10 I beſeech thee for my ſon Oneſimus, whom I have begotten in my bonds,

11 Which in time paſt was to thee unprofitable: but now profitable to thee and to me:

12 Whom I have ſent again: thou therefore receive him, that is mine own bowels.

13 Whom I would have retained with me, that in thy ſtead he might have miniſtered unto me in the bonds of the goſpel.

14 But without thy minde would I do nothing, that thy benefit ſhould not be, as it were of neceſſity, but willingly.

15 For perhaps he therefore departed for a ſeaſon, that thou ſhouldeſt receive him for ever:

16 Not now as a ſervant, but above a ſervant, a brother beloved, ſpecially to me, but how much more unto thee, both in the fleſh, and in the Lord?

17 If thou count me therefore a partner, receive him as my ſelf.

18 If he hath wronged thee, or oweth thee ought, put that on mine account.

19 I Paul have written it with mine own hand, I will repay it: albeit I do not ſay to thee, how thou oweſt unto me even thine own ſelf beſides.

20 Yea, brother, let me have joy of thee in the Lord: refreſh my bowels in the Lord.

21 Having confidence in thy obedience, I wrote unto thee, knowing that thou wilt alſo do more then I ſay.

22 But withall prepare me alſo a lodging: for I truſt that through your prayers I ſhall be given unto you.

23 There ſalute thee Epaphras my fellow-priſoner in Chriſt Jeſus:

24 Marcus, Ariſtarchus, Demas, Lucas, my fellow-labourers.

25 The grace of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt be with your ſpirit. Amen.

¶ THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE to the HEBREWS.

CHAP. I.

1 Chriſt in theſe laſt times coming to us from the Father, 4 is preferred above the angels, both in perſon and office.

GOd who at ſundry times, and in divers manners, ſpake in time paſt unto the Fathers by the prophets,

2 Hath in theſe laſt dayes ſpoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom alſo he made the worlds,

* Wiſd. 7.26. 3 * Who being the brightneſſe of his glory, and the expreſſe image of his perſon, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himſelf purged our ſins, ſat down on the right hand of the Majeſty on high,

4 Being made ſo much better then the angels, as he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name then they.

5 For unto which of the angels ſaid he at any time, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, I will be to him a Father, and he ſhall be to me a Son.

6 And again, when he bringeth in the firſt begotten into the world, he ſaith, And let all the angels of God worſhip him.

7 And of the angels he ſaith, Who maketh his angels ſpirits, and his miniſters a flame of fire.

8 But unto the Son he ſaith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a ſcepter of † righteouſneſſe, is the ſcepter of thy kingdom.

† Greek, righteouſneſſe, or ſtraightneſſe. 9 Thou haſt loved righteouſneſſe, and hated iniquity, therefore God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladneſſe above thy fellows.

* Pſal. 102.2. Iſa. 34.4. 10 And * thou, Lord, in the beginning haſt laid the foundation of the earth, and the heavens are the works of thine hands.

11 They ſhall periſh, but thou remaineſt: and they all wax old as doth a garment.

12 And as a veſture ſhalt thou fold them up, and they ſhall be changed; but thou art the ſame, and thy yeers ſhall not fail.

* Pſal. 110.1. matth. 22.44. 13 But to which of the angels ſaid he at any time, * Sit on my right hand, untill I make thine enemies thy footſtool?

14 Are they not all miniſtering ſpirits, ſent forth to miniſter for them, who ſhall be heirs of ſalvation?

CHAP. II.

1 We ought to be obedient to Chriſt Jeſus, 5 and that becauſe he vouchſafed to take our nature upon him, 14 as it was neceſſarie.

THerefore we ought to give the more earneſt heed to the things which we have heard, leſt at any time we ſhould † let them ſlip.

3 How ſhall we eſcape, if we neglect ſo great ſalvation, which at the firſt began to be ſpoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him,

4 God alſo bearing them witneſſe, both with ſignes and wonders, and with divers miracles, and || gifts of the holy Ghoſt, according to his own will?

5 For unto the angels hath he not put in ſubjection the world to come, whereof we ſpeak.

6 But one in a certain place teſtified, ſaying, * What is man, that thou art mindfull of him? or the ſon of man, that thou viſiteſt him?

* Pſal. 8.4.

8 Thou haſt put all things in ſubjection under his feet. For in that he put all in ſubjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now we ſee not yet all things put under him.

9 But we ſee Jeſus, who was made a little lower then the angels, || for the ſuffering of death, crowned with glory and honour, that he by the grace of God ſhould taſte death for every man.

10 For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many ſons unto glory, to make the Captain of their ſalvation perfect through ſufferings.

11 For both he that ſanctifieth, and they who are ſanctified, are all of one: for which cauſe he is not aſhamed to call them brethren,

12 Saying, I will declare thy Name unto my brethren, in the midſt of the church will I ſing praiſe unto thee.

13 And again, * I will put my truſt in him: and again, * Behold, I, and the children which God hath given me.

* Iſa. 8.17. * Iſa. 8.18.

14 Foraſmuch then as the children are partakers of fleſh and blood, he alſo himſelf likewiſe took part of the ſame, that through death he might deſtroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil:

15 And deliver them, who through fear of death, were all their life time ſubject to bondage.

16 For verily † he took not on him the nature of angels: but he took on him the ſeed of Abraham.

† Or, he helpeth not angels.

17 Wherefore in all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciſfull and faithfull high prieſt, in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the ſins of the people.

18 For in that he himſelf hath ſuffered, being tempted, he is able to ſuccour them that are tempted.

CHAP. III.

Chriſt is more worthy then Moſes: 7 Therefore if we beleeve not in him, we ſhall be more worthy puniſhment then hard-hearted Iſrael.

WHerefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, conſider the apoſtle and high prieſt of our profeſſion, Chriſt Jeſus,

2 Who was faithfull to him that † appointed him, as alſo Moſes was faithfull in all his houſe.

3 For this man was counted worthy of more glory then Moſes, inaſmuch as he who hath builded the houſe, hath more honour then the houſe.

4 For every houſe is builded by ſome man: but he that built all things is God.

5 And Moſes verily was faithfull in all his houſe, as a ſervant, for a teſtimony of thoſe things which were to be ſpoken after.

6 But Chriſt, as a ſon over his own houſe, whoſe houſe are we, if we hold faſt the confidence, and the rejoycing of the hope firm unto the end.

7 Wherefore as the holy Ghoſt ſaith, * To day if ye will hear his voice,

8 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderneſſe:

9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and ſaw my works fourty yeers.

10 Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and ſaid, They do alway erre in their hearts, and they have not known my wayes.

11 So I ſware in my wrath: † They ſhall not enter into my reſt.

12 Take heed, brethren, leſt there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God.

13 But exhort one another daily, while it is called, To day, leſt any of you be hardened through the deceitfulneſſe of ſin.

14 For we are made partakers of Chriſt, if we hold the beginning of our confidence ſtedfaſt unto the end.

15 Whileſt it is ſaid, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in § provocation.

16 For ſome, when they had heard, did provoke: howbeit not all that came out of Egypt by Moſes.

17 But with whom was he grieved fourty yeers? was it not with them that had ſinned, whoſe carcaſes fell in the wilderneſſe?

18 And to whom ſware he that they ſhould not enter into his reſt, but to them that beleeved not?

19 So we ſee that they could not enter in, becauſe of unbelief.

CHAP. IIII.

1 The reſt of Chriſtians is attained by faith. 12 The power of Gods word. 14 By our high prieſt Jeſus the Son of God, ſubject to infirmities, but not ſin, 16 we muſt, and may go boldly to the throne of grace.

LEt us therefore fear, leſt a promiſe being left us of entering into his reſt, any of you ſhould ſeem to come ſhort of it.

2 For unto us was the goſpel preached, as well as unto them: but † the word preached did not profit them, ‖ not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

3 For we which have beleeved, do enter into reſt, as he ſaid, As I have ſworn in my wrath, if they ſhall enter into my reſt: although the works were finiſhed from the foundation of the world.

4 For he ſpake in a certain place of the ſeventh day on this wiſe; And God did reſt the ſeventh day from all his works.

5 And in this place again; If they ſhall enter into my reſt.

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that ſome muſt enter therein, and they to whom ‖ it was firſt preached, entered not in, becauſe of unbelief:

7 Again, he limiteth a certain day, ſaying in David, To day, after ſo long a time; as it is ſaid, To day, if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

8 For if ‖ Jeſus had given them reſt, then would he not afterward have ſpoken of another day.

9 There remaineth therefore a ‖ reſt to the people of God.

10 For he that is entered into his reſt, he alſo hath ceaſed from his own works, as God did from his.

11 Let us labour therefore to enter into that reſt, leſt any man fall after the ſame example of ‖ unbelief.

12 For the word of God is quick and powerfull, and ſharper then any two edged ſword, piercing even to the dividing aſunder of ſoul and ſpirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a diſcerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

13 Neither is there any creature that is not manifeſt in his ſight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

14 Seeing then that we have a great high prieſt, that is paſſed into the heavens, Jeſus the Son of God, let us hold faſt our profeſſion.

15 For we have not an high prieſt, which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities: but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without ſin.

16 Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and finde geace to help in time of need.

CHAP. V.

1 The authority and honour of our Saviours prieſthood. 11 Negligence in the knowledge thereof is reproved.

FOr every high prieſt taken from among men, is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and ſacrifices for ſins:

2 Who ‖ can have compaſſion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way, for that he himſelf alſo is compaſſed with infirmity.

3 And by reaſon hereof he ought, as for the people, ſo alſo for himſelf, to offer for ſins.

4 And no man taketh this honour unto himſelf, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.

5 So alſo Chriſt glorified not himſelf, to be made an high prieſt: but he that ſaid unto him, Thou art my ſon, to day have I begotten thee.

6 As he ſaith alſo in another place, Thou art a prieſt for ever after the order of Melchiſedec.

7 Who in the dayes of his fleſh, when he had offered up prayers and ſupplications, with ſtrong crying and tears, unto him that was able to ſave him from death, and was heard ‖ in that he feared;

8 Though he were a ſon, yet learned he obedience by the things which he ſuffered;

9 And being made perfect, he became the author of eternall ſalvation unto all them that obey him,

10 Called of God an high prieſt after the order of Melchiſedec:

11 Of whom we have many things to ſay, and hard to be uttered, ſeeing ye are dull of hearing.

12 For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again, which be the firſt principles of the oracles of God, and that in thy ſtead he might have miniſtered unto me in the bonds of the goſpel.

6 And again, when he bringeth in the firſt begotten into the world, he ſaith, And let all the angels of God worſhip him.

7 And of the angels he ſaith, Who maketh his angels ſpirits, and his miniſters a flame of fire.

8 But unto the Son he ſaith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a ſcepter of † righteouſneſſe, is the ſcepter of thy kingdom.

† Greek, righteouſneſſe, or ſtraightneſſe.

9 Thou haſt loved righteouſneſſe, and hated iniquity, therefore God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladneſſe above thy fellows.

* Pſal. 102.2. Iſa 34.4. 10 And * thou, Lord, in the beginning haſt laid the foundation of the earth, and the heavens are the works of thine hands.

11 They ſhall periſh, but thou remaineſt: and they all wax old as doth a garment.

12 And as a veſture ſhalt thou fold them up, and they ſhall be changed; but thou art the ſame, and thy yeers ſhall not fail.

* Pſal. 110.1. matth. 22.44. 13 But to which of the angels ſaid he at any time, * Sit on my right hand, untill I make thine enemies thy footſtool?

14 Are they not all miniſtering ſpirits, ſent forth to miniſter for them, who ſhalbe heirs of ſalvation?

CHAP. II.

1 We ought to be obedient to Chriſt Jeſus, 5 and that becauſe he vouchſafed to take our nature upon him, 14 as it was neceſſarie.

THerefore we ought to give the more earneſt heed to the things which we have heard, leſt at any time we ſhould † let them ſlip.

3 How ſhall we eſcape, if we neglect ſo great ſalvation, which at the firſt began to be ſpoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him,

4 God alſo bearing them witneſſe, both with ſignes and wonders, and with divers miracles, and || gifts of the holy Ghoſt, according to his own will?

5 For unto the angels hath he not put in ſubjection the world to come, whereof we ſpeak.

6 But one in a certain place teſtified, ſaying, * What is man, that thou art mindfull of him? or the ſon of man, that thou viſiteſt him?

8 Thou haſt put all things in ſubjection under his feet. For in that he put all in ſubjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now we ſee not yet all things put under him.

9 But we ſee Jeſus, who was made a little lower then the angels, || for the ſuffering of death, crowned with glory and honour, that he by the grace of God ſhould taſte death for every man.

10 For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many ſons unto glory, to make the Captain of their ſalvation perfect through ſufferings.

11 For both he that ſanctifieth, and they who are ſanctified, are all of one: for which cauſe he is not aſhamed to call them brethren,

12 Saying, I will declare thy Name unto my brethren, in the midſt of the church will I ſing praiſe unto thee.

13 And again, * I will put my truſt in him: and again, * Behold, I, and the children which God hath given me.

14 Foraſmuch then as the children are partakers of fleſh and blood, he alſo himſelf likewiſe took part of the ſame, that through death he might deſtroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil:

15 And deliver them, who through fear of death, were all their life time ſubject to bondage.

16 For verily † he took not on him the nature of angels: but he took on him the ſeed of Abraham.

† Greek, he doth not take on him.

17 Wherefore in all things it behoved him to be

be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciſfull and faithfull high prieſt, in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the ſins of the people.

18 For in that he himſelf hath ſuffered, being tempted, he is able to ſuccour them that are tempted.

CHAP. III.

† Chriſt is more worthy then Moſes: 7 Therefore if we beleeve not in him, we ſhall be more worthy puniſhment then hard-hearted Iſrael.

WHerefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, conſider the apoſtle and high prieſt of our profeſſion, Chriſt Jeſus,

2 Who was faithfull to him that † appointed him, as alſo Moſes was faithfull in all his houſe.

3 For this man was counted worthy of more glory then Moſes, inaſmuch as he who hath builded the houſe, hath more honour then the houſe.

4 For every houſe is builded by ſome man: but he that built all things is God.

5 And Moſes verily was faithfull in all his houſe, as a ſervant, for a teſtimony of thoſe things which were to be ſpoken after.

6 But Chriſt, as a ſon over his own houſe, whoſe houſe are we, if we hold faſt the confidence, and the rejoycing of the hope firm unto the end.

7 Wherefore as the holy Ghoſt ſaith, * To day if ye will hear his voice,

8 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderneſſe:

9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and ſaw my works fourty yeers.

10 Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and ſaid, They do alway erre in their hearts, and they have not known my wayes.

11 So I ſware in my wrath: † They ſhall not enter into my reſt.

12 Take heed, brethren, leſt there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God.

13 But exhort one another daily, while it is called, To day, leſt any of you be hardened through the deceitfulneſſe of ſin.

14 For we are made partakers of Chriſt, if we hold the beginning of our confidence ſtedfaſt unto the end.

15 Whileſt it is ſaid, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in § provocation.

16 For ſome, when they had heard, did provoke: howbeit not all that came out of Egypt by Moſes.

17 But with whom was he grieved fourty yeers? was it not with them that had ſinned, whoſe carcaſes fell in the wilderneſſe?

18 And to whom ſware he that they ſhould not enter into his reſt, but to them that beleeved not?

19 So we ſee that they could not enter in, becauſe of unbelief.

CHAP. IIII.

1 The reſt of Chriſtians is attained by faith, 12 The power of Gods word. 14 By our high prieſt Jeſus the Son of God, ſubject to infirmities, but not ſin, 16 we muſt, and may go boldly to the throne of grace.

LEt us therefore fear, leſt a promiſe being left us of entering into his reſt, any of you ſhould ſeem to come ſhort of it.

2 For unto us was the goſpel preached, as well as unto them: but † the word preached did not profit them, ‖ not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

3 For we which have beleeved, do enter into reſt, as he ſaid, As I have ſworn in my wrath, if they ſhall enter into my reſt: although the works were finiſhed from the foundation of the world.

4 For he ſpake in a certain place of the ſeventh day on this wiſe; And God did reſt the ſeventh day from all his works.

5 And in this place again; If they ſhall enter into my reſt.

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that ſome muſt enter therein, and they to whom ‖ it was firſt preached, entered not in, becauſe of unbelief:

7 Again, he limiteth a certain day, ſaying in David, To day, after ſo long a time; as it is ſaid, To day, if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

8 For if ‖ Jeſus had given them reſt, then would he not afterward have ſpoken of another day.

9 There remaineth therefore a ‖ reſt to the people of God.

10 For he that is entered into his reſt, he alſo hath ceaſed from his own works, as God did from his.

11 Let us labour therefore to enter into that reſt, leſt any man fall after the ſame example of ‖ unbelief.

12 For the word of God is quick and powerfull, and ſharper then any two edged ſword, piercing even to the dividing aſunder of ſoul and ſpirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a diſcerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

13 Neither is there any creature that is not manifeſt in his ſight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

14 Seeing then that we have a great high prieſt, that is paſſed into the heavens, Jeſus the Son of God, let us hold faſt our profeſſion.

15 For we have not an high prieſt, which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities: but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without ſin.

16 Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and finde geace to help in time of need.

CHAP. V.

1 The authority and honour of our Saviours prieſthood. 11 Negligence in the knowledge thereof is reproved.

FOr every high prieſt taken from among men, is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and ſacrifices for ſins.

2 Who ‖ can have compaſſion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way, for that he himſelf alſo is compaſſed with infirmity.

3 And by reaſon hereof he ought, as for the people, ſo alſo for himſelf, to offer for ſins.

4 And no man taketh this honour unto himſelf, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.

5 So alſo Chriſt glorified not himſelf, to be made an high prieſt: but he that ſaid unto him, Thou art my ſon, to day have I begotten thee.

6 As he ſaith alſo in another place, Thou art a prieſt for ever after the order of Melchiſedec.

7 Who in the dayes of his fleſh, when he had offered up prayers and ſupplications, with ſtrong crying and teares, unto him that was able to ſave him from death, and was heard ‖ in that he feared;

8 Though he were a ſon, yet learned he obedience by the things which he ſuffered;

9 And being made perfect, he became the author of eternall ſalvation unto all them that obey him,

10 Called of God an high prieſt after the order of Melchiſedec:

11 Of whom we have many things to ſay, and hard to be uttered, ſeeing ye are dull of hearing.

12 For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again, which be the firſt principles of the oracles of God, and

‖ Or, the goſpel was firſt preached.

‖ That is, Joſhuah.

‖ Or, keeping of a ſabbath.

‖ Or, diſobedience.

‖ Or, can reaſonably bear with.

‖ Or, for his piety.

are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat.

13 For every one that useth milk, is † unskilfull in the word of righteousnesse; for he is a babe.

14 But strong meat belongeth to them that are ‖ of full age, even those who by reason ‖ of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.

†Gr. hath no experience

‖ Or, perfect.

‖ Or, of an habit or perfection.

CHAP. VI.

1 He exhorteth not to fall back from the faith, 11 but to be stedfast, 12 diligent, and patient to wait upon God, 13 because God is most sure in his promise.

‖ Or, the word of the beginning of Christ.

THerefore leaving the ‖ principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection, not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith towards God,

2 Of the doctrine of baptismes, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternall judgement.

3 And this will we do, if God permit.

4 For it is impossible for those who were once enlightned, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the holy Ghost,

5 And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come;

6 If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance: seeing they crucifie to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.

‖ Or, for.

7 For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them ‖ by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God.

8 But that which beareth thorns and briers, is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing, whose end is to be burned.

9 But, beloved, we are perswaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak.

10 For God is not unrighteous, to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his Name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister.

11 And we desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence, to the full assurance of hope unto the end:

12 That ye be not slothfull, but followers of them, who through faith & patience inherit the promises.

13 For when God made promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no greater, he sware by himself,

14 Saying, Surely, blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee.

15 And so after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.

16 For men verily swear by the greater, and an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife.

17 Wherein God willing more abundantly to shew unto the heirs of promise the immutability of his counsell, † confirmed it by an oath:

†Gr. Interposed himself by an oath.

18 That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us.

19 Which hope we have as an anker of the soul, both sure and stedfast, and which entereth into that within the vail,

20 Whither the fore-runner is for us entered, even Jesus, made an high priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

CHAP. VII.

1 Christ Jesus is a priest after the order of Melchisedec, 11 and so far more excellent then the priests of Aarons order.

FOr this Melchisedec king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him:

2 To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all: first being by interpretation king of righteousnesse, and after that also king of Salem, which is, king of peace:

3 Without father, without mother, † without descent, having neither beginning of dayes, nor end of life: but made like unto the Son of God, abideth a priest continually.

4 Now consider how great this man was, unto whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils.

5 And verily they that are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people, according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though they come out of the loins of Abraham:

6 But he whose ‖ descent is not counted from them, received tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises.

7 And without all contradiction, the lesse is blessed of the better.

8 And here men that die, receive tithes: but there he receiveth them, of whom it is witnessed that he liveth.

9 And as I may so say, Levi also, who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham:

10 For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchisedec met him.

11 If therefore perfection were by the Leviticall priesthood (for under it the people received the law) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not be called after the order of Aaron?

12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.

13 For he of whom these things are spoken, pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar.

14 For it is evident that our Lord sprang out of Juda, of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priesthood.

15 And it is yet far more evident: for that after the similitude of Melchisedec there ariseth another priest, 16 Who is made not after the law of a carnall commandment, but after the power of an endlesse life.

17 For he testifieth, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

18 For there is verily a disanulling of the commandment going before, for the weaknesse and unprofitablenesse thereof:

19 For the law made nothing perfect, ‖ but the bringing in of a better hope did: by the which we draw nigh unto God.

20 And in as much as not without an oath he was made priest:

21 (For those priests were made ‖ without an oath: but this with an oath, by him that said unto him, * The Lord sware, and will not repent, thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec)

22 By so much was Jesus made a surety of a better testament.

23 And they truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death.

24 But this man, because he continueth ever, hath an ‖ unchangeable priesthood.

25 Wherefore he is able also to save them ‖ to the uttermost, that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them.

26 For such an high priest became us, who is holy, harmlesse, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher then the heavens,

27 Who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice first for his own sins, and then for the peoples: for this he did once, when he offered up himself.

28 For the law maketh men high priests, which have infirmity, but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, who is † consecrated for evermore.

CHAP. VIII.

1 By the eternall priesthood of Christ, the Levitical priesthood of Aaron is abolished: 7 and the temporall covenant with the fathers, by the eternall covenant of the gospel.

NOw of the things which we have spoken, this is the sum: we have such an high priest, who is set on the right hand of the throne of the majesty in the heavens:

2 A minister ‖ of the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man.

3 For every high priest is ordained to offer gifts, and sacrifices: wherefore it is of necessity that this man have somewhat also to offer.

4 For if he were on earth, he should not be a priest, seeing that ‖ there are priests that offer gifts according to the law:

5 Who serve unto the example and shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished of God when he was about to make the tabernacle. For see (saith he) that thou make all things according to the patern shewed to thee in the mount.

6 But now hath he obtained a more excellent ministery, by how much also he is the Mediatour of a better ‖ covenant, which was established upon better promises.

7 For if that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second.

8 For finding fault with them, he saith, Behold, the dayes come (saith the Lord) when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and the house of Judah.

9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers, in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt, because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those dayes, saith the Lord, * I will † put my laws into their minde, and write them ‖ in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people.

11 And they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest.

12 For I will be mercifull to their unrighteousnesse, and their sins, and their iniquities will I remember no more.

13 In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old, is ready to vanish away.

CHAP. IX.

1 The description of the rites and bloody sacrifices of the law, 11 far inferiour to the dignity and perfection of the blood and sacrifice of Christ.

THen verily the first covenant had also ‖ ordinances of divine service, and a worldly sanctuary.

2 For there was a tabernacle made, the first wherein was the candlestick, and the table, and the shew-bread, which is called ‖ the sanctuary.

3 And after the second vail, the tabernacle, which is called the holiest of all:

4 Which had the golden censer, and the ark of the covenant, overlaid round about with gold, wherein was the golden pot, that had manna, and Aarons rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant.

5 And over it the cherubims of glory, shadowing the mercy-seat; of which we cannot now speak particularly.

6 Now, when these things were thus ordained, the priests went alwayes into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God.

7 But into the second went the high priest alone, once every yeer, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the errours of the people.

9 The holy Ghost this signifying, that the way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing:

8 Which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, that could not make him that did the service perfect, as perraining to the conscience,

10 Which stood onely in meats, and drinks, and divers washings, and ‖ carnall ordinances imposed on them until the time of reformation. ‖ Or, rites, or ceremonies.

11 But Christ being come an high priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building:

12 Neither by the blood of goats and calves: but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternall redemption for us.

13 For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer, sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh:

14 How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternall Spirit offered himself without ‖ spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works, to serve the living God? ‖ Or, fault.

15 And for this cause he is the Mediatour of the new testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternall inheritance.

16 For where a testament is, there must also of necessity ‖ be the death of the testatour. ‖ Or, be brought in.

17 For a testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all, whilest the testatour liveth.

18 Whereupon neither the first testament was ‖ dedicated without blood, ‖ Or, purified.

19 For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people, according to the law, he took the blood of calves, and of goats, with water, and ‖ scarlet woull, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people, ‖ Or, purple.

20 Saying, This is the blood of the testament, which God hath enjoyned unto you.

21 Moreover, he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministery.

22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood: and without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these, but the heavenly things themselves, with better sacrifices then these.

24 For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true, but into heaven it self, now to appear in the presence of God for us:

25 Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place, every yeer with blood of others;

26 For then must he often have ſuffered ſince the foundation of the world: but now once in the end of the world, hath he appeared to put away ſin by the ſacrifice of himſelf.

27 And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgement:

28 So Chriſt was once offered to bear the ſins of many, and unto them that look for him, ſhall he appear the ſecond time, without ſin, unto ſalvation.

CHAP. X.

1 The weakneſſe of the law ſacrifices. 10 The ſacrifice of Chriſts body once offered, 14 for ever, hath taken away ſins. 19 An exhortation to hold faſt the faith, with patience and thankſgiving.

FOr the law having a ſhadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with thoſe ſacrifices which they offered yeer by yeer continually, make the comers thereunto perfect:

2 For then would they not have ceaſed to be offered, becauſe that the worſhippers once purged, ſhould have had no more conſcience of ſins?

3 But in thoſe ſacrifices there is a rememberance again made of ſins every yeer.

4 For it is not poſſible that the blood of buls and of goats ſhould take away ſins.

5 Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he ſaith, Sacrifice, and offering thou wouldeſt not, but a body ‖ haſt thou prepared me:

‖ Or, thou haſt fitted me.

6 In burnt-offerings, and ſacrifices for ſin thou haſt had no pleaſure:

7 Then ſaid I, Lo, I come (In the volume of the book it is written of me) to do thy will, O God.

8 Above, when he ſaid, Sacrifice, and offering, and burnt-offerings, and offering for ſin, thou wouldeſt not, neither haſt pleaſure therein, which are offered by the law:

9 Then ſaid he, Lo, I come to do thy will (O God:) He taketh away the firſt, that he may eſtabliſh the ſecond.

10 By the which will we are ſanctified, through the offering of the body of Jeſus Chriſt once for all.

11 And every prieſt ſtandeth daily miniſtring and offering often times the ſame ſacrifices, which can never take away ſins.

12 But this man, after he had offered one ſacrifice for ſins for ever, ſate down on the right hand of God, 13 From henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footſtool.

14 For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are ſanctified.

15 Whereof the holy Ghoſt alſo is a witneſſe to us: for after that he had ſaid before,

16 This is the covenant that I will make with them after thoſe dayes, ſaith the Lord: I will

* Jerem. 31. 33.

* put my laws into their hearts, and in their mindes will I write them:

17 And their ſins and iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now where remiſſion of theſe is, there is no more offering for ſin.

‖ Or, liberty.

19 Having therefore, brethren, ‖ boldneſſe to enter into the holieſt by the blood of Jeſus,

‖ Or, new made.

20 By a new and living way, which he hath ‖ conſecrated for us, through the vail, that is to ſay, his fleſh:

21 And having an high prieſt over the houſe of God:

22 Let us draw neer with a true heart, in full aſſurance of faith, having our hearts ſprinkled from an evil conſcience, and our bodies waſhed with pure water.

23 Let us hold faſt the profeſſion of our faith, without wavering (for he is faithfull that promiſed.)

24 And let us conſider one another, to provoke unto love and to good works:

25 Not forſaking the aſſembling of our ſelves together, as the manner of ſome is: but exhorting one another, and ſo much the more as ye ſee the day approaching.

26 For if we ſin wilfully, after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more ſacrifice for ſins,

27 But a certain fearfull looking for of judgement, and fiery indignation, which ſhall devour the adverſaries.

28 He that deſpiſed Moſes law, died without mercy, under two or three witneſſes.

29 Of how much ſorer puniſhment, ſuppoſe ye, ſhall he be thought worthy, who hath troden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was ſanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done deſpite unto the ſpirit of grace?

30 For we know him that hath ſaid,* Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompenſe, ſaith the Lord: and again, The Lord ſhall judge his people.

31 It is a fearfull thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

32 But call to remembrance the former dayes, in which after ye were illuminated, ye endured a great fight of afflictions:

33 Partly, whileſt ye were made a gazing ſtock, both by reproaches and afflictions, and partly whileſt ye became companions of them that were ſo uſed.

34 For ye had compaſſion of me in my bonds, and took joyfully the ſpoiling of your goods, knowing in your ſelves, that ye have in heaven a better and an enduring ſubſtance.

35 Caſt not away therefore your confidence which hath great recompence of reward.

36 For ye have need of patience, that after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promiſe.

37 For yet a little while, and he that ſhall come, will come, and will not tarry.

38 Now the juſt ſhall live by faith: but if any man draw back, my ſoul ſhall have no pleaſure in him.

39 But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition: but of them that beleeve, to the ſaving of the ſoul.

CHAP. XI.

1 What faith is. 6 Without faith we cannot pleaſe God. 7 The worthy fruits thereof in the fathers of old time.

NOw faith is the ‖ ſubſtance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not ſeen.

2 For by it the elders obtained a good report.

3 Through faith we underſtand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, ſo that things which are ſeen, were not made of things which do appear.

4 By faith Abel offered unto God a more excellent ſacrifice then Kain, by which he obtained witneſſe that he was righteous, God teſtifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead, ‖ yet ſpeaketh.

‖ Or, in him.

5 By faith Enoch was tranſlated that he ſhould not ſee death, and was not found, becauſe God had tranſlated him: for before his tranſlation he had this teſtimony, that he pleaſed God.

6 But without faith it is impoſſible to pleaſe him: for he that cometh to God, muſt believe that that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

7 By faith Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, ‖ moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house, by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousnesse which is by faith.

8 By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed, and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

9 By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange countrey, dwelling in tabernacles, with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise.

10 For he looked for a citie which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

11 Through faith also Sara her self received strength to conceive seed, and was delivered of a child, when she was past age, because she judged him faithfull who had promised:

12 Therefore sprang there even of one, and him as good as dead, so many as the stars of the skie in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable.

13 These all died † in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were perswaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

14 For they that say such things, declare plainly that they seek a countrey.

15 And truly if they had been mindfull of that countrey, from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned:

16 But now they desire a better countrey, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city.

17 By faith Abraham, when he was tried, offered up Isaac: and he that had received the promises, offered up his only begotten son,

18 ‖ Of whom it was said, that in Isaac shall thy seed be called:

19 Accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead: from whence also he received him in a figure.

20 By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come.

21 By faith Jacob, when he was a dying, blessed both the sons of Joseph, and worshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff.

22 By faith Joseph, when he died, ‖ made mention of the departing of the children of Israel, and gave commandment concerning his bones.

23 By faith Moses, when he was born, was hid three moneths of his parents, because they saw he was a proper childe, and they not afraid of the kings commandment.

24 By faith Moses, when he was come to yeers, refused to be called the son of Pharaohs daughter,

25 Chusing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, then to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season:

26 Esteeming the reproach ‖ of Christ greater riches then the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompence of the reward.

27 By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible.

28 Through faith he kept the passeover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the first-borne should touch them.

29 By faith they passed thorow the Red-sea, as by drie land: which the Egyptians assaying to do, were drowned.

30 By faith the walls of Jericho fell down, after they were compassed about seven dayes.

31 By faith the harlot Rahab perished not with them ‖ that beleeved not, when she had received the spies with peace.

‖ Or, that were disobedient.

32 And what shall I more say? For the time would fail me to tell of Gideon, and of Barak, and of Samson, and of Jephthah, of David also, and Samuel, and of the prophets:

33 Who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousnes, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions,

34 Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weaknesse were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens.

35 Women received their dead raised to life again: and others were * tortured, not accepting deliverance, that they might obtain a better resurrection.

36 And others had triall of cruell mockings, and scourgings, yea, moreover of bonds and imprisonment.

37 They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandred about in sheep-skins, and goat-skins, being destitute, afflicted, tormented:

38 Of whom the world was not worthy: they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens, and caves of the earth.

39 And these all having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise:

40 God having ‖ provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect.

‖ Or, foreseen.

CHAP. XII.

1 An exhortation to constant faith, patience, and godlinesse. 22 A commendation of the new testament above the old.

WHerefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us,

2 Looking unto Jesus the ‖ author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him, endured the crosse, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

‖ Or, beginner.

3 For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your mindes.

4 Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin.

5 And ye have forgotten the exhortation, which speaketh unto you as unto children, My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him.

6 For whom the Lord loveth, he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

7 If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons: for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

8 But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

9 Furthermore, we have had fathers of our flesh, which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live?

10 For they verily for a few dayes chastened us after their own pleasure, but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holinesse.

11 Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yeeldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousnesse, unto them which are exercised thereby.

12 Wherefore lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees,

13 And make ‖ ſtraight paths for your feet, leſt that which is lame be turned out of the way, but let it rather be healed.

‖ Or, even.

14 Follow peace with all men, and holineſſe, without which no man ſhall ſee the Lord:

15 Looking diligently, leſt any man ‖ fail of the grace of God, leſt any root of bitterneſſe ſpringing up, trouble you, and thereby many be defiled:

16 Leſt there be any fornicatour, or profane perſon, as Eſau, who for one morſell of meat ſold his birth-right.

17 For ye know how that afterward when he would have inherited the bleſſing, he was rejected; for he found no ‖ place of repentance, though he ſought it carefully with teares.

‖ Or, way to change his minde.

18 For ye are not come unto the mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackneſſe, and darkneſſe, and tempeſt,

19 And the ſound of a trumpet, and the voice of words, which voice they that heard, entreated that the word ſhould not be ſpoken to them any more.

20 For they could not endure that which was commanded: and if ſo much as a beaſt touch the mountain, it ſhall be ſtoned, or thruſt thorow with a dart.

21 And ſo terrible was the ſight, that Moſes ſaid, I exceedingly fear and quake.

22 But ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jeruſalem, and to an innumerable company of angels:

23 To the generall aſſembly, and church of the firſt-borne, which are ‖ written in heaven, and to God the judge of all, and to the ſpirits of juſt men made perfect:

‖ Or, enrolled.

24 And to Jeſus the Mediatour of the new ‖ covenant, and to the blood of ſprinkling, that ſpeaketh better things then that of Abel.

‖ Or, teſtament.

25 See that ye refuſe not him that ſpeaketh: for if they eſcaped not, who refuſed him that ſpake on earth, much more ſhall not we eſcape, if we turn away from him that ſpeaketh from heaven.

26 Whoſe voice then ſhook the earth, but now he hath promiſed, ſaying, Yet once more I ſhake not the earth onely, but alſo heaven.

27 And this word, Yet once more, ſignifieth the removing of thoſe things that ‖ are ſhaken, as of things that are made, that thoſe things which cannot be ſhaken, may remain.

‖ Or, may be ſhaken.

28 Wherefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, ‖ let us have grace, whereby we may ſerve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear.

‖ Or, let us hold faſt.

29 For our God is a conſuming fire.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Divers admonitions, as to charity, 4 to honeſt life, 5 to avoid covetouſneſſe, 7 to regard Gods preachers, 9 to take heed of ſtrange doctrines, 10 to confeſſe Chriſt, 16 to give alms, 17 to obey governours, 18 to pray for the apoſtle. 20 The concluſion.

LEt brotherly love continue.

2 Be not forgetfull to entertain ſtrangers, for thereby ſome have entertained angels unwares.

3 Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them, and them which ſuffer adverſity, as being your ſelves alſo in the body.

4 Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge.

5 Let your converſation be without covetouſneſſe: and be content with ſuch things as ye have. For he hath ſaid, * I will never leave thee, nor forſake thee.

6 So that we may boldly ſay, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man ſhall do unto me.

7 Remember them which ‖ have the rule over you, who have ſpoken unto you the word of God, whoſe faith follow, conſidering the end of their converſation.

8 Jeſus Chriſt the ſame yeſterday, and to day, and for ever.

9 Be not carried about with divers and ſtrange doctrines: for it is a good thing that the heart be eſtabliſhed with grace, not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein.

10 We have an altar, whereof they have no right to eat, which ſerve the tabernacle.

11 For the bodies of thoſe beaſts, whoſe blood is brought into the ſanctuary by the high prieſt for ſin, are burnt without the camp.

12 Wherefore Jeſus alſo, that he might ſanctifie the people with his own blood, ſuffered without the gate.

13 Let us go forth therefore unto him without the camp, bearing his reproach.

14 * For here have we no continuing city, but we ſeek one to come.

15 By him therefore let us offer the ſacrifice of praiſe to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips, † giving thanks to his Name.

16 But to do good, and to communicate, forget not: for with ſuch ſacrifices God is well pleaſed.

17 Obey them that ‖ have the rule over you, and ſubmit your ſelves: for they watch for your ſouls, as they that muſt give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with griefe: for that is unprofitable for you.

18 Pray for us: for we truſt we have a good conſcience in all things, willing to live honeſtly.

19 But I beſeech you the rather to do this, that I may be reſtored to you the ſooner.

20 Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jeſus, that great ſhepherd of the ſheep, through the blood of the everlaſting ‖ covenant,

21 Make you perfect in every good work to do his will, ‖ working in you that which is well pleaſing in his ſight, through Jeſus Chriſt, to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

22 And I beſeech you, brethren, ſuffer the word of exhortation, for I have written a letter unto you in few words.

23 Know ye, that our brother Timothy is let at liberty, with whom, if he come ſhortly, I will ſee you.

24 Salute all them that have the rule over you, and all the ſaints. They of Italy ſalute you.

25 Grace be with you all. Amen.

¶ THE GENERALL EPISTLE of JAMES.

CHAP. I.

We are to rejoyce under the crosse, 5 to ask patience of God: 13 and in our trials not to impute our weaknesse, or sins unto him: 19 but rather to hearken to the word, to meditate in it, and to do thereafter: 26 otherwise men may seem, but never be truly religious.

JAmes a servant of God, and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad, greeting.

2 My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations,

3 Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience.

4 But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect, and entire, wanting nothing.

5 If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not: and it shall be given him.

6 But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering: for he that wavereth, is like a wave of the sea, driven with the winde, and tossed.

7 For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.

8 A double minded man is unstable in all his ways.

9 Let the brother of low degree ‖ rejoyce in that he is exalted:

10 But the rich, in that he is made low: because as the flower of the grasse he shall passe away.

11 For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grasse, and the flowre thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his wayes.

12 Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

13 Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man.

14 But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.

15 Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

16 Do not erre, my beloved brethren.

17 Every good gift, and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variablenesse, neither shadow of turning.

18 Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kinde of first-fruits of his creatures.

19 Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath.

20 For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousnesse of God.

21 Wherefore lay apart all filthinesse, and superfluity of naughtinesse, and receive with meekenesse the ingrafted word, which is able to save your soules.

22 But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

23 For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his naturall face in a glasse:

24 For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.

25 But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetfull hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his ‖ deed.

‖ Or, doing.

26 If any man among you seem to be religious, and bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this mans religion is vain.

27 Pure religion, and undefiled before God and the Father, is this, to visit the fatherlesse and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

CHAP. II.

It is not agreeable to Christian profession to regard the rich, and to despise the poor brethren, 13 rather we are to be loving and mercifull: 14 and not to boast of faith where no deeds are, 17 which is but a dead faith, 19 the faith of devils, 21 not of Abraham, 25 and Rahab.

MY brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons.

2 For if there come unto your † assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparell, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment:

† Gr. synagogue

3 And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here ‖ in a good place: and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool:

‖ Or, well, or seemly.

4 Are ye not then partiall in your selves, and are become judges of evil thoughts?

5 Hearken, my beloved brethren, Hath not God chosen the poor of this world, rich in faith, and heirs of ‖ the kingdom, which he hath promised to them that love him?

‖ Or, that.

6 But ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppresse you, and draw you before the judgement seats?

7 Do not they blaspheme that worthy Name, by the which ye are called?

8 If ye fulfill the royall law, according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy self, ye do well.

9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law, as transgressours.

10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.

11 For he ‖ that said, Do not commit adultery; said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressour of the law.

‖ Or, [law] which said.

12 So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty.

13 For he shall have judgement without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy, and mercy ‖ rejoyceth against judgement.

‖ Or, glorieth.

14 What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and hath not works? can faith save him?

15 If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food,

16 And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be you warmed and filled: notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needfull to the body: what doth it profit?

17 Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being † alone.

† Greek by it self.

18 Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith ‖ without thy works,

‖ By thy works. [] Some copies [add] works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works.

19 Thou beleevest that there is one God, thou doest well: the devils also beleeve, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar?

‖ Or, Thou seest 22 ‖ Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?

23 And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, * Abraham beleeved God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousnesse: and he was called the friend of God.

* Gene. 15. 6. rom. 4. 3. gal. 3. 6.

24 Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith onely.

25 Likewise also, was not Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way?

‖ Or, breath. 26 For as the body without the ‖ spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

CHAP. III.

1 We are not rashly or arrogantly to reprove others: 5 but rather to bridle the tongue, a little member, but a powerfull instrument of much good, and great harm. 13 They who be truly wise, be milde and peaceable, without envying and strife.

‖ Or, judgemeent. MY brethren, be not many masters, knowing that we shall receive the greater ‖ condemnation.

2 For in many things we offend all. If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body.

3 Behold, we put bits in the horses mouthes, that they may obey us, and we turn about their whole body.

4 Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce windes, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governour listeth.

‖ Or, wood. 5 Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things: behold, how great ‖ a matter a little fire kindleth.

6 And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue amongst our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature, and it is set on fire of hell.

† Greek nature. † Greek nature of man. 7 For every † kinde of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of † mankinde.

8 But the tongue can no man tame, it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poyson.

9 Therewith blesse we God, even the Father: and therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing: my brethren, these things ought not so to be.

‖ Or, bole. 11 Doth a fountain send forth at the same ‖ place sweet water and bitter?

12 Can the fig-tree, my brethren, bear olive-berries? either a vine, figs? so can no fountain both yeeld salt water and fresh.

13 Who is a wise man, and endued with knowledge amongst you? let him shew out of a good conversation his works with meekenesse of wisdom.

14 But if ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth.

‖ Or, sensuall. 15 This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, ‖ sensuall, devilish, 16 For where envying and strife is, there is † confusion, and every evil work.

† Or, confu-sion.

17 But the wisdom that is from above, is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easie to be entreated, full of mercy, and good fruits, ‖ without partiality, and without hypocrisie.

‖ Or, without wrang-ling.

18 And the fruit of righteousnesse is sowen in peace of them that make peace.

CHAP. IIII.

1 We are to strive against covetousnesse, 4 intemperance, 5 pride, 11 detraction, and rash judgement of others, 13 and not to be confident in the good successe of worldly businesse, but mindefull ever of the uncertainty of this life, to commit our selves, and all our affairs to Gods providence.

FRom whence come wars and ‖ fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your ‖ lusts that war in your members?

‖ Or, lu-sts.

2 Ye lust, and have not: ye kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not.

3 Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amisse, that ye may consume it upon your ‖ lusts.

‖ Or, lu-sts.

4 Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world, is the enemy of God.

5 Do ye think that the scripture saith in vain, The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth ‖ to envie?

‖ Or, to en-vie.

6 But he giveth more grace, wherefore he saith, * God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

7 Submit your selves therefore to God: resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

8 Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you: cleanse your hands, ye sinners, and purifie your hearts, ye double minded.

9 Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heavinesse.

10 Humble your selves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.

11 Speak not evil one of another (brethren) he that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge.

12 There is one lawgiver, who is able to save, and to destroy: who art thou that judgest another?

13 Go to now, ye that say, To day or to morrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a yeer, and buy, and sell, and get gain:

14 Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow: * for what is your life? ‖ it is even a vapour that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away.

15 For that ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that.

16 But now ye rejoyce in your boastings: all such rejoycing is evil.

17 Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doth it not, to him it is sin.

CHAP. V.

1 Wicked rich men are to fear Gods vengeance. 7 We ought to be patient in afflictions, after the example of the prophets, and Job. 12 to forbear swearing, 13 to pray in adversity, to sing in prosperity: 16 to acknowledge mutually our severall faults, to pray one for another, 19 and to reduce a straying brother to the truth.

GO to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you.

2 Your

2 Your riches are corrupted, and your garments moth-eaten:

3 Your gold and silver is cankered, and the rust of them shall be a witnesse against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire: ye have heaped treasure together for the last dayes.

4 Behold, the hire of the labourers which have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth: and the cries of them which have reaped, are entered into the ears of the Lord of sabaoth.

5 Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton: ye have nourished your hearts as in a day of slaughter:

6 Ye have condemned and killed the just, and he doth not resist you.

7 ‖ Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord: behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, untill he receive the early and latter rain.

8 Be ye also patient, stablish your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh.

9 ‖ Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned; behold, the judge standeth before the door.

10 Take, my brethren, the prophets, who have spoken in the Name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience.

11 Behold, we count them happy which endure. Ye have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the end of the Lord: that the Lord is very pitifull, and of tender mercy.

12 But above all things, my brethren, swear not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea be yea, and your nay, nay: lest ye fall into condemnation.

13 Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any merry? let him sing psalms.

14 Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the Name of the Lord:

15 And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up: and if he have comitted sins, they shall be forgiven him.

16 Confesse your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed: the effectuall fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.

17 Elias was a man subject to like passions as we are, and he prayed ‖ earnestly that it might not rain: and it rained not on the earth by the space of three yeers and six moneths.

‖ Or, in his prayer.

18 And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

19 Brethren, if any of you do erre from the truth, and one convert him,

20 Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the errour of his way, shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins.

¶ THE FIRST EPISTLE generall of PETER.

CHAP. I.

He blesseth God for his manifold spirituall graces: 10 shewing that the salvation in Christ is no news, but a thing prophesied of old: 13 and exhorteth them accordingly to a godly conversation, forasmuch as they are now born anew by the word of God.

PEter an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the strangers scattered thorowout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, Bithynia,

2 Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ; grace unto you, and peace be multiplied.

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his † abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

4 To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven ‖ for you,

5 Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation, ready to be revealed in the last time:

6 Wherein ye greatly rejoyce, though now for a season, (if need be) ye are in heavinesse through manifold temptations:

7 That the triall of your faith, being much more precious then of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise, and honour, and glory, at the appearing of Jesus Christ:

8 Whom having not seen, ye love, in whom, though now ye see him not, yet beleeving, ye rejoyce with joy unspeakable and full of glory,

9 Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls:

10 Of which salvation the prophets have enquired, and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you,

11 Searching what, or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signifie, when it testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow.

12 Unto whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things which are now reported unto you, by them that have preached the gospel unto you, with the holy Ghost sent down from heaven, which things the angels desire to look into.

13 Wherefore gird up the loins of your minde, be sober, and hope † to the end, for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ:

† Or, perfectly.

14 As obedient children, not fashioning your selves according to the former lusts, in your ignorance:

15 But as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation;

16 Because it it is written, * Be ye holy, for I am holy.

* Levit. 11.44. & 19.2. & 20.7.

17 And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every mans work, passe the time of your sojourning here in fear:

18 Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers;

19 But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot;

20 Who verily was fore-ordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you:

21 Who by him do beleeve in God that raised him up from the dead, and gave him glory, that your faith and hope might be in God.

22 Seeing

22 Seeing ye have purified your ſouls in obeying the truth through the Spirit, unto unfeigned love of the brethren: ſee that ye love one another with a pure heart, fervently,

23 Being born again, not of corruptible ſeed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever.

‖ Or, for that. 24 ‖ For all fleſh is as graſſe, and all the glory of man as the flower of graſſe: the graſſe withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away.

25 But the word of the Lord endureth for ever: and this is the word which by the goſpel is preached unto you.

CHAP. II.

He dehorteth them from the breach of charity: 4 ſhewing that Chriſt is the foundation whereupon they are built: 11 He beſeecheth them alſo to abſtain from fleſhly luſts, 13 to be obedient to magiſtrates, 18 and teacheth ſervants how to obey their maſters, 20 patiently ſuffering for well doing, after the example of Chriſt.

WHerefore laying aſide all malice, and all guile, and hypocriſies, and envies, and evil ſpeakings,

2 As new born babes deſire the ſincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby,

3 If ſo be ye have taſted that the Lord is gracious.

4 To whom coming as unto a living ſtone, diſallowed indeed of men, but choſen of God, and precious,

‖ Or, be ye built 5 Ye alſo as lively ſtones, ‖ are built up a ſpirituall houſe, an holy prieſthood, to offer up ſpirituall ſacrifice, acceptable to God by Jeſus Chriſt.

Iſa.28.16. pſal.118. 22. mat. 21. 42.ac. 4. 12. 6 Wherefore it is contained in the ſcripture, Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner ſtone, elect, precious, and he that beleeveth on him, ſhall not be confounded.

‖ Or, he is an honour. 7 Unto you therefore which beleeve ‖ he is precious: but unto them which be diſobedient, the ſtone which the builders diſallowed, the ſame is made the head of the corner,

Iſa.8.14. 8 * And a ſtone of ſtumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which ſtumble at the word, being diſobedient, whereunto alſo they were appointed.

‖ Or, a purchaſed people ‖ Or, vertues. Hoſ.2.23 9 But ye are a choſen generation, a royall prieſthood, an holy nation, a ‖ peculiar people, that ye ſhould ſhew forth the ‖ praiſes of him, who hath called you out of darkneſſe into his marvellous light:

‖ Or, wherein. 10 Which in time paſt were not a people, but are now the people of God: * which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.

11 Dearly beloved, I beſeech you as ſtrangers and pilgrims, abſtain from fleſhly luſts, which war againſt the ſoul,

12 Having your converſation honeſt among the Gentiles, that ‖ whereas they ſpeak againſt you as evil doers, they may by your good works which they ſhall behold, glorifie God in the day of viſitation.

‖ Or, wherein. 13 Submit your ſelves to every ordinance of man for the Lords ſake, whether it be to the king, as ſuprem,

14 Or unto governours, as unto them that are ſent by him, for the puniſhment of evil doers, and for the praiſe of them that do well.

15 For ſo is the will of God, that with well doing ye may put to ſilence the ignorance of fooliſh men.

†Gr. having. 16 As free, and not † uſing your liberty for a cloak of maliciouſneſſe, but as the ſervants of God.

17 ‖ Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the king.

18 Servants, be ſubject to your maſters with all fear, not onely to the good and gentle, but alſo to the froward.

19 For this is thank-worthy, if a man for conſcience toward God endure grief, ſuffering wrongfully.

20 For what glory is it, if when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye ſhall take it patiently? but if when ye do well, and ſuffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is ‖ acceptable with God.

21 For even hereunto were ye called: becauſe Chriſt alſo ſuffered ‖ for us, leaving us an example, that ye ſhould follow his ſteps:

22 Who did no ſin, neither was guile found in his mouth.

23 Who when he was reviled, reviled not again: when he ſuffered, he threatened not, but † committed himſelf to him that judgeth righteouſly.

24 Who his own ſelf bare our ſins in his own bodie ‖ on the tree, that we being dead to ſins, ſhould live unto righteouſneſſe, by whoſe ſtripes ye were healed.

25 For ye were as ſheep going aſtray, but are now returned unto the ſhepherd and Biſhop of your ſouls.

CHAP. III.

1 He teacheth the duty of wives and husbands to each other, 8 exhorting all men to unity and love, 14 and to ſuffer perſecution. 19 He declareth alſo the benefits of Chriſt toward the old world.

LIkewiſe, ye wives, be in ſubjection to your own husbands, that if any obey not the word, they alſo may without the word be won by the converſation of the wives;

2 While they behold your chaſte converſation coupled with fear:

3 Whoſe adorning, let it not be that outward adorning, of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparell,

4 But let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet ſpirit, which is in the ſight of God of great price.

5 For after this manner in the old time the holy women alſo who truſted in God adorned themſelves, being in ſubjection unto their own husbands.

Gen. 18. 12 6 Even as Sara obeyed Abraham, calling him † Lord, whoſe † daughters ye are as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement.

7 Likewiſe, ye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife as unto the weaker veſſel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life, that your prayers be not hindered.

8 Finally, be ye all of one minde, having compaſſion one of another, ‖ love as brethren, be pitifull, be courteous,

9 Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: but contrariwiſe bleſſing, knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye ſhould inherit a bleſſing.

pſal. 34. 10 For he that will love life, and ſee good dayes, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his * lips that they ſpeak no guile:

11 Let him eſchew evil, and do good, let him ſeek peace, and enſue it.

12 For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is † againſt them that do evil.

13 And who is he that will harm you, if ye be followers of that which is good?

14 But and if ye ſuffer for righteouſneſſe ſake, happy are ye, and be not * afraid of their terrour, neither be troubled:

15 But ſanctifie the Lord God in your hearts, and be ready alwayes to give an anſwer to every man that aſketh you a reaſon of the hope that is in you with meekneſſe and ‖ fear:

16 Having a good conſcience, that whereas they ſpeak evil of you, as of evil doers, they may be aſhamed that falſly accuſe your good converſation in Chriſt.

17 For it is better, if the will of God be ſo, that ye ſuffer for well-doing, then for evil doing.

18 For Chriſt alſo hath once ſuffered for ſins, the juſt for the unjuſt, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the fleſh, but quickened by the ſpirit:

19 By which alſo he went and preached unto the ſpirits in priſon,

20 Which ſometime were diſobedient, when once the long-ſuffering of God waited in the dayes of Noah, while the ark was a preparing: wherein few, that is, eight ſouls were ſaved by water.

21 The like figure whereunto, even baptiſme, doth alſo now ſave us (not the putting away of the filth of the fleſh, but the anſwer of a good conſcience toward God) by the reſurrection of Jeſus Chriſt,

22 Who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God, angels, and authorities, and powers being made ſubject unto him.

CHAP. IIII.

He exhorteth them to ceaſe from ſin by the example of Chriſt, and the conſideration of the generall end that now approacheth: 12 and comforteth them againſt perſecution.

FOraſmuch then as Chriſt hath ſuffered for us in the fleſh, arm your ſelves likewiſe with the ſame minde: for he that hath ſuffered in the fleſh, hath ceaſed from ſin:

2 That he no longer ſhould live the reſt of his time in the fleſh, to the luſts of men, but to the will of God.

3 For the time paſt of our life may ſuffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in laſciviouſneſſe, luſts, exceſſe of wine, revelings, banquettings and abominable idolatries.

4 Wherein they think it ſtrange, that you run not with them to the ſame exceſſe of riot, ſpeaking evil of you:

5 Who ſhall give account to him that is ready to judge the quick and the dead.

6 For, for this cauſe was the goſpel preached alſo to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the fleſh, but live according to God in the ſpirit.

7 But the end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore ſober, and watch unto prayer.

8 And above all things, have fervent charity among your ſelves: for charity ‖ ſhall cover the multitude of ſins.

9 Uſe hoſpitality one to another without grudging.

10 As every man hath received the gift, even ſo miniſter the ſame one to another, as good ſtewards of the manifold grace of God.

11 If any man ſpeak, let him ſpeak as the oracles of God: if any man miniſter, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth, that God in all things may be glorified through Jeſus Chriſt, to whom be praiſe and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

12 Beloved, think it not ſtrange concerning the fiery triall, which is to try you, as though ſome ſtrange thing happened unto you.

13 But rejoyce, in as much as ye are partakers of Chriſts ſufferings; that when his glory ſhall be revealed, ye may be glad alſo with exceeding joy.

14 If ye be reproached for the Name of Chriſt, happy are ye, for the ſpirit of glory, and of God reſteth upon you: on their part he is evil ſpoken of, but on your part he is glorified.

15 But let none of you ſuffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evil doer, or as a buſie body in other mens matters.

16 Yet if any man ſuffer as a Chriſtian, let him not be aſhamed, but let him glorifie God on this behalf.

17 For the time is come that judgement muſt begin at the houſe of God: and if it firſt begin at us, what ſhall the end be of them that obey not the goſpel of God?

18 And if the righteous ſcarcely be ſaved, where ſhall the ungodly and the ſinner appear?

19 Wherefore, let them that ſuffer according to the will of God, commit the keeping of their ſouls to him in well doing, as unto a faithfull Creatour.

CHAP. V.

1 He exhorteth the elders to feed their flocks, 5 the younger to obey, 8 and all to be ſober, watchfull, and conſtant in the faith: 9 toreſiſt the cruell adverſary the devil.

THe elders which are among you I exhort, who am alſo an elder, and a witneſſe of the ſufferings of Chriſt, and alſo a partaker of the glory that ſhall be revealed,

2 Feed the flock of God ‖ which is among you, taking the overſight thereof: not by conſtraint, but willingly: not for filthy lucre, but of a ready minde

3 Neither as being lords over Gods heritage: but being enſamples to the flock.

4 And when the chief Shepherd ſhall appear, ye ſhall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away.

5 Likewiſe, ye younger, ſubmit your ſelves unto the elder: yea, all of you be ſubject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God reſiſteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble.

6 Humble your ſelves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time,

7 Caſting all your care upon him, for he careth for you.

8 Be ſober, be vigilant: becauſe your adverſary the devil as a roaring lion, walketh about, ſeeking whom he may devour.

9 Whom reſiſt ſtedfaſt in the faith, knowing that the ſame afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world.

10 But the God of all grace, who hath called us into his eternall glory by Chriſt Jeſus, after that ye have ſuffered awhile, make you perfect, ſtabliſh, ſtrengthen, ſettle you.

11 To him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

12 By Sylvanus a faithfull brother unto you, (as I ſuppoſe) I have written briefly, exhorting and teſtifying, that this is the true grace of God wherein ye ſtand.

13 The church that is at Babylon, elected together with you, ſaluteth you, and ſo doth Marcus my ſon.

14 Greet ye one another with a kiſſe of charity: peace be with you all that are in Chriſt Jeſus. Amen.

¶ THE SECOND EPISTLE generall of PETER.

CHAP. I.

1 Confirming them in hope of the increase of Gods graces, 5 He exhorteth them by faith and good works to make their calling sure: 12 whereof he is carefull to remember them, knowing that his death is at hand: 16 and warneth them to be constant in the faith of Christ, who is the true Son of God, by the eye-witnesse of the apostles, beholding his majestie, and by the testimony of the Fathers, and the Prophets.

SImon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained like precious faith with us, through the righteousnesse of God, and our Saviour Jesus Christ:

2 Grace and peace be multiplied unto you, through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord,

3 According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godlines through the knowledge of him that hath called us ‖ to glory and vertue;

‖ Or, by.

4 Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises, that by these you might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

5 And besides this, giving all diligence, adde to your faith, vertue; and to vertue, knowledge;

6 And to knowledge, temperance; and to temperance, patience; and to patience, godlinesse;

7 And to godlinesse, brotherly kindnesse; and to brotherly kindnesse, charity.

8 For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren, nor unfruitfull in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 But he that lacketh these things, is blinde, and cannot see far off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sins.

10 Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall.

11 For so an entrance shall be ministred unto you abundantly, into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

12 Wherefore I will not be negligent to put you alwayes in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and be stablished in the present truth.

13 Yea, I think it meet, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up, by putting you in remembrance:

14 Knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even as * our Lord Jesus Christ hath shewed me.

* John 21.17.

15 Moreover, I will endeavour that you may be able after my decease, to have these things alwayes in remembrance.

16 For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eye-witnesses of his majestie.

17 For he received from God the Father, honour and glory; when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory; This is my beloved Son in whom I am well pleased.

18 And this voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with him in the holy mount.

19 We have also a more sure word of prophecie, whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, untill the day dawn, and the day star arise in your hearts:

20 Knowing this first, that no prophecie of the scripture is of any private interpretation:

21 For the prophecie came not ‖ in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the holy Ghost.

‖ In.

CHAP. II.

2 He foretelleth them of false teachers, shewing the impiety and punishment both of them and their followers: 7 from which the godly shall be delivered, as Lot was out of Sodom: 10 and more fully describeth the manners of those profane and blasphemous seducers, whereby they may be the better known and avoided.

BUt there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

2 And many shall follow their ‖ pernicious wayes, by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of:

‖ wantonnesse.

3 And through covetousnes shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you, whose judgement now of a long time lingreth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.

4 For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darknesse, to be reserved unto judgement:

5 And spared not the old world, but saved Noah the eight person, a preacher of righteousnesse, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly:

6 And turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes, condemned them with an overthrow, making them an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly:

7 And delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked.

8 (For that righteous man, dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawfull deeds)

9 The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgement to be punished,

10 But chiefly them that walk after the flesh, in the lust of uncleannesse, and despise ‖ government. * Presumptuous are they, self-willed: they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities;

‖ lordship.

11 Whereas angels, which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation ‖ against them before the Lord.

‖ upon.

12 But these, as naturall brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not, and shall utterly perish in their own corruption.

13 And shall receive the reward of unrighteousnesse, as they that count it pleasure to riot in the day time: spots they are, and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings, while they feast with you:

14 Having eyes full of † adultery, and that cannot cease from sin, beguiling unstable souls; an heart they have exercised with covetous practices: cursed children:

† or, whoredom.

15 Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousnesse,

16 But

16 But was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb asse speaking with mans voyce, forbade the madnesse of the peopher.

17 These are wels without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest, to whom the mist of darknesse is reserved for ever.

18 For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure, through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonnes, those that were ‖ clean escaped from them who live in errour.

19 While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.

20 For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world, through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again intangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them then the beginning.

21 For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousnesse, then after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them.

22 But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb: The dog is turned to his own vomit again, and the sow that was washed, to her wallowing in the mire.

CHAP. III.

He assureth them of the certainty of Christs coming to judgement, against those scorners who dispute against it: 8 warning the godly for the long patience of God, to hasten their repentance. 10 He describeth also the manner how the world shall be destroyed: 11 exhorting them, from the expectation thereof, to all holinesse of life: 15 and again to think the patience of God to tend to their salvation, as Paul wrote to them in his epistles.

THis second epistle (beloved) I now write unto you, in both which I stir up your pure mindes by way of remembrance:

2 That ye may be mindfull of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord and Saviour:

3 Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last dayes scoffers, walking after their own lusts,

4 And saying, Where is the promise of his coming? For since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.

5 For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth † standing out of the water and in the water, † Gr. consisting.

6 Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished.

7 But the heavens and the earth which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire, against the day of judgement, and perdition of ungodly men.

8 But (beloved) be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand yeers, and a thousand yeers as one day.

9 The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, (as some men count slackness) but is long-suffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

10 But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night, in the which the heavens shall passe away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burnt up.

11 Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godlinesse,

12 ‖ Looking for, and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat? ‖ Or. Hasting the coming.

13 Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens, and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousnesse.

14 Wherefore (beloved) seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blamelesse.

15 And account that the long-suffering of the Lord is salvation, even as our beloved brother Paul also, according to the wisdom given unto him, hath written unto you,

16 As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things, in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned, and unstable, wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction.

17 Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the errour of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastnesse.

18 But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ: to him be glory both now and for ever. Amen.

¶ THE FIRST EPISTLE generall of JOHN.

CHAP. I.

1 He describeth the person of Christ, in whom we have eternall life, by a communion with God: 5 To which we must adjoyn holinesse of life, to testifie the truth of that our communion, and profession of faith, as also to assure us of the forgivenesse of our sins by Christs death.

THat which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled of the word of life:

2 (For the life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witnesse, and shew unto you that eternall life which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us)

3 That which we have seen and heard, declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us; and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ.

4 And these things write we unto you, that your joy may be full.

5 This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darknesse at all.

6 If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darknesse, we lie, and do not the truth.

7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.

8 If we say that we have no sin, we deceive our selves, and the truth is not in us.

9 If we confesse our sins, he is faithfull, and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousnesse.

10 If

10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

CHAP. II.

1 He comforteth them against the sins of infirmity. 5 Rightly to know God, is to keep his commandments, 9 to love our brethren, 15 and not to love the world. 18 We must beware of seducers, from whose deceits the godly are safe, preserved by perseverance in faith, and holiness of life.

MY little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous:

2 And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.

3 And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments.

4 He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

5 But whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in him.

6 He that saith he abideth in him, ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked.

7 Brethren, I write no new commandment unto you, but an old commandment which ye had from the beginning: the old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning.

8 Again, a new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true in him and in you: because the darkness is past, and the true light now shineth.

9 He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now.

10 He that loveth his brother, abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of †stumbling in him.

11 But he that hateth his brother, is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes.

12 I write unto you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for his names sake.

13 I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome the wicked one. I write unto you, little children, because ye have known the Father.

14 I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one.

15 Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but of the world.

17 And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doth the will of God, abideth for ever.

18 Little children, it is the last time: and as ye have heard that Antichrist shall come, even now are there many Antichrists, whereby we know that it is the last time.

19 They went out from us, but they were not of us: for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out that they might be made manifest, that they were not all of us.

20 But ye have an unction from the holy One, and ye know all things.

21 I have not written unto you, because ye know not the truth: but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

22 Who is a liar, but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is Antichrist that denieth the Father and the Son.

23 Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: but he that acknowledgeth the Son, hath the Father also.

24 Let that therefore abide in you, which ye have heard from the beginning: if that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father.

25 And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life.

26 These things have I written unto you concerning them that seduce you.

27 But the anointing which ye have received of him, abideth in you: and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie: and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in ‖ him.

28 And now, little children, abide in him, that when he shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.

29 If ye know that he is righteous, ‖ ye know that every one which doth righteousness, is born of him.

CHAP. III.

He declareth the singular love of God towards us in making us his sons, 3 who therefore ought holily to keep his commandments, 11 as also brotherly to love one another.

BEhold what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not.

2 Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know, that when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is.

3 And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure.

4 Whosoever committeth sin, transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law.

5 And ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins, and in him is no sin.

6 Whosoever abideth in him, sinneth not: whosoever sinneth, hath not seen him, neither known him.

7 Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doth righteousness, is righteous, even as he is righteous.

8 He that committeth sin, is of the devil, for the devil sinneth from the beginning: for this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.

9 Whosoever is born of God, doth not commit sin: for his seed remaineth in him, and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.

10 In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doth not righteousness, is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother.

11 For this is the ‖ message that ye heard from the beginning, that we should love another.

12 Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother: and wherefore slew he him? because his own works were evil, and his brothers righteous.

13 Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you.

14 We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren: he that loveth not his brother, abideth in death.

15 Whoso-

15 Whosoever hateth his brother, is a murderer, and ye know that no murderer hath eternall life abiding in him.

16 Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

17 But whoso hath this worlds good, and seeth his brother hath need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?

18 My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue, but in deed, and in truth.

19 And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall † assure our hearts before him.

20 For if our heart condemn us, God is greater then our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence towards God.

22 And whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandment, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.

23 And this is his commandment, that we should beleeve on the Name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as he gave us commandment.

24 And he that keepeth his commandments, dwelleth in him, and he in him: and hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the spirit which he hath given us.

CHAP. IIII.

It warneth them not to beleeve all teachers, who boast of the spirit, but to try them by the rules of the catholike faith: 7 and by many reasons exhorteth to brotherly love.

BEloved, beleeve not every spirit, but try the spirits, whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.

2 Hereby know ye the spirit of God: every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, is of God.

3 And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, is not of God: and this is that spirit of Antichrist, whereof you have heard, that it should come, and even now already is it in the world.

4 Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, then he that is in the world.

5 They are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, and the world heareth them.

6 We are of God: he that knoweth God, heareth us: he that is not of God, heareth not us. Hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of errour.

7 Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God: and every one that loveth, is born of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loveth not, knoweth not God: for God is love.

9 In this was manifested the love of God towards us, because that God sent his onely begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him.

10 Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

11 Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.

12 No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us.

13 Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit.

14 And we have seen, and do testifie that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.

15 Whosoever shall confesse that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.

16 And we have known, and beleeved the love that God hath to us. God is love, and he that dwelleth in love, dwelleth in God, and God in him.

17 Herein is † our love made perfect, that we may have boldnesse in the day of judgement, because as he is, so are we in this world. † Greek, love with us.

18 There is no fear in love, but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment: he that feareth, is not made perfect in love.

19 We love him, because he first loved us.

20 If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar. For he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?

21 And this commandment have we from him, that he who loveth God, love his brother also.

CHAP. V.

1 He that loveth God, loveth his children, and keepeth his commandments: 3 which to the faithfull are light, and not grievous. 9 Jesus is the Son of God, able to save us, 14 and to hear our prayers, which we make for our selves, and for others.

WHosoever beleeveth that Jesus is the Christ, is born of God: and every one that loveth him that begat, loveth him also that is begotten of him.

2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep his commandments.

3 For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments, and his commandments are not grievous.

4 For whatsoever is born of God, overcometh the world, and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.

5 Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that beleeveth that Jesus is the Son of God?

6 This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ, not by water onely, but by water and blood: and it is the Spirit that beareth witnesse, because the Spirit is truth.

7 For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the holy Ghost: and these three are one.

8 And there are three that bear witnesse in earth, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.

9 If we receive the witnesse of men, the witnesse of God is greater: for this is the witnesse of God which he hath testified of his Son.

10 He that beleeveth on the Son of God, hath the witnesse in himself: he that beleeveth not God, hath made him a liar, because he beleeveth not the record that God gave of his Son.

11 And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternall life, and this life is in his Son.

12 He that hath the Son, hath life, and he that hath not the Son, hath not life.

13 These things have I written unto you that beleeve on the Name of the Son of God, that ye may know that ye have eternall life, and that ye may beleeve on the Name of the Son of God.

14 And this is the confidence that we have ‖ in him, that if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us. ‖ Or, concerning him.

15 And if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.

16 If any man see his brother sin a sin which is not unto death, he shall ask, and he shall give him life for them that sin not unto death. There is a sin unto death: I do not say that he shall pray for it.

17 All unrighteousnesse is sin, and there is a sinne unto death.

18 We know that whosoever is born of God, sinneth not: but he that is begotten of God, keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not.

19 And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickednesse.

20 And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true: and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternall life.

21 Little children, keep your selves from idols. Amen.

¶ THE SECOND EPISTLE OF JOHN.

He exhorteth a certain honourable matron, with her children, to perseuere in Christian loue and beleef, 8 lest they lose the reward of their former profession: 10 and to haue nothing to do with those seducers that bring not the true doctrine of Christ Jesu.

THe elder unto the elect lady and her children, whom I love in the truth: and not I onely, but also all they that have known the truth:

2 For the truths sake which dwelleth in us, and shall be with us for ever:

3 Grace be with you, mercy, and peace from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

4 I rejoyced greatly that I found of thy children walking in truth, as we have received a commandment from the Father.

5 And now I beseech thee, lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment unto thee; but that which we had from the beginning, that we love one another.

6 And this is love, that we walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, that as ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in it.

7 For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confesse not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver, and an Antichrist.

8 Look to your selves, that we lose not those things which we have ‖ wrought, but that we receive a full reward.

9 Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God: he that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son.

10 If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed.

11 For he that biddeth him God speed, is partaker of his evil deeds.

12 Having many things to write unto you, I would not write with paper and ink, but I trust to come unto you, and speak † face to face, that our joy may be full.

13 The children of thy elect sister greet thee. Amen.

¶ THE THIRD EPISTLE OF JOHN.

He commendeth Gaius for his pietie, 5 and hospitalitie 7 to true preachers, 9 complaining of the unkinde dealing of ambitious Diotrephes on the contrarie side: 11 whose evil example is not to be followed: 12 and giveth speciall testimony to the good report of Demetrius.

‖ Or, truely.

THe elder unto the welbeloved Gaius, whom I love ‖ in the truth:

‖ Or, pray.

2 Beloved, I ‖ wish above all things, that thou mayest prosper, and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.

3 For I rejoyced greatly when the brethren came and testified of the truth that is in thee, even as thou walkest in the truth.

4 I have no greater joy, then to hear that my children walk in truth.

5 Beloved, thou doest faithfully whatsoever thou doest to the brethren, and to strangers;

† Greek, worthy of God.

6 Which have born witnesse of thy charity before the church: whom if thou bring forward on their journey † after a godly sort, thou shalt do well:

7 Because that for his Names sake they went forth, taking nothing of the Gentiles.

8 We therefore ought to receive such, that we might be fellow-helpers to the truth.

9 I wrote unto the church, but Diotrephes, who loveth to have the preeminence among them, receiveth us not.

10 Wherefore if I come, I will remember his deeds which he doth, prating against us with malicious words: and not content therewith, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and forbiddeth them that would, and casteth them out of the church.

11 Beloved, follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. He that doth good, is of God: but he that doth evil, hath not seen God.

12 Demetrius hath good report of all men, and of the truth it self: yea, and we also bear record, and ye know that our record is true.

13 I had many things to write, but I will not with ink and pen write unto thee.

14 But I trust I shall shortly see thee, and we † shall speak face to face. Peace be to thee. Our friends salute thee. Greet the friends by name.

¶ THE

¶ THE GENERALL EPISTLE OF JUDE.

He exhorteth them to be constant in the profession of the faith. 14 False teachers are crept in to seduce them: for whose damnable doctrine and manners horrible punishment is prepared: 20 whereas the godly, by the assistance of the holy Spirit, and prayers to God, may persevere and grow in grace, and keep themselves, and recover others out of the snares of those deceivers.

JUde the servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ, and called:

2 Mercy unto you, and peace, and love be multiplied.

3 Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you, that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

4 For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousnesse, and denying the onely Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.

5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that the Lord having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed them that believed not.

6 And the angels which kept not their ‖ first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darknesse, unto the judgement of the great day.

7 Even as Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities about them, in like manner giving themselves over to fornication, and going after † strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternall fire.

8 Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities.

9 Yet Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil, he disputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, * The Lord rebuke thee.

10 But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves.

11 Wo unto them, for they have gone in the way of Kain, and ran greedily after the errour of Balaam for reward, and perished in the gainsaying of Core.

12 These are spots in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without water, carried about of windes: trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots:

13 Raging waves of the sea, foming out their own shame: wandering starrs, to whom is reserved the blacknesse of darknesse for ever.

14 And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints,

15 To execute judgement upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them, of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches, which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.

16 These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts, and their mouth speaketh great swelling words, having mens persons in admiration because of advantage.

17 But, beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ:

18 How that they told you there should be mockers in the last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts.

19 These be they who separate themselves, sensuall, having not the spirit.

20 But ye, beloved, building up your selves on your most holy faith, praying in the holy Ghost,

21 Keep your selves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternall life.

22 And of some have compassion, making a difference:

23 And others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire: hating even the garment spotted by the flesh.

24 Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultlesse before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy,

25 To the onely wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, now and ever. Amen.

¶ THE REVELATION OF S. JOHN the DIVINE.

CHAP. I.

¶ John writeth his revelation to the seven churches of Asia, signified by the seven golden candlesticks. 7 The coming of Christ. 14 His glorious power and majestie.

THE revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to shew unto his servants things which must shortly come to passe; and he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant John,

2 Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things that he saw.

3 Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand.

4 ¶ John to the seven churches in Asia, Grace be unto you, and peace, from him * which is, and which was, and which is to come, and from the seven spirits which are before his throne: * Exod. 3.14.

5 And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithfull witnesse, and the * first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth: unto him that loved us, * and washed us from our sins in his own blood, * 1 Cor. 15.21. Colos. 1.18. * Hebr. 9.14.

6 And hath * made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen. * 1 Per. 2.5.

7 * Behold, he cometh with clouds, and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him, and all kinreds of the earth shall wail because of him: even so, Amen. * Matth. 24.30.

8 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.

9 I John, who also am your brother, and companion

panion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the isle that is called Patmos, for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ.

10 I was in the spirit on the Lords day, and heard behinde me a great voice, as of a trumpet, 11 Saying, I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: and what thou seest, write in a book, and send it unto the seven churches which are in Asia, unto Ephesus, and unto Smyrna, and unto Pergamos, and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and unto Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea.

12 And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks, 13 And in the midst of the seven candlesticks one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle.

14 His head, and his hairs were white like wooll, as white as snow, and his eyes were as a flame of fire;

15 And his feet like unto fine brasse, as if they burned in a furnace: and his voice as the sound of many waters.

16 And he had in his right hand seven starrs: and out of his mouth went a sharp two edged sword: and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength.

17 And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead: and he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not, * I am the first and the last.

* Isaiah 41.4 & 44.6.

18 I am he that liveth, and was dead; and behold, I am alive for evermore. Amen, and have the keys of hell and of death.

19 Write the things which thou hast seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall be hereafter.

20 The mystery of the seven starrs, which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven starrs are the angels of the seven churches: and the seven candlesticks which thou sawest, are the seven churches.

CHAP. II.

What is commanded to be written to the angels that is, the ministers of the churches of 1 Ephesus, 8 Smyrna, 12 Pergamos, 18 Thyatira: and what is commended, or found wanting in them.

UNto the angel of the church of Ephesus, write, These things saith he that holdeth the seven starrs in his right hand, who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks:

2 I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil, and thou hast tried them which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars:

3 And hast born, and hast patience, and for my Names sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted.

4 Nevertheless, I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love.

5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, & repent, & do the first works, or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent.

6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.

7 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches, To him that overcometh, will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the Paradise of God.

8 And unto the angel of the church in Smyrna, write, These things saith the first and the last, which was dead, and is alive.

9 I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, but thou art rich; and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan.

10 Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried, and ye shall have tribulation ten dayes: be thou faithfull unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life.

11 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches. He that overcometh, shall not be hurt of the second death.

12 And to the angel of the church in Pergmos, write, These things saith he, who hath the sharp sword with two edges:

13 I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even where Satans seat is, and thou holdest fast my Name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those dayes, wherein Antipas was my faithfull martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth.

14 But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of * Balaam, who taught Balac to cast a stumbling block before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication.

15 So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitans, which thing I hate.

16 Repent, or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

17 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches, To him that overcometh, will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth, saving he that receiveth it.

18 And unto the angel of the church in Thyatira, write, These things saith the Son of God, who hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brasse:

19 I know thy works, and charity, and service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works, and the last to be more then the first.

20 Notwithstanding, I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman * Jezebel, which calleth her self a prophetesse, to teach, and to seduce my servants, to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols.

21 And I gave her space to repent of her fornication, and she repented not.

22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her, into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds.

23 And I will kill her children with death, and all the churches shall know that * I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and I will give unto every one of you according to your works.

24 But unto you I say, and unto the rest in Thyatira, as many as have not this doctrine, and which have not known the depths of Satan, as they speak, I will put upon you none other burden.

25 But that which ye have already, hold fast till I come.

26 And he that overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations:

27 (* And he shall rule them with a rod of iron, as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers:) even as I received of my Father.

28 And I will give him the morning starr.

29 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

CHAP. III.

1 The angel of the church of Sardis is reproved, 3 exhorted to repent, and threatened if he do not repent, 7 The angel of the church of Philadelphia,

Philadelphia, 10 is approved for his diligence and patience. 15 The angel of Laodicea reuoked, for being neither hot nor cold, 19 and admonished to be more zealous. 20 Christ standeth at the dore, and knocketh.

AND unto the angel of the church in Sardis, write, These things saith he that hath the seuen spirits of God, and the seuen starrs; I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou liuest, and art dead.

2 Be watchfull, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.

3 Remember therefore how thou hast received, and heard, and hold fast, and repent. * If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a theef, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee. * Mat. 24. 43. 1. Thes. 5. 2. 2. Pet. 3. 10. Reu. 16. 15.

4 Thou hast a few names even in Sardis, which have not defiled their garments, and they shall walk with me in white; for they are worthy.

5 He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment, and I will not blot out his name out of the * book of life, but I will confesse his name before my Father, and before his angels. * Exod. 32. 32. Psal. 69. 28. Dan. 12. 1. Mat. 10. 32. Luke 12. 8.

6 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

7 And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia, write, These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth, and shutteth, and no man openeth;

8 I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open dore, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my Name.

9 Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie: behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.

10 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth.

11 Behold, I come quickly, hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown.

12 Him that overcometh, will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new name.

13 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

14 And unto the angel of the church of the Laodiceans, write, These things saith the Amen, the faithfull and true witnesse, the beginning of the creation of God;

15 I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot, I would thou wert cold or hot.

16 So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth:

17 Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blinde, and naked.

18 I counsell thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiments, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakednesse do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eye-salve, that thou mayest see.

19 * As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore and repent. * Prov. 3. 11. heb. 12. 5.

20 Behold, I stand at the dore, and knock: if any man hear my voyce, and open the dore, I will come in to him, and will sup with him; and he with me.

21 To him that overcometh, will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne.

22 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

CHAP. IIII.

2 John seeth the throne of God in heaven. 4 The four and twenty elders. 6 The four beasts full of eyes before and behinde. 10 The elders lay down their crowns, and worship him that sate on the throne.

AFter this I looked, and behold, a dore was opened in heaven: and the first voyce which I heard, was, as it were, of a trumpet, talking with me, which said, Come up hither, and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter.

2 And immediately I was in the spirit: and behold, a throne was set in heaven, and one sate on the throne.

3 And he that sate was to look upon like a jasper, and a sardine stone, and there was a rainbowe round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald.

4 And round about the throne were four and tweny seats, and upon the seats I saw four and tweny elders sitting, clothed in white raiment, and they had on their heads crowns of gold.

5 And out of the throne proceeded lightenings, and thunderings, and voyces: and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven spirits of God.

6 And before the throne there was a sea of glasse like unto crystal: and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, were four beasts full of eyes before and behinde.

7 And the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calf, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle.

8 And the four beasts had each of them six wings about him, and they were full of eyes within, and they † rest not day and night, saying, * Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come. † Gr. they have no rest. * Isai. 6. 3.

9 And when those beasts give glory, and honour, and thanks to him that sate on the throne, who liveth for ever and ever,

10 The four and twenty elders fall down before him that sate on the throne, and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying,

11 * Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory, and honour, and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are, and were created. * Chap. 5. 12.

CHAP. V.

1 The book sealed with seven seals. 9 which onely the Lamb that was slain is worthy to open. 12 Therefore the elders praise him, 9 and confesse that he redeemed them with his blood.

AND I saw in the right hand of him that sate on the throne, a book written within, and on the backside, sealed with seven seals.

2 And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice; Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof?

3 And no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon.

4 And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon.

5 And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, * the lion of the tribe of Juda, the root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof.

* Gen. 49. 9.

6 And I beheld, and lo, in the midst of the throne, and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns, and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God, sent forth into all the earth.

7 And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him that sate upon the throne.

8 And when he had taken the book, the four beasts, and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them harps, and golden vials full of ‖ odours, which are the prayers of saints.

9 And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood, out of every kinred, and tongue, and people, and nation:

10 * And hast made us unto our God kings and priests, and we shall reign on the earth.

* 1 Pet. 2. 9.

11 And I beheld, and I heard the voyce of many angels round about the throne, and the beasts, and the elders, and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands,

12 Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain, to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

13 And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I, saying, Blessing, honour, glory, and power be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever.

14 And the four beasts said, Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshipped him that liveth for ever and ever.

CHAP. VI.

1 The opening of the seals in order; and what followed thereupon, containing a prophecie to the end of the world.

AND I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard as it were the noise of thunder, one of the four beasts saying, Come and see.

2 And I saw, and behold a white horse, and he that sate on him had a bowe, and a crown was given unto him, and he went forth conquering and to conquer.

3 And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second beast say, Come and see.

4 And there went out another horse that was red: and power was given to him that sate thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.

5 And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo, a black horse: and he that sate on him had a pair of balances in his hand.

‖ The word choenix signifieth a measure containing one wine quart, and the twelfth part of a penny.

6 And I heard a voyce in the midst of the four beasts say, ‖ A measure of wheat for a peny, and three measures of barley for a peny, and see thou hurt not the oil and the wine.

7 And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see.

8 And I looked, and behold, a pale horse, and his name that sate on him was Death, and hell followed with him: and power was given ‖ unto them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.

9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held.

10 And they cried with a loud voyce, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, doest thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

11 And white robes were given unto every one of them, and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, untill their fellow-servants also, and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.

12 And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and lo, there was a great earthquake, and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood,

13 And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig-tree casteth her ‖ untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty winde.

14 * And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together, and every mountain and island were moved out of their places,

15 And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bond-man, and every free-man hid themselves in the dens, and in the rocks of the mountains,

16 And said to the mountains and rocks, * Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb:

17 For the great day of his wrath is come, and who shall be able to stand?

CHAP. VII.

3 An angel sealeth the servants of God in their foreheads. 4 The number of them that were sealed: of the tribes of Israel a certain number: 9 of all other nations an innumerable multitude, which stand before the throne, clad in white robes, and palms in their hands. 14 Their robes were washed in the blood of the Lamb.

AND after these things I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four windes of the earth, that the winde should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.

2 And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voyce to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea,

3 Saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads.

4 And I heard the number of them which were sealed: and there were sealed an hundred and fourty and four thousand, of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

5 Of the tribe of Juda were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelve thousand.

6 Of the tribe of Aser were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Nepthali were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Manasses were sealed twelve thousand.

7 Of the tribe of Simeon were sealed twelve thousand thousand. Of the tribe of Levi were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Issachar were sealed twelve thousand.

8 Of the tribe of Zabulon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Joseph were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thousand.

9 After this I beheld, and lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands:

10 And cryed with a loud voyce, saying, Salvation to our God, which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb.

11 And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders, and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God,

12 Saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen.

13 And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arayed in white robes? And whence came they?

14 And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb:

15 Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall * dwell among them.

16 * They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more, neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat.

17 For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: * and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

CHAP. VIII.

1 At the opening of the seventh seal, 2 seven angels had seven trumpets given them. 6 Four of them sound their trumpets, and great plagues follow. 3 Another angel puteth incense to the prayers of the saints on the golden altar.

ANd when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour.

2 And I saw the seven angels which stood before God, and to them were given seven trumpets.

3 And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer, and there was given unto him much incense, that he should ‖ offer it with the prayers of all saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne.

4 And the smoak of the incense which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God out of the angels hand.

5 And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it into the earth: and there were voices, and thundrings, and lightnings, and an earthquake:

6 And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets, prepared themselves to sound.

7 The first angel sounded, and there followed hail, and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth, and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grasse was burnt up.

8 And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea, and the third part of the sea became blood,

9 And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died, and the third part of the ships were destroyed.

10 And the third angel sounded, and there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters:

11 And the name of the star is called Wormwood, and the third part of the waters became wormwood, and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars, so as the third part of them was darkened: and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise.

13 And I beheld, and heard an angel flying thorow the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Wo, wo, wo to the inhabiters of the earth, by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels which are yet to sound.

CHAP. IX.

1 At the sounding of the fifth angel, a star falleth from heaven, to whom is given the key of the bottomlesse pit: 2 He openeth the pit, and there come forth locusts like scorpions. 12 The first wo past. 13 The sixth trumpet sounded. 14 Four angels are let loose that were bound.

ANd the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomlesse pit.

2 And he opened the bottomlesse pit, and there arose a smoak out of the pit, as the smoak of a great furnace, and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoak of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoak locusts upon the earth, and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power.

4 And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grasse of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree: but only those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads.

5 And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five moneths, and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man.

6 And in those dayes shall men seek death, and shall not finde it, and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

7 And the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battell, and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men.

8 And they had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions.

9 And they had brest-plates as it were brest-plates of iron, and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots, of many horses running to battell.

10 And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: and their power was to hurt men five moneths.

11 And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomlesse pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name ‖ Apollyon.

‖ That is to say, a destroyer.

12 One wo is past, and behold, there come two woes more hereafter.

13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voyce from the four horns of the golden altar, which is before God,

14 Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound in the great river Euphrates.

15 And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared ‖ for an hour, and a day, and a moneth, and a yeer, for to slay the third part of men.

‖ Or, at.

16 And the number of the army of the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand: and I heard the number of them.

17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breast-plates of fire, and of jacinct, and brimstone: and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouthes issued fire, and smoak, and brimstone.

18 By these three was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoak, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouthes.

19 For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails were like unto serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt.

20 And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues, yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship devils, and idols of gold, and silver, and brasse, and stone, and of wood, which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk:

* Psal. 115.4. & 135.15.

21 Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their theft.

CHAPTER X.

A mighty strong angel appeareth with a book open in his hand. 6 He sweareth by him that liveth for ever, that there shall be no more time. 9 John is commanded to take and eat the book.

AND I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud, and a rain-bow was upon his head, and his face was as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire.

2 And he had in his hand a little book open: and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth,

3 And cryed with a loud voice, as when a lion roareth: and when he had cried, seven thunders uttered their voices.

4 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven, saying unto me, Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.

5 And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea, and upon the earth, lifted up his hand to heaven,

6 And sware by him that liveth for ever and ever, who created heaven, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein, that there should be time no longer.

7 But in the dayes of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mysterie of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets.

8 And the voice which I heard from heaven, spake unto me again, & said, Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel, which standeth upon the sea, and upon the earth.

9 And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, * Take it, and eat it up, and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey.

* Ezek. 2.8. and 3.3.

10 And I took the little book out of the angels hand, and ate it up, and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and assoon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

11 And he said unto me, Thou must prophesie again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings.

CHAPTER XI.

The two witnesses have power to shut heaven that it rain not, 7 they have power to slay them, 8 and they lie dead three dayes and a half, 11 and after three dayes and a half rise again. 14 The second woe is past. 15 The seventh trumpet soundeth.

AND there was given me a reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.

2 But the court which is without the temple ‖ leave out, and measure it not: for it is given unto the Gentiles, and the holy city shall they tread under foot fourty and two moneths.

‖ Or, cast.

3 And I will give power unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesie a thousand two hundred and threescore dayes, clothed in sackcloth.

4 These are the * two olive-trees, and the two candlesticks, standing before the God of the earth.

* Zech. 4.3.

5 And if any man will hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: and if any man will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed.

6 These have power to shut heaven, that it rain not in the dayes of their prophecie: and have power over waters, to turn them to blood, and to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will.

7 And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that ascendeth out of the bottomlesse pit, shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.

8 And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom, and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified.

9 And they of the people, and kinreds, and tongues, and nations, shall see their dead bodies three dayes and a half, and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves.

10 And they that dwell upon the earth, shall rejoyce over them, and make merry, and shall send gifts one to another, because these two prophets tormented them that dwelt on the earth.

11 And after three dayes and an half, the spirit of life from God entered into them: and they stood upon their feet, and great fear fell upon them which saw them.

12 And they heard a great voice from heaven, saying unto them, Come up hither. And they ascended up to heaven in a cloud, and their enemies beheld them.

13 And the same hour was there a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain of men seven thousand: and the remnant were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven.

14 The second woe is past, and behold, the third woe cometh quickly.

15 And the seventh angel sounded, and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ, and he shall reign for ever and ever.

16 And the four and twenty elders which sat before God on their seats, fell upon their faces, and worshipped God,

17 Saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which art, and wast, and art to come, because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and hast reigned.

18 And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead that they should be judged, and that thou shouldest give reward unto thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and them that fear thy Name, small and great, & shouldest destroy them which destroy the earth.

19 And the temple of God was opened in heaven, sent, and there was seen in his temple the ark of his testament, and there were lightnings, and voices, and thunderings, and an earthquake, and great hail.

CHAP. XII.

1 A woman clothed with the sun, travelleth. 4 The great red dragon standeth before her, ready to devour her childe: 6 when she was delivered, she fleeth into the wilderness. 7 Michael and his angels fight with the dragon, and prevail. 13 The dragon being cast down into the earth, persecuteth the woman.

AND there appeared a great ‖ wonder in heaven, a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars:

2 And she being with childe, cryed, travelling in birth, and pained to be delivered.

3 And there appeared another ‖ wonder in heaven, and behold, a great red dragon, having seven heads, and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads.

4 And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her childe assoon as it were born.

5 And she brought forth a man-childe, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her childe was caught up unto God, and to his throne.

6 And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred and threescore dayes.

7 And there was war in heaven, Michael and his angels fought against the dragon, and the dragon fought and his angels,

8 And prevailed not, neither was their place found any more in heaven.

9 And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the devil and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

10 And I heard a loud voice, saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ; for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.

11 And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of his testimony, and they loved not their lives unto the death.

12 Therefore rejoyce, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them; wo to the inhabiters of the earth, and of the sea: for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.

13 And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man-childe.

14 And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might flee into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent.

15 And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman: that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood.

16 And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth.

17 And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.

CHAP. XIII.

1 A beast riseth out of the sea with seven heads and ten horns, to whom the dragon giveth his power. 11 another beast cometh up out of the earth, 14 causeth an image to be made of the former beast, 15 and that men should worship it, 16 and receive his mark.

AND I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads, and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the ‖ name of blasphemy. ‖ Or, names.

2 And the beast which I saw, was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority.

3 And I saw one of his heads as it were † wounded to death, and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast. † Greek slain.

4 And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast, and they worshipped the the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?

5 And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things, and blasphemies, and power was given unto him ‖ to continue fourty and two moneths. ‖ Or, to make war.

6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven.

7 And it was given to him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations.

8 And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb, slain from the foundation of the world.

9 If any man have an ear, let him hear.

10 He that leadeth into captivity, shall go into captivity: * he that killeth with the sword, must be killed with the sword. Here is the patience, and the faith of the saints. * Matth. 26. 52.

11 And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth, and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.

12 And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth, and them which dwell therein, to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

13 And he doth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men,

14 And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth, by the means of those miracles, which he had power to do in the sight of the beast, saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live.

15 And he had power to give † life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast, should be killed. † Greek breath.

16 And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, † to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: † Or, to give.

17 And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

18 Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man, and his number is six hundred threescore and six.

CHAP.

CHAP. XIIII.

The Lamb standing on mount Sion with his company, 6 an angel preacheth the gospel. 8 The fall of Babylon. 15 The harvest of the world, and putting in of the sicle. 20 The vintage and winepresse of the wrath of God.

AND I looked, and lo, a Lamb stood on the mount Sion, and with him an hundred fourty and four thousand, having his Fathers name written in their foreheads.

2 And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of harpers, harping with their harps.

3 And they sang as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders, and no man could learn that song, but the hundred and fourty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth.

4 These are they which were not defiled with women, for they are virgins: these are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth: these were redeemed from among men, being the firstfruits unto God, and to the Lamb.

Gr. were bought.

5 And in their mouth was found no guile: for they are without fault before the throne of God.

6 And I saw another angel flie in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kinred, and tongue, and people,

7 Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him, for the hour of his judgement is come: * and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.

* Psal. 146. 5. acts 14. 15.

8 And there followed another angel, saying, * Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

* Isa. 21. 9. jer. 51. 8. chap. 18. 2.

9 And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast, and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand,

10 The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation, and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb:

11 And the smoak of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: And they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast, and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.

12 Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.

13 And I heard a voice from heaven, saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord, ‖ from henceforth, yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours, and their works do follow them.

‖ Or, from henceforth saith the Spirit, Yea.

14 And I looked, and behold, a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat like unto the Son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sicle.

15 And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, * Thrust in thy sicle and reap, for the time is come for thee to reap, for the harvest of the earth is ‖ ripe.

* Joel 3. 13. ‖ Or, ripe.

16 And he that sat on the cloud thrust in his sicle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

17 And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sicle.

18 And another angel came out from the altar, which had power over fire, and cried with a loud crie to him that had the sharp sicle, saying, Thrust in thy sharp sicle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, for her grapes are fully ripe.

19 And the angel thrust in his sicle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great wine-presse of the wrath of God.

20 And the wine-presse was troden without the city, and blood came out of the winepresse, even unto the horse bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

CHAP. XV.

1 The seven angels with the seven last plagues. 3 The song of them that overcome the beast. 7 The seven vials full of the wrath of God.

AND I saw another signe in heaven, great and marvellous, seven angels, having the seven last plagues, for in them is filled up the wrath of God.

2 And I saw as it were a sea of glasse mingled with fire, and them that had gotten the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glasse, having the harps of God.

3 * And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty, * just and true are thy wayes, thou King of saints.

* Psal. 111. 2. & 139. 14. * Deut. 32. 4. dan. 4. 37. chap. 16. 7.

4 * Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorifie thy Name? for thou onely art holy: for all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgements are made manifest.

* jer. 10. 7.

5 And after that I looked, and behold, the temple of the tabernacle of the testimonie in heaven was opened:

6 And the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, clothed in pure and white linen, and having their breasts girded with golden girdles.

7 And one of the four beasts gave unto the seven angels seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, who liveth for ever and ever.

8 And the temple was filled with smoak from the glory of God, and from his power; and no man was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.

CHAP. XVI.

2 The angels pour out their vials full of wrath. 6 The plagues that follow thereupon. 15 Christ cometh as a thief. Blessed are they that watch.

AND I heard a great voice out of the temple saying to the seven angels, Go your wayes, and pour out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth.

2 And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth, and there fell a noisom and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image.

3 And the second angel poured out his vial upon the sea, and it became as the blood of a dead man: and every living soul died in the sea.

4 And the third angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of waters, and they became blood.

5 And I heard the angel of the waters say, Thou art righteous, O Lord, which art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus:

6 For they have shed the blood of saints, and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink: for they are worthy.

7 And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are thy judgements.

8 And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun, and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire.

9 And

9 And men were ‖ scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: and they repented not, to give him glory.

10 And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon the seat of the beast, and his kingdom was full of darkenesse, and they gnawed their tongues for pain,

11 And blasphemed the God of heaven, because of their pains, and their sores, and repented not of their deeds.

12 And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates, and the water thereof was dried up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared.

13 And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs, come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

14 For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth, and of the whole world, to gather them to the battell of that great day of God Almighty.

15 * Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.

16 And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue, Armageddon.

17 And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the aire, and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, It is done.

18 And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty a earthquake, and so great.

19 And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, * to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fiercenesse of his wrath.

20 And every iland fled away, and the mountains were not found.

21 And there fell upon men a great hail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent, and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail: for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

CHAP. XVII.

1 A woman araied in purple and scarlet, with a golden cup in her hand, sitteth upon the beast, 5 which is great Babylon, the mother of all abominations. 9 The interpretation of the seven heads, 12 and the ten horns. 8 The punishment of the whore. 14 The victory of the Lamb.

AND there came one of the seven angels, which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither, I will shew unto the judgement of the great whore, that sitteth upon many waters;

2 With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and the inhabiters of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he carried me away in the spirit into the wildernesse, and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet-coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads, and ten horns.

4 And the woman was araied in purple, and scarlet colour, and † decked with gold, and precious stone, and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand, full of abominations and filthinesse of her fornication.

5 And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS, AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

6 And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.

7 And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvell? I will tell thee the mysterie of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads, and ten horns.

8 The beast that thou sawest, was, and is not, and shall ascend out of the bottomlesse pit, and go into perdition, and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder (whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world) when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 And here is the minde which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth.

10 And there are seven kings, five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come: and when he cometh, he must continue a short space.

11 And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition.

12 And the ten horns which thou sawest, are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet: but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.

13 These have one minde, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast.

14 These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: * for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings, and they that are with him, are called, and chosen, and faithfull. * 1 Tim. 6 15. cha. 19. 16.

15 And he saith unto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

16 And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate, and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire.

17 For God hath put in their hearts to fulfill his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, untill the words of God shall be fulfilled.

18 And the woman which thou sawest, is that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

CHAP. XVIII.

2 Babylon is fallen. 4 The people of God commanded to depart out of her. 9 The kings of the earth, 11 with the merchants, and mariners, lament over her. 20 The saints rejoyce for the judgements of God upon her.

AND after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power, and the earth was lightened with his glory.

2 And he cryed mightily with a strong voice, saying, * Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hatefull bird: * Chap. 14. 8.

3 For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the ‖ abundance of her delicacies. ‖ Or, power.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues:

5 For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.

6 Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled, fill to her double.

7 How

7 How much she hath glorified her self, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit *a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.

*Isaiah 47.8.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine, and she shall be utterly burnt with fire; for strong is the Lord God, who judgeth her.

9 And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication, and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoak of her burning:

10 Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city: for in one hour is thy judgement come.

11 And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her, for no man buyeth their merchandise any more.

12 The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all ‖ thyne-wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brasse, and iron, and marble,

‖ Or, sweet.

13 And cynamom, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and charets, and ‖ slaves, and souls of men.

‖ Or, bodies.

14 And the fruits that thy soul lusted after, are departed from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly, are departed from thee, and thou shalt finde them no more at all.

15 The merchants of these things, which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing,

16 And saying, Alas, alas, that great city that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls!

17 For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And every ship-master, and all the company in ships, and sailers, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off,

18 And cryed when they saw the smoak of her burning, saying, What city is like unto this great citie?

19 And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping, and wailing, saying, Alas, alas, that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea, by reason of her costlinesse, for in one hour is she made desolate.

20 Rejoyce over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles, and prophets, for God hath avenged you on her.

21 And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all.

22 And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpetters, shall be heard no more at all in thee: and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee: and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee:

23 And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee: and the voice of the bridegroom, and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth: for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived.

24 And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth.

CHAP. XIX.

1 God is praised in heaven for judging the great whore, and avenging the blood of his saints. 7 The marriage of the Lamb. 10 The angel will not be worshipped. 17 The fowls called to the great slaughter.

AND after these things I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, Alleluia, salvation, and glory, and honour, and power unto the Lord our God:

2 For true and righteous are his judgements, for he hath judged the great whore which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand.

3 And again they said, Alleluia: and her smoak rose up for ever and ever.

4 And the four and twenty elders, and the four beasts fell down, and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, Amen, Alleluia.

5 And a voice came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, both small and great.

6 And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth.

7 Let us be glad, and rejoyce, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made her self ready.

8 And to her was granted, that she should be arated in fine linen, clean, and white: for the fine linen is the righteousnesse of saints.

9 And he saith unto me, Write, * Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, These are the true sayings of God.

10 And I fell at his feet to worship him: and he said unto me, * See thou do it not: I am thy fellow-servant, and of thy brethren, that have the testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecie.

11 And I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse, and he that sat upon him was called faithfull and true, and in righteousnesse he doth judge and make war.

12 His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns, and he had a name written, that no man knew but he himself.

13 * And he was clothed with a vesture dipt in blood, and his Name is called, The Word of God.

14 And the armies which were in heaven, followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean.

15 And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the wine-presse of the fiercenesse and wrath of almighty God.

16 And he hath on his vesture, and on his thigh a name written, * KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

17 And I saw an angel standing in the sun, and he cryed with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that flie in the midst of heaven, Come, and gather your selves together unto the supper of the great God:

18 That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.

19 And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies gathered together to make war against him that sate on the horse, and against his army.

20 And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet, that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone.

21 And the remnant were slain with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth: and all the fowls were filled with their flesh.

CHAP. XX.

1 Satan bound for a thousand years. 6 The first resurrection: the y blessed that have art therein. 7 Satan let loose again. 8 Gog and Magog. 10 The devil cast into the lake of fire and brimstone. 12 The last and general resurrection.

AND I saw an angel come down from heaven, having the key of the bottomlesse pit, and a great chain in his hand.

2 And he laid hold on the dragoon that old serpent, which is the devil and Satan, and bound him a thousand yeers,

3 And cast him into the bottomlesse pit, and shut him up, and set a seal upon him, that he should deceive the nations no more till the thousand yeers should be fulfilled: and after that he must be loosed a little season.

4 And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgement was given unto them: and I saw the soules of them that were beheaded for the witnesse of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their fore-heads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand yeers.

5 But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand yeers were finished. This is the first resurrection.

6 Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God, and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand yeers.

7 And when the thousand yeers are expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison,

8 And shall go out to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, *Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battell: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea.

9 And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them.

10 And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

11 And I saw a great white throne, and him that sate on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away, and there was found no place for them.

12 And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God: and the books were opened, and another book was opened, which is the book of life: & the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works.

13 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it: and death and || hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works.

14 And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire: this is the second death.

15 And whosoever was not found written in the book of life, was cast into the lake of fire.

CHAP. XXI.

1 A new heaven and a new earth. 9 The heavenly Jerusalem, with a full description thereof. 23 She needeth no sun, the glory of God is her light: 24 The kings of the earth bring their riches unto her.

AND * I saw a new heaven, and a new earth: for the first heaven, and the first earth were passed away, and there was no more sea. 10

2 And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

3 And I heard a great voice out of heaven, saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

4 * And God shall wipe away all teares from their eyes, and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away. * Chap. 7.17.

5 And he that sat upon the throne, said, *Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithfull. *2 Cor. 5.17.

6 And he said unto me, It is done: *I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. * I will give unto him that is athirst, of the fountain of the water of life, freely. * Chap. 1.8. and 22.13. * Isaiah 55.1.

7 He that overcometh shall inherit all things, and I will be his God, and he shall be my son.

8 But the fearfull, and unbeleeving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.

9 And there came unto me one of the seven angels, which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee the bride, the Lambs wife.

10 And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God,

11 Having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystall:

12 And had a wall great and high, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel.

13 On the east three gates, on the north three gates, on the south three gates, and on the west three gates.

14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations; and in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

15 And he that talked with me had a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs: the length, and the breadth, and the height of it are equall.

17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and fourty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel.

18 And the building of the wall of it was of jasper, and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glasse.

19 And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper, the second saphir, the third a chalcedony, the fourth an emerald,

20 The fifth sardonyx, the sixth sardius, the seventh chrysolite, the eight beryl, the ninth a topas, the tenth a chrysoprasus, the eleventh a jacinct, the twelfth an amethyst.

21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls; every severall gate was of one pearl, and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glasse.

22 And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty, and the Lamb are the temple of it.

23 * And the city had no need of the sun, neither of

of the moon to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

* Isaiah 60.3. 24 * And the nations of them which are saved, shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it.

* Isaiah 60.11. 25 * And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for there shall be no night there.

26 And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it.

27 And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lambs book of life.

CHAP. XXII.

1 The river of the water of life. 2 The tree of life. 5 The light of the city of God is himself. 9 The angel will not be worshipped. 18 Nothing may be added to the word of God, nor taken therefrom.

AND he shewed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystall, proceeding out of the throne of God, and of the Lamb.

2 In the midst of the street of it, and of either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yeelded her fruit every moneth: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

3 And there shalbe no more curse, but the throne of God, and of the Lamb shall be in it, and his servants shall serve him:

4 And they shall see his face, and his Name shall be in their foreheads.

* Chap. 21.23. 5 * And there shall be no night there, and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light, and they shall reign for ever and ever.

6 And he said unto me, These sayings are faithfull and true. And the Lord God of the holy prophets sent his angel to shew unto his servants the things which must shortly be done.

7 Behold, I come quickly: blessed is he that keepeth the sayings of the prophecie of this book.

8 And I John saw these things, and heard them. And when I had heard, and seen, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel, which shewed me these things.

9 Then saith he unto me, * See thou do it not; for I am thy fellow-servant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship God.

10 And he saith unto me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: for the time is at hand.

11 He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

12 And behold, I come quickly, and my reward is with me, * to give every man according as his work shall be.

13 I am Alpha and Omega, * the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

14 Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in thorow the gates into the city.

15 For without are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie.

16 I Jesus have sent mine angel to testifie unto you these things in the churches. I am the root and the off-spring of David, and the bright and morning star.

17 And the Spirit and the Bride say, Come. And let him that heareth, say, Come. * And let him that is athirst, come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

18 For I testifie unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, * If any man shall adde unto these things, God shall adde unto him the plagues that are written in this book.

19 And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book.

20 He which testifieth these things, saith, Surely I come quickly. Amen. Even so, Come, Lord Jesus.

21 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

FINIS.

A Prayer to be uſed before we reade, meditate, or ſtudy the holy SCRIPTURES.

MOſt mercifull God and heavenly Father, who of thy great mercy haſt cauſed the holy Scriptures to be written for our learning, grant unto mee, that am naturally blinde, thy good Spirit; by whoſe light my underſtanding being illuminated to conceive them, and my memory confirmed & ſtrengthened to retaine them, they may (by the bleſſing of the ſame thy Spirit) be ſo deeply rooted in my heart, that in my whole converſation I may bring forth the bleſſed fruits thereof, to the honour and glory of thy holy Name, the edification of thoſe amongſt whom I live, and to mine own everlaſting peace and comfort, through Jeſus Chriſt my only Redeemer and Advocate. So be it.

THE WHOLE BOOK OF PSALMES:

Collected into Engliſh Meeter by Thomas Sternhold, Iohn Hopkins, and others, conferred with the Hebrew, with apt notes to ſing them withall.

¶ Set forth and allowed to be ſung in all Churches, of all the people together, before and after Morning and Evening Prayer, and alſo before and after Sermons: & moreover in private houſes for their godly ſolace and comfort, laying apart all ungodly ſongs and ballades: which tend onely to the nouriſhing of vice, and corrupting of youth.

IAMES V.

¶ If any be afflicted, let him pray, and if any be merry let him ſing Pſalmes.

COLOS. III.

¶ Let the word of God dwel plenteouſly in you, in all wiſdome, teaching and exhorting one another in Pſalmes, Hymnes, and ſpirituall ſongs, ſinging unto the Lord with grace in your hearts.

VENI CREATOR.

Thou art the very Comforter
in all wo and diſtreſſe:
The heavenly gift of God moſt high,
which no tongue can expreſſe.
The fountaine and the living ſpring of joy celeſtiall.
The fire ſo bright, the love ſo cleare, and unction ſpirituall.

Thou in thy gifts art manifold, whereby Chriſts Church doth ſtand:
In faithfull hearts writing thy law,
the finger of Gods hand.
According to thy promiſe made,
thou giveſt ſpeech of grace:
That through thy help the praiſe of God may ſtand in every place.

O Holy Ghoſt into our wits ſend down thy heavenly light:
Kindle our hearts with fervent love,
to ſerve God day and night.
Strength and eſtabliſh all our weakneſſe,
ſo feeble and ſo fraile:
That neither fleſh, the world nor devil againſt us do prevaile.

Put back our enemies far from us,
and grant us to obtaine Peace in our hearts with God and man, without grudge or diſdaine.
And grant (O Lord) that thou being our leader and our guide:
We may eſchew the ſnares of ſin,
and from thee never ſlide.

To us ſuch plenty of thy grace
good Lord grant we thee pray:
That thou maiſt be our Comforter,
at the laſt dreadfull day.
Of all ſtrife and diſſention
O Lord diſſolve the bands:
And make the knots of peace and love throughout all Chriſtian lands.

Grant us, O Lord, through thee to know the Father moſt of might:
That of his deare beloved Sonne
we may attaine the ſight.
And that with perfect faith alſo
we may acknowledge thee
The Spirit of them both alway, one God in perſons three.

Laud and praiſe be to the Father,
and to the Son equall:
And to the Holy Spirit alſo, one God coeternall.
And pray we that the only Son vouchſafe his Spirit to ſend
To all that do profeſſe his Name, unto the worlds laſt end.

The humble ſuit of a ſinner. M.

But onely thou whoſe aid I crave whoſe mercy ſtill is preſt,
To eaſe all thoſe that come to thee,
for ſuccour and for reſt.
And ſith thou ſeeſt my reſtleſſe eyes,
my teares and grievous grones Attend unto my ſuit O Lord, mark well my plaint and mone.

Venite exultemus.

For ſin hath ſo incloſed me, and compaſt me about:
That I am now remedileſſe,
if mercy help not out.
For mortall man cannot releaſe,
or mitigate this paine:
But even thy Chriſt, my Lord and God, who for my ſins was ſlaine.

Whoſe bloudy wounds are yet to ſee,
though not with mortall eye,
Yet do thy Saints behold them all,
and ſo I truſt ſhall I.
Though ſin doth hinder me a while,
when thou ſhalt ſee it good,
I ſhall enjoy the ſight of him,
and ſee his wounds and blood.

And as thine Angels and thy Saints
do now behold the ſame,
So truſt I to poſſeſſe that place,
with them to praiſe thy Name.
But whilſt I liye here in this vale,
where ſinners do frequent:
Aſsiſt me ever with thy grace,
my ſins ſtill to lament.

Leſt that I tread the ſinners trace,
and give them my conſent,
To dwell with them in wickedneſſe,
whereto nature is bent.
Onely thy grace muſt be my ſtay, leſt that I fall down flat:
And being down, then of my ſelfe cannot recover that.

Wherefore this is yet once againe
my ſuit and my requeſt,
To grant me pardon for my ſin, that I in thee may reſt.
Then ſhall my heart and tongue alſo be inſtruments of praiſe:
And in thy Church and houſe of Saints
ſing Pſalmes to thee alwaies.

Venite exultemus. Pſal. xcv.

Sing this at the Benedictus.

O Come and let us now rejoyce,
And ſing unto the Lord:
And to our onely Saviour, Alſo with one accord.
O let us come before his face,
With inward reverence,
Confeſsing all our former ſins,
And that with diligence.

To thank him for his benefits,
Alwaies diſtributing:
Wherefore to him right joyfully
In Pſalmes now let us ſing.
And that becauſe that God alone Is Lord magnificent,
And eke above all other gods,
A King omnipotent.

His people doth not he forſake
At any time or tide:
And in his hands are all the coaſts
Of all the world ſo wide.
And with his loving countenance
He looketh every where:
And doth behold the tops of all
The mountaines farre and neare.

Te Deum.

The ſea and all that is therein,
Are his, for he them made:
And eke his hand hath faſhioned
The earth which doth not fade.
O come therefore and worſhip him,
And down before him fall:
And let us kneele before the Lord,
The which hath made us all.

He is our God, our Lord and King
And we his people are:
His flock, and ſheep of his paſture,
Of whom he taketh care.
This day if ye will heare his voice,
Then harden not your heart:
As in the bitter murmuring,
When ye were in deſart.

Which thing was of their negligence,
Committed in the time
Of trouble in the wilderneſſe,
A great and grievous crime,
Whereas your fathers tempted me,
And tri'd me every way:
They proved me, and ſaw my works,
What I could do or ſay.

Theſe fourty years I have been griev'd
With this generation:
And evermore I ſaid they er'd
In their imagination,
Wherewith their hearts were ſore cumbred
Long time and many daies:
Wherefore I ſaid aſſuredly,
They have not known my waies.

To whom I in mine anger ſwore,
That they ſhould not be bleſt,
Nor ſee my joy celeſtiall,
Nor enter in my reſt.

Gloria Patri.

All laud and praiſe be to the Lord,
O that of might art moſt:
To God the Father and the Son, and to the Holy Ghoſt.
As it in the beginning was,
for ever heretofore:
And is now at this preſent time,
and ſhall be evermore.

The Song of S. Ambroſe, called Te Deum.

and Seraphin, to cry they do not lin.

O holy, holy, holy Lord,
of Sabboth Lord the God:
Through heaven and earth thy praiſe is ſpread,
and glory all abroad.
Th'Apoſtles glorious company
yeeld praiſes unto thee:
The Prophets goodly fellowſhip praiſe thee continually.

The noble and victorious hoſt of Martyrs ſound thy praiſe:
The holy Church throughout the world
doth knowledge thee alwaies.
Father of endleſſe Majeſty
they do acknowledge thee, Thy Chriſt thine honourable, true, and onely Son to be.

The Holy Ghoſt the Comforter, of glory thou art King,
O Chriſt, and of the Father art
the Son everlaſting.
When ſinfull mans decay in hand
thou tookeſt to reſtore:
To be incloſ'd in Virgins wombe, thou diddeſt not abhorre.

When thou hadſt overcome of death the ſharp and cruell might:
Thou heavens kingdome didſt ſet ope to each beleeving wight.
In glory of the Father thou doſt ſit on Gods right hand:
We truſt that thou ſhalt come our Judge
our cauſe to underſtand.

Lord help thy ſervants whom thou haſt bought with thy precious bloud:
And in eternall glory ſet them with thy Saints ſo good.
O Lord do thou thy people ſave, bleſſe thine inheritance:
Lord govern them, and Lord do thou for ever them advance.

We magnifie thee day by day,
and world without an end Adore thy holy Name: O Lord vouchſafe us to defend From ſin this day: have mercy Lord, have mercy on us all:
And on us as we truſt in thee,
Lord let thy mercy fall.

my confidence in thee:

The Song of Zacharias, called Benedictus.

In Davids houſe his ſervant true,
According to his minde:
And alſo his anointed King,
As we in Scripture finde.
As by his holy Prophets all Oft times he did declare:
The which were ſince the world began,
His waies for to prepare.

That we might be delivered
From thoſe that make debate:
Our enemies, and from the hands
Of all that do us hate.
The mercy which he promiſed
Our Fathers to fulfill:
And think upon his covenant made,
According to his will.

And alſo to performe the oath
Which he before had ſworne,
To Abraham our Father deare,
For us that were forlorn.
That he would give himſelfe for us,
And us from bondage bring
Out of the hands of all our foes,
To ſerve our heavenly King.

And that without all manner feare,
And eke in righteouſneſſe:
And alſo for to lead our lives
In ſtedfaſt holineſſe:
And thou (O Child) which now art born,
And of the Lord elect:
Shalt be the Prophet of the Higheſt,
His waies for to direct.

For thou ſhalt go before his face
For to prepare his waies:
And alſo for to teach his will,
And pleaſure all thy daies.
To give them knowledge how that their Salvation is neare:
And that remiſsion of their ſins
Is through his mercy meare.

Whereby the day-ſpring from on high
Is come us for to viſit:
And thoſe for to illuminate,
Which do in darkneſſe ſit.
To lighten thoſe that ſhadowed be
With death and eke oppreſt:
And alſo for to guide our feet
the way to peace and reſt.

The Song of bleſſed Marie, called Magnificat.

For now behold all nations,
And generations all,
From this time forth for evermore
Shall me right bleſſed call:
Becauſe he hath me magnified,
Which is the Lord of might:
Whoſe name be ever ſanctified,
And praiſed day and night.

For with his mercy and his grace
All men he doth inflame:
Throughout all generations,
To ſuch as feare his Name.
He ſhewed ſtrength with his great arme;
And made the proud to ſtart,
With all imaginations
That they have in their heart.

He hath put downe the mighty ones
From their ſupernall ſeat:
And did exalt the meeke in heart,
As he hath thought it meet.
The hungry he repleniſhed
With all things that were good:
And through his power he made the rich
Oft times to want their food.

And

Nunc dimittis.

And calling to remembrance
His mercy every deale:
Hath holpen up aſsiſtantly
His ſervant Iſrael.
According to his promiſe made To Abraham before:
And to his ſeed ſucceſsively,
To ſtand for evermore.

The ſong of Simeon, called Nunc dimittis.

O Lord becauſe my hearts deſire Hath wiſhed long to ſee: My only Lord and Saviour, Thy Sonne before I die. The joy and health of all mankinde, Deſired long be fore: Which now is come into the world,

Of mercy bringing ſtore.

Thou ſuffereſt thy ſervant now
In peace for to depart,
According to thy holy Word,
Which lighteneth my heart.
Becauſe mine eyes which thou haſt made
To give my body light,
Have now beheld thy ſaving health,
Which is the Lord of might.

Whom thou mercifully haſt ſet
(Of thine abundant grace)
In open ſight and viſible,
Before all peoples face.
The Gentiles to illuminate,
And Satan over-quell:
And eke to be the glory of Thy people Iſrael.

vation will attaine: The Catholike beliefe he muſt before all things remaine. Which faith unleſſe he holy keep, and undefiledly: Without all doubt eternally

he ſhall be ſure to die.

The Catholike belief is this,
that God we worſhip one In Trinity: and Trinity in Unity alone.
So as we neither do confound nor mix the Perſons three:
Nor yet the ſubſtance whole of one in ſunder parted be.

One perſon of the Father is,
another of the Son:
Another perſon proper of the Holy Ghoſt alone.
Of Father Son and Holy Ghoſt but one the God-head is:
Like glory, coeternall eke the Majeſty likewiſe.

Such as the Father is, ſuch is the Son in each degree:
And ſuch alſo we do believe the Holy Ghoſt to be:
Uncreate is the Father, and uncreate is the Son:
The Holy Ghoſt uncreate, & uncreate is each one.

Incomprehenſible Father is, incomprehenſible Son:
And comprehenſible alſo is the Holy Ghoſt of none.
The Father is eternall, and the Son eternall ſo:
And in like ſort eternall is
the Holy Ghoſt alſo.

And yet though we believe that each of theſe eternall be:
Yet there but one Eternall is,
and not eternals three.
As ne incomprehenſible we,
ne yet uncreate three:
But one incomprehenſible, one uncreate hold to be:

Almighty ſo the Father is,
the Son almighty ſo:
And in like ſort almighty is
the Holy Ghoſt alſo.
And albeit that every one of theſe almighty be:
Yet there but one almighty is,
and not almighties three.

The Father God is, God the Son,
God Holy Ghoſt alſo:
Yet are there not three Gods in all,
but one God and no mo.
So likewiſe Lord the Father is,
and Lord alſo the Son:

And Lord the Holy Ghoſt, yet are there not three Lords, but one.

For as we are compel'd to grant
by Chriſtian verity, Each of the perſons by himſelfe both God and Lord to be.
So Catholike Religion
forbiddeth us alway,
That either Gods be three, or that three Lords be there to ſay.

Of none the Father is, ne made,
ne create nor begot:
The Son is of the Father, not create, ne made, but got.
The Holy Ghoſt is of them both,
the Father and the Sonne:
Ne made, ne create, nor begot,
but doth proceed alone.

So we one Father hold, not three:
one Sonne alſo, not three:
One Holy Ghoſt alone, and not three Holy Ghoſts to be, None in this Trinity before nor after other is Ne greater any than the reſt:
ne leſſer be likewiſe.

But every one among themſelves of all the Perſons three, Together coeternall all and all coequall be.
So Unity in Trinity,
as ſaid it is before:
And Trinity in Unity,
in all things we adore.

Therefore what man ſoever that ſalvation will attaine:
This faith touching the Trinity,
of force he muſt retaine.
And needfull to eternall life it is that every wight
Of the incarnating of Chriſt our Lord believe aright.

For this the right faith is, that we believe, and eke do know, That Chriſt our Lord the Sonne of God, is God and man alſo.
God of his Fathers ſubſtance, got before the world began:
And of his mothers ſubſtance born,
in world a very man.

Both perfect God and perfect man
in one, one Jeſus Chriſt, That doth of reaſonable ſoule,
and humane fleſh ſubſiſt.
Touching his God-head equall with his Father God is he:
Touching his Man-hood, lower than his Father in degree.

Who though he be both very God,
and very man alſo:
Yet is he but one Chriſt alone,
and is not perſons two.
One, not by turning of God-head into the fleſh of man:
But by taking Man-hood to God,
this being one began.

All one, not by confounding of the ſubſtance into one:
But onely by the unity that is of one perſon.
For as the reaſonable ſoule and fleſh but one man is,
So in one perſon God and Man is but one Chriſt likewiſe.

Who ſuffered for to ſave us all,
to hell he did deſcend:
The third day roſe againe from death,
to heaven he did aſcend.
He ſits at the right hand of God,
th'Almighty Father there:
From thence to judge the quick & dead,
againe he ſhall appeare.

At whoſe return all men ſhall riſe with bodies new reſtor'd:
And of their own works they ſhall give account unto the Lord.
And they into eternall life
ſhall go that have done well, Who have done ill, ſhall go into eternall fire to dwell.

This is the Catholike beliefe, who doth not faithfully Believe the ſame, without all doubt he ſaved cannot be.
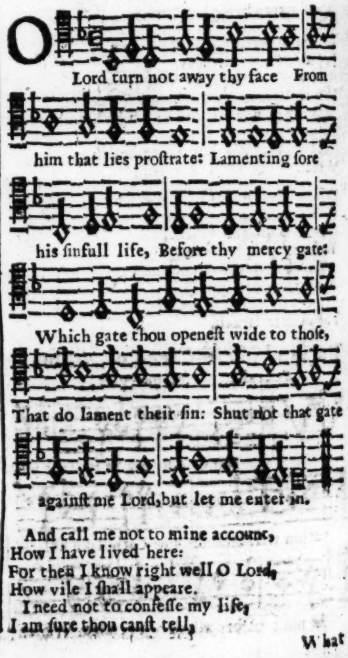
To Father, Son, and Holy Ghoſt
all glory be therefore:
As in beginning was, is now,
and ſhall be evermore.

The Lamentation of a ſinner.



And call me not to mine accounts,
How I have lived here:
For then I know right well O Lord,
How vile I ſhall appeare.
I need not to confeſſe my life,
I am ſure thou canſt tell,

What

The Lords Prayer.

What I have beene and what I am,
I know thou know'ſt it well.

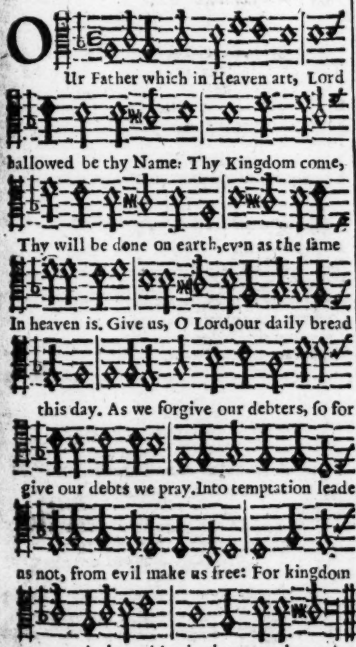
O Lord thou know'ſt what things be paſt
And eke the things that be:
Thou know'ſt alſo what is to come,
Nothing is hid from thee.
Before the heavens and earth were made,
Thou know'ſt what things were then:
As all things elſe that have beene ſince,
Among the ſonnes of men.

And can the things that I have done,
Be hidden from thee then?
Nay nay, thou know'ſt them all O Lord,
Where they were done and when,
Wherefore with teares I come to thee,
To beg and to intreat:
Even as the childe that hath done ill,
And feareth to be beate.

So come I to thy mercy gate,
Where mercy doth abound:
Requiring mercy for my ſin,
To heale my deadly wound.
O Lord I need not to repeat,
What I do beg or crave:
Thou know'ſt (O Lord) before I aſk,
The thing that I would have.

Mercy good Lord, mercy I aſk,
This is the totall ſumme,
For mercy Lord is all my ſuit,
Lord let thy mercy come.

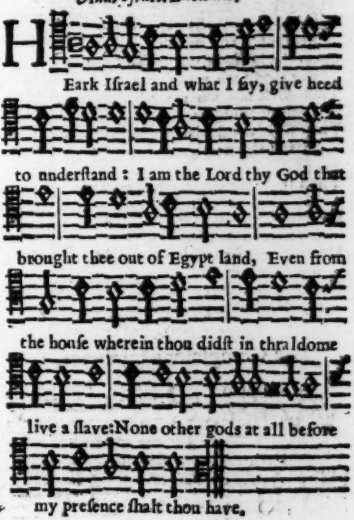
The Lords Prayer, or Pater noſter.



The X. Commandements.

The x. Commandements.

Audi Iſrael. Exod xx.



No manner graven image ſhalt
thou make at all to thee:
Nor any figure like by thee
ſhall counterfeited be,
Of any thing in Heaven above,
nor in the earth below:
Nor in the waters beneath the earth,
to them thou ſhalt not bow.

Nor ſhalt them ſerve, the Lord thy God
a jealous God am I:
That puniſh parents faults, unto the third and fourth degree, Upon their children that me hate:
and mercy do diſplay
To thouſands of ſuch as me love, and my precepts obey.

The Name thou of the Lord thy God
in vaine ſhalt never uſe:
For him that takes his Name in vaine
the Lord will not excuſe.
Remember that thou holy keep the ſacred Sabbath-day:
Six daies thou labour ſhalt, and do thy needfull works alway.

The ſeventh day the Lord thy God hath ſet to reſt upon:
No work then ſhalt thou do in it,
ne thou nor yet thy ſonne,
Thy daughter, ſervant, nor thy maid,
thine oxe, nor yet thine aſſe, Nor ſtranger that within thy gates hath his abiding place.

For in ſix daies, God heaven and earth,
and all therein did make:
And after thoſe his reſt he did upon the ſeventh day take.
Wherefore he bleſt the day that he for reſting did ordaine:

And ſtand to himſelfe alone appointed to remaine.

Yeeld honour to thy parents, that prolong'd thy daies may be Upon the land, the which the Lord thy God hath given thee.
Thou ſhalt not murther. Thou ſhalt not commit adultery.
Thou ſhalt not ſteale. Nor witneſſe falſe againſt thy neighbour be.

Thou ſhalt not covet houſe that to thy neighbour doth belong:
Ne covet ſhalt in having of his wife to do him wrong:
Nor his man-ſervant nor his maid,
nor Oxe nor Aſſe of his:
Nor any other thing that to thy neighbour proper is.

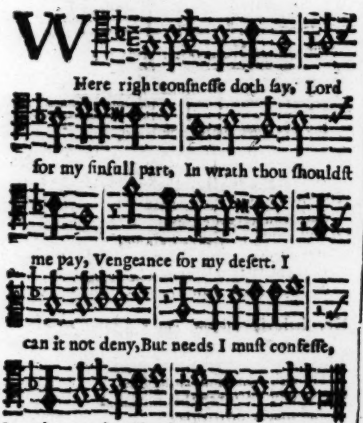
The Complaint of a ſinner.



But if it be thy will
With ſinners to contend:
Then all thy flock ſhall ſpill,
And be loſt without end.
For who lives here ſo right,
That rightly he can ſay,
He ſins not in thy ſight,
Full oft and every day?

The Scripture plaine tels me)
The righteous man offendeth
Seven times a day 'gainſt thee
Whereon thy wrath dependeths
So that the righteous man
Doth walk in no ſuch paths
But he fals now and than
In danger of thy wrath.

Then ſith the caſe ſo ſtands,
That even the man right wiſe
Fals oft in ſinfull bands,
Whereby thy wrath may riſe:
Lord, I that am unjuſt,
And righteouſneſſe none have:
Whereto then ſhall I truſt,
My ſinfull ſoule to ſave?

But truly to that poſt,
Whereto I cleave and ſhall:
Which is thy mercy moſt,
Lord let thy mercy fall.
And mitigate thy mood,
Or els we periſh all:
The price of this thy bloud,
Wherein mercy I call.

The Scripture doth declare,
No drop of bloud in thee:
But that thou didſt not ſpare
To ſhed each drop for me.
Now let thoſe drops moſt ſweet
So moiſt my heart ſo drie,
That I with ſin repleat,
May live, and ſin may die.

That being mortified,
This ſin of mine in me,
I may be ſanctified,
By grace of thine in thee:
So that I never fall
Into ſuch mortall ſin:
That my foes infernall
Rejoyce my death therein.

But vouchſafe me to keep
From thoſe infernall foes:
And from that lake ſo deep,
Whereas no mercy growes.
And I ſhall ſing the ſongs,
Confirmed with the juſt:
That unto thee belongs,
Which art my only truſt.

The Pſalmes of DAVID in Meeter.

Beatus vir. Pſal.j. T.S.

THe man is bleſt that hath not bent to wicked read his eare: Nor led his life as ſinners do, nor ſate in ſcorners chaire.

2 But in the law of God the Lord, doth ſet his whole delight: And in that law doth exerciſe himſelfe both day and night.

3 He ſhall be like the tree that growes
faſt by the rivers ſide, Which bringeth forth moſt pleaſant fruit
in her due time and tide.
Whoſe leafe ſhall never fade nor fall
but flouriſh ſtill and ſtand:
Even ſo all things ſhall proſper well that this man takes in hand.

4 So ſhall not the ungodly men,
they ſhall be nothing ſo,
But as the duſt which from the earth
the winde drives to and fro, 5 Therefore ſhall not the wicked men in judgement ſtand upright:
Nor yet the ſinners with the juſt,
ſhall come in place or ſight.

6 For why? the way of godly men unto the Lord is known:
And eke the way of wicked men
ſhall quite be overthrown.

Quare fremuerunt. Pſal.ij. T.S.

Sing this as the 1. Pſalme.

WHy did the Gentiles tumults raiſe?
what rage was in their braine?
Why did the Jewiſh people muſe, ſeeing all is but vaine?
2 The Kings and Rulers of the earth
conſpire and are all bent, Againſt the Lord and Chriſt his Son,
which he among us ſent.

3 Shall we be bound to them, ſay they?
let all their bonds be broke:
And of their doctrine and their law
let us reject the yoke.
4 But he that in the heaven dwels, their doings will deride:
And make them all as mocking ſtocks,
throughout the world ſo wide.

5 For in his wrath the Lord will ſay to them upon a day:
And in his fury trouble them,
and then the Lord will ſay:
6 I have anointed him my King upon my holy hill:
I will therefore Lord preach thy Law and eke declare thy will.

7 For in this wiſe the Lord himſelfe did ſay to me I wot:
Thou art my deare and onely Son,
to day I thee begot.
8 All people I will give to thee,
as heires at thy requeſt:
The ends and coaſts of all the earth
by thee ſhall be poſſeſt.

9 Thou ſhalt them bruiſe even with a mace,
as men under foot trod:
And as the potters ſheards ſhalt break them with an iron rod.
10 Now ye O Kings and Rulers all,
be wiſe therefore and learn'd:
By whom the matters of the world be judged and diſcern'd.

11 See that ye ſerve the Lord above in trembling and in feare:
See that with reverence ye rejoyce to him in like manner.
12 See that ye kiſſe and eke embrace his bleſſed Son I ſay:
Leſt in his wrath ye ſuddenly periſh in the mid way.

13 Ifonce his wrath never ſo ſmall, ſhall kindle in his breſt:
O then all they that truſt in Chriſt, ſhall happy be and bleſt.

Domine quid. Pſal.iij. T.S.

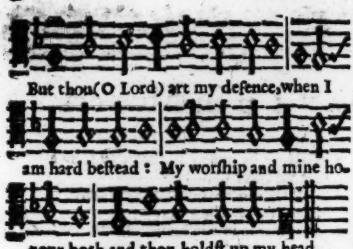
O Lord how are my foes increaſt, which vexe me more and more. They kill my heart when as they ſay, God can him not reſtore.

But



4 Then with my voice upon the Lord
I did both call and cry:
And he out of his holy hill did heare me by and by.
5 I laid me down and quietly
I ſlept and roſe againe:
For why I know aſſuredly,
the Lord will me ſuſtaine.

6 If ten thouſand had hem'd me in,
I could not be afraid:
For thou art ſtill my Lord and God,
my Saviour and mine aid.
Riſe up therefore, ſave me, my God,
for now to thee I call:
7 For thou haſt broke the cheeks & teeth of theſe wicked men all.

8 Salvation only doth belong to thee O Lord above: Thou doſt beſtow upon thy folk thy bleſsing and thy love.

Cum invocarem. Pſal. iiij. T.S.

Sing this as the 3. Pſalme.

O God that art my righteouſneſſe,
Lord heare me when I call,
Thou haſt ſet me at liberty,
when I was bound and thrall.
2 Have mercy Lord therefore on me,
and grant me my requeſt:
For unto thee unceſſantly, to cry I will not reſt.

3 O mortall men how long will ye my glory thus deſpite?
Why wander ye in vanity,
and follow after lies?
4 Know ye that good and godly men
the Lord doth take and chuſe:
And when to him I make my plaint,
he doth me not refuſe.

5 Sin not, but ſtand in awe therefore,
examine well your heart:
And in your chamber quietly,
ſee you your ſelves convert.
6 Offer to God the ſacrifice of righteouſneſſe I ſay:
And look that in the living Lord
you put your truſt alway.

7 The greater ſort crave worldly goods,
and riches do embrace:
But Lord grant us thy countenance,
thy favour and thy grace.
8 For thou thereby ſhalt make my heart more joyfull and more glad,
Then they that of their corne and wine full great increaſe have had.

9 In peace therefore lie down will I,
taking my reſt and ſleep:
For thou onely wilt me O Lord, alone in ſafety keep.

Verba mea auribus. Pſal. v. T.S.

Sing this as the 3. Pſalme.

INcline thine eares unto my words,
O Lord my plaint conſider:
2 And heare my voice, my King, my God,
to thee I make my prayer.
3 Heare me betime, Lord tarry not,
for I will have reſpect,
My prayer early in the morn to thee for to direct.

4 And I will truſt through patience in thee my God alone:
Thou art not pleaſ'd with wickedneſſe and ill with thee dwels none.
5 And in thy ſight ſhall never ſtand
theſe furious fooles O Lord:
Vaine workers of iniquity, thou haſt alwaies abhor'd.

6 The lyars and the flatterers thou ſhalt deſtroy them than:
And God will hate the blood-thirſty,
and the deceitfull man.
7 Therefore will I come to thine houſe, truſting upon thy grace:
And reverently will worſhip thee, toward thine holy place.

8 Lord leade me in thy righteouſneſſe, for to confound my foes:
And eke the way that I ſhall walk,
before my face diſcloſe.
9 For in their mouthes there is no truth, their heart is foule and vaine:
Their throat an open ſepulchre, their tongues do gloſe and faine.

10 Deſtroy their falſe conſpiracies, that they may come to nought:
Subvert them in their heapes of ſin,
which have rebellion wrought.
11 But thoſe that put their truſt in thee,
let them be glad alwaies:
And render thanks for thy defence,
and give thy Name the praiſe.

12 For thou with favour wilt increaſe the juſt and righteous ſtill:
And with thy grace as with a ſhield, defend him from all ill.

Domine ne in furore. Pſal. vi. T.S.

Sing this as the 1. Pſalme.

LOrd in thy wrath reprove me not,
though I deſerve thine ire:
Ne yet correct me in thy rage,
O Lord I thee deſire.
2 For I am weak, therefore O Lord, of mercy me forbeare:
And heale me Lord, for why thou know'ſt my bones do quake for feare.

3 My ſoule is troubled very ſore, and vexed vehemently:

But

But Lord how long wilt thou delay, to cure my miſery?
4 Lord turn thee to thy wonted grace, my filly ſoule up take:
O ſave me not for my deſerts,
but for thy mercies ſake.

5 For why? no man among the dead
remembreth thee one whit:
Or who ſhall worſhip thee (O Lord)
in the infernal pit?
6 So grievous is my plaint and mone,
that I wax wondrous faint:
All the night long I waſh my bed with teares of my complaint.

7 My ſight is dim, and waxeth old with anguiſh of my heart:
For feare of thoſe that be my foes,
and would my ſoule ſubvert.
8 But now away from me all ye that work iniquity:
For why? the Lord hath heard the voice of my complaint and cry.

9 He heard not onely the requeſt and prayer of my heart:
But it received at my hands,
and took it in good part.
10 And now my foes that vexed me,
the Lord will ſoon deſame:
And ſuddenly confound them all to their rebuke and ſhame.

Domine Deus meus. Pſal.vij.T.S.

Sing this as the 3. Pſalme.

O Lord my God I put my truſt, and confidence in thee:
Save me from them that me purſue,
and eke deliver me.
2 Leſt like a Lion he me teare,
and rend in pieces ſmall, While there is none to ſuccour me
and rid me out of thrall.

3 O Lord my God if I have done the thing that is not right:
Or elſe if I be found in fault,
or guilty in thy ſight.
4 Or to my friend rewarded ill,
or leſt him in diſtreſſe:
Which me purſu'd moſt cruelly,
and hated me cauſleſſe.

5 Then let my foes purſue my ſoule, and eke my life down thruſt Unto the earth, and alſo lay mine honour in the duſt.
6 Start up O Lord now in thy wrath,
and put my foes to paine:
Performe the kingdome promiſed to me which wrong ſuſtaine.

7 Then ſhall great nations come to thee, and know thee by this thing,
If thou declare for love of them,
thy ſelfe as Lord and King.
8 And as thou art of all men Judge,
O Lord now judge thou me
According to my righteouſneſſe, and mine integrity.

The ſecond Part.

9 Lord ceaſe the hate of wicked men;
and be the juſt mans guide:
By whom the ſecrets of all hearts are ſearched and deſcri'd.
10 I take my help to come of God
in all my paine and ſmart:
That doth preſerve all thoſe that be of pure and perfect heart.

11 The juſt man and the wicked both
God judgeth by his power:
So that he feels his mighty hand
even every day and houre.
12 Except he change his minde, I die;
for even as he ſhould ſmite.
He whets his ſword, his bowe he bends, aiming where he may hit.

13 And doth prepare his mortall darts, his arrowes keene and ſharp,
For them that do me perſecute, whilſt he doth miſchief warp.
14 But lo though he in travell be of his deviliſh fore-caſt:
And of his miſchief once conceiv'd,
yet brings forth nought at laſt.

15 He digs a ditch and delves it deep,
in hope to hurt his brother:
But he ſhall fall into the pit that he dig'd up for other.
16 Thus wrong returneth to the hurt of him in whom it bred:
And all the miſchief that he wrought,
ſhall fall upon his head.

17 I will give thanks to God therefore,
that judgeth righteouſly:
And with my ſong will praiſe the Name of him that is moſt high.

Domine Deus noſter. Pſal.viij.T.S.

Sing this as the 3. Pſalme.

O God our Lord how wonderfull are thy works every where:
Whoſe fame ſurmounts in dignity,
above the heavens cleare!
2 Even by the mouthes of ſucking babes thou wilt confound thy foes:
For in thoſe babes thy might is ſeen,
thy graces they diſcloſe.

3 And when I ſee the heavens high,
the works of thine owne hand:
The Sun, the Moon and all the ſtarres,
in order as they ſtand.
4 What thing is man (Lord) think I then that thou doſt him remember?
Or what is mans poſterity, that thou doſt it conſider?

5 For thou haſt made him little leſſe
then Angels in degree:
And thou haſt crowned him alſo with glory and dignity.
6 Thou haſt preferr'd him to be Lord of all thy works of wonder:
And at his feet haſt ſet all things, that he ſhould keep them under.

7 As ſheep, and neat and all beaſts elſe that in the fields do feed:
8 Fowles of the ayre, fiſh in the ſea, and all that therein breed.

9 There-

9 Therefore muſt I fly once againe,
O God that art our Lord:
How famous and how wonderfull are thy works through the world.

Confitebor tibi Dom. Pſal.ix.T.S.

Sing this as the 3. Pſalme.

WIth heart & mouth unto the Lord will I ſing land and praiſe:
And ſpeak of all thy wondrous works,
and them declare alwaies.
2 I will be glad and much rejoyce,
in thee O God moſt hie:
And make my ſongs extoll thy Name above the ſtarrie skie.

3 For that my foes are driven back,
and turned unto flight:
They fall down flat, and are deſtroid by thy great power and might.
4 Thou haſt revenged all my wrong,
my griefe and all my grudge:
Thou doſt with juſtice heare my cauſe
moſt like a righteous Judge.

5 Thou doſt rebuke the heathen folk,
and wicked ſo confounde:
That afterward the memory of them cannot be found.
6 My foes thou haſt made good diſpatch, and all their townes deſtroide:
Thou haſt their fame with them defaced, through all the world ſo wide.

7 Know thou that he which is above for evermore ſhall raigne,
And in the ſeat of equity true judgement will maintaine.
8 With juſtice he will keep and guide
the world and every wight:
And ſo will yeeld with equity to every man his right.

9 He is protector of the poore, what time they be oppreſt:
He is in all adverſity their refuge and their reſt.
10 All they that know thy holy Name therefore ſhall traſt in thee:
For thou forſakeſt not their ſait in their neceſsity.

The ſecond Part.

11 Sing Pſalmes therefore unto the Lord, that dwels in Sion hill:
Publiſh among all nations,
his noble acts and will.
12 For he is mindfull of the bloud of thoſe that be oppreſt:
Forgetting not the afflicted heart that ſeeks to him for reſt.

13 Have mercy Lord on me poore wretch whoſe enemies ſtill remaine:
Which from the gates of death art wont,
to raiſe me up againe.
14 In Sion that I might ſet forth thy praiſe with heart and voice:
And that in thy ſalvation Lord,
my ſoule might ſtill rejoyce.

15 The heathen ſtick faſt in the pit that they themſelves prepar'd:
And in the net that they did ſet,
their own feet faſt are mar'd.

16 God ſhews his judgements, which were good for every man to mark:
When as ye ſee the wicked man lie trap'd in his own wark.

17 The wicked and deceitfull men go down to hell for ever:
And all the people of the world
that will not God remember.
18 But ſure the Lord will not forget the poore mans grief and paine
The patient people never look for help of God in vaine.

19 O Lord ariſe leſt men prevaile that be of worldly might:
And let the heathen folk receive their judgement in thy ſight.
20 Lord ſtrike ſuch terror, feare and dread into the hearts of them:
That they may know aſſuredly,
they be but mortall men.

Vt quid Domine. Pſal.x.T.S.

Sing this as the 3. Pſalme.

WHat is the cauſe that thou O Lord art now ſo farre from thine?
And keepeſt cloſe thy countenance from us this troublous time?
2 The poore do periſh by the proud and wicked mens deſire:
Let them be taken in the craft that they themſelves conſpire.

3 For in the luſt of his own heart
th'ungodly doth delight:
So doth the wicked praiſe himſelfe,
and doth the Lord deſpight:
4 He is ſo proud, that right and wrong he ſetteth all apart:
Nay, nay, there is no God ſaith he,
or thus he thinks in heart.

5 Becauſe his waies do proſper ſtill,
he doth thy lawes neglect:
And with a blaſt doth puffe againſt
ſuch as would him correct.
6 Tuſh tuſh ſaith he, I have no dread, leſt mine eſtate ſhould change:
And why? for all adverſity to him is very ſtrange.

7 His mouth is full of curſednesſe, of fraud, deceit and guile:
Under his tongue doth miſchief ſit,
and travell all the while.
8 He lieth hid in waies and holes,
to ſlay the innocent:
Againſt the poore that paſſe him by,
his cruell eyes are bent.

9 And like a Lyon privily lies lurking in his den:
If he may ſnare them in his net,
to ſpoil poore ſimple men.
10 And for the nonce full craftily
he croucheth down I ſay:
So are great heapes of poore men made by his ſtrong power his prey.

The ſecond Part.

11 Tuſh God forgetteth this, ſaith he, therefore I may be bold:
His countenance is caſt aſide,
he doth it not behold.

13 Ariſe O Lord, O God, in whom the poore mans hope doth reſt:
Lift up thy hand, forgot not Lord,
the poore that be oppreſt.

14 What blaſphemie is this to thee,
Lord doſt thou not abhorre it?
To heare the wicked in their heart
ſay tuſh, thou car'ſt not for it?
15 But thou ſeeſt all their wickedneſſe, and well doſt underſtand That friendleſſe and poore fatherleſſe are left into thy hand.

16 Of wicked and malicious men, then break the power for ever:
That they with their iniquity may periſh altogether.
17 The Lord ſhall raigne for evermore,
as King and God alone:
And he will chaſe the heathen folk out of the land each one.

18 Thou hear'ſt (O Lord) the poore mans plaint, their prayer and requeſt:
Their hearts thou wilt confirme untill thine eares to heare be preſt.
19 To judge the poore and fatherleſſe, and help them to their right:
That they may be no more oppreſt by men of worldly might.

In Domino confido. Pſal. xj. T. S.

Sing this as the 3. Pſalme.

1 TRuſt in God, how dare ye then ſay thus my ſoule untill?
Flie hence as faſt as any fowle, and hide you in your hill.
2 Behold the wicked bend their bowes, and make their arrowes preſt,
To ſhoot in ſecret, and to hurt
the ſound and harmeleſſe breſt.

3 Of worldly hope all ſtaies were ſhrunk, and clearely brought to nought:
Alas the juſt and righteous man,
what evil hath he wrought?
4 But he that in his Temple is,
moſt holy and moſt high,
And in the heavens hath his ſeat of royall majeſty.

The poore and ſimple mans eſtate, conſidereth in his minde:
And ſearcheth out full narrowly
the maners of mankinde:
5 And with a chearfull countenance
the righteous man will uſe:
But in his heart he doth abhorre all ſuch as miſchief muſe.

6 And on the ſinners caſteth ſnares,
as thick as any raine:
Fire and brimſtone, & whirl-windes thick, appointed for their paine.
7 Ye ſee then how a righteous God doth righteouſneſſe embrace:
And to the juſt and upright men ſhewes forth his pleaſant face.

Salvum me fac. Pſal. xij. T. S.

Sing this as the 3. Pſalme.

1 HElp Lord for good and godly men do periſh and decay:
And faith and truth from worldly men is parted cleane away.
2 Who ſo doth with his neighbour talk, his talk is all but vaine
For every man bethinketh how to flatter, lie, and faine.

3 But flattering and deceitfull lips,
and tongues that be ſo ſtout,
To ſpeak proud words and make great brags
the Lord ſoon cuts them out.
4 For they ſay ſtill we will prevaile,
our tongues ſhall us extoll:
Our tongues are ours we ought to ſpeak,
what Lord ſhall us controll?

5 But for the great complaint and cry of poore and men oppreſt:
Ariſe will I now ſaith the Lord,
and them reſtore to reſt.
6 Gods Word is like to ſilver pure, that from the earth is tri'd:
And hath no leſſe then ſeven times in fire been puriſi'd.

7 Now ſith thy promiſe is to help,
Lord keep thy promiſe then:
And ſave us now and evermore,
from this ill kinde of men.
8 For now this wicked world is full of miſchiefs manifold:
When vanity with worldly men
ſo highly is extold.

Vſque quo Domine. Pſal. xiij. T. S.

Sing this as the 3. Pſalme.

1 HOw long wilt thou forget me Lord, ſhall I nere be remembred?
How long wilt thou thy viſage hide,
as though thou wert offended?
2 In heart and minde how long ſhall I with care tormented be?
How long eke ſhall my deadly foes thus triumph over me?

3 Behold me now my Lord my God, and heare me ſore oppreſt:
Lighten mine eyes, leſt that I ſleep
as one by death poſſeſt.
4 Leſt that mine enemies ſay to me,
behold I do prevaile:
Leſt they alſo that hate my ſoule,
rejoyce to ſee me quaile.

5 But from thy mercy and goodneſſe,
my hope ſhall never ſtirre:
In thy reliefe and ſaving health right glad ſhall be my heart.
6 I will give thanks unto the Lord,
and praiſes to him ſing:
Becauſe he hath heard my requeſt, and granted my willing.

Dixit inſipiens. Pſal. xiij. T. S.

Sing this as the 3. Pſalme.

1 THere is no God as fooliſh man
affirme in their mad mood:
Their drifts are all corrupt and vaine,
not one of them doth good.
2 The Lord beheld from heaven high the whole race of mankinde:
And ſaw not one that ſought indeed
the living God to finde,

3 They

2 They went all wide and were corrupt, and truly there was none
That in the world did any good,
I ſay, there was not one.
4 Is all their judgement ſo farre loſt, that all work miſchief ſtill?
Eating my people even as bread, not one to ſeek Gods will?

5 When they thus rage, then ſuddenly great feare on them ſhall fall:
For God doth love the righteous men,
and will maintaine them all.
6 Ye mock the doings of the poore, to their reproach and ſhame:
Becauſe they put their truſt in God,
and call upon his name.

7 But who ſhall give thy people health, and when wilt thou fulfill Thy promiſe made to Iſrael,
from out of Sion hill?
8 Even when thou ſhalt reſtore againe ſuch as were captive led:
Then Jacob ſhall therein rejoyce,
and Iſrael ſhall be glad.

Domine quis. Pſal.xv.T.S.

Sing this as the 3. Pſalme.

O Lord within thy Tabernacle, who ſhall inhabit ſtill!
Or whom wilt thou receive to dwell in thy moſt holy hill?
2 The man whoſe life is uncorrupt, whoſe works are juſt and ſtraight:
Whoſe heart doth think the very truth,
whoſe tongue ſpeakes no deceit.

3 Nor to his neighbour doth none ill,
in body, goods or name:
Nor willingly doth move falſe tales, which might empaire the fame.
4 That in his heart regardeth not malicious wicked men:
But thoſe that love and feare the Lord,
he maketh much of them.

5 His oath and all his promiſes that keepeth faithfully:
Although he make his covenant ſo, that he doth loſe thereby.
6 That putteth not to uſury his money and his coyne:
Ne for to hurt the innocent,
doth bribe or elſe purloyne,

7 Who ſo doth all things as you ſee,
that here is to be done:
Shall never periſh in this world,
nor in the world to come.

Conſerva me. Pſal.xvj.T.S.

Sing this as the 3. Pſalme.

L Ord keep me, for I truſt in thee, and do confeſſe indeed
Thou art my God, and of my goods,
O Lord thou haſt no need.
2 I give my goods unto the Saints
that in the world do dwell:
And namely to the faithfull flock in vertue that excell.

3 They ſhal heap ſorrowes on their heads, which run as they were mad,
To offer to the idol gods,
alas it is too bad.
4 As for their bloudy ſacrifice, and offrings of that ſort,
I will not touch, nor yet thereof
my lips ſhall make report.

5 For why? the Lord the portion is of mine inheritance:
And thou art he that doſt maintaine
my rent, my lot, my chance.
6 The place wherein my lot did fall,
in beauty did excell:
Mine heritage aſsign'd to me,
doth pleaſe me wondrous weſl.

7 I thank the Lord that cauſed me to underſtand the right:
For by his meanes my ſecret thoughts do teach me every night.
8 I ſet the Lord ſtill in my ſight, and truſt him over all:
For he doth ſtand on my right hand,
therefore I ſhall not fall.

9 Wherefore my heart and tongue alſo do both rejoyce together:
My fleſh and body reſt in hope,
when I this thing conſider.
10 Thou wilt not leave my ſoul in grave,
for Lord, thou loveſt me:
Nor yet wilt give thy holy one, corruption for to ſee.

11 But wilt me teach the way to life, for all treaſure and ſtore
Of perfect joy are in thy face, and power for evermore.

Exaudi Domine. Pſal.xvij.T.S.

Sing this as the 3. Pſalme.

O Lord give eare to my juſt cauſe, attend when I complaine:
And heare the prayer that I put forth, with lips that do not faine.
2 And let the judgement of my cauſe proceed alwaies from thee:
And let thine eyes behold and cleare
this my ſimplicity.

3 Thou haſt well tri'd me in the night, and yet couldſt nothing finde
That I have ſpoken with my tongue, that was not in my minde.
4 As for the works of wicked men,
and paths perverſe and ill,
For love of thy moſt holy Name,
I have refrained ſtill.

5 Then in thy paths that be moſt pure,
ſtay me Lord and preſerve:
That from the way wherein I walk,
my ſteps may never ſwerve.
6 For I do call to thee O Lord, ſurely thou wilt me aid:
Then heare my prayer & weigh right well
the words that I have ſaid.

7 O thou the Saviour of all them
that put their truſt in thee;

Declare thy ſtrength on them that ſpurn
againſt thy Majeſty.
8 O keep me as thou wouldeſt keep the apple of thine eye:
And under covert of thy winge defend me ſecretly.

The ſecond Part.

9 From wicked men that trouble me,
and daily me anoy:
And from my foes that go about my ſoule for to deſtroy.
10 Which wallow in their worldly wealth
ſo full are they and fat:
That in their pride they do not ſpare to ſpeake they care not what.

11 They lie in wait where I ſhould paſſe, with craft me to confound:
And muſing miſchief in their minde to caſt me to the ground.
12 Much like a Lion greedily that would his prey embrace:
Or lurking like a Lions whelp, within ſome ſecret place.

13 Up Lord, in haſte prevent my foe,
and caſt him at thy feet:
Save thou my ſoule from the ill man,
and with the ſword him ſmite.
14 Deliver me Lord by thy power, out of theſe tyrants hands:
Which now ſo long time raigned have,
and kept us in their bands.

15 I meane from worldly men, to whom all worldly goods are life:
That have no hope nor part of joy,
but in this preſent life.
16 Thou of thy ſtore their bellies fil'ſt with pleaſure to their minde:
Their children have enough and leave to theirs the reſt behinde.

17 But I ſhall with pure conſcience behold thy gracious face:
So when I wake I ſhall be ſull of thine image and grace.

Diligam te Dom. Pſal. xviij. T. S.

3 When I ſing laud unto the Lord,
moſt worthy to be ſerv'd:
Then from my foes I am right ſure,
that I ſhall be preſerv'd:
4 The pangs of death did compaſſe me,
and bound me every where:
The flowing waves of wickedneſſe did put me in great feare.

5 The ſlie and ſubtill ſnares of hell were round about me ſet:
And for my death there was prepar'd a deadly trapping net.
6 I thus beſet with pain and grief,
did pray to God for grace:
And he forthwith did hear my plaine
out of his holy place.

7 Such is his power, that in his wrath
he made the earth to quake:
Yea the foundation of the mount of Baſan for to ſhake.
8 And from his noſtrils came a ſmoke,
when kindled was his ire:
And from his mouth came kindled coles of hot conſuming fire.

9 The Lord deſcended from above, and bowed the heavens high:
And underneath his feet he caſt
the darkneſſe of the skie.
10 On Cherubs and on Cherubins full royally he rode:
And on the wings of all the windes came flying all abroad.

The ſecond Part.

11 And like a den moſt dark he made his hid and ſecret place:
With waters black and airy clouds environed he was.
12 But when the preſence of his face in brightneſſe ſhall appear: Then clouds conſume, and in their ſtead come hail and coles of fire.

13 The fiery darts and thunder-bolts diſperſe them here and there:
And with his often lightenings
he puts them in great feare.
14 Lord, at thy wrath and threatenings, and at thy chiding chear
The ſprings and the foundations of all the world appear.

15 And from above the Lord ſent down to fetch me from below:
And pluck'd me out of waters great,
that would me overflow.
16 And me delivered from my foes that would have made me thrall:
Yea from ſuch foes as were too ſtrong for me to deal withall.

17 They did prevent me to oppreſſe in time of my great grief:
But yet the Lord was my defence,

my ſuccour and relief.
18 He brought me forth in open place,
whereas I might be free:
And kept me ſafe, becauſe he had a favour unto me.

19 And as I was in innocent, ſo did he me regard:
And to the cleanneſſe of my hands
he gave me my reward.
20 For that I walked in his waies, and in his paths have trod:
And have not ſinned wickedly againſt my Lord and God.

The third Part.

21 But evermore I have reſpect to his law and decree:
His ſtatutes and commandements
I caſt not out from me.
22 But pure and clean and uncorrupt, appear'd before his face:
And did refrain from wickedneſſe, and ſin in any caſe.

23 The Lord therefore will me reward,
as I have done aright:
And to the cleanneſſe of my hands,
appearing in his ſight.
24 For Lord with him that holy is,
wilt thou be holy eeo,
And with the good and vertuous men right vertuouſly wilt do.

25 And to the loving and elect thy love thou wilt reſerve:
And thou wilt uſe the wicked men,
as wicked men deſerve.
26 For thou doſt ſave the ſimple folk in trouble when they lie:
And doſt bring downe the countenance of them that look full high.

27 The Lord will lighe my candle ſo, that it ſhall ſhine full bright:
The Lord my God will make alſo my darkneſſe to be light.
28 For by thy help an hoſt of men
diſcomfit Lord I ſhall:
By thee I ſcale and over-leap the ſtrength of any wall.

29 Unſpotted are the waies of God,
his word is purely tri'd:
He is a ſure defence to ſuch as in his faith abide.
30 For who is God except the Lord,
for other there is none:
Or els who is omnipotent, ſaving our God alone?

The fourth Part.

31 The God that girdeth me with ſtrength is he that I do mean:
That all the waies wherein I walk,
did evermore keep clean.
32 That made my feet like to the Harts,
in ſwifteneſſe of my pace:
And for my ſurety brought me forth into an open place.

33 He did in order put my hands to battell and to fight:
To break in ſunder barres of braſſe, he gave mine armes the might.
34 Thou teacheſt me thy ſaving health, thy right hand is my tower:
Thy love and familiarity doth ſtill increaſe my power.

35 And under me thou makeſt plaine
the way where I ſhould walk:
So that my feet ſhall never ſlip,
nor ſtumble at a balk.
36 And fiercely I purſue and take my foes that me anoid:
And from the field do not return,
till they be all deſtroid.

37 So I ſuppreſſe and wound my foes, that they can riſe no more:
For at my feet they fall down flat,
I ſtrike them all ſo ſore.
38 For thou doſt gird me with thy ſtrength to warre in ſuch a wiſe:
That they be all ſcattered abroad,
that up againſt me riſe.

39 Lord thou haſt put into mine hands
my mortall enemies yoke:
And all my foes thou doſt divide in ſunder with thy ſtroke.
40 They call'd for help, but none gave eare,
nor help them with relief:
Yea to the Lord they call'd for help, yet heard he not their griefe.

The fift Part.

41 And ſtill like duſt before the winde,
I drive them under feet:
And ſweep them out like filthy clay,
that ſticketh in the ſtreet.
42 Thou keep'ſt me from ſeditious folk that ſtill in ſtrife are led:
And thou doſt of the heathen folk appoint me to be head.

43 A people ſtrange to me unknowne, and yet they ſhall me ſerve:
And at the firſt obey my word,
whereas mine own will ſwerve.
44 I ſhall be irkſome to mine own,
they will not ſee my light:
But wander wide out of the way,
and hide them out of ſight.

45 But bleſſed be the living Lord,
moſt worthy of all praiſe:
That is my rock and ſaving health,
praiſed be he alwaies.
46 For God it is that gave me power, revenged for to be:
And with his holy word ſubdu'd
the people unto me.

47 And from my foe delivered me, and ſet me above thoſe That cruell and ungodly were,
and up againſt me roſe.
48 And for this cauſe O Lord my God, to thee give thanks I ſhall:
And ſing out praiſes to thy Name,
among the Gentiles all:

49 That gaveſt great proſperity unto the King I ſay:

To

To David thine anointed King and to his ſeed for ay.

Cœli enarrant. Pſal.xix.T.S.

Sing this as the 3. Pſalme.

THe heavens and the firmament do wondrouſly declare
The glory of God omnipotent, his works, and what they are.
2 The wondrous works of God appeare by every daies ſucceſſe:
The nights likewiſe which their race run the ſelf ſame thing expreſſe.

3 There is no language, tongue or ſpeech where their ſound is not heard:
Is all the earth and coaſts thereof their knowledge is confer'd.
4 In them the Lord made for the Sun
a place of great renown:
Who like a bride-groome ready trim'd, doth from his chamber come.

5 And as a valiant champion, who for to get a prize,
With joy doth haſte to take in hand,
ſome noble enterpriſe.
6 And all the skie from end to end he compaſſeth about:
Nothing can hide it from his heat,
but he will finde it out.

7 How perfect is the law of God,
how is his covenant ſure?
Converting ſoules, and making wiſe
the ſimple and obſcure!
8 Juſt are the Lords commandements, and glad both heart and minde:
His precepts pure and do give light to eyes that be full blinde.

9 The feare of God is excellent, and doth endure for ever:
The judgements of the Lord are true,
and righteous altogether.
10 And more to be embrac'd alway,
then fined gold I ſay:
The hony and the hony-combe are not ſo ſweet as they.

11 By them thy ſervant is fore-warn'd to have God in regard:
And in performance of the ſame, there ſhall be great reward.
12 But Lord what earthly man doth know the errours of his life?
Then cleanſe me from my ſecret ſins, which are in me moſt rife.

13 And keep me that preſumptuous ſins prevaile not over me:
And ſo ſhall I be innocent,
and great offences flee.
14 Accept my mouth and eke my heart,
my words and thoughts each one,
For my Redeemer and my ſtrength,
O Lord thou art alone.

Exaudiat te Dom. Pſal.xx. T.S.

Sing this as the 14. Pſalme.

IN trouble and adverſity,
the Lord God heare thee ſtill:
The Majeſty of Jacobs God defend thee from all ill.
2 And ſend thee from his holy place his help at every need:
And ſo in Sion ſtabliſh thee,
and make thee ſtrong indeed.

3 Remembring well the ſacrifice that now to him is done:
And ſo receive right thankfully thy burnt offrings each one.
4 According to thy hearts deſire,
the Lord grant unto thee:
And all thy counſell and device, full well performe may he.

5 We ſhall rejoyce when thou haſt ſav'd, and our banners diſplay Unto the Lord, which thy requeſts fulfilled hath alway.
6 The Lord will his anointed ſave,
I know well by his grace.
And ſend him help by his right hand,
out of his holy place.

7 In chariots ſome put confidence, and ſome in horſes ruſh:
But we remember God our Lord, that keepeth promiſe juſt.
8 They fall down flat, but we do riſe and ſtand up ſtedfaſtly.
9 Now ſave and help us Lord and King on thee when we do cry.

Domine in virtute. Pſal.xxi. T.S.

Sing this as the 18. Pſalme.

O Lord how joyfull is the King, in thy ſtrength and thy power?
How vehemently doth he rejoyce in thee his Saviour?
2 For thou haſt given unto him his godly hearts deſire:
To him nothing thou haſt denied of that he did require.

3 Thou didſt prevent him with thy gifts and bleſſings manifold:
And thou haſt ſet upon his head,
a crowne of perfect gold.
4 And when he aſked life of thee, thereof thou mad'ſt him ſure:
To have long life, yea ſuch a life
as ever ſhall endure.

5 Great is his glory by thy help,
thy benefit and aid:
Great worſhip and great honour both thou haſt upon him laid.
6 Thou wilt give him felicity, that never ſhall decay:
And with thy chearefull countenance wilt comfort him alway.

7 For why, the King doth ſtrongly truſt in God for to prevaile:
Wherefore his goodneſſe and his grace will not that he ſhall quaile.
8 But let thine enemies feele thy force, and thoſe that thee withſtand, Finde out thy foes, and let them feel the power of thy right hand.

9 And like an oven burn them Lord,
in fiery flame and fume:

Thine anger shall destroy them all,
and fire shall them consume.
10 And thou shalt root out of the earth their fruit that should increase:
And from the number of thy folk their seed shall end and cease:

11 For why, much mischief did they muse against thy holy Name:
Yet did they faile, and had no power for to perform the same.
12 But as a mark thou shalt them set in a most open place:
And charge thy bow-strings readily against thine enemies face.

13 Be thou exalted Lord therefore in thy strength every houre:
So shall we sing right solemnly, praising thy might and power.

Deus, Deus meus. Psal. xxij. T. S.

Sing this as the 21. Psalme.

O God my God, wherefore dost thou for sake me utterly?
And helpest not where I do make my great complaint and cry?
2 To thee my God even all day long
I do bewery and crie:
I cease not all the night and yet thou dost rest not at all.

3 Even thou that in thy Sanctuary, and holy place dost dwell,
Thou art the comfort and the joy,
and glory of Israel.
4 And he in whom our fathers old had all their hope for ever:
And when they put their trust in thee,
thou didst them aye deliver.

5 They were deliver'd ever when they called on thy Name:
And for their sin they had in thee,
they were not put to shame.
6 But I am now become a worm, more like than any man:
An out-cast whom the people scorn, with all the spite they can.

7 All men despise as they behold me walking on the way:
They grin, they mow, they nod their heads,
and on this wise they say.
8 This man did glory in the Lord, his favour and his love Let him redeeme and help him now his power if he will prove.

9 But Lord out of my mothers wombe
I came by thy behest:
Thou didst preserve me still in hope,
while I did suck her brest.
10 I was committed from my birth,
with thee to have abode:
Since I was in my mothers wombe, thou hast been ere my God.

The second Part.

11 Then Lord depart not now from me in this my present griefe:
Since I have none to be my help,
my succour and reliefe.
12 So many buls do compasse me, that be full strong of heads:
Yea buls so fat, as though they had in Basan field been fed.

13 They gape upon me greedily, as though they would me slay:
Much like a Lion roaring out,
and ramping for his prey.
14 But I drop downe like water shed,
my joynts in sunder break:
My heart doth in my body melt, like waxe against the heat.

15 And like a potsheard drieth my strength, my tongue it cleaveth fast Unto my jawes, and I am brought to dust of death at last.
16 And many dogs do compasse me,
and wicked counsell eke Conspire against me cursedly, they pierce my hands and feet:

17 I may tell all my bones, so that I might all my bones have told:
Yet still upon me they do look,
and still they me behold.
18 My garments they divided eke in parts among them all:
And for my coat they did cast lots,
to whom it might befall.

19 Therefore I pray thee be not farre from me at my great need:
But rather sith thou art my strength,
to help me Lord make speed.
20 And from the sword Lord save my soul
by thy might and thy power:
And keep my soule, thy darling deare,
from dogs that would devoure.

21 And from the Lions mouth that would me all in sunder shiver:
And from the hornes of Unicornes
Lord safely me deliver.
22 Then shall I to my brethren all thy majesty record,
And in thy Church shal praise the Name of thee the living Lord.

The third Part.

23 All ye that feare him praise the Lord,
thou Jacob honour him:
And all ye seed of Israel,
with reverence worship him.
24 For he despiseth not the poore,
he turneth not awry
His countenance when they do call,
but granteth to their crie.

25 Among the folk that feare the Lord,
I will therefore proclaime Thy praise, and keep my promise made for setting forth thy Name.
26 The poore shall eat and be suffic'd, and those that do endeavor
To seek the Lord, shall praise his Name, their hearts shall live for ever.

27 All coasts of th'earth shall praise the Lord and turne to him for grace:
The heathen folk shall worship him before his blessed face.
28 The kingdome of the heathen folk the Lord shall have therefore:
And he shall be their governour, and King for evermore.

29 The

29 The rich men of his godly gifts
ſhall feed and taſte alſo:
And in his preſence worſhip him,
and bow their knees full low.
30 And all that ſhall go down to duſt,
of life by him ſhall taſte:
My ſeed ſhall ſerve and praiſe the Lord,
while any world ſhall laſt.

31 My ſeed ſhall plainely ſhew to them that ſhall be borne hereafter
His juſtice and his righteouſneſſe, and all his works of wonder.

Dominus regit me. Pſal. xxiij. W. W.

Sing this as the 18. Pſalme.

THe Lord is onely my ſupport,
and he that doth me feed:
How can I then lack any thing, whereof I ſtand in need?
2 He doth me fold in coats moſt faſt, the tender graſſe faſt by:
And after drives me to the ſtreames which run moſt pleaſantly.

3 And when I feele my ſelfe neare loſt, then doth he me home take:
Conducting me in his right paths,
even for his own names ſake.
4 And though I were even at deaths door
yet would I feare none ill:
For with thy rod and ſhepherds crook,
I am comforted ſtill.

5 Thou haſt my table richly deck'd,
in deſpight of my foe:
Thou haſt my head with balme refreſh'd my cup doth overflow.
6 And finally, while breath doth laſt, thy grace ſhall me defend And in the houſe of God will I my life for ever ſpend.

Another of the ſame by T. S.

Sing this as the 23. Pſalme.

MY ſhepherd is the living Lord, nothing therefore I need:
In paſtures faire with waters calme,
he ſets me for to feed.
2 He did convert and glad my ſoule, and brought my minde in frame
To walk in paths of righteouſneſſe, for his moſt holy Name.

3 Yea though I walk in vale of death,
yet will I feare none ill:
Thy rod, thy ſtaffe do comfort me,
and thou art with me ſtill.
4 And in the preſence of my foes,
my table thou ſhalt ſpread:
Thou ſhalt (O Lord) fill full my cup, and eke anoint my head.

5 Through all my life thy favour is ſo frankly ſhew'd to me:
That in thy houſe for evermore my dwelling place ſhall be.

Domini eſt terra. Pſal. xxiiij. I. H.

Sing this as the 18. Pſalme.

THe earth is all the Lords, with all her ſtore and furniture:
Yea his is all the world, and all that therein doth endure.
2 For he hath faſtly founded it above the ſeas to ſtand:
And laid alow the liquid floods,
to flow beneath the land.

3 For who is he O Lord that ſhall aſcend into thy hill?
Or paſſe into thy holy place,
there to continue ſtill?
4 Whoſe hands are harmleſſe, and whoſe heart
no ſpot there doth defile:
His ſoule not ſet on vanity, who hath not ſworne to guile.

5 Him that is ſuch a one the Lord
ſhall place in bliſfull plight:
And God his God and Saviour ſhall yeeld to him his right:
6 This is the brood of travellers,
in ſeeking of his grace:
As Jacob did the Iſraelite,
in that time of his race.

7 Ye Princes ope your gates, ſtand ope
the everlaſting gate:
For there ſhall enter in thereby
the King of glorious ſtate.
8 Who is the King of glorious ſtate?
the ſtrong and mighty Lord:
The mighty Lord in battell ſtout, and triall of the ſword.

9 Ye Princes ope your gates, ſtand ope
the everlaſting gate:
For there ſhall enter in thereby
the King of glorious ſtate?
10 Who is the King of glorious ſtate?
the Lord of hoſts it is:
The kingdom and the royalty of glorious ſtate is his.

Ad te Domine. Pſal. xxv. T. S.

Sing this as the 46. Pſalme.

I Lift my heart to thee,
my God and guide moſt juſt:
Now ſuffer me to take no ſhame,
for in thee do I truſt.
2 Let not my foes rejoyce,
nor make a ſcorn of me:
And let them not be overthrown,
that put their truſt in thee.

3 But ſhame ſhall them befall, which harme them wrongfully:
Therefore thy paths and thy right waies unto me Lord deſcry.
4 Direct me in thy truth,
and teach me, I thee pray:
Thou art my God and Saviour, on thee I wait alway.

5 Thy mercies manifold,
I pray thee, Lord, remember:
And eke thy pitie plentifull, for they have been for ever.
6 Remember not the faults and frailty of my youth:
Remember not how ignorant
I have been of thy truth.

Nor after my deſerts
let me thy mercy finde:
But of thine own benignity,

Lord, have me in thy minde.
7 His mercy is full ſweet,
his truth a perfect guide:
Therefore the Lord will ſinners teach,
and ſuch as go aſide.

8 The humble he will teach his precepts for to keep:
He will direct in all his wayes,
the lowly and the meek.
9 For all the waies of God are truth and mercy both:
To them that keep his Teſtament,
the witneſſe of his troth.

The ſecond Part.

10 Now for thy holy Name
O Lord, I thee intreat,
To grant me pardon for my ſin,
for it is wondrous great.
11 Who ſo doth fear the Lord,
the Lord will him direct:
To lead his life in ſuch a way as he doth beſt accept.

12 His ſoul ſhall evermore in goodneſſe dwell and ſtand:
His ſeed and his poſterity inherit ſhall the land.
13 All thoſe that fear the Lord, know his ſecret intent:
And unto them he doth declare his Will and Teſtament.

14 Mine eyes and eke my heart to him I will advance:
That pluck'd my feet out of the ſhare of ſin and ignorance.
15 With mercy me behold,
to thee I make my mone:
For I am poor and deſolate, and comfortleſſe alone.

16 The troubles of my heart are multiplied indeed: Bring me out of this miſery, neceſsity and need.
17 Behold my poverty,
mine anguiſh and my paine:
Remit my ſin and mine offence,
and make me cleane againe.

18 O Lord, behold my foes,
how they do ſtill increaſe:
Purſuing me with deadly hate, that faine would live in peace.
19 Preſerve and keep my ſoule,
and eke deliver me:
And let me not be overthrowne, becauſe I truſt in thee.

20 Let my ſimple pureneſſe me from mine enemies ſhend:
Becauſe I look as one of thine, that thou ſhouldſt me defend.
21 Deliver, Lord, thy folk,
and ſend them ſome releif:
I meane thy choſen Iſrael, from all their paine and grief.

Iudica me Domine. Pſal. xxvj. T. S.

Sing this as the 14. Pſalme.

LOrd be my Judge, and thou ſhalt ſee,
my paths be right and plaine:
I truſt in God and hope that he will ſtrength me to remaine.
2 Prove me my God, I thee deſire, my waies to ſearch and trie:
As men do prove their gold with fire,
my reines and heart eſpie.

3 Thy goodneſſe laid before my face,
I durſt behold alwaies:
For of thy truth I tread the trace,
and will do all my daies.
4 I do not luſt to haunt or uſe, with men whoſe deeds are vaine:
To come in houſe I do refuſe, with the deceitfull traine.

5 I much abhoorre the wicked ſort, their deeds I do deſpiſe:
I do not once to them reſort, that hurtfull things deviſe.
6 My hands I waſh and do proceed, in works to walk upright,
Then to thine altar I make ſpeed,
to offer there in ſight.

7 That I may ſpeak and preach the praiſe that doth belong to thee:
And ſo declare how wondrous waies thou haſt been good to me.
8 O God thy houſe I love moſt deare, to me it doth excell:
I have delight, and would be neare
whereas thy grace doth dwell.

9 O ſhut not up my ſoule with them in ſin that take their fill:
Nor yet my life among thoſe men that ſeek much blood to ſpill.
10 Whoſe hands are heapt with craft and guile their lives thereof are full:
And their right hand with wrench & wile for bribes doth pluck and pull.

11 But I in righteouſneſſe intend my time and daies to ſerve:
Have mercy Lord, and me defend,
ſo that I do not ſwerve:
12 My foot is ſtaid for all affaies,
it ſtandeth well and right:
Wherefore to God will I give praiſe in all the peoples ſight.

Dominus illuminatio. Pſal. xxvij. I. H.

Sing this as the 14. Pſalme.

THe Lord is both my health & light,
ſhall man make me diſmaid?
Sith God doth give me ſtrength & might,
why ſhould I be afraid?
2 While that my foes with all their ſtrength begin with me to brawll:
And think to eate me up at length themſelves have caught the fall.

3 Though they in camp againſt me lie
my heart is not afraid:
In battell pight if they will try,
I truſt in God for aid.
4 One thing of God I do require, that he would not deny:
For which I pray and will deſire, till he to me apply.

5 That I within his holy place my life throughout may dwell:
To ſee the beauty of his face,
and view his Temple well.

6 In time of dread he ſhall me hide, within his place moſt pure:
And keep me ſecret by his ſide,
as on a rock moſt ſure.

7 At length I know the Lords good grace
ſhall make me ſtrong and ſtout:
My foes to foile and cleane deface, that compaſſe me about.
8 Therefore within his houſe will I give ſacrifice of praiſe:
With Pſalmes and ſongs I will apply to laud the Lord alwaies.

The ſecond Part.

9 Lord heare the voice of my complaint, for which to thee I call:
Have mercy Lord on me oppreſt,
and ſend me help withall.
10 My heart doth knowledge unto thee,
I ſue to have thy grace:
Then ſeek my face ſaith thou to me,
Lord I will ſeek thy face.

11 In wrath turn not thy face away,
nor ſuffer me to ſlide:
Thou art my help ſtill to this day,
be ſtill my God and guide.
12 My parents both their ſonne forſook, and caſt me off at large:
And then the Lord himſelfe yet took of me the care and charge.

13 Teach me O Lord the way to thee, and lead me on forth right:
For feare of ſuch as watch for me,
to trap me if they might.
14 Do not betake me to the will of them that be my foes:
For they ſurmiſe againſt me ſtill,
falſe witneſſe to depoſe.

15 My heart would faint but that in me
this hope is fixed faſt:
The Lord Gods good grace ſhall I ſee in life that aye ſhall laſt.
16 Truſt ſtill in God, whoſe whole thou art,
his will abide thou muſt:
And he ſhall eaſe and ſtrength thy heart
if thou in him do truſt.

Ad te Domine. Pſal. xxviij. T.S.

Sing this as the 18. Pſalme.

THou art (O Lord) my ſtrength and ſtay,
the ſuccour which I crave:
Neglect me not, leſt I be like to them that go to grave.
2 The voice of thy ſuppliant heare, that unto thee doth cry:
When I lift up my hands unto thy holy Ark moſt high.

3 Repute me not among the ſort of wicked and pervert:
That ſpeak right faire unto their friends,
but think full ill in heart.
4 According to their handy-work,
as they deſerve indeed:
And after their inventions
let them receive their meed.

5 For they regard nothing Gods work,
his law ne yet his ſore:
Therefore will he them and their ſeed deſtroy for evermore.
6 To render thanks unto the Lord,
how great a cauſe have I,
My voice, my prayer, and my complaint that heard ſo willingly?

7 He is my ſhield and fortitude, my buckler in diſtreſſe:
My hope, my help, my hearts reliefe,
my ſong ſhall him confeſſe.
8 He is our ſtrength and our defence,
our enemies to reſiſt:
The health and the ſalvation of his elect by Chriſt.

9 Thy people and thine heritage
Lord bleſſe, guide and preſerve:
Increaſe them Lord and rule their hearts, that they may never ſwerve.

Afferte Domino. Pſal. xxix. T.S.

Sing this as the 21. Pſalme.

GIve to the Lord ye Potentates, ye Rulers of the world:
Give ye all praiſe, honour and ſtrength unto the living Lord.
2 Give glory to his holy Name,
and honour him alone:
Worſhip him in his Majeſty, within his holy throne.

3 His voice doth rule the waters all even as himſelfe doth pleaſe:
He doth prepare the thunder-claps,
and governs all the ſeas.
4 The voice of God is of great force,
and wondrous excellent:
It is moſt mighty in effect,
and moſt magnificent.

5 The voice of God doth rend and break
the Cedar-trees ſo long:
The Cedar-trees of Lebanon, which are moſt high and ſtrong.
6 And makes them leap like as a Calfe, or els the Unicorne:
Not only trees, but mountaines great,
whereon the trees are borne.

7 His voice divides the flames of fire, and ſhakes the wilderneſſe:
8 It makes the deſert quake for feare, that called is Cades.
9 It makes the Hindes for fear to calve, and makes the coverts plaine:
Then in his Temple every man his glory doth proclaime.

10 The Lord was ſet above the floods, ruling the raging ſea:
So ſhall he reigne as Lord and King,
for ever and for aye.
11 The Lord will give his people power,
in vertue to increaſe:
The Lord will bleſſe his choſen flock with everlaſting peace.

Exaltabo te Domine. Pſal. xxx. I.H.

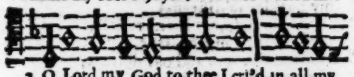
O Lord I give to thee: Which didſt not make my foes rejoyce, but haſt exalted me.



2 O Lord my God to thee I cri'd in all my paine and griefe: Thou gav'ſt an eare, and didſt provide, to eaſe me with releſe.

3 Of thy good will thou haſt cald back my ſoule from hell to ſave:
Thou didſt revive when ſtrength did lack and kept'ſt me from the grave.
4 Sing praiſe ye Saints that prove and ſee
the goodneſſe of the Lord:
In memory of his Majeſty
rejoyce with one accord.

5 For why? his anger but a ſpace doth laſt and ſlack againe:
But in his favour and his grace alwaies doth life remaine.
Though gripes of griefand pangs full ſore
ſhall lodge with us all night:
The Lord to joy ſhall us reſtore before the day be light.

6 When I enjoy'd the world at will,
thus would I boaſt and ſay:
Tuſh, I am ſure to feele none ill,
this wealth ſhall not decay.
7 For thou O Lord of thy good grace
hadſt ſent me ſtrength and aid:
But when thou turn'ſt away thy face,
my minde was ſore diſmaid.

8 Wherefore againe yet did I cry to thee O Lord of might:
My God with plaints I did apply, and pray'd both day and night.
9 What gaine is in my blood (ſaid I) if death deſtroy my daies?
Doth duſt declare thy Majeſty, or yet thy truth doth praiſe?

10 Wherefore my God ſome pity take,
O Lord I thee deſire:
Do not this ſimple ſoule forſake,
of help I thee require.
11 Then didſt thou turn my grief & woe into a chearfull voice:
The mourning weed thou took'ſt me fro,
and mad'ſt me to rejoyce.

12 Wherefore my ſoule unceſſantly ſhall ſing unto thy praiſe:
My Lord my God to thee will I give laud and thanks alwaies.

In te Domine. Pſal. xxxj. I. H.

Sing this as the 18. Pſalme.

O Lord I put my truſt in thee,
let nothing work me ſhame:
As thou art juſt deliver me,
and ſet me quite from blame.
2 Heare me O God, and that anon, to help me make good ſpeed:
Be thou my rock and houſe of ſtone,
my fence in time of need.

3 For why? as ſtones thy ſtrength is tri'd, thou art my fort and tower:
For thy Names ſake be thou my guide,
and leade me in thy power.
4 Pluck thou my feet out of the ſnare, which they for me have laid:
Thou art my ſtrength, and all my care is for thy might and aid.

5 Into thy hands Lord I commit my ſpirit which is thy due:
For why thou haſt redeemed it,
O Lord my God moſt true.
6 I hate ſuch folk as will not part from things to be abhor'd:
When they on trifles ſet their heart,
my truſt is in the Lord.

7 For I will in thy mercy joy,
I ſee it doth excell:
Thou ſeeſt when ought would me anoy,
and knowſt my ſoule full well.
8 Thou haſt not left me in their hand,
that would me over-charge:
But thou haſt ſet me out of band,
to walk abroad at large.

The ſecond Part.

9 Great griefe O Lord doth me aſſaile, ſome pity on me take:
Mine eyes wax dim, my ſight doth faile
my womb for woe doth ake.
10 My life is worn with grief and paine,
my yeares in wo are paſt:
My ſtrength is gone, & through diſdaine my bones corrupt and waſte.

11 Among my foes I am a ſcorne, my friends are all diſmaid:
My neighbours and my kinſmen born,
to ſee me are afraid.
12 As men once dead are out of minde,
ſo am I now forgot:
As ſmall effect in me they finde,
as in a broken pot.

13 I heard the brags of all the rout, their threats my minde did fray:
How they conſpir'd, and went about
to take my life away.
14 But Lord I truſt in thee for aid,
not to be over-trod:
For I confeſſe and ſtill have ſaid, thou art my Lord and God.

15 The length of all my life and age
O Lord is in thy hand:
Defend me from the wrath and rage of them that me withſtand.
16 To me thy ſervant (Lord) expreſſe, and ſhew thy joyfull face:
And ſave me Lord for thy goodneſſe, thy mercy and thy grace.

The third Part.

17 Lord let me not be put to blame,
for that on thee I call:
But let the wicked beare the ſhame, and into their grave fall.

18 O Lord make dumb their lips outright, which are addict to lies:
And cruelly with pride and ſpight againſt the juſt deviſe.

19 O how great good haſt thou in ſtore, laid up full ſafe for them That feare and truſt in thee therefore,
before the ſonnes of men!
20 Thy preſence ſhall them fence and guide from all proud brags and wrongs:
Within thy place thou ſhalt them hide from all the ſtrife of tongues.

21 Thanks to the Lord that hath declar'd on me his grace ſo farre:
Me to defend with watch and ward,
as in a towne of warre.
22 Thus did I ſay both day and night,
when I was ſore oppreſt:
Lo I was cleane caſt out of ſight, yet heardſt thou my requeſt.

23 Ye Saints love ye the Lord, I ſay, the faithfull he doth guide:
And to the proud he doth repay
according to their pride.
24 Be ſtrong and God wil ſtay your heart,
be bold and have a luſt:
For ſure the Lord will take your part,
ſith ye in him do truſt.

Beati quorum. Pſal. xxxij. T. S.

Sing this as the 50. Pſalme.

THe man is bleſt whoſe wickedneſſe
the Lord hath cleane remitted:
And he whoſe ſin and wickedneſſe is hid and alſo covered.
2 And bleſt is he to whom the Lord
imputeth not his ſin:
Which in his heart hath hid no guile,
nor fraud is found therein.

3 For whilſt that I kept cloſe my ſin in ſilence and conſtraint:
My bones did weare and waſte away with daily mone and plaint.
4 For night and day thy hand on me
ſo grievous was and ſmart,
That all my bloud and humours moiſt to drineſſe did convert.

5 I did therefore confeſſe my faults,
and all my ſins diſcover,
Then thou, O Lord, didſt me forgive, and all my ſinnes paſſe over.
6 The humble man ſhall pray therefore,
and ſeek thee in due time:
So that the flouds of waters great ſhall have no power on him.

7 When trouble and adverſity do compaſſe me about:
Thou art my refuge and my joy,
and thou doſt rid me out.
8 Come hither and I will thee teach,
how thou ſhalt walk aright:
I will thee guide, as I my ſelf have learn'd by proofe and ſight.

9 Be not ſo rude and ignorant
as is the horſe and mule:
Whoſe mouth without a reine or bit from harm thou canſt not rule.

10 The wicked man ſhall manifold ſorrowes and griefs ſuſtaine:
But unto him that truſts in God,
his goodneſſe ſhall remaine.

11 Be merry therefore in the Lord,
ye juſt lift up your voice:
And ye of pure and perfect heart,
be glad and eke rejoyce.

Exultate juſti. Pſal. xxxiij. I H

Sing this as the 30. Pſalme.

YE righteous in the Lord rejoyce,
it is a ſeemly ſight,
That upright men with thankfull voice ſhould praiſe the Lord of might.
2 Praiſe ye the Lord with harp and ſong, in Pſalmes and pleaſant things:
With Lute, and inſtrument among,
that ſoundeth with ten ſtrings.

3 Sing to the Lord a ſong moſt new with courage give him praiſe:
4 For why? his word is ever true,
his works and all his waies.
5 To judgement, equity and right he hath a great good will:
And with his gifts he doth delight the earth throughout to fill.

6 For by the word of God alone
the heavens all were wrought:
Their hoſts and powers every one his breath to paſſe hath brought.
7 The waters great gathered hath he on heapes within the ſhore:
And hid them in the depth to be,
as in a houſe of ſtore.

8 All men on earth both leaſt and moſt, feare God and keep his law:
Ye that inhabit in each coaſt dread him and ſtand in awe.
9 What he commanded wrought it was at once with preſent ſpeed:
What he doth will is brought to paſſe with full effect indeed.

10 The counſels of the nations rude
the Lord doth bring to nought:
He doth defeate the multitude of their device and thought.
11 But his decrees continue ſtill,
they never ſlack nor ſwage:
The motions of his minde and will take place in every age.

The ſecond Part.

12 And bleſt are they to whom the Lord
as God and guide is known:
Whom he doth chuſe of meere accord,
to take them as his own.
13 The Lord from heaven caſt his ſight, on men mortall by birth: 14 Conſidering from his ſeat of might the dwellers of the earth.

15 The Lord, I ſay, whoſe hand hath wrought mans heart, and doth it frame:
For he alone doth know the thought and working of the ſame.
16 A King that truſteth in his hoſt, ſhall nought prevaile at length:

The man that of his might doth boaſt, ſhall fall for all his ſtrength.

17 The troupes of horſemen eke ſhall fall, their ſturdy ſteeds ſhall ſterve:
The ſtrength of horſe ſhall not prevaile,
the rider to preſerve.
18 But lo the eyes of God intend,
and watch to aid the juſt:
With ſuch as feare him to offend,
and on his goodneſſe truſt.

19 That he of death and great diſtreſſe, may ſet their ſoules from dread:
And if that dearth their land oppreſſe,
in hunger them to feed.
20 Wherfore our ſoul doth whole depend on God our ſtrength and ſtay,
He is our ſhield us to defend,
and drive all darts away.

21 Our ſoule in God hath joy and game, rejoycing in his might:
For why? in his moſt holy Name
we hope and much delight.
22 Therefore let thy goodneſſe O Lord, ſtill preſent with us be:
As we alwaies with one accord,
do only truſt in thee.

Benedicam Dom. Pſal. xxxiiij. T.S.

Sing this as the 30. Pſalme.

I Will give laud and honour both unto the Lord alwaies:
And eke my mouth for evermore
ſhall ſpeake unto his praiſe.
2 I do delight to laud the Lord in ſoule and eke in voice:
That humble men and mortifi'd may heare and ſo rejoyce.

3 Therefore ſee that ye magnifie with me the living Lord:
And let us now exalt his Name together with one accord.
4 For I my ſelfe beſought the Lord,
he anſwered me againe:
And me deliver'd incontinent,
from all my feare and paine.

5 Who ſo they be that him behold, ſhall ſee his light moſt cleare,
Their countenance ſhall not be daſht,
they need it not to feare.
6 This ſilly wretch for ſome reliefe unto the Lord did call:
Who did him heare without delay,
and rid him out of thrall.

7 The Angel of the Lord doth pitch his tents in every place:
To ſave all ſuch as feare the Lord,
that nothing them deface.
8 Taſte and conſider well therefore,
that God is good and juſt:
O happy man that maketh him his only ſtay and truſt.

9 Feare ye the Lord ye holy ones, above all earthly thing:
For they that feare the living Lord,
are ſure to lack nothing.
10 The Lions ſhall be hunger-bit, and pin'd with famine much:
But as for them that feare the Lord,
no lack ſhall be to ſuch.

The ſecond Part.

11 Come neare therefore my children dear and to my words give eare:
I ſhall ye teach the perfect way,
how ye the Lord ſhould feare.
12 Who is the man that would live long and lead a bleſſed life?
13 See thou refraine thy tongue and lips from all deceit and ſtrife.

14 Turn back thy face from doing ill,
and do the godly deed:
Inquire for peace and quietneſſe,
and follow it with ſpeed.
15 For why? the eyes of God above, upon the juſt are bent:
His eares likewiſe do heare the plaint of the poore innocent.

16 But he doth frown and bend his browes upon the wicked traine:
And cuts away the memory that ſhould of them remaine.
17 But when the juſt do call and cry,
the Lord doth heare them ſo,
That out of paine and miſery forthwith he lets them go.

18 The Lord is kinde and ſtraight at hand to ſuch as be contrite:
He ſaves alſo the ſorrowfull,
the poore and meeke in ſprite.
19 Full many be the miſeries, that righteous men do ſuffer:
But out of all adverſities
the Lord doth them deliver.

20 The Lord doth ſo preſerve and keep their very bones alway:
That not ſo much as one of them
doth periſh or decay.
21 The ſin ſhall ſlay the wicked man, which he himſelfe hath wrought:
And ſuch as hate the righteous man,
ſhall ſoone be brought to nought.

22 But they that feare the living Lord,
the Lord doth ſave them ſound:
And who that put their truſt in him,
nothing ſhall them confound.

Iudica me Dom. Pſal. xxxv. I. H.

Sing this as the humble ſuit of a ſinner.

LOrd plead my cauſe againſt my foes, confound their force and might:
Fight on my part againſt all thoſe that ſeek with me to fight.
2 Lay hand upon the ſpeare and ſhield, thy ſelfe in armour dreſſe:
Stand up for me and fight the field,
to help me from diſtreſſe.

3 Gird on thy ſword, and ſtop the way,
mine enemies to withſtand:
That thou unto my ſoule maiſt ſay,
Io I thy help at hand.
4 Confound them with rebuke and blame that ſeek my ſoule to ſpill:
Let them turn back and flee with ſhame, that think to work me ill.

5 Let

5 Let them diſperſe and flee abroad, as winde doth drive the duſt:
And that the Angel of our God their might away may thruſt.
6 Let all their waies be void of light,
and ſlippery like to fall:
And ſend thine Angel with thy might,
to perſecute them all.

7 For why? without my fault they have in ſecret ſet their grin:
And for no cauſe have dig'd a cave to take my ſoule therein.
8 When they think leaſt and have no care,
O Lord deſtroy them all:
Let them be trapt in their own ſnare,
and in their miſchiefe fall.

9 And let my ſoule with heart and voice in God have joy and wealth:
That in the Lord I may rejoyce, and in his ſaving health.
10 And then my bones ſhall ſpeak and ſay,
my parts ſhall all agree:
O Lord though they do ſeem full gay,
what one is like to thee?

The ſecond Part.

11 Thou doſt defend the weak from them that are both ſtout and ſtrong:
And rid the poore from wicked men,
that ſpoile and do them wrong.
12 My cruell foes againſt me riſe, to witneſſe things untrue,
And to accuſe me they deviſe, of things I never knew.

13 Where I to them did owe good will they quit me with diſdaine:
That they ſhould pay my good with ill,
my ſoule doth ſore complaine.
14 When they were ſick I mourn'd therfore, and clad my ſelfe in ſack:
With faſting I did faint full ſore, ſo pray I was not ſlack.

15 As they had been my brethren deare,
I did my ſelfe behave:
As one that maketh wofull cheare about his mothers grave.
16 But they at my diſeaſe did joy,
and gather on a rout:
Yea abject ſlaves at me did toy, with mocks and checks full ſtout.

17 The belly-gods and flattering traine that all good things deride:
At me do grin with great diſdaine, and pluck their mouthes aſide.
18 Lord why wilt thou ſo long forbeare, why doſt thou ſtay and pauſe?
O rid my ſoule, mine onely deare, out of theſe Lions clawes.

19 And then will I give thanks to thee, before the Church alwaies:
And where moſt of the people be,
there will I ſhew thy praiſe.
20 Let not my foes prevaile on me,
which hate me for no fault:
Nor let them wink or turne their eyes,
that cauſleſſe me aſſault.

The third Part.

21 Of peace no word they think or ſay, their talke is all untrue:
They ſtill conſole, and would betray all thoſe that peace enſue.
22 With open mouth they run at me,
they gape, they laugh, they ſneere:
Well, well, ſay they, our eye doth ſee
the thing that we deſire.

23 But Lord, thou ſeeſt what waies they take,
ceaſe not my griefs to mend:
Be not farre off nor me forſake,
as men that faile their friend.
24 Awake, ariſe, and ſtir abroad, defend me in my right:
Revenge my cauſe, my Lord, my God,
and aid me with thy might.

25 According to my righteouſneſſe,
my Lord God ſet me free:
And let them not their pride expreſſe, nor triumph over me.
26 Let not their hearts rejoyce and cry,
there, there, all goeth trim:
Nor give them cauſe to ſay on high
we have our will on him.

27 Confound them with rebuke & ſhame that joy when I do moura:
And pay them home with ſpite & blame,
that brag at me with ſcorn.
28 Let them be glad and eke rejoyce, which love mine upright way:
And they all times with heart and voice,
ſhall praiſe the Lord, and ſay,

29 Great is the Lord and doth excell, for why? he doth delight
To ſee his ſervants proſper well, that is his pleaſant ſight.
30 Wherefore my tongue I will apply, thy righteouſneſſe to praiſe: Unto the Lord my God will I ſing laud and praiſe alwaies.

Dixit injuſtus. Pſal. xxxvj. L.H.

Sing this as the 35. Pſalme.

THe wicked with his works unjuſt, doth thus perſwade his heart:
That of the Lord he hath no truſt his feare is ſet apart.
2 Yet doth he joy in his eſtate, to walk as he began:
So long till he deſerve the hate of God and eke of man.

3 His words are wicked, vile, and naught, his tongue no truth doth tell:
Yet at no hand will he be taught which way he may do well.
4 When he ſhould ſleepe then doth he muſe his miſchiefs to fulfill:
No wicked waies doth he refuſe,
nor nothing that is ill.

5 But Lord thy goodneſſe doth aſcend
above the heavens hie,
So doth thy truth it ſelfe extend unto the cloudie skie.
6 Much more than hils ſo high and ſteep,
thy juſtice is expreſt:
Thy judgements like to ſeas moſt deep,
thou ſav'ſt both man and beaſt.

7 Thy mercy is above all things,
O God it doth excell:
In truſt whereof as in thy wings,

the

the fruites of men shall dwell.
8 Within thy house they shall be fed, with plenty at their will:
Of all delights they shall be sped,
and take thereof their fill.

9 For why? the well of life so pure doth ever flow from thee:
And in thy light we are full sure the lasting light to see.
10 From such as thee desire to know,
let not thy grace depart:
Thy righteousnesse declare and shew to men of upright heart.

11 Let not the proud on me prevalle,
O Lord of thy good grace:
Nor let the wicked me assaile, to throw me out of place.
12 But they in their device shall fall,
that wicked works maintaine:
They shall be overthrown withall, and never rise againe.

Noli æmulari. Psal. xxxvij. W. W.

Sing this as the 35. Psalme.

GRudge not to see the wicked men, in wealth to flourish still:
Nor yet envy such as to ill, have bent and set their will.
2 For as greene grasse and flourishing herbes,
are cut and wither away:
So shall their great prosperity shone passe, fade and decay.

3 Trust thou therefore in God alone, to do well give thy minde:
So shalt thou have the land as thine,
and there sure food shalt finde.
4 In God set all thy hearts delight, and look what thou wouldst have,
Or else canst wish in all the world,
thou needst it not to crave.

5 Cast both thy selfe and thine affaires, on God with perfect trust:
And thou shalt see with patience,
the effect both sure and just.
6 Thy perfect life and godly name,
he will cleare as the light:
So that the Sun even at noone daine, shall not shine halfe so bright.

7 Be still therefore and stedfastly on God see thou wait thine:
Not shrinking for the prosperous state of lewd and wicked men.
8 Shake off displeight, envy and hate,
at least in any wise:
Their wicked works avoid and flee and follow not their guise.

9 For every wicked man will God destroy both more and lesse:
But such as trust in him are sure the land for to possesse.
10 Watch but a while and thou shalt see no more the wicked traine:
No not so much as house or place where once he did remaine.

The second Part.

11 But mercifull and humble men
enjoy shall sea and land;
In rest and peace they shall rejoyce, for nought shall them withstand.
12 The lewd men and malicious, against the just conspire:
They gnash their teeth at him as men which do his bane desire.

13 But while that lewd men thus do think,
the Lord laughs them to scorne:
For why, he sees the terme approach,
when they shall sigh and mourne.
14 The wicked have their swords outdrawn, their bowe eke have they bent:
To overthrow and kill the poore,
as they the right way went.

15 But the same sword shall pierce their hart, which was to kill the just:
Likewise the bowe shall break to shivers wherein they put their trust.
16 Doubtlesse the just mans poore estate is better a great deale more:
Then all these lewd and wicked mens rich pompe and heaped store.

17 For be their power never so strong,
God will it overthrow:
Where contrary he doth preserve
the humble men and low.
18 He sees by his great providence,
the good mens trade and way:
And will give them inheritance, which never shall decay.

19 They shall not be discouraged, when some are hard bestead:
When other shall be hunger-bit,
they shall be glad and fed.
20 For whosoever wicked is,
and enemy to the Lord:
Shal quaile, yea melt even as lambs grease or smoke that flies abroad.

The third Part.

21 Behold the wicked borrowes much,
and never paies againe:
Whereas the just by liberall gifts,
makes many glad and faine.
22 For they whom God doth blesse shall have the land for heritage.
And they whom he doth curse likewise shall perish in his rage.

23 The Lord the just mans waies doth guide, and gives him good successe:
To every thing he takes in hand,
he sendeth good addresse.
24 Though that he fall, yet is he sure not utterly to quaile:
Because the Lord puts out his hand,
at need and doth not faile.

25 I have beene young and now am old,
yet did I never see:
The just man left, nor yet his seed
so beg for misery.
26 But gives alwaies most liberally, and lends whereas is need:
His children and posterity receive of God their meed.

27 Flee vice therefore and wicked nesse,
and vertue do embrace:
So shall God grant thee long to have on earth a dwelling place.
28 For God so loveth equity,

and

and ſhewes to his ſuch grace.
That he preſerveth them always,
but ſtroyes the wicked race.

29 Wherefore the good and godly men
inherit ſhall the land:
Having as Lords all things therein in their own power and hand.
30 The juſt mans mouth doth ever ſpeake of matters wiſe and hie:
His tongue doth talke to edifie, with truth and equity.

31 For in his heart the law of God his Lord doth ſtill abide:
So that where ever he goes or walks,
his foot can never ſlide.
32 The wicked like a ravening wolfe, the juſt man doth beſet
By all means ſeeking him to kill,
if he fall in his net.

The fourth Part.

33 Though he ſhould fall into his hands
yet God would ſuccour ſend:
Though men againſt him ſentence give,
God would him yet defend.
34 Wait thou on God and keep his way, he ſhall preſerve thee then
The earth to rule, and thou ſhalt ſee deſtroid theſe wicked men.

35 The wicked have I ſeen moſt ſtrong, and plac'd in high degree:
Flouriſhing in all wealth and ſtore,
as doth the Lawrell-tree.
36 But ſuddenly he paſt away,
and lo he was quite gone:
Then I him ſought, but could not finde
the place where dwelt ſuch one.

37 Mark and behold the perfect man,
how God doth him increaſe:
For the juſt man ſhall have at length great joy with reſt and peace.
38 As for tranſgreſſours, woe to them, deſtroid they ſhall all bee:
God will cut off their budding grace, and rich poſterity.

39 But the ſalvation of the juſt doth come from God above:
Who in their trouble ſend them aid of his meere grace and love.
40 God doth them help, ſave and deliver from lewd men and unjuſt:
And ſtill will ſave them whilſt that they in him do put their truſt.

Domine ne. Pſal. xxxviij. I.H.

Sing this as the 6. Pſalme.

PUlt me not to rebuke O Lord,
in thy provoked ire:
Ne in thy heavy wrath O Lord, correct me I deſire.
2 Thine arrowes do ſtick faſt in me thy hand doth preſſe me ſore:
And in my fleſh no health at all appeareth any more.

3 And all this is by reaſon of the wrath that I am in:
Nor my reſt is in my bones,
by reaſon of my ſin.
4 For lo my wicked doings (Lord) above my head are gone!
A greater load than I can bear they lie me ſore upon.

5 My wounds ſtink and are feſtred ſo
as loathſome is to ſee:
Which all through mine own fooliſhneſs betideth unto me.
6 And I in woefull wiſe am brought in trouble and diſtreſſe:
That I go wailing all the day in dolefull beavineſſe.

7 My loynes are fil'd with ſore diſeaſe, my fleſh hath no whole part:
8 I feeble am and broken ſore,
I roare for griefe of heart.
9 Thou ſeeſt (Lord) my deſire, my groans, are open in thy ſight.
10 My heart doth pant, my ſtrength doth faile mine eyes have loſt their light.

11 My lovers and my worſted friends
ſtand looking on my woe:
And eke my kinſmen farre away are me departed fro.
12 They that did ſeek my life, laid ſnares, and they that ſought the way To do me hurt, ſpake lies and thought on miſchiefe all the day.

The ſecond Part.

13 But as a dafe man I become,
that cannot heare at all:
14 And as one dumbe, that opens not his mouth to ſpeak withall.
15 For all my confidence O Lord is wholy ſet on thee:
O Lord thou Lord that art my God,
I hearken thou ſhalt give eare to me.

16 This did I crave, leſt they my ſlips triumph not over me:
For when my foot did ſlip, then they did joy my fall to ſee.
17 And truely I poore wretch am ſtay in place, a wofull wight:
And eke my grievous heavineſſe is ever in my ſight.

18 For while that I my wickedneſſe in humble wiſe confeſſe:
And while I for my unfaine deeds,
my ſorrowes do expreſſe.
19 My foes do ſtill remain alive,
and mighty are alſo:
And they that hate me wrongfully,
in number hugely grow.

20 They laid againſt me ches my good,
with evill do repay:
Becauſe that good and honeſt things
I do enſue alway.
21 Forſake me not O Lord my God, be thou not farre away:
22 Haſte me to help my Lord my God, my ſafety and my ſtay.

Dixi cuſtodiam. Pſal. xxxix. I.H.

Sing this as the 5. Pſalme.

I Said I will look to my waies, for feare I ſhould go wrong:
I will take heed all times that I offend not with my tongue.
2 As with a bit I will keep fall my

my mouth with bowre and bridle, Mee once to whisper all the while the wicked are in sight.

2 I held my tongue, and spake no word, but kept me close and still:
Yea from good talk I did refraine, but sore against my will.

3 My heart was hot within my breast, with musings kindled and inflam'd,
Which did increase and burn the fire,
at last these words brake out.

4 Lord number me my life and daies which yet I have not past:
So that I may be certified,
how long my life shall last.

5 Thou hast appointed out my life,
in length much like a span:
Mine age is nothing unto thee,
so vaine is every man.

6 Man walketh like a shade, and doth in vaine himselfe annoy:
In getting goods and can not tell,
who shall the same enjoy.

7 Now Lord sith things be in such case,
what help do I desire?
Of truth my hope doth hang on thee,
I nothing else require.

The second Part.

8 From all the sins that I have done,
Lord quit me out of hand:
And make me not a scorne to fooles,
that nothing understand.

9 I was as dumbe and to complaine no trouble might me move:
Because I knew it was thy work my patience for to prove.

10 Lord take from me thy scourge and plague,
I can them not withstand:
I faint and pine away for feare of thy most heavy hand.

11 When thou for sin dost man rebuke,
he waxeth wo and wane:
As doth a cloth that moths have fret,
so vaine is every man.

12 Lord hearken, help, and give good heed regard my teares that fall:
I sojurne like a stranger here,
as did my fathers all.

13 O spare a little, give me space
my strength for to restore:
Before I go and from hence, and shall be seene no more.

Expectans expectavi. Psal. xl.

Sing this as the 12. Psalme.

1 I Waited long and sought the Lord, and patiently did bear:
At length to me he did accord,
my voice and cry to heare.

2 He pluck'd me from the like so deepy,
the mire and clay:
And on a rock he set my feet,
and he did guide my way.

3 To me he taught a newe of praise, which I must now abroad:
And sing new songs of thanks always unto the Lord our God.

4 When all the folke these things shall see as people much afraide:
Then they unto the Lord will flee, and trust upon his aid.

5 O blest is he whose hope and heart
doth in the Lord remaine:
That with the proud doth take no part,
nor such as lie and faine.

6 For Lord my God thy wondrous deeds in greatnesse far do passe: Thy favour towards us exceeds all things that ever was.

7 When I intend and do devise thy works abroad to shew:
To such a number they do rise, thereof no end I know.

8 Burnt-offerings thou delightst not in,
I know thy whole desire:
With sacrifice to purge his sin,
thou dost no man require.

9 Meat-offerings and sacrifice thou wouldst not have at all:
But thou (O Lord) hast open made mine eares to heare withall.

10 But then said I, behold and look,
I come a meane to be:
For in the volume of thy book
thus it is said of me.

11 That I (O Lord) should do thy minde, which thing doth like me well:
For in my heart thy law I finde, fast placed there to dwell.

12 Thy justice and thy righteousnesse in great recess I tell:
Behold my tongue no time doth cease,
O Lord thou know'st full well.

The second Part.

13 I have not hid (within my breast)
thy goodnesse as by stealth:
But I declare and have exprest thy truth and saving health.

14 I kept not close thy loving minde, that no man should it know:
The trust that in thy truth I finde, to all the Church I show.

15 Thy tender mercy (Lord) from me withdraw thou not away:
But let thy love and verity preserve me still for aye.

16 For I with mischiefs many a one am sore beset about:
My sins have me so overgone,
I cannot spie them out.

17 For why? in number they exceed the hairs upon my head:
My heart doth faint for very dread,
that I am almost dead.

18 With speed send help and let me feele,
O Lord I thee require:
Make haste with aid to succour me,
O Lord to my desire.

19 Let them sustaine rebuke and shame,
that seek my soule to spill:
Drive back my foes, and them defame, that wish and would me ill.

20 For their ill feats do them detecte, that would defame my name:
Alwaies at me they raile and crye,
fie on him, for shame.

21 Let them in thee have joy and wealth that ſeek to thee alwaies:
That thoſe that love thy ſaving health,
may ſay, to God be praiſe.
22 But as for me I am but poore, oppreſt and brought full low:
Yet thou O Lord wilt me reſtore to health full well I know.

23 For why thou art my hope and truſt,
my refuge, help and ſtay:
Wherefore my God, as thou art juſt, with me no time delay.

Beatus qui intelligit. Pſal. xlj. T. S.

Sing this at the 30. Pſalme.

THe man is bleſt that carefull is,
the needy to conſider:
For in the ſeaſon perillous
the Lord will him deliver.
2 The Lord will make him ſafe & ſound, and happy in the land:
And he will not deliver him into his enemies hand.

3 And in his bed when he lies ſick,
the Lord will him reſtore:
And thou O Lord wilt turne to health his ſickneſſe and his ſore.
4 Then in my ſickneſſe thus ſaid I,
have mercy Lord on me:
And heale my ſoule, which is full wo, that I offended thee.

5 Mine enemies wiſh'd me ill in heart,
and thus of me did ſpy:
When ſhall he die, that all his name may vaniſh quite away?
6 And when they come to viſit me,
they ask if I do well:
But in their hearts miſchief they hatch,
and to their mates it tell.

7 They bite their lips and whiſpet ſo, as though they would me charme:
And caſt their forches how to trap me with ſome deadly harme.
8 Some grievous ſin hath brought him ſo,
this ſickneſſe ſay they plaine:
He is ſo low, that without doubt riſe can he not againe.

9 The man alſo that I did truſt, with me did uſe deceit:
Who at my table eat my bread,
the ſame for me laid wait.
10 Have mercy Lord on me therefore,
and let me be preſerv'd:
That I may render unto them
the things they have deſerv'd.

11 By this I know aſſuredly to be belov'd of thee:
When that mine enemies have no cauſe to triumph over me.
12 But in my right thou haſt me kept,
and maintained alway:
And in thy preſence place aſſign'd where I ſhall dwell for aye.

13 The Lord the God of Iſrael
be praiſed evermore, Even ſo be it (Lord) will I ſay, even ſo be it therefore.

Quemadmodum. Pſal. xlij. I. H.

Sing this at the 35. Pſalme.

LIke as the Hart doth breath & bray,
the well-ſprings to obtaine:
So doth my ſoule deſire alway, with thee Lord to remaine.
2 My ſoule doth thirſt, and would draw neare
the living God of might:
O when ſhall I come and appeare in preſence of his ſight?

3 The teares all times are my repaſt, which from mine eyes do ſlide:
When wicked men cry out to faſt,
where now is God thy guide?
4 Alas what griefe is it to thinke what freedome once I had?
Therefore my ſoule, as at pits brinke
moſt heavie is and ſad.

When I did march in good aray,
furniſhed with my traines:
Unto the Temple was our way,
with ſongs and hearts moſt faine.
5 My ſoule why art thou ſad alwaies, and freſtt thus in my breſt?
Truſt ſtill in God, for him to praiſe
I hold it ever beſt.

By him I have ſuccour at need,
againſt all paine and griefe:
He is my God which with all ſpeed will haſte to ſend reliefe.
6 And thus my ſoule within me Lord doth ſtart to think upon The land of Jordan and record
the little hill Hermon.

The ſecond Part.

7 One griefe another in doth call as clouds burſt out their voices:
The ſtoods of will that me befall,
thou preſſeſt quite noiſe.
8 Yet the day ſtill his goodneſſe and help at all alaies:
Likewiſe by night I did not ceaſe
the living God to praiſe.

9 I am perſwaded this to ſay to him with pure pretence:
O Lord thou art my guide and ſtay,
my rock and ſure defence.
Why do I then in paſſiveneſſe hanging the head alwaies?
While that mine enemies me oppreſſe, and vexe me with their talkes.

10 For why they pierce my inward parts with pangs to be abhorr'd:
When they cry out with ſtubborn hearts,
where is thy God thy Lord?
11 So ſoon why doſt thou faint and quaile, my ſoule with paine oppreſt?
With thoughts why doſt thy ſelf aſſaile,
ſo ſore within my breſt?

12 Truſt in the Lord thy God alwaies, and thou the time ſhalt finde
To give him thanks with laud and praiſe, for health reſtor'd to thee.

Judica

Iudica me Domine. Pſal. xliij. T. S.

Sung to the 30. Pſalme.

Judge and reuenge my cauſe O Lord, from them that euil be
From wicked and deceitfull men,
O Lord deliuer me.
2 For of my ſtreagth thou art the God, why puſt thou me thee frō
And why walk I ſo heavily oppreſſed with my foe?

3 Send out thy light and eke thy truth,
and lead me with thy grace:
Which may conduct me to thy hill,
and to thy dwelling place.
4 Then ſhall I to the altar go of God my ioy and cheare,
And on my harp give thanks to thee,
O God my God moſt deare.

5 Why art thou then ſo ſad my ſoule, and freſt thus in my breſt?
Still truſt in God for him to praiſe
I hold it thy beſt.
6 By him I haue deliverance
againſt all paine and griefe,
He is my God which doth alwaies at need ſend me relefe.

Deus auribus. Pſal. xliij. T. S.

3 They conquered not by ſword nor ſtrength, the land of the beheſtow
But by thy hand, thy arm and grace, becauſe thou lov'dſt them beſt.
4 Thou art my King, O God that dolſt
Jacob in ſundry wiſe
5 Lord with thy power we thruſt down ſuch as did againſt us riſe.

6 I truſted not in bowe nor ſword, they could not ſave me found:
7 Thou keepſt us from our enemies rage, thou didſt our foes confound.
8 And ſtill we boaſt of thee our God,
and praiſe thy holy Name.
9 Yet now thou go'ſt not with our hoſt, but leaveſt us to ſhame.

10 Thou mad'ſt us flee before our foes,
and ſo were over-trod:
Our enemies rob'd and ſpoil'd our goods
when we were ſperſt abroad.
11 Thou haſt us given to our foes,
as ſheep for to be ſlaine:
Amongſt the heathen every where ſcattred we do remaine.

12 Thy people thou haſt ſold like ſlaves, and as a thing of noughte:
For profit none thou hadſt thereby,
no gaine at all was ſought.
13 And to our neighbours thou haſt made of us a laughing ſtock:
And thoſe that round about us dwell,
at us do grin and mock.

The ſecond Part.

14 Thus we ſerve for none other cauſe
but for a common talke:
They mock, they ſcorn, they nod their heads where ere they go or walke.
15 I am aſham'd continually to beare theſe wicked mens:
Yea ſo I blush that all my face with red is covered ſhene.

16 For why we heare ſuch ſlanderous words, ſuch falſe reports and lies:
That death it is to ſee their wrongs,
their threatnings and their cries.
17 For all this we forget not thee,
nor yet thy covenant breake.
18 We turn not back our hearts from thee nor yet thy paths forſake.

19 Yet thou haſt trod us down to duſt, where dens of dragons be:
And covered us with ſhade of death,
and great adverſity.
20 If we had our Gods name forgot,
and help of Idols ſought, 21 Would not God then have try'd this out for he doth know our thought.

22 Nay, nay, for thy Names ſake O Lord, alwayes are we ſlaine thus:
As ſheep unto the ſhambles ſent, right ſo they deale with us.
23 Up Lord, why ſleepeſt thou awake, and leave us not for alls.
24 Why hideſt thou thy countenance, and doſt forget our thrall.

25 For down to duſt our ſoul is brought,
and we now at laſt caſt.
Our belly like as it were glu'd, unto the ground cleaves faſt.
26 Riſe up therefore for our defence, and help us (Lord) at need:
We thee beſeech for thy goodneſſe, to reſcue us with ſpeed.

Eruſtavit

Eructavit cor meum. Psal. xlv. I.H.

Sing this as the 25. Psalme.

MY heart doth take in hand, some godly song to sing:
The praise that I shall shew therein, pertaineth to the King.
2 My tongue shall be as quick,
his honour to indite,
As is the pen of any scribe, that useth fast to write.

3 O fairest of all men,
thy speech is pleasant pure:
For God hath blessed thee with gifts,
for ever to endure.
4 About thee gird thy sword,
O Prince of might elect:
With honour, glory, and renown thy person pure is deckt.

5 Go forth with godly speed, with meekenesse, truth and right:
And thy right hand shall thee instruct in works of dreadfull might.
6 Thine arrowes sharp, and keen their hearts so sore shall sting:
That folk shall fall and kneele to thee,
yea all thy foes O King.

7 Thy royall seat O Lord,
for ever shall remaine:
Because the Scepter of thy Realme doth righteousnesse maintaine.
8 Because thou lov'st the right,
and dost the ill detest:
God even thy God hath noisted thee with joy above the rest.

9 With myrrhe and savours sweet thy clothes are all bespread, When thou dost from thy palace passe, therein to make thee glad.
10 Kings daughters do attend in fine and rich array:
At thy right hand the Queene doth stand in gold and garments gay.

The second Part.

11 O daughter take good heede incline and give good eare:
Thou must forget thy kinred all,
and fathers house most deare.
12 Then shall the King desire thy beauty faire and trim:
For why? he is the Lord thy God,
and thou must worship him.

13 The daughters then of Tyre with gifts full rich to see:
And all the wealthy of the land shall make their suit to thee.
14 The daughter of the King is glorious to behold:
Within her closet she doth sit all deckt in beaten gold.

15 In robes well wrought with needle, and many a pleasant thing.
With Virgins faire on her to wait,
she cometh to the King.
16 Thus are they brought with joy and mirth on every side:
Into the palace of the King, and there they do abide.

17 In stead of parents left,
(O Queene the case so stands)
Thou shalt have sonnes whom thou maist set as Princes in all lands.
18 Wherefore thy holy Name,
all ages shall record:
The people shall give thanks to thee,
for evermore O Lord.

Deus noster. Psal. xlvj. I.H.

Sing this as the 35. Psalme.

THE Lord is our defence and aid, the strength whereby we stands
When we with woe are much dismaid
he is our help at hand.
2 Though th'earth remove we will not feare, though hils so high and steep
Be thrust and hurled here and there, within the sea so deep.

3 No though the waves do rage so fore, that all the banks it foils:
And though it overflow the shore,
and beat down mighty hils.
4 For one faire floud doth send abroad his pleasant streames apace:
To fresh the City of our God,
and wash his holy place.

5 In midst of her the Lord doth dwell,
she can no whit decay:
All things against her that rebell,
the Lord will truly slay.
6 The heathen folk the kingdomes feare,
the people make a noise:
The earth doth melt, and not appeare,
when God puts forth his voice.

7 The Lord of hosts doth take our part,
to us he hath an eye:
Our hope of health with all our heart,
on Jacobs God doth lie.
8 Come hear & see with minde & thought the working of our God:
What wonders he himselfe hath wrought
in all the world abroad.

9 By him all wars are husht and gone, which countries did conspire:
Their bowes he brake, & speares each one their chariots burnt with fire.
10 Leave off therefore (saith he) and know
I am a God most stout:
Among the heathen high and low,
and all the earth throughout.

11 The Lord of hosts doth us defend,
he is our strength and tower:
On Jacobs God we do depend,
and on his might and power.

Omnes gentes. Psal. xlvij. I.H.

Sing this as the 46. Psalme.

YE people all with one accord, clap hands and eke rejoyce.
Be glad and sing unto the Lord,
with sweet and pleasant voice.
2 For high the Lord and dreadfull is with wonders manifold:
A mighty King he is truly,
in all the earth extold.

3 The people shall he make to be unto our bondage thrall:
And underneath our feet he shall the nations make to fall.
4 For us the heritage he chose,
which we possest alone:
The flourishing worship of Jacob,
his well beloved one.

5 Our God ascended up on high,
with joy and pleasant noise:
The Lord goes up above the skie, with trumpets joyfull voice.
6 Sing praises to our God, sing praise,
sing praises to our King:
7 For God is King of all the earth,
all skilfull praises sing.

8 God on the heathen reigneth, and sits upon his holy throne.
The Princes of the people have them joyned every one 9 To Abrahams people, for our God which is exalted high,
As with a buckler doth defend the earth continually.

Magnus Dominus. Psal. xlviij. I.H.

Sing this as the 21. Psalme.

GReat is the Lord, & with great praise to be advanced still:
Within the City of our God, upon his holy hill.
2 Mount Sion is a pleasant place, it gladdeth all the lands:
The City of the mighty King on her north side doth stand.

3 Within the palaces thereof,
God is a refuge knowne:
For lo the Kings are gathered, and together they are gone.
4 But when they did behold it so, they wondred and they were Astonied much, and suddenly were driven back with feare.

5 Great terror there on them did fall,
for very woe they cry,
As doth a woman when she shall go travell by and by.
6 As thou with Easterne winde the ships upon the sea dost break, So they were stroid, and even as we heard our fathers speak.

7 So in the City of the Lord, we saw as it was told:
Yea in the City which our God,
for ever will uphold.

8 O Lord we wait and do attend on thy good help and grace:
For which we shall times attend within thy holy place.

9 O Lord according to thy Name for ever is thy praise:
And thy right hand O Lord is full of righteousnesse alwaies.
10 Let for thy judgements Sion Mount fulfilled be with joyes:
And eke of Juda grant O Lord,
the daughters to rejoyce.

11 Go walk about all Sion hill,
yea round about her go:
And tell the towers that thereupon are builded on a row.
12 And mark ye well her bulwarks all,
behold her towers there:
That ye may tell thereof to them,
that after shall be here.

13 For this God is our God, our God for evermore is he:
Yea and unto the death also our guider shall he be.

Audite hæc omnes. Psal. xlix. I.H.

Sing this as the 43. Psalme.

ALl people hearken and give eare to that I shall tell:
2 Both high and low, both rich and poore
that in the world do dwell.
3 For why? my mouth shal make discourse of many things right wise:
In understanding shall my heart his study exercise.

4 I will incline mine eares to know the parable so darke:
And open all my doubtfull speech in meter on my harp.
5 Why should I feare affliction, or any carefull toile:
Or else my foes which at my heeles are prest my life to spoile.

6 For as for such as riches have, wherein their trust is most:
And they which of their treasures grate, themselves do brag and boast.
7 There is not one of them that can,
his brothers death redeem:
Or that can give a price to God, sufficient for him.

8 It is too great a price to pay,
none can therein attaine:
Or that he might his life prolong,
or not in grave remaine.
9 They see wise men as well as fooles, subject unto deaths bands:
And being dead strangers possesse their goods, their rents, their lands.

10 Their care is to build houses faire, and so determine sure,
To make their name right great on earth
for ever to endure.

11 Yet

12 Yet ſhall no man alwaies enjoy high honour, wealth, and ſtate:
16 But ſhall at length taſte of deaths cup as well as the brute beaſt.

The ſecond Part.

17 And though they try their fooliſh thoughts to be moſt lewd and vaine:
Their children yet approve their talk and in like ſin remaine.
14 As ſheep into the fold are brought ſo ſhall they into grave:
Death ſhall their eaſe, and in that day
the juſt ſhall Lordſhip have.

Their image and their royall port ſhall fade and quite away:
When as from houſe to pit they paſſe,
with wo and weale away.
15 But God will ſtedly preſerve me from death and endleſſe paine, Becauſe he will of his good grace,
my ſoule receive againe.

16 If any man wixe wondrous rich, feare not I ſay therefore:
Although the glory of his houſe increaſeth more and more.
17 For when he dies of all theſe things nothing ſhall he receive:
His glory will not follow him,
his pomp will take her leave.

18 Yet in this life he takes himſelfe
the happieſt under Sun:
And others likewiſe flatter him,
ſaying all is well done.
19 And preſuppoſe he live as long as did his fathers old:
Yet muſt he needs at length give place,
and be brought to deaths fold.

20 Thus man to honour God hath brought yet doth he not conſider:
But like brute Beaſts to doth he live which turn to duſt and powder.

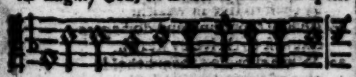
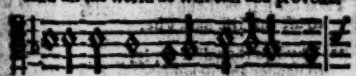
Deus Deorum. Pſal. L. W.W.

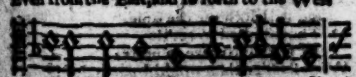
The mighty God, th'Eternall hath thus ſpoke



And all the world he will call and provoke,



Even from the Eaſt, and ſo forth to the Weſt



From toward Sion, which place he limits beſt,

God will appeare in beauty moſt excellent

Our God will come before y long time be ſpent.

3 Devouring fire
ſhall go before his face:
A great tempeſt
ſhall round about him trace.
4 Then ſhall he call the earth and heavens bright,
To judge his folk with equity and right.
5 Saying go to,
and now my Saints aſſemble
My pact they keep,
their gifts do not diſſemble.

6 The heavens ſhall declare his righteouſneſſe, For God is Judge of all things more and leſſe.
7 Heare my people,
for I will now reveale:
Liſt Iſrael,
I will thee nought conceale:
Thy God, thy God am I and will not blame thee; 8 For giving not all manner offrings to me.

9 I have no need to take of thee at all,
Goats of thy fold,
or Calfe out of thy ſtall:
10 For all the beaſts are mine within the woods:
On thouſand hils
carrell are mine own goods.
11 I know for mine
all birds that are on mountaines:
All beaſts are mine,
which haunt the fields and fountaines.

12 Hungry if I were,
I would not thee it tell:
For all is mine
that in the world doth dwell.
13 Eat I the fleſh of great Bulls or Bullocks?
Or drink the bloud of Goats, and of the flocks?
14 Offer to God
praiſe and hearty thanksgiving:
And pay thy vowes unto God ever living.

15 Call upon me, when troubled thou ſhalt be:
Then will I help,
and thou ſhalt honour me.
16 To the wicked,
thus ſaith th'Eternall God, Why doſt thou preach
my lawes and haſt abroad?
17 Seeing thou haſt

them with thy mouth abused, And hat'ſt to be by diſcipline reformed.

My words I ſay,
thou doſt reject and hate.
18 If that thou ſee
a thiefe as with thy mate, Thou run'ſt with him,
and ſo your prey do ſeek:
And art all one with bawds and ruffians eke.
19 Thou giv'ſt thy ſelfe to backbite and to ſlander;
And how thy tongue
deceives, it is a wonder.

20 Thou ſitteſt muſing,
thy brother how to blame:
And how to put thy mothers ſonne to ſhame.
21 Theſe things thou didſt and whilſt I held my tongue, Thou didſt me judge,
becauſe I ſtaid ſo long,
Like to thy ſelfe:
yet though I kept long ſilence Once ſhalt thou feel of thy wrongs juſt recompence.

22 Conſider this,
ye that forget the Lord:
And feare not when he threatneth with his word,
Leſt without help
I ſpoile you as a prey:
23 But he that thanks
offer'th, praiſeth me aye, Saith the Lord God,
and he that walketh this trace,
I will him teach
Gods ſaving health to imbrace.

Another of the ſame by I.H.

Sing this as the 25. Pſalme.

THe God of gods, the Lord, hath cal'd the earth by name:
From whence the Sun doth riſe, unto the ſetting of the ſame.
2 From Sion his faire place, his glory bright and cleare,
The perfect beauty of his grace,
from thence it did appeare.

3 Our God ſhall come in haſte, to ſpeake he ſhall not doubt:
Before him ſhall the fire waſte, and tempeſt round about.
4 The heavens from on high,
the earth below likewiſe
He will call forth, to judge and trie, his folk he doth deviſe.

5 Bring forth my Saints, ſaith he,
my faithfull flock ſo deare:
Which are in band and league with me,
my law to love and feare.
6 And when theſe things are tride,
the heavens ſhall record,
That God is juſt, and all muſt bide
the judgement of the Lord.

7 My people O give heed;
Iſrael to thee I cry:
I am thy God, thy help at need;
thou canſt it not deny.
8 I do not ſay to thee,
thy ſacrifice is ſlack:
Thou offereſt daily unto me much more then I do lack.

9 Think'ſt thou that I do need thy cattell young or old?
Or els ſo much delight to feed on Goats out of thy fold?
10 Nay, all the beaſts are mine,
in woods that eat their fill:
And thouſands more of neat and kine, that run wilde on the hils.

The ſecond Part.

11 The birds that build on high,
in hils and out of ſight:
And beaſts that in the fields do lie, are ſubject to my might.
12 Then though I hungred ſore, what need I ought of thine?
Sith that the earth with her great ſtore,
and all therein is mine?

13 To Buls fleſh have I minde, to eat it doſt thou think?
Or ſuch a ſweetneſſe do I finde,
the bloud of Goats to drink?
14 Give to the Lord his praiſe, with thanks to him apply:
And ſee thou pay thy vowes alwaies unto the God moſt high.

15 Then ſeek and call to me, when ought would work thee blame:
And I will ſure deliver thee, that thou maiſt praiſe my Name.
16 But to the wicked traine, which talk of God each day:
And yet their works are foule and vaine
to them the Lord will ſay,

17 With what face dareſt thou my word once ſpeak or name?
Why doth thy talk my law allow?
thy deeds deny the ſame.
18 Whereas for to amend thy life thou art ſo ſlack:
My word the which thou doſt pretend,
is caſt behinde thy back.

The third Part.

19 When thou a thief doſt ſee,
by theft to live in wealth:
With him thou runſt and doſt agree likewiſe to thrive by ſtealth.
20 When thou doſt them behold, that wives and maids defile:
Thou lik'ſt it well, and waxeſt bold, to uſe that life moſt vile.

21 Thy lips thou doſt apply, to ſlander and defame:
Thy tongue is taught to craft and lie,
and ſtill doth nie the ſame.
22 Thou ſtudieſt to revile thy friends to thee ſo neare:
With ſlander thou wouldſt needs defile thy mothers ſonne moſt deare.

3 Hereat while I do wink,
as though I did not ſee:
Thou goeſt on ſtill, and ſo doſt think that I am like to thee.
4 But ſure I will not let to ſtrike when I begin:
Thy faults in order I will ſet, and open all thy ſin.

5 Mark this I you require, that have not God in minde:
Leſt when I plague you in mine ire,
your help be far to finde.
6 He that doth give to me
the ſacrifice of praiſe, Doth pleaſe me well: and he ſhall ſee to walk in godly waies.

Miſerere mei. Pſal. Lj. W.W.

O Lord conſider my diſtreſſe, and now with ſpeed ſome pitie take: My ſins deface, my faults redreſſe, good Lord for thy great mercies ſake. 2. Waſh me O Lord and make me cleane, from this unjuſt and ſinfull act:

And purifie yet once againe, my hainous crime and bloudy fact.

3 Remorſe and ſorrow do conſtraine me to acknowledge mine exceſſes:
My ſin alas doth ſtill remaine before my face without releaſe.
4 For thee alone I have offended, committing evil in thy ſight:
And if I were therefore condemned, yet were thy judgements juſt & right.

5 It is too manifeſt alas, that firſt I was conceiv'd in ſin:
Yea of my mother ſo borne was,
and yet vile wretch remaine therein.
6 Alſo behold Lord thou doſt love
the inward truth of a pure heart:
Therefore thy wiſdome from above thou haſt reveal'd me to convert.

7 If thou with hyſop purge this bloc,
I ſhall be cleaner then the glaſſe:
And if thou waſh away my ſpot,
the ſnow in whiteneſſe ſhall I paſſe.
8 Therefore O Lord ſuch joy me ſend, that inwardly I may finde grace:
And that my ſtrength may now amend,
which thou haſt ſwag'd for my treſpaſſe.

9 Turn back thy face and frowning ire,
for I have felt enough thy hand:
And purge my ſins I thee deſire, which do in number paſſe the ſand.
10 Make new my heart within my breſt, and frame it to thy holy will:
Thy conſtant Spirit in me let reſt, which may theſe raging enemies kill.

The ſecond Part.

11 Caſt me not Lord out from thy face,
but ſpeedily my torments end:
Take not from me thy Spirit of grace, which may from dangers me defend.
12 Reſtore me to thoſe joyes againe, which I was wont in thee to finde:
And let me thy free Spirit retaine, which unto thee may ſtir my minde.

13 Thus when I ſhall thy mercies know,
I ſhall inſtruct others therein:
And men that are likewiſe brought low,
by mine example ſhall flee ſin.
14 O God that of my health art Lord, forgive me this my bloudy vice:
My heart and tongue ſhall then accord to ſing thy mercies and juſtice.

15 Touch thou my lips, my tongue untie,
O Lord which art the only key:
And then my mouth ſhall teſtifie,
thy wondrous works and praiſe alway.
16 And as for outward ſacrifice,
I would have offered many a one:
But thou eſteem'ſt them of no price,
and therein pleaſure tak'ſt thou none.

17 The heavy heart, the minde oppreſt,
O Lord thou never doſt reject:
And to ſpeak truth it is the beſt,
and of all ſacrifice th'effect.
18 Lord unto Sion turne thy face, powre out thy mercies on thy hill:
And on Jeruſalem thy grace, build up the wals and love it ſtill.

19 Thou ſhalt accept then our offrings of peace and righteouſneſſe I ſay:
Yea calves and many other things,
upon thine altar will we lay.

Another of the ſame by I. H.

Sing this as the Lamentation.

HAve mercy on me Lord after,
thy great abounding graces:
After thy mercies multitude,
do thou my ſins deface.
2 Yea waſh me more from mine offence, and cleanſe me from my ſins:
For I do know my faults, and ſtill
my ſin is in mine eyne.

3 Againſt thee, thee alone I have offended in this caſe:

And evil have I done before the preſence of thy face.
4 That in the things that thou haſt done upright thou maiſt be cri'd:
And eke in judging that the doome may paſſe upon thy ſide.

5 Behold in wickedneſſe my kinde and ſhape I did receive.
And lo my ſinfull mother eke
in ſin did me conceive.
6 But lo the truth in inward parts is pleaſant unto thee:
And ſecrets of thy wiſdome thou reveaſed haſt to me.

7 With hyſop Lord beſprinkle me,
I ſhall be cleanſed ſo:
Yea waſh thou me, and ſo I ſhall be whiter than the ſnow.
8 Of joy and gladneſſe make thou me to heare the pleaſant voice:
That ſo the bruiſed bones which thou haſt bitten may rejoyce.

9 From the beholding of my ſins
Lord turne away thy face:
And all my deeds of wickedneſſe do utterly deface.
10 O God create in me a heart
unſpotted in thy ſight:
And eke within my bowels Lord, renew a ſtable ſpirit.

11 Ne caſt me from thy ſight, nor take thy holy Spirit away:
The comfort of thy ſaving health give me againe I pray.
12 With thy free Spirit eſtabliſh me, and I will teach therefore:
Sinners thy waies, and wicked ſhall be turned to thy lore.

The ſecond Part.

13 O God that art God of my health, from bloud deliver me:
That praiſes of thy righteouſneſſe
my tongue may ſing to thee.
14 My lips that yet ſtil cloſed be,
do thou O Lord unclooſe
The praiſes of thy Majeſty my mouth ſhall fo diſcloſe.

15 I would have offered ſacrifice,
if that had pleaſed thee:
But pleaſed with burnt-offerings
I know thou wilt not be.
16 A troubled ſpirit is ſacrifice delightfull in Gods eyes:
A broken and an humble heart,
God thou wilt not deſpiſe.

17 In thy good will deale gently Lord, to Sion, and withall Graunt that of thy Jeruſalem uprear'd may be the wall.
18 Burnt offerings, gifts and ſacrifice of juſtice in that day Thou ſhalt accept, and calves they ſhall upon thine altar lay.

Quid gloriaris? Pſal. Lii. I. H.

Sing this at the 32. Pſalme.

WHy doſt thou tyrant boaſt abroad,
thy wicked works to praiſe?
Doſt thou not know there is a God,
whoſe mercies laſt alwaies?
2 Why doth thy minde yet ſtill deviſe
ſuch wicked wiles to warp?
Thy tongue untrue is forging lies,
is like a razour ſharp.

3 On miſchief why ſetſt thou thy minde, and wilt not walk upright?
Thou haſt more luſt falſe tales to finde, than bring the truth to light.
4 Thou doſt delight in fraud and guile, in miſchiefe, bloud and wrong:
Thy lips have learn'd the flattering ſtile
O falſe deceitfull tongue.

5 Therefore ſhall God for aye confound, and pluck thee from thy place;
Thy ſeed root out from off the ground,
and ſo ſhall thee deface.
6 The juſt when they behold thy fall,
with feare will praiſe the Lord,
And in reproach of thee withall,
cry out with one accord:

7 Behold the man that would not take the Lord for his defence:
But of his goods his god did make,
and truſt his corrupt ſenſe.
8 But I as Olive freſh and green, ſhall ſpring and ſpread abroad:
For why? my truſt all times hath been upon the living God.

9 For this therefore will I give praiſe to thee with heart and voice:
I will ſet forth thy Name alwaies, wherein thy Saints rejoyce.

Dixit inſipiens. Pſal. Liij. T. S.

Sing this at the 44. Pſalme.

THe fooliſh man in that which he within his heart hath ſaid:
That there is any God at all,
hath utterly denaid.
2 They are corrupt, and they alſo
a hainous work have wrought:
Among them all there is not one of good that worketh ought.

3 The Lord look'd down on ſons of men from heaven all abroad:
To ſee if any were that would be wiſe and ſeek for God.
4 They are all gone out of the way,
they are corrupted all:
There is not one doth any good,
there is not one at all.

5 Do not all wicked workers know, that they do feed upon My people, as they feed on bread?
the Lord they call not on.
6 Even there they were afraid, and ſtood with trembling all diſmaid:
Whereas there was no cauſe at all,
why they ſhould be afraid.

7 For God his bones that them beſieg'd, hath ſcattered all abroad:
Thou haſt confounded them, for they rejected are of God.
8 O Lord give thou thy people health, and thou O Lord fulfill

Thy promiſe made to Iſrael,
from out of Sion hill.

7 When God his people ſhall reſtore, that erſt were captive lad:
Then Jacob ſhall therein reioyce,
and Iſrael ſhall be glad.

Deus in nomine. Pſal. Liij. I. H.

Sing this as the 44. Pſalme.

1 GOD ſave me for thy holy Name, and for thy goodneſſe ſake:
Into the ſtrength (Lord) of the ſame,
I do my cauſe betake.
2 Regard O Lord and give an eare to me when I do pray:
Bow down thy ſelf to me and heare
the words that I do ſay.

3 For ſtrangers up againſt me riſe, and tyrants vexe me ſtill:
Which have not God before their eyes,
they ſeek my ſoule to ſpill.
4 But lo my God doth give me aid,
the Lord is ſtraight at hand:
With them by whom my ſoule is ſtaid,
the Lord doth ever ſtand.

5 With plagues repay againe all thoſe for me that lie in wait:
And in thy truth deſtroy my foes with their own ſnare and bait.
6 An offering of free heart and will,
then I to thee ſhall make:
And praiſe thy Name, for therein ſtill great comfort I do take.

7 O Lord at length do ſet me free from them that craft conſpire:
And now mine eye with ioy doth ſee,
on them my hearts deſire.

Exaudi Deus. Pſal. Lv. I. H.

Sing this as the 35. Pſalme.

1 O God give eare and do apply, to heare me when I pray:
And when to thee I call and cry, hide not thy ſelfe away.
2 Take heed to me, grant my requeſt and anſwer me againe:
With plaints I pray full ſore oppreſt, great griefe doth me conſtraine.

3 Becauſe my foes with threats and cries, oppreſſe me through deſpight:
And ſo the wicked ſort likewiſe to vexe me have delight.
4 For they in counſell do conſpire, to charge me with ſome ilit
So in their hafty wrath and ire they do purſue me ſtill.

5 My heart doth faint for want of breath,
it panteth in my breſt:
The terrours and the dread of death,
do work me much unreſt.
6 Such dreadfull feare on me doth fall,
that I therewith do quake:
Such horrour whelmeth me withall, that I no ſhift can make.

7 But I did ſay, who will give me the ſwift and pleaſant winge
Of ſome faire Dove, that I may flee, and reſt me from theſe things.
8 Lo then I would go flee away,
to flee I would not ceaſe:
And I would hide my ſelfe and ſtay in ſome great wilderneſſe.

9 I would be gone in all the haſte, and not abide behinde,
That I were quit and overpaſt
theſe blaſts of boiſterous winde.
10 Divide them Lord & from them pull their deviliſh double tongue.
For I have ſpide their cky full of rapine, ſtrife and wrong.

11 Which things both night & day throughout do cloſe her as a wall:
In midſt of her is miſchief ſtout,
and ſorrow eke withall.
12 Her inward parts are wicked plaine, her deeds are much too vile:
And in her ſtreets there doth remaine all crafty fraud and guile.

The ſecond Part.

13 If that my foes did ſeek my ſhame,
I might it well abide:
From open enemies check and blame,
ſome where I could me hide.
14 But thou it waſt my fellow deare, which friendſhip didſt preſende:
And didſt my ſecret counſell heare,
as my familiar friend.

15 With whom I had delight to talk in ſecret and abroad:
And we together oft did walk,
within the houſe of God.
16 Let death in haſte upon them fall,
and ſend them quick to hell:
For miſchiefe raigneth in the hall,
and parlour where they dwell.

17 But I unto my God will cry, to him for help I flee:
The Lord will help me by and by,
and he will ſuccour me.
18 At morning, noone, and evening tide, unto the Lord I pray:
When I ſo inſtantly have cride,
he doth not ſay me nay.

19 To peace he ſhall reſtore me yet, though warre be now at hand,
Although the number be full great,
that would againſt me ſtand.
20 The Lord that firſt and laſt doth raign
both now and evermore:
Will heare when I to him complaine, and puniſh them full ſore.

21 For ſure there is no hope that they
to turn will once attend:
For why? they will not God obey,
nor yet do feare the Lord.
22 Upon their friends they laid their hands which were in covenant knit:
Of friendſhip to neglect the bands,
they paſſe or care no whit.

23 While they have war within their hearts,
as butter are their words:
Although their words were ſmooth as oyle,

they cut as sharp as swords.
24 Cast thou thy care upon the Lord, and he shall nourish thee:
For in no wise will he accord
the just in thrall to see.

25 But God shall cast them deep in pit, that thirst for blood alwaies:
He will no guilefull man permit to live out halfe his daies.
26 Though such be quite destroid & gone in thee O Lord I trust:
I shall depend thy grace upon,
with all my heart and lust.

Miserere mei. Psal. Lvj. I. H.

Sing this as the Lamentation.

HAve mercy Lord on me I pray,
for man would me devoure:
He fighteth with me day by day,
and troubleth me each houre.
2 Mine enemies daily enterprise to swallow me outright:
To fight against me many rise,
O thou most high of might.

3 When they would make me most afraid with boasts and brags of pride:
I trust in thee alone for aid,
by thee I will abide.
4 Gods promise I do minde and praise,
O Lord I stick to thee:
I do not care at all assaies,
what flesh can do to me.

5 What things I either did or spake, they wrest them at their will:
And all the counsell that they take,
is how to work me ill.
6 They all consent themselves to hide, close watch for me to lay:
They spie my paths, and snares have tide
to take my life away.

7 Shall they thus scape on mischiefs, thou God on them wilt frown:
For in his wrath he doth not let to throw whole kingdomes down.
8 Thou seest how oft they made me flee, and on my teares dost look:
Reserve them in a glasse by thee,
and write them in thy book.

9 When I do call upon thy Name,
my foes away do start:
I well perceive it by the same,
that God doth take my part.
10 I glory in the Word of God,
to praise it I accord:
With joy I will declare abroad
the promise of the Lord.

11 I trust in God, and yet I say,
as I before began:
The Lord he is my help and stay,
I do not care for man.
12 I will perform with heart so free,
to God my vowes alwaies:
And I O Lord all times to thee will offer thanks and praise.

13 My soule from death thou dost defend and keepst my feet upright:
That I before thee may ascend, with such as live in light.

Miserere mei. Psal. Lvij. I. H.

Sing this as the 44 Psalme.

TAke pitie for thy promise sake,
have mercy Lord on me:
For why? my soule doth her betake unto the help of thee.
2 Within the shadow of thy wings,
I set my selfe full fast:
Till mischiefe, malice, and like things be gone and over-past.

3 I call upon the God most high,
to whom I stick and stand:
I meane the God that will stand by the cause I have in hand.
4 From heaven he hath sent his aid, to save me from their spight,
That to devoure me have assaid, his mercy, truth, and might.

5 I lead my life with Lions fell,
all set on wrath and ire:
And with such wicked men I dwell, that fret like flames of fire.
6 Their teeth are speares & arrowes long,
as sharp as I have seen:
They wound and cut with their quick tongue like swords and weapons keen.

7 Set up and shew thy selfe O God,
above the heavens bright:
Exalt thy praise on earth abroad,
thy Majesty and might.
8 They lay their net and do prepare a privy cave and pit:
Wherein they think my soule to snare,
but they are falne in it.

9 My heart is set to laud the Lord,
in him to joy alwaies:
My heart I say doth well accord to sing his laud and praise.
10 Awake my joy, awake I say,
my Lute, my Harp, and strings:
For I my selfe before the day, will rise, rejoyce, and sing.

11 Among the people I will tell the goodnesse of my God:
And shew his praise that doth excell in heathen lands abroad.
12 His mercy doth extend as farre
as heavens all are high:
His truth as high as any starre, that shineth in the skie.

13 Set forth and shew thy selfe O God,
above the heavens bright:
Extoll thy praise on earth abroad,
thy Majesty and might.

Si verè utique. Psal. Lviij. I. H.

Sing this as the 48. Psalme.

YE Rulers that are put in trust, to judge of wrong and right:
Be all your judgements true and just,

not knowing meed or might?
2 Nay in your hearts ye mark and muſe
in miſchiefs to conſent:
And where ye ſhould true juſtice uſe,
your hands to bribes are bent.

3 The wicked ſort from their birth-day have erred on this wiſe:
And from their mothers wombe alway have uſed craft and lies.
4 In them the poyſon and the breath of Serpents do appeare:
Yea like the Adder that is deafe, and faſt doth ſtop her eare.

5 Becauſe ſhe will not heare the voice of one that charmeth well:
No though he were the chief of choice,
and did therein excell.
6 O God break thou their teeth at once within their mouthes throughout:
The tuſks that in their great jaw-bones like Lions whelps hang out.

7 Let them conſume away and waſte,
as water runs forthright:
The ſhafts that they do ſhoot in haſte,
let them be broke in flight.
8 As ſnailes do waſte within the ſhell, and unto ſlime do run:
As one before his time that fell,
and never ſaw the Sun.

9 Before the thornes that now are yong,
to buſhes big ſhall grow:
The ſtormes of anger waxing ſtrong,
ſhall take them ere they know.
10 The juſt ſhall joy, it doth them good, that God doth vengeance take:
And they ſhall waſh their feet in bloud of them that him forſake.

11 Then ſhall the world ſhew forth & tell,
that good men have reward:
And that a God on earth doth dwell, that juſtice doth regard.

Eripe me. Pſal. Lix. I. H.

End aid and ſave me from my foes, O

Lord, I pray thee: Defend and keep me from all thoſe, that riſe and ſtrive with me

2 O Lord preſerve me from thoſe men, whoſe doings are not good: And ſet me ſafe and ſafe from them, that thirſt ſtill after bloud.

3 For lo they wait my ſoule to take,
they rage againſt me ſtill:
Yea for no fault that I did make,
I never did them ill.
4 They run, and do themſelves prepare,
when I no whit offend:
Ariſe and ſave me from their ſnare,
and ſee what they intend.

5 O Lord of hoſts of Iſrael, ariſe and ſtrike all lands:
And pitie none that do rebell,
and in their miſchief ſtands.
6 At night they ſtir and ſeek about,
as hounds they houle and grin:
And all the City cleane throughout from place to place they run.

7 They ſpeak of me with mouth alway, but in their lips were ſwords:
They greed my death, & then would ſay,
what? none doth heare our words.
8 But Lord thou haſt their waies eſpide, and laught thereat apace:
The heathen folk thou doſt deride,
and mock them to their face.

9 The ſtrength that doth our foes withſtand,
O Lord doth come from thee:
My God he is my help at hand,
a fort of fence to mee.
10 The Lord to me doth ſhew his grace,
in great abundance ſtill:
That I may ſee my foes in caſe, ſuch as my heart doth will.

The ſecond Part.

11 Deſtroy them not at once O Lord, leſt it from minde do fall:
But with thy ſtrength drive them abroad,
and ſo conſume them all.
12 For their ill words & truthleſſe tongue confound them in their pride:
Their wicked oaths with lies and wrong
let all the world deride.

13 Conſume them in thy wrath O Lord, that nought of them remaine:
That men may know throughout y world that Jacobs God doth raigne.
14 At evening they run apace,
as dogs they grin and crie:
Throughout the ſtreets in every place they run about and ſpie.

15 They ſeek about for meat I ſay, but let them not be fed.
Nor finde a houſe wherein they may be bold to put their head.
16 But I will ſhew thy ſtrength abroad, thy

the goodneſs I will preiſe:
For thou art my defence and God,
in need in all aſſaies.

19 Thou art my ſtrength, thou haſt me ſtaid,
O Lord I ſing to thee:
Thou art my fort, my fence and aid,
a loving God to me.

Deus repulisti. Pſal. Lx. I.H.

Sing this as the 59. Pſalme.

O Lord thou didſt us cleave forſake, and ſcatteredſt us abroad:
Such great diſpleaſure thou didſt take,
returne to us O God.
2 Thy might did move the earth ſo ſore,
that it in ſunder brake:
The hurt thereof O Lord reſtore, for it doth bow and quake.

3 With heavy chance thou plaguedſt thus the people that are thine:
And thou haſt given unto us a drink of deadly wine.
4 But yet to ſuch as feare thy Name,
a banner thou didſt ſhew:
That they may triumph in the ſame,
becauſe thy word is true.

5 So that thy might may keep and ſave thy folk that favour thee:
That they thy help at hand may have,
O Lord graunt this to me.
6 The Lord did ſpeak from his own place,
this was his joyfull tale:
I will divide Sichem by pace,
and mete out Succoths vale.

7 Gilead is given to mine hand,
Manaſſes mine beſide:
Ephraim the ſtrength of all my land,
my law doth Juda guide.
8 In Moab I will waſh my feet, over Edom throw my ſhoe:
And thou Paleſtine oughteſt to ſeek for favour me unto.

9 But who will bring me at this tide unto the City ſtrong?
Or who to Edom will me guide,
ſo that I go not wrong?
10 Wilt thou not God, which didſt forſake thy folk, their land and coaſts?
Our wars in hand thou wouldſt not take,
nor walk among our hoſts.

11 Give aid O Lord and us relieve from them that us diſdaine:
The help that hoſts of men can give,
it is but all in vaine.
12 But through our God we ſhall have might to take great things in hand:
He will tread down and put to flight all thoſe that us withſtand.

Exaudi Deus. Pſal. Lxj. I.H.

Sing this as the 59. Pſalme.

REgard O Lord, for I complaine, and make my ſuit to thee:
Let not my words return in vaine,
but give an eare to me.

2 From out the coaſts and utmoſt parts of all the earth abroad:
In griefe and anguiſh of my heart,
I cry to thee O God.

3 Upon the rock of thy great power
my wofull minde repoſe:
Thou art my hope, my fort, and tower,
my fence againſt my foes.
4 Within thy tent I luſt to dwell,
for ever to endure:
Under thy wings I know right well,
I ſhall be ſafe and ſure.

5 The Lord doth my deſire regard,
and doth fulfill the ſame:
With goodly gifts will he reward
all thoſe that feare his Name.
6 The King ſhall he in health maintaine, and ſo prolong his daies:
That he from age to age ſhall raigne,
in royall ſtate alwaies.

7 That he may have a dwelling place,
before the Lord for aye:
O let thy mercy, truth and grace defend him from decay.
8 Then ſhall I ſing for ever ſtill, with praiſe unto thy Name:
That all my vowes I may fulfill,
and daily pay the ſame.

Nonne Deo. Pſal. Lxij. I.H.

Sing this as the 59. Pſalme.

MY ſoul to God ſhal give good heed,
and him alone attend:
For why? my health and hope to ſpeed, doth whole on him depend.
2 For he alone is my defence, my rock, my health and aide:
He is my ſtay that no pretence ſhall make me much diſmaid.

3 O wicked folk how long will ye uſe craft? ſure ye muſt fall:
For as a rotten hedge ye be,
and like a tottering wall.
4 Whom God doth love ye ſeek alwaies to put him to the worſe:
Ye love to lie, with mouth ye praiſe,
and yet your heart doth curſe.

5 Yet ſtill my ſoule doth whole depend on God my chiefe deſire:
From all ill feats me to defend,
none but him I require.
6 He is my rock, my fore and tower,
my health is of his grace:
He doth ſupport me that no power can move me out of place.

7 God is my glory and my health,
my ſoules deſire and luſt:
My fort, my ſtrength, my ſtay, my wealth,
God is my only truſt.
8 O have your truſt in him alway,
ye folk with one accord:
Powre out your hearts to him, and ſay,
our truſt is in the Lord.

9 The ſons of men deceitfull are,
on balance but a fleighe:
With things moſt vain do them compare ſo,

for they can keep no weight.
10 Truſt not in wrong, robbery, nor ſtealth, let vaine delights be gone:
Though goods weſt goe flow in w wealth
ſet not your hearts thereon.

11 The Lord long ſince one thing did tell, which here to minde I call:
He ſpake it oft, I heard it well,
that God alone doth all.
12 And that thou Lord art good & kinde, thy mercy doth exceed:
ſo that all ſorts with thee ſhall finde,
according to their deed.

Deus, Deus meus. Pſal. Lxiij. T. S

Sing this as the 44. Pſalme,

O God my God I watch betime, to come to thee in haſte:
For why? my ſoule and body both do thirſt of thee to taſte.
And in this barren wildernesſe,
where waters there are none:
My fleſh is parch'd for thought of thee,
for thee I wiſh alone.

2 That I might ſee yet once againe thy glory, ſtrength and might:
As I was wont it to behold, within thy Temple bright.
3 For why? thy mercies farre ſurmount this life and wretched daies:
My lips therefore ſhall give to thee
due honour, laud, and praiſe.

4 And whilſt I live I will not faile to worſhip thee alway:
And in thy Name I ſhall lift up my hands when I do pray.
5 My ſoule is fild as with marrow, which is both fat and ſweet:
My mouth therefore ſhall ſing ſuch ſongs
as are for thee moſt meet.

6 When as in bed I think on thee, and eke all the night tide:
7 For under covert of thy wings
thou art my joyfull guide.
8 My ſoule doth ſurely ſtick to thee, thy right hand it my power 9 And thoſe that ſeek my ſoule to ſtroy, them death ſhall ſoon devoure.

10 The ſword ſhall them devour each one,
their carcaſſes ſhall feed
The hungry foxes which do run their prey to ſeek at need.
11 The King and all men ſhall rejoyce, that do profeſſe Gods Word:
For lyars mouthes ſhall then be ſtopt, which have the truth diſturb'd.

Exaudi Deus. Pſal. Lxiij. I. H.

Sing this as the 59. Pſalme,

O Lord unto my voice give eare,
with plaint when I do pray:
And rid my life and ſoule from feare of foes that threat to ſlay.
2 Defend me from that ſort of men that in deceit do luſk:
And from the frowning face of them that all ill feats do work.

3 Who whet their tongues as we have ſeen men whet and ſharp their ſwords:
They ſhoot abroad their arrowes keen,
I mean moſt bitter words.
4 With privy ſleights ſhoot they their darts
the upright man to hitt
The juſt unwares ew'ſtrike by arts, they care or feare no whit.

5 A wicked work they have decreed, in counſell thus they cry:
To uſe deceit let us not dreid,
what? who can it eſpie?
6 What way to hurt they talk and muſe all times within their heart:
They all conſult what feats to uſe,
each doth invent his part.

7 But yet all this ſhall not prevaile, when they think leaſt upon:
God with his dart ſhall ſure aſſaile,
and wound them every one.
8 Their crafts & their all tongues withall ſhall work themſelves ſuch blames:
That they which then behold their fall,
ſhall wonder at the ſame.

9 Then all that ſee ſhall know right well that God the thing hath wrought:
And praiſe his mighty works and tell what he to paſſe hath brought.
10 Yet ſhall the juſt in God rejoyce, ſtill truſting in his might:
So ſhall they joy with minde and voice,
whoſe hearts are pure and right.

Te decet hymnus. Pſal. Lxv. I. H.

Sing this as the 30. Pſalme.

THy praiſe alone O Lord doth raigne in Sion thine own hill:
Their vowes to thee they do maintaine, and their behеſts fulfill.
2 For that thou doſt their prayers heare,
and doſt thereto agree:
The people all both farre and neare with truſt ſhall come to thee.

3 Our wicked life ſo farre exceeds,
that we ſhall fall therein:
But Lord forgive our great miſdeeds, and purge us from our ſin.
4 The man is bleſt whom thou doſt chuſe within thy courts to dwell:
Thy houſe and Temple he ſhall uſe, with pleaſures that excell.

5 Of thy great juſtice heare us God,
our health of thee doth riſe:
The hope of all the earth abroad,
and the ſea coaſts likewiſe.
6 With ſtrength thou art beſet about,
and compaſt with thy power:
Thou mak'ſt the mountaines ſtrong and ſtout to ſtand in every ſhower.

7 The ſwelling ſeas thou doſt aſſwage, and make their ſtreames full ſtill:
Thou doſt reſtraine the peoples rage,
and rule them at thy will.
8 The folk that dwell full far on earth,
ſhall dread thy ſignes to ſee,
Which morn and evening in great mirth do paſſe with praiſe to thee.

9 Whom

9 When that the earth is chapt and drie, and thirſteth more and more:
Then with thy drops thou doſt apply,
and much increaſe her ſtore.
10 The floud of God doth overflow, and ſo doth cauſe to ſpring
The ſeed and corn which men do ſowe, for he doth guide the thing.

11 With wet thou doſt her furrowes fill, whereby her clods do fall:
Thy drops on her thou doſt diſtill, and bleſſe her fruit withall.
12 Thou deck'ſt the earth of thy good grace, with faire and pleaſant crop:
Thy clouds diſtill their dew apace, great plenty they do drop.

13 Whereby the deſert ſhall begin, full great increaſe to bring:
The little hils ſhall joy therein, much fruit in them ſhall ſpring.
14 In places plaine the flocks ſhall fed,
and cover all the earth:
The vales with corne ſhall ſo exceed,
that men ſhall ſing for mirth.

Iubilate Deo. Pſal. Lxvj. T. S.

Sing this as the 68. Pſalme.

YE men on earth in God rejoyce, with praiſe ſet forth his Name:
Extoll his might with heart and voice,
give glory to the ſame.
2 How wonderfull O Lord ſay ye, in all thy works thou art?
Thy foes for feare ſhall ſeek to thee,
full ſore againſt their heart.

3 All men that dwell ſ earth throughout ſhall praiſe the Name of God:
The laud thereof the world about is ſhew'd and ſet abroad.
4 All folk come forth, behold and ſee
what things the Lord hath wrought: Mark well the wondrous works that he for man to paſſe hath brought.

5 He laid the ſea like heaps on high, therein a way they had:
On foot to paſſe both faire and drie, whereof their hearts were glad.
6 His might doth rule the world alway, his eyes all things behold:
All ſuch as would him diſobey, by him ſhall be controld.

7 Ye people give unto our God, due laud and thanks alwaies:
With joyfull voice declare abroad,
and ſing unto his praiſe.
8 Which doth endue our ſoul with life,
and it preſerve withall:
He ſtayes our feet, ſo that no ſtrife can make us ſlip or fall.

9 The Lord doth prove our deeds with fire, if that they will abide:
As workmen do when they deſire to have their metals tride.
10 Although thou ſuffer us ſo long in priſon to be caſt:
And there with chaines and fetters ſtrong to lie in bondage faſt.

The ſecond Part.

11 Although (I ſay) thou ſuffer men on us to ride and raigne:
Though we through fire and water run of very griefe and paine.
12 Yet ſure thou doſt of thy good grace
diſpoſe it to the beſt:
And bring us out into a place, to live in wealth and reſt.

13 Unto thy houſe reſort will I to offer and to pray:
And there I will my ſelfe apply
my vowes to thee to pay.
14 The vowes that with my mouth I ſpake in all my griefe and ſmart:
The vowes I ſay which I did make in dolour of my heart.

15 Burnt-offerings I will give to thee, of Oxen fat and Rams: Yea this my ſacrifice ſhall be,
of Bullocks, Goats and Lambs.
16 Come forth and hearken here full ſoone
all ye that feare the Lord:
What he for my poore ſoule hath done,
to you I will record.

17 Full oft I call to minde his grace,
this mouth to him doth cry:
And thou my tongue make ſpeed apace,
to praiſe him by and by.
18 But if I feele my heart within,
in wicked works rejoyce:
Or if I have delight to ſinne,
God will not heare my voice.

19 But ſurely God my voice hath heard, and what I do require:
My prayer he doth well regard,
and granteth my deſire.
20 All praiſe to him that hath not put,
nor caſt me out of minde:
Nor yet his mercy from me ſhut, which I do ever finde.

Deus miſereatur. Pſal. Lxvij. L.H.

Sing this as the 25. Pſalme.

HAve mercy on us Lord,
and grant to us thy grace:
To ſhew to us do thou accord,
the brightneſſe of thy face.
2 That all the earth may know
the way to godly wealth:
And all the nations on a row,
may ſee thy ſaving health.

3 Let all the world O God,
give praiſe unto thy Name:
O let the people all abroad,
extoll and laud the ſame.
4 Throughout the world ſo wide
let all rejoyce with mirth:
For thou with truth & right doſt guide,
the nations of the earth.

5 Let all the world O God,
give praiſe unto thy name:
O let the people all abroad,
extoll and laud the ſame.

6 Then

6 Then ſhall the earth increaſe, great ſtore of fruit ſhall fall:
And then out God the God of peace ſhall bleſſe us eke withall.

7 God ſhall us bleſſe I ſay, and then both farre and neare,
The folk throughout the earth alway, of him ſhall ſtand in feare.

Exurgat Deus: Pſal. Lxviij. T. S.

3 But righteous men before the Lord,
ſhall heartily rejoyce:
They ſhall be glad and merry all,
and chearfull in their voice.
4 Sing praiſe, ſing praiſe unto the Lord,
who rideth on the skies:
Extoll the Name of Jah our God, and him do magnifie.

5 The ſame is he that is above,
within his holy place:
That Father is of fatherleſſe,
and judge of widowes caſe.
6 Houſes he gives and iſſue both,
unto the comfortleſſe:
He bringeth bondmen out of thrall, and rebels to diſtreſſe.

7 When thou didſt march before thy folk th'Egyptians from among:
And brought'ſt them through the wilderneſſe which was both wide and long.
8 The earth did quake, the rain powr'd heard were great claps of thunder:
The mount Sinai ſhook in ſuch ſort,
as it would cleave in ſunder.

9 Thine heritage with drops of raine abundantly was waſht;
And if ſo be it barren waſt
by thee it was refreſht.
10 Thy choſen flock doth there remaine thou haſt prepar'd that place:
And for the poore thou doſt provide of thine eſpeciall grace.

The ſecond Part.

11 God will give women cauſes juſt, to magnifie his Name:
When as his people triumphs make,
and purchaſe fruit and fame.
12 For puiſſant kings for all their power
ſhall flee and take the foile:
And women which remaine at home
ſhall help to part the ſpoile.

13 And though you were as black as pots your hue ſhall paſſe the Dove: Whoſe wings and feathers ſeem to have ſilver and gold above.
14 When in this land God ſhall triumph ore kings both high and low:
Then ſhall it be like Salmon hill,
as white as any ſnow.

15 Though Baſan be a fruitfull hill, and in height others paſſe:
Yet Sion Gods moſt holy hill doth farre excell in grace.
16 Why brag ye thus ye hils moſt high,
and leap for pride together?
The hill of Sion God doth love, and there will dwell for ever.

17 Gods army is two millions of warriours good and ſtrong:
The Lord alſo in Sinai is preſent them among.
18 Thou didſt (O Lord) aſcend on high,
and captive leadſt them all:
Which in times paſt thy choſen flock in bondage kept and thrall.

Thou madſt them tribute for to pay,
and ſuch as did repine,
Thou didſt ſubdue, that they might dwel in thy Temple divine.
19 Now praiſed be the Lord for that he powres on us ſuch grace:
From day to day he is the God of our health and ſolace.

The third Part.

20 He is the God from whom alone
ſalvation cometh plaine:
He is the God by whom we ſcape all dangers, death and paine.
21 Thus God will wound his enemies head and break the hairy ſcalpe Of thoſe that in their wickedneſſe continually do walk.

22 From Baſan will I bring (ſaid he) my people and my ſheep:
And all mine own, as I have done,
from dangers of the deep.
23 And make them dip their feet in bloud of thoſe that hate my Name:
And dogs ſhall have their tongues imbru'd with licking of the ſame.

24 All men may see how thou O God, thine enemies dost disface:
And how thou go'st as God and King into thine holy place.
25 The singers go before with joy,
the minstrels follow after:
And in the midst the damsels play,
with timbrell and with tabret.

26 Now in the Congregation,
O Israel, praise the Lord.
And Jacobs whole posterity, give thanks with one accord.
27 Their chiefe was little Benjamin, but Juda made their host:
With Zebulon and Nepthalim, which dwels about their coast.

28 As God hath given power to thee,
so Lord make strong and sure:
The thing that thou hast wrought in us,
for ever us endure.
29 And in thy Temple gifts will we give unto thee O Lord:
For thine unto Jerusalem, sure promise made by word.

The fourth Part.

Yea and strange Kings to us subdu'd, shall do like in those dayes:
Meanes to thee they shall present their gifts of love and praise.
30 He shall destroy the fearcenesse ranke the calves and bulls of might:
And cause them tribute pay, and daunt
all such as love to fight.

31 Then shall the Lords of Egypt come,
and presents with them bring:
The Moores most black shall stretch their hands unto their Lord and King.
32 Therefore ye kingdomes of the earth
give praise unto the Lord:
Sing Psalmes to God with one consent, thereon let all accord.

33 Who through he ride and ever hath above the heavens height:
Yet by his sounds it timedes clays men may well know his might.
34 Therefore the strength of Israel ascribe to God on hie:
Whose might and power doth far extend above the cloudie skie.

35 O God thy holinesse and power is dread for evermore:
The God of Israel gives us strength, praised be God therefore.

Salvum me fac. Psal. Lxix. I. H.

Ave me O God, and that with speed, the waters flow full fast so nigh my soule do they proceed, that I am sore agast.

2 I sticke full deepe in mire and clay, where-

I feele no ground: I fall into such floods

I say, that I am like be drowned.

3 With crying oft, I faint and quarle, my throat is hoarse and dries.
With looking up my sight doth faile,
for help to God on high.
4 My foes that guiltlesse do oppresse my soule, with hate are leds
In number sure they are no lesse than haires are on my head.

5 Though for no cause they vex me sore, they prosper and are glad:
They do compell me to restore the things I never had.
6 What I have done for want of wit, thou Lord all times canst tell:
And all the faults that I commit, to thee are known full well.

7 O God of hosts defend and fay all those that trust in thee:
Let no man doubt or shrink away,
for ought that chanceth me.
8 It is for thee and for thy sake, that I do beare this blame:
In spite of thee they would me make to hide my face for shame.

9 My mothers sonnes, my brethren all forsake me on a row:
And as a stranger they me call,
my face they will not know.
10 Unto thy house such zeal I beare, that it doth pine me much:
Their checks and taunts at thee to heare,
my very heart doth grutch.

The second Part.

11 Though I do fast my flesh to chast, yea if I weep and mone:
Yet in my teeth this thing is cast,
they passe not thereupon.
12 If I for griefe and paine of heart in sackcloth use to wallet
Then they anon will it pervert, the roof they jest and talk.

13 Both high and low and all the throng that sit within the gate:
They have me ever in their songs,
of me they talk and prate.

14 The

12 The drunkards which to wine delight, it is their chiefe pastime:
To seek which way to work me spight,
of me they sing and rime.

13 But thee (the while) O Lord I pray, that when it pleaseth thee,
For thy great truth thou wilt alway
send down thine aid to me.
14 Pluck thou my feet out of the mire, from drowning do me keep:
From such as owe me wrath and ire,
and from the waters deep.

15 Lest with the waves I should be drownd and depth my soul devoure:
And that the pit should me confound,
and shut me in her power.
16 O Lord of hosts to me give eare,
as thou art good and kinde:
And as thy mercy is most deare,
Lord have me in thy minde.

17 And do not from thy servant hide,
nor turne thy face away:
I am opprest on every side,
in haste give eare I say.
18 O Lord unto my soul draw nigh,
the same with aid repose:
Because of their great tyrannie, acquit me from my foes.

The third Part.

19 That I abide rebuke and shame, thou knowest and thou canst wele:
For those that seek and work the same,
thou seest them all full wele.
20 When they with brags do breake my heart,
I seek for help anent:
But finde no friends to ease my smart to comfort me not one.

21 But in my meat they gave me gall, too cruell for to think:
And gave me in my thirst withall, strong vineger to drink.
22 Lord turn their table to a snare,
to take themselves therein:
And when they think full well to fare,
then trap them in the gin.

23 And let their eyes be dark and blinde, that they may nothing see:
Bow down their backs & do them binde in thraldome for to be.
24 Poure out thy wrath as hot as fire,
that it on them may fall:
Let thy displeasure in thine ire take hold upon them all.

25 As desarts dire their house disgrace, their off-spring eke expell:
That none thereof possesse their place,
nor in their tents do dwell.
26 If thou dost strike the man to tame,
on him they lay full sore:
And if that thou do wound the same,
they seek to hurt him more.

27 Then let them heap up mischiefs still,
(sith they are all pervert)
That of thy favour and good will they never have a part.
28 And raze them clean out of the book of life of heavenly seede:
That for their name they never look in number of the just.

The fourth Part.

29 Though I O Lord with woe and griefe have been full sore oppresse:
Thy help shall give me such reliefe, that all shall be redresse.
30 That I may give thy Name the praise,
and shew it with a song:
I will extoll the same alwaies, with hearty thanks among.

31 Which is more pleasant unto thee,
(such minde thy grace hath born) Than either Oxe or Calfe can be,
that hath both hoof and horn.
32 When simple folk do this behold it shall rejoyce them sure:
All ye that seek the Lord unfold, your life for aye shall dure.

33 For why? the Lord of hosts (shall heare)
the poore when they complaine:
His prisoners are to him full deare,
he doth them not disdaine.
34 Wherefore the skie and earth below,
the sea with flood and streame,
His praise they shall declare and shew, withall that live in them.

35 For sure our God will Sion save,
and Iudees Cities build:
Much folk possession there shall have,
her streets shall all be filde.
36 His servants seed shall keep the same,
all ages out of minde:
And there all they that love his Name,
a dwelling place shall finde.

Deus in adiutorium. Pſal. Lxxi.

Sing this as the 25. Pſalme.

O God to me take heed,
of help I thee require:
O Lord of hosts with haste and speed help, help, I thee desire.
2 With shame confound them all,
that seek my soule to spill:
Rebuke them back with blame to hell, that think and wish me ill.

3 Confound them that applie, and seek to work me shame:
And at my harme do laugh and crie,
so so, there goes the game.
4 But let them joyfull be,
in thee with joy and mirth:
Which only trust and seek to thee,
and to thy saving health.

5 That they may sky alwaies in mirth and one accord:
All glory, honour, laud and praise,
be given to thee O Lord.
6 But I am weake and poore, come Lord thine aid I lacke:
Thou art my stay and help, therefore make speed and be not slacke.

In

In te Domine. Pſal. Lxxj. I.H.

Sing this as the 25. Pſalme.

MY Lord my God in all diſtreſſe,
my hope is whole in thee:
Then let no ſhame my ſoule oppreſſe, nor once take hold on me.
2 As thou art juſt defend me Lord,
and rid me out of dread:
Give eare and to my ſuit accord,
and ſend me help at need.

3 Be thou my rock, to whom I may for aid all times reſort:
Thy promiſe is to help alway, thou art my fence and fort.
4 Save me my God from wicked men, and from their ſtrength and power:
From folk unjuſt and eke from them that cruelly devoure.

5 Thou art the ſtay wherein I truſt, thou Lord of hoſts art he:
Yea from my youth I had a luſt,
ſtill to depend on thee:
6 Thou haſt me kept even from my birth and I through thee was born:
Wherefore I will thee praiſe with mirth both evening and at morn.

7 As to a monſter ſeldome ſeen, much folk about me throng:
But thou art now and ſtill haſt been my fence and aid ſo ſtrong.
8 Wherefore my mouth no time ſhall lack thy glory and thy praiſe:
And eke my tongue ſhall not be ſlack to honour thee alwaies.

9 Refuſe me not O Lord I ſay, when age my limbs doth take:
And when my ſtrength doth waſte away,
do not my ſoule forſake.
10 Among themſelves my foes enquire,
to take me through deceit:
And they againſt me do conſpire, that for my ſoule laid wait.

The ſecond Part.

11 Lay hand and take him now they ſaid,
for God from him is gone:
Diſpatch him quite, for to his aid,
(I wis) there cometh none.
12 Do not abſent thy ſelfe away,
O Lord when need ſhall be:
But that in time of griefe thou may in haſte give help to me.

13 With ſhame confound and overthrow all thoſe that ſeek my life:
Oppreſſe them with rebuke alſo, that faine would work me ſtrife.
14 But I will patiently abide thy help at all aſſayes:
Still more and more, each time and tide,
I will ſet forth thy praiſe.

15 My mouth thy juſtice ſhall record, that daily help doth ſend:
But of thy benefits O Lord,
I know no count nor end.

16 Yea will I go and ſeek forth bred with thy good help O God:
The ſaving health of thee alone,
to ſhew and ſet abroad.

17 For of my youth thou tookſt the care and doſt inſtruct me ſtill:
Therefore thy wonders to declare,
I have great minde and will.
18 And as in youth from wanton rage, thou didſt me keep and ſtay:
Forſake me not unto mine age,
and till my head be gray.

The third Part.

19 That I thy ſtrength & might may ſhew to them that now be here:
And that our ſeed thy power may know hereafter many a yeare.
20 O Lord thy juſtice doth exceed,
thy doings all may ſee:
Thy works are wonderfull indeed,
O who is like to thee?

21 Thou mad'ſt me feele affliction ſore, and yet thou didſt me ſave:
Yea thou didſt help and me reſtore, and tookſt me from the grave.
22 And thou mine honour doſt increaſe,
my dignity maintaine:
Yea thou doſt make all griefe to ceaſe,
and comforſt me againe.

23 Therefore thy faithfullneſſe to praiſe,
I will with violl ſing,
My harp ſhall ſound thy praiſe alwaies,
O Iſraels holy King.
24 My mouth will joy with pleaſant voice
when I ſhall ſing to thee:
And eke my ſoule will much rejoyce, for thou haſt made me free.

25 My tongue thy uprightnes ſhall ſound,
and ſpeak it daily ſtill:
For griefe and ſhame do them confound, that ſeek to work me ill.

Deus judicium. Pſal. Lxxij. I.H.

2 That he may governe uprightly, and rule thy folk aright:

And,

And ſo defend through equity,
the poore that have no might.

3 And let the mountaines that are hie, unto thy folk give peace:
And eke let little hils apply,
in juſtice to increaſe.
4 That he may help the weak and poore with aide, and make them ſtrong:
And eke deſtroy for evermore,
all thoſe that do them wrong.

5 And then from age to age ſhall they regard and feare thy might:
So long as Sun doth ſhine by day,
or elſe the Moone by night.
6 Lord make the King unto the juſt, like raine to fields new mown:
And like to drops that lay the duſt,
and freſh the land new ſowne.

7 The juſt ſhall flouriſh in his time,
and all ſhall be at peace:
Untill the Moone ſhall leave to prime,
waſte, change and to increaſe.
8 He ſhall be Lord of ſea and land, from ſhore to ſhore throughout:
And from the flouds within the land,
through all the earth about.

9 The people that in deſerts dwell, ſhall kneele to him full thick:
And all his enemies that rebell,
the earth and duſt ſhall lick.
10 The Lords of all the Iles thereby, great gifts to him ſhall bring:
The Kings of Saba and Arabie, give many a coſtly thing.

The ſeconde Part.

11 All kings ſhall ſeek with one accord,
in his good grace to ſtand:
And all the people of the world,
ſhall ſerve him at his hand.
12 For he the needy ſort doth ſave, that unto him do call:
And eke the ſimple folke that have no help of man at all.

13 He taketh pity on the poore, that are with need oppreſt:
He doth preſerve them evermore,
and bring their ſoules to reſt.
14 He ſhall redeem their lives from dread from fraud, from wrong, from might:
And eke the bloud that they ſhall bleed is precious in his ſight.

15 But he ſhall live and they ſhall bring to him of Sabaes gold:
He ſhall be honoured as a King,
and daily be extold.
16 The mighty mountaines of his land of corne ſhall beare ſuch thoong:
That it like Cedar-trees ſhall ſtand,
in Libanus full long.

17 Their Cities eke full well ſhall ſpeed, the fruits thereof ſhall paſſe:
In plenty it ſhall far exceed,
and ſpring as green as graſſe.
18 For ever they ſhall praiſe his Name, while that the Sun is light:
And think them happy through the fame all folk ſhall bleſſe his might.

19 Praiſe ye the Lord of hoſts, and ſing to Iſraels God each one:
For he doth every wondrous thing,
yea he himſelfe alone.
20 And bleſſed be his holy Name,
all times eternally:
That all the earth may praiſe the ſame;
Amen, Amen, ſay I.

Quàm bonus Deus. Pſal Lxxiij. T. 2.

Sing this as the 44. Pſalme.

HOw ever it be yet God is good,
and kinde to Iſrael:
And to all ſuch as ſafely keep their conſcience pure and well.
2 Yet like a fool I almoſt ſlipt,
my feet began to ſlide:
And ere I wiſt, even at a pinch
my ſteps awry gan glide.

3 For when I ſaw ſuch fooliſh men,
I grudg'd and did diſdaine,
That wicked men all things ſhould have without turmoile or paine.
4 They never ſuffer pangs nor griefe,
as if death ſhould them smite:
Their bodies are both ſtout and ſtrong,
and ever in good plight.

5 And free from all adverſity,
when other men be ſhent:
And with the reſt they take no part of plague or puniſhment.
6 Therefore preſumption doth imbrace their necks, as doth a chaine:
And are even wrapt as in a robe,
with rapine and diſdaine.

7 They are ſo fed, that even for fat their eyes oft times out ſtart:
And as for worldly goods, they have more than can with their heart.
8 Their life is moſt licentious, boaſting much of their wrong Which thy have done to ſimple men and ever pry'd among.

9 The heavens and the living Lord they ſpare not to blaſpheme:
And prate they do of worldly things,
no wight they do eſteeme.
10 The people of God oft times turn back to ſee their proſperous ſtate:
And almoſt drink the ſelf ſame cup,
and follow the ſame rate.

The ſeconde Part.

11 How can it be that God (ſay they) ſhould know or underſtand Theſe worldly things, ſith wicked men be Lords of ſea and land?
12 For we may ſee how wicked men in riches ſtill increaſe:
Rewarded well with worldly goods,
and live in reſt and peace.

13 Then why do I from wickedneſſe my fantaſie refraine?
And waſh my hands with innocents,
and cleanſe my heart in vaine?
14 And ſuffer ſcourges every day,
as ſubject to all blame:
And every morning from my youth ſuſtaine rebuke and ſhame?

15 And I had almoſt ſaid as they,
miſliking mine eſtate:
But that I ſhould thy children judge,
as folk unfortunate.
16 Then I bethought me how I might this matter underſtand:
But yet the labour was too great for me to take in hand.

17 Untill the time I went into thy holy place, and then I underſtood right perfectly the end of all theſe men.
18 And namely, how thou ſetteſt them upon a ſlippery place:
And at thy pleaſure and thy will thou doſt them all deface.

19 Then all men muſe at that ſtrange ſight to ſee how ſuddenly
They are deſtroid, diſpatcht, conſum'd, and dead ſo horribly.
20 Much like a dreame when one awakes, ſo ſhall their wealth decay:
Their famous names in all mens ſight, ſhall ebbe and paſſe away.

The third Part.

21 Yet thus my heart was grieved then my minde was much oppreſt:
22 So fond was I and ignorant, and in this point a beaſt.
23 Yet neretheleſſe by my right hand,
thou holdſt me alwaies faſt:
24 And with thy counſell doſt me guide to glory at the laſt.

25 What thing is there that I can wiſh, but thee in heaven above?
And in the earth there is nothing,
like thee that I can love.
26 My fleſh and eke my heart doth fail, but God doth faile me never:
For of my health God is the ſtrength,
my portion eke for ever.

27 And lo all ſuch as thee forſake, thou ſhalt deſtroy each one:
And thoſe that truſt in any thing,
ſaving in thee alone.
28 Therefore I will draw neere to God,
and ever with him dwell:
In God alone I put my truſt, thy wonders I will tell.

Vt quid Deus? Pſal. Lxxiiij. I. H.

Sing this as the 72. Pſalme.

WHy art thou (Lord) ſo long from us in all theſe dangers deep?
Why doth thine anger kindle thus,
at thine own paſture ſheep?
2 Lord call thy people to thy thought, which have been thine ſo long:
The which thou haſt redeemed & brought from bondage ſore and ſtrong.

3 Have minde therefore, and think upon,
remember it full well:
Thy pleaſant place, thy mount Sion,
where thou waſt wont to dwell.
4 Lift up thy feet and come in haſte,
and all thy foes deface:
Which now at pleaſure rob and waſte
within thy holy place.

5 Amid thy congregations all,
thine enemies roare O God:
They ſet as ſignes on every wall, banners diſplaid abroad.
6 As men with axes hew down trees, that on the hils do growe
So ſhine the bils and ſwords of theſe, within thy temple nowe.

7 The cieling ſaw'd, the carved boards,
the goodly graven ſtones,
With axes, hammers, bils and ſwords,
they beat them down at once.
8 Thy places they conſume with flame,
and eke in all this toile:
The houſe appointed to thy Name,
they raze down to the ſoile.

9 And thus they ſaid within their heart, diſpatch them out of hand:
Then burnt they up in every part Gods houſes through the land:
10 Yet thou no ſigne of help doſt ſend,
our Prophets all are gone:
To tell when this our plague ſhall end,
among us there is none.

11 When wilt thou (Lord) once end this ſhame and ceaſe thine enemies ſtrong?
Shall they alwaies blaſpheme thy Name,
and raile on thee ſo long?
12 Why doſt thou draw thy hand aback, and hide it in thy lap?
O pluck it out, and be not ſlack to give thy foes a rap.

The ſecond Part.

13 O God thou art our King and Lord, and evermore haſt been:
Yea thy good grace throughout the world for our good help hath ſeen.
14 The ſeas that are ſo deep and dead,
thy might did make them drie:
And thou didſt break the Serpents head,
that he therein did die.

15 Yea thou didſt break the heads ſo great of Whales that are ſo fell:
And gaveſt them to the folk to eat,
that in the deſerts dwell.
16 Thou madeſt a ſpring with ſtreams to riſe from rock both hard and hie:
And eke thy hand hath made likewiſe deep rivers to be drie.

17 Both day and eke the night are thine
by thee they were begun:
Thou ſetſt to ſerve us with their ſhine,
the Moone and eke the Sun.
18 Thou didſt appoint the ends and coaſts of all the earth about:
Both ſummer-heats and winter-froſts,
thy hand hath found them out.

19 Think on (O Lord) no time forget thy foes that thee deſame:
And how the fooliſh folk are ſet
to raile upon thy Name.
20 O let no cruell beaſts devoure
the Turtle that is true, Forget not alwaies in thy power
the poore that much do rue.

21 Regard thy covenant, and behold,

thy

thy foes possesse the land:
All sad and dark, forworn and old,
our Realme as now doth stand.
22 Let not the simple go away,
nor yet return with shame:
But let the poore and needy aye give praise unto thy Name.

23 Rise (Lord) let be by thee maintain'd, the cause that is thine own:
Remember how that thou blasphem'd art by the foolish one.
24 The voice forget not of thy foes, for the presumption hie Is more and more increast of those that hate thee spitefully.

Confitebimur tibi. Psal. Lxxv. I. M.

Sing this in the 44. Psalme.

1 VNto thee (God) will we give thanks we will give thanks to thee:
With thy Name is so neare, declare thy wondrous works will we.
2 I will upright ly judge, when get convenient time I may.
The earth is weak, and all therein,
but I bot pillars stay.

3 I did to the mad people say,
deale not so furiously:
And unto the ungodly ones, set not your hornes on hie.
4 I said unto them, set not up your mised hornes on hie:
And see that you do with stiffe neck not speake presumptuously.

5 For neither from the Eastern parts, nor from the Westerne side:
Nor from forsaken wilderneſſe promotion doth proceed.
6 For why? the Lord our God he is the righteous Judge alone:
He putteth downe the one, and sets another in the throne.

7 For why? a cup of mighty wine is in the hand of God:
And all the mighty wine therein, himselfe doth pour abroad.
8 As for the lees and filthy dregs that do remaine of it:
The wicked of the world shall drink,
and suck them every whit.

9 But I will talk of God I say, of Jacobs God therefore:
And will not cease to celebrate his praise for evermore.
10 In sunder break the hornes of all ungodly men will I:
But that he hornes of righteous man shall be exalted high.

Gloria Patri.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
all glory be therefore:
As in beginning was, is now,
and shall be evermore.

In Iudæa. Psal. Lxxvj. I. M.

Sing this in the 69. Psalme.

1 TO all that now in Jewry dwell,
the Lord is clearely known:
His Name is great in Israel a people of his owne.
2 At Salem he his tents hath pight,
to tarrie there a space:
In Sion eke he hath delight to make his dwelling place.

3 And there he brake both shaft and bow,
the sword, the speare, and shield:
And brake the ray to overthrow in battell on the field.
4 Thou art more worthy honour Lord, more might in thee doth lie,
Than in the strongest of the world,
that rob on mountains high.

5 But now the proud are spoil'd through thee and they are fain on sleep:
Through men of war no help can be, themselves they could not keep.
6 At thy rebuke, O Jacobs God, when thou didst them reprove:
As halfe on sleep their chariots stood,
no horsemen once did move.

7 For thou art dreadfull, Lord, indeed, what man the courage hath To bide thy sight, and doth not dread when thou art in thy wrath?
8 When thou dost make thy judgements heard from heaven through the ground:
Then all the earth full sore afraid,
in silence shall be found.

9 And that when thou O God doſt stand in judgement for to speak,
To save the afflicted of the land,
on earth that are full weak.
10 The fury that in man doth raigne shall turne unto thy praise:
Hereafter (Lord) do thou restraine their wrath and threats alwaies.

11 Make vows, and pay them to our God ye folk that nigh him be:
Bring gifts all ye that dwell abroad,
for dreadfull sure is he.
12 For he doth take both life and might from Princes great of birth:
And full of terrour is his sight to all the Kings on earth.

Voce mea. Psal. Lxxvij. I. M.

reſt I took: But ſtretcht my hands to him abroad, my ſoul comfort forſook.

3 When I to think on God intend my trouble then is more:
I ſpake, but could not make an end,
my breath was ſtopt ſo ſore.
4 Thou heldſt mine eyes alwaies from reſt, that I therewith did wake:
With fears I am ſo ſore oppreſt,
my ſpeech doth me forſake.

5 The daies of old in minde I caſt, and oft did think upon
The times and ages that are paſt full many yeares agone.
6 By night my ſongs I call to minde, once made thy praiſe to ſhow:
And with my heart much talk I finde,
my ſpirits do ſearch to know.

7 Will God, ſaid I, at once for all caſt off his people thus:
So that henceforth no time he ſhall be friendly unto us?
8 What? is his goodneſſe clean decaid for ever and a day?
Or is his promiſe now delaid,
and doth his truth decay?

9 And will the Lord our God forget his mercies manifold?
Or ſhall his wrath increaſe ſo hot,
his mercies to withhold?
10 At laſt I ſaid, my weakneſſe is the cauſe of this miſtraſt, Gods mighty hand can help all this,
and change it when he liſt.

The ſecond Part.

11 I will regard and think upon the working of the Lord:
Of all his wonders paſt and gone,
I gladly will record.
12 Yea all his works I will declare,
and what he did deviſe:
To tell his facts I will not ſpare,
and eke his counſell wiſe.

13 Thy works O Lord, are all upright, and holy all abroad:
What one hath ſtrength to match thy might of thee O Lord our God?
14 Thou art a God that doſt forth ſhow thy wonders every houre:
And ſo doſt make the people know thy vertue and thy power.

15 And thine own folk thou doſt defend with ſtrength and ſtretched arme,
The ſonnes of Jacob that deſcend, and Joſephs ſeed from harme.
16 The waters Lord perceived thee,
the waters ſaw thee well
And they for feare away did flee, the depths on trembling fell.

17 The clouds that were both thick and black,
did raine full plenteouſly?
The thunder in the aire did crack,
thy ſhafts abroad did flie.
18 Thy thunder in the aire was heard,
thy lightnings from above,
With flaſhes great made men afraid,
the earth did quake and move.

19 Thy waies within the ſea do lie, thy paths in waters deep:
Yet none can there thy ſteps eſpie, nor know thy paths to keep:
20 Thou ledſt thy folk upon the land,
as ſheep on every ſide:
Through Moſes and through Aarons hand thou didſt them ſafely guide.

Attendite populi. Pſal. Lxxviij. I. H.

Ttend my people to my Law, and to my words incline: 2. My mouth ſhall ſpeak ſtrange parables and ſentences divine.

3 Which we our ſelves have heard and learn'd even of our Fathers old: And which for our inſtruction, our fathers have manifeſted

4 Becauſe we ſhould not keep it cloſe from them that ſhould come after:
Who ſhould Gods power to their late praiſe
and all his works of wonder.
5 To Jacob he commandment gave,
how Iſrael ſhould live:
Willing our fathers ſhould the ſame unto their children give.

6 That they and their poſterity, that were not ſprung up thoſe daies,
Should have the knowledge of the law,
and teach their ſeed alſo.
7 That they might have the better hope in God that is above:
And not forget to keep his lawes,
and his precepts in love.

8 Not being as their fathers were,
rebelling in Gods ſight:
And would not frame their wicked hearts to know their God aright.
9 How went the people of Ephraim their neighbours for to ſpoile:
Shooting their ſhafts in day of warre, and yet they took the foile?

10 For

10 For why? they did not keep with God
the covenant that was made:
Nor yet would walk or lead their lives
according to his trade.
11 But put into oblivion, his counſell and his will:
And all his works moſt magnifique, which he declared ſtill.

The ſecond Part.

12 What wonders to our fore-fathers did he himſelfe diſcloſe:
In Egypt land, within the field,
that call'd is Thaneos?
13 He did divide and cut the ſea, that they might paſſe at once:
And made the waters ſtand as ſtill
as doth an heape of ſtones.

14 He led them ſecret in a cloud
by day when it was bright:
And in the night when dark it was,
with fire he gave them light.
15 He brake the rocks in wilderneſſe, and gave the people drink:
As plentifull as when the deeps do flow up to the brink.

16 He drew out rivers out of rocks that were both drie and hard:
Of ſuch abundance, that no floods to them might be compar'd.
17 Yet for all this againſt the Lord their ſin they did increaſe:
And ſtirred him that is moſt high,
to wrath in wilderneſſe.

18 They tempted God within their hearts like people of miſtruſt, Requiring ſuch a kinde of meat,
as ſerved to their luſt.
19 Saying with murmuration, in their unfaithfullneſſe:
What? can this God prepare for us a feaſt in wilderneſſe?

20 Behold he ſtrake the ſtony rocks, and floods forthwith did flow:
But can he now give to his folk both bread and fleſh alſo?
21 When God heard this, he waxed wroth with Jacob and his ſeed:
So did his indignation on Iſrael proceed.

The third Part.

22 Becauſe they did not faithfully believe, and hope that he Could alwaies help and ſuccour them in their neceſſity.
23 Wherfore he did command the clouds, forthwith they brake in ſunder:
24 And min'd down Manna for them to eate,
a food of mickle wonder.

25 When earthly men with Angels food were fed at their requeſt: 26 He had the Eaſt-winde blow away,
and brought in the South-Weſt.
27 He rain'd down fleſh as thick as duſt,
and fowle as thick as ſand:
28 Which he did caſt amid the place, where all their tents did ſtand.

29 Then did they eat exceedingly, and all men had their fils:
Yet more and more they did deſire,
to ſerve their laſts and wils.
30 But as the meat was in their mouthes, his wrath upon them fell:
31 And ſlew the flower of all their youth, and choice of Iſrael.

32 Yet ſtill they to their wonted ſin, and ſtill they did him grieve:
For all the wonders that he wrought,
they would him not believe.
33 Their daies therefore he ſhortened, and made their honour vaine:
Their yeares did waſte and paſſe away,
with terrour and with paine.

34 But ever when he plagued them, they ſought him by and by:
35 Remembring that he was their ſtrength their help and God moſt high.
36 Though in their mouthes they did but gloſe and flatter with the Lord:
And with their tongues & in their hearts diſſembled every word.

The fourth Part.

37 For why their hearts were nothing bent to him nor to his trade:
Nor yet to keep or to performe
the covenant that was made.
38 Yet was he ſtill ſo mercifull,
when they deſerv'd to die:
That he forgave them their miſdeeds,
and would not them deſtroy.

Yea many a time he turn'd his wrath,
and did himſelfe adviſe:
And would not ſuffer all his whole diſpleaſure to ariſe.
39 Conſidering that they were but fleſh,
and even as a winde, Paſſing away, and cannot well return by his own kinde.

40 How oft in times in wilderneſſe did they the Lord provoke?
How did they move and ſtirre the Lord to plague them with his ſtroke?
41 Yet did they turn againe to ſin,
and tempted God eftſoone: Preſcribing to the holy Lord,
what things they would have done.

42 Not thinking of his hand and power nor of the day when he Delivered them out of the hands of their fierce enemy.
43 Nor how he wrought his miracles,
(as they themſelves beheld)
In Egypt, and the wonders that he did in Zoan field.

44 Nor how he turned by his power, their waters into blood?
That no man might receive his drink at river nor at flood.
45 Nor how he ſent them ſwarms of flies which did them ſore anoy:
And fil'd their countrey full of frogs, which did their land deſtroy.

The fift Part.

46 Nor how he did commit their fruits unto the Caterpillar
And all the labour of their hands
he gave to the graſhopper.
47 With haile-ſtones he deſtroid their vines,
ſo that they were all loſt:
And not ſo much as wilde fig-trees,
but he conſum'd with froſt.

48 And yet with haile-ſtones onee againe
the Lord their cattell ſmote:
And all their flocks and herds likewiſe with thunder-bolts fell hot.
49 He caſt upon them in his ire,
and in his fury ſtrong, Diſpleaſure, wrath and evil ſpirites, to trouble them among.

50 Then to his wrath he made a way,
and ſpared not the leaſt:
But gave unto the peſtilence
the man and eke the beaſt.
51 He ſtrake alſo the firſt-borne all,
that up in Egypt came:
And all the chiefe of men and beaſts within the tents of Ham.

52 But as for all his own deare folk,
he did preſerve and keept
And carried them through wilderneſſe, even like a flock of ſheep.
53 Without all feare both ſafe and ſound
he brought them out of thsall:
Whereas their foes with rage of ſeas were over-whelmed all.

54 And brought them out into the coaſts of his own holy land:
Even to the Mount which he had got by his ſtrong arm and hand.
55 And there caſt out the heathen folk,
and did their land divide:
And in their tents he ſet the Tribes of Iſrael to abide.

56 Yet for all this their God moſt high they ſtir'd and tempted ſtills
And would not keep his Teſtament, nor yet obey his will.
57 But as their fathers turned back,
even ſo they went aſtray:
Much like a bowe that would not bend,
but ſlip and ſtart away.

The ſixt Part.

58 And griev'd him with their hill-altars, with offrings and with fire:
And with their idols vehemently provoked him to ire.
59 Therewith his wrath began againe to kindle in his breſt:
The naughtineſſe of Iſrael
he did ſo much deteſt.

60 Then he for ſook the Tabernacle of Shilo, where he was Right conuerſant with earthly men, even as his dwelling place.
61 Then ſuffered he his might and power in bondage for to ſtand:
And gave the honour of his Ark
into his enemies hand.

62 And did commit them to the ſword
wroth with his heritage:
63 Their young men were devour'd with fire, maids had no marriage.
64 And with the ſword the Prieſts alſo did periſh every one:
And not a widow left alive,
their death for to bemone.

65 And then the Lord began to wake like one that ſlept a time:
And like a valiant man of warre, refreſhed after wine.
66 With Emrods in the hinder parts
he ſtrake his enemies all:
And put them then unto a ſhame that was perpetuall.

67 Then he the tent and tabernacle of Joſeph did refuſe:
As for the Tribe of Ephraim,
he would in no wiſe chuſe.
68 But choſe the Tribe of Jehuda, whereas he thought to dwell:
Even the noble mount Sion, which he did love ſo well.

69 Whereas he did his Temple build,
both ſumptuouſly and ſure:
Like as the earth which he hath made
for ever to endure.
70 Then choſe he David him to ſerve, his people for to keep:
Whom he took up and brought away,
even from the folds of ſheep.

71 As he did follow th'Ewes with young,
the Lord did him advance:
To feed his people Iſrael,
and his inheritance.
72 Thus David with a faithfull heart his flock and charge did feed:
And prudently with all his power,
did governe them indeed.

Deus, venerunt. Pſal. Lxxix. I.M.

Sing this at the 77. Pſalme.

O God the Gentiles do invade thine heritage to ſpoile: Jeruſalem an heape is made,
thy Temple they defile.
2 The bodies of thy Saints moſt deare abroad to birds they caſt:
The fleſh of them that do thee feare,
the beaſts devoure and waſte.

3 Their bloud throughout Jeruſalem as water ſpilt they have:
So that there is not one of them to lay their dead in grave.
4 Thus are we made a laughing ſtock, almoſt the world throughout:
The enemies at us jeſt and mock,
which dwell our coaſts about.

5 Wilt thou (O Lord) thus in thine ire againſt us ever fume,
And ſhew thy wrath as hot as fire,
thy folk for to conſume?
6 Upon thoſe people pour the ſame, which did thee never know:

All

All Realmes which call not on thy Name, conſume and overthrow.

7 For they have got the upper hand,
and Jacobs ſeed deſtroid:
His habitation and his land,
they have left waſte and void.
8 Beare not in minde our former faults, with ſpeed ſome pitie ſhow:
And aid us Lord, in all aſſaults, for we are weake and low.

The ſecond Part.

9 O God that giv'ſt all health and grace on us declare the ſame:
Weigh not our works, our ſins deface,
for honour of thy Name.
10 Why ſhall the wicked ſtill alway, to us as people dumbe,
In thy reproach rejoyce and ſay,
where is their God become?

Require (O Lord) as thou ſeeſt good,
before our eyes in ſight,
Of all theſe folk thy ſervants blood,
which they ſpik in deſpight.
11 Receive into thy ſight in haſte,
the clamours, griefe and wrong,
Of ſuch as are in priſon caſt, ſuſtaining irons ſtrong.

Thy force and ſtrength to celebrate,
Lord ſet them out of hand,
Which unto death are deſtinate,
and in their enemies hand.
12 The nations which have been ſo bold
as to blaſpheme thy Name:
Into their laps with ſeven-fold repay againe the ſame.

13 So we thy flock and paſture ſheep will praiſe thee evermore:
And teach all ages for to keep for thee like praiſe in ſtore.

Qui regis Iſrael. Pſal. Lxxx. I. H.

Sing this as the 77. Pſalme.

THou herd that Iſrael doſt keep,
give eare and take good heed:
Which leadeſt Joſeph like a ſheep,
and doſt him watch and feed, 2 Thou Lord, I ſay, whoſe ſeat is ſet on Cherubins moſt bright:
Shew forth thy ſelfe, and do not let,
ſend down thy beames of light.

3 Before Ephraim and Benjamin,
Manaſſes eke likewiſe:
To ſhew thy power do thou begin,
come help us Lord ariſe.
4 Direct our hearts unto thy grace, convert us, Lord, to thee:
Shew us the brightneſſe of thy face,
and then full ſafe are we.

5 Lord God of hoſts of Iſrael, how long wilt thou I ſay, Againſt thy folk in anger ſwell,
and wilt not heare them pray?

6 Thou doſt them feed with ſorrows deep their bread with teares they eate:
And drink the teares that they do weep,
in meaſure full and great.

7 Thou haſt us made a very ſtrife, to thoſe that dwell about:
And that our foes do love alife,
they laugh and jeſt it out.
8 O take us (Lord) unto thy grace, convert our hearts to thee:
Shew forth to us thy joyfull face,
and we full ſafe ſhall be.

9 From Egypt where it grew not well, thou brought'ſt a vine full deare:
The heathen folk thou didſt expell,
and thou didſt plant it there.
10 Thou didſt prepare for it a place,
and ſet her roots full faſt:
That it did grow and ſpring apace,
and fill'd the land at laſt.

The ſecond Part.

11 The hills were covered round about,
with ſhade that from it came:
And eke the Cedars ſtrong and ſtout, with branches of the ſame.
12 Why then didſt thou her wals deſtroy her hedge pluckt up thou haſt:
That all the folk that paſſe thereby,
thy vine may ſpoile and waſte.

13 The Boare out of the wood ſo wilde, doth dig and root it out:
The furious beaſts out of the field devoure it all about.
14 O Lord of hoſts returne againe,
from heaven look betimes:
Behold and with thy help ſuſtaine this poore vineyard of thine.

15 Thy plant, I ſay, thine Iſrael, whom thy right hand hath ſet:
The ſame which thou didſt love ſo well,
O Lord do not forget.
16 They lop and cut it down apace,
they burn it eke with fire:
And through the frowning of thy face,
we periſh in thine ire.

17 Let thy right hand be with them now, whom thou haſt kept ſo long:
And with the ſonne of man whom thou to thee haſt made ſo ſtrong.
18 And ſo when thou haſt ſet us free,
and ſaved us from ſhame:
Then will we never fall from thee,
but call upon thy Name.

19 O Lord of hoſts through thy good grace, convert us unto thee:
Behold us with a pleaſant face,
and then full ſafe are we.

Deo exultate. Pſal. Lxxxj. I. H.

BE light and glad in God rejoyce, which is our ſtrength and ſtay: Be joyfull and lift up your voice, to Iacobs God, I ſay. 2. Prepare your inſtruments moſt meet, ſome joy-full Pſalme to ſing: Strike up with Harp and Lute ſo ſweet, on every pleaſant ſtring.

3 Blow as it were in the new Moone, with trumpets of the beſt:
As it is uſed to be done,
at any ſolemne feaſt.
4 For this is unto Iſrael,
a ſtatute and a trade:
A law that muſt be kept full well, which Jacobs God hath made.

5 This clauſe with Joſeph was decreed, when he from Egypt came:
That as a witneſſe all his ſeed ſhould ſtill obſerve the ſame.
6 When God, I ſay, had ſo prepar'd to bring him from that land:
Whereas the ſpeech which he had heard
he did not underſtand.

7 I from his ſhoulders took (ſaith he)
the burthen clean away:
And from the furnace quit him free from burning brick of clay.
8 When thou in grief didſt cry and call,
I holp thee by and by:
And I did anſwer thee withall,
in thunder ſecretly.

9 Yea, at the waters of diſcord,
I did thee tempt and prove:
Whereas the goodneſſe of the Lord,
with muttering thou didſt move.
10 Heare O my folk, O Iſrael, and I aſſure it thee.
Regard and marke my words full well,
if thou wilt cleave to me.

The ſecond Part.

11 Thou ſhalt no God in thee reſerve, of any land abroad:
Nor in no wiſe bow to or ſerve
a ſtrange or foreign god.
12 I am the Lord thy God, and I from Egypt let thee free:
Then aſk of me abundantly,
and I will give it thee.

13 And yet my people would not heare
my voice when that I ſpake:
And Iſrael would not obey,
but did me quite forſake.
14 Then did I leave them to their will,
in hardneſſe of their heart:
To walk in their own counſels ſtill, themſelves they might pervert.

15 O that my people would have heard the words that I did ſay:
And eke that Iſrael would regard to walk within my way.
16 How ſoon would I confound their foes and bring them down full low:
And turn my hand upon all thoſe that would them overthrow.

17 And they that at the Lord do rage, as ſlaves ſhould ſeek him till:
But of his folk the time and age,
ſhould flouriſh ever ſtill.
18 I would have fed them with the crop,
and fineſt of the wheat:
And made the rock with honey drop,
that they their fils ſhould eat.

Deus ſtetit. Pſal. Lxxxij. I. N.

Sing this as the 77. Pſalme.

A Mid the preſſe with men of might the Lord himſelfe doth ſtand To plead the cauſe of truth and right, with judges of the land.
2 How long (ſaid he) will you proceed, falſe judgement to award
And have reſpect for love of meed, the wicked to regard?

3 Whereas of due you ſhould defend the fatherleſſe and weak:
And when the poore man doth contend,
in judgement juſtly ſpeak.
4 If ye be wiſe, defend the cauſe of poore men in their right:
And rid the needy from the clawes of tyrants force and might.

5 But nothing will they know or learne,
in vaine to them I talk:
They will not ſee, or ought diſcerne, but ſtill in darkneſſe walk.
6 For lo, even now the time is come,
that all things fall to nought:
And likewiſe lawes both all and ſome,
for gaine are ſold and bought.

I had decreed it in my ſight,
as gods to take you all:
And children to the moſt of might,
for love I did you call.
7 But notwithſtanding ye ſhall die as men, and ſo decay:
O tyrants I ſhall you deſtroy, and pluck you quite away.

8 Up Lord, and let thy ſtrength be known, and judge the world with might:
For why? all nations are thine own,
to take them as thy right.

DO not (O God) refraine thy tongue,

Withhold not, Lord, thy ſelfe ſo long,

2 For why? behold thy foes and ſee
how they do rage and cry:
And thoſe that beare an hate to thee,
hold up their heads on hie.

3 Againſt thy folk they uſe deceit, and craftly they enquire:
For thine elect to lie in wait, their counſell doth conſpire.
4 Come on ſay they, let us expell,
and pluck theſe folk away:
So that the Name of Iſrael may utterly decay.

5 They all conſpire within their heart,
how they may thee withſtand:
Againſt the Lord to take a part,
they are in league and band.
6 The tents of all the Edomites,
the Iſhmaelites alſo:
The Hagarens and Moabites, with diverſe others mo.

7 Gebal with Ammon, and likewiſe

The Philiſtims againſt thee riſe, with them that dwell at Tyre.
8 And Aſſur eke is well appaid,

9 As thou didſt to the Midianites, ſo ſerve them Lord each one:
As to Siſer and to Jabin,

10 Whom thou in Endor didſt deſtroy, and waſte them through thy might:
That they like dung on earth did lie,
and that in open ſight.

The ſecond Part.

As Zeba and Zalmunna were the Kings of Midian.
12 Which ſaid, let us throughout the land in all the coaſts abroad Poſſeſſe and take into our hand
the faire houſes of God.

13 Turn them, O God, with ſtormes as faſt

Or like the chaffe, which men do caſt, with windes to flie away 14 Like as the fire with rage and fume,
the mighty foreſts ſpils:
And as the flame doth quite conſume
the mountaines and the hils.

15 So let the tempeſt of thy wrath upon their necks be laid:
And of thy ſtormy winde and ſhowres
Lord make them all afraid.

16 Lord bring them all, I thee deſire, to ſuch rebuke and ſhame,
That it may cauſe them to enquire,
and learne to ſeek thy Name.

17 And let them evermore daily to ſhame and ſlander fall:
And in rebuke and obloquie, periſh alſo withall.
18 That they may know and feel full well that thou art called Lord:
And that alone thou doſt excell,

no faintneſſe there ſhall be:

have place to ſit and ſing:
O Lord of hoſts, thou art I ſay,
my God and eke my King.

5 O they be bleſſed that may dwell within thy houſe alwaies:
For they all times thy facts do tell,
and ever give thee praiſe.
6 Yea happy ſure likewiſe are they whoſe ſtay and ſtrength thou art Which to thy houſe do minde the way, and ſeek it in their heart.

7 As they go through the vale of teares, they dig up fountaines ſtills:
That as a ſpring it all appeares, and thou their pits doſt fill.
8 From ſtrength to ſtrength they walk full faſt
no faintneſſe there ſhall be:
And ſo the God of gods at laſt in Sion they do ſee.

9 O Lord of hoſts to me give heed,
and heare when I do pray:
And let it through thine eares proceed,
O Jacobs God, I ſay.
10 O Lord our ſhield, of thy good grace, regard and ſo draw neare: Regard, I ſay, behold the face of thine anointed deare.

11 For why? within thy Courts one day is better to abide,
Than other where to keep or ſtay,
a thouſand dayes beſide.
12 Much rather would I keep a doore
within the houſe of God,
Than in the tents of wickedneſſe to ſettle mine abode.

13 For God the Lord light and defence, will

will grace and worſhip give:
And no good thing ſhall he with-hold from them that purely live.
14 O Lord of hoſts that man is bleſt, and happy ſure is he,
That is perſwaded in his breſt,
to truſt all times in thee.

Benedixiſti. Pſal. Lxxxv. I. H.

Sing this as the 81. Pſalme.

THou haſt been mercifull indeed,
O Lord unto thy land:
For thou reſtoredſt Jacobs ſeed, from thraldome out of hand.
2 The wicked waies that they were in,
thou didſt them cleane remit:
And thou didſt hide the peoples ſin,
full cloſe thou coveredſt it.

3 Thine anger eke thou didſt aſſwage, that all thy wrath was gone:
And ſo didſt turn thee from thy rage,
with them to be at one.
4 O God our health do now convert thy people unto thee:
Put all thy wrath from us apart,
and angry ceaſe to be.

5 Why ſhall thine anger never end,
but ſtill proceed on us?
And ſhall thy wrath it ſelfe extend upon all ages thus?
6 Wilt thou not rather turn therefore,
and quicken us, that we,
And all thy folk may evermore be glad and joy in thee?

7 O Lord on us do thou diſcloſe thy goodneſſe to our wealth:
Shew forth to us, and do not ſpare thine aid and ſaving health.
8 I will hark what God ſaith, for he ſpeaks to his people peace,
And to his Saints, that never they returne to fooliſhneſſe.

9 For why? his help is ſtill at hand, to ſuch as do him feare:
Wherby great glory in our land
ſhall dwell and flouriſh there.
10 For truth and mercy there ſhall meet,
in one to take their place:
And peace ſhall juſtice with kiſſe greet,
and there they ſhall embrace.

11 As truth from earth ſhall ſpring apace and flouriſh pleaſantly:
So righteouſneſſe ſhall ſhew her face,
and look from heaven high.
12 Yea God himſelfe doth take in hand to give us each good thing:
And through the coaſts of all the land,
the earth her fruit ſhall bring.

13 Before his face ſhall juſtice go, much like a guide or ſtay:
He ſhall dire& his ſteps alſo,
and keep them in the way.

Inclina Domine. Pſal. Lxxxvj. I. H.

Sing this as the 81. Pſalme.

LOrd bow thine eare to my requeſt, and heare me by and by:
With grievous paine and griefs oppreſt,
full poore and weak am I.
2 Preſerve my ſoule, becauſe my waies and doings holy be:
And ſave thy ſervant, O my Lord, that puts his truſt in thee.

3 Thy mercy (Lord) on me expreſſe, defend me eke withall:
For through the day I do not ceaſe on thee to cry and call.
4 Comfort (O Lord) thy ſervants ſoule, that now with paine is pin'd:
For unto thee (Lord) I extoll, and lift my ſoule and minde.

5 For thou art good and bountifull, thy gifts of grace are free:
And eke thy mercy plentifull,
to all that call on thee.
6 O Lord likewiſe when I do pray, regard and give an eare:
Mark well the words that I do ſay, and all my prayers heare.

7 In time when trouble doth me move,
to thee I do complaine:
For why? I know and well do prove, thou anſwereſt me againe.
8 Among the gods (O Lord) is none with thee to be compar'd:
And none can do as thou alone,
the like hath not beene heard.

The ſecond Part.

9 The Gentiles and the people all,
which thou didſt make and frame,
Before thy face on knees ſhall fall,
and glorifie thy Name.
10 For why? thou art ſo much of might,
all power is thine owne:
Thou worke ſt wonders ſtill in ſight,
for thou art God alone.

11 O teach me, Lord, the way, and I ſhall in thy truth proceed:
O joyne my heart to thee ſo nigh,
that I thy Name may dread.
12 To thee my God will I give praiſe, with all my heart O Lord:
And glorifie thy Name alwaies, for ever through the world.

13 For why? thy mercy ſhew'd to me,
is great, and doth excell:
Thou ſetſt my ſoule at liberty,
out from the lower hell.
14 O Lord the proud againſt me riſe, and heaps of men of might:
They ſeek my ſoule, and in no wiſe will have thee in their ſight.

15 Thou Lord art mercifull and meek, full ſlack and ſlow to wrath:
Thy goodneſſe is full great, and eke thy truth no meaſure hath.

16 O turne to me and mercy grant,
thy ſtrength to me apply:
O help and ſave thine owne ſervant,
thy handmaids ſonne am I.

17 On me ſome ſigne of favour ſhew,
that all my foes may ſee,
And be aſham'd, becauſe (Lord) thou doſt help and comfort me.

Fundamenta. Pſal. Lxxxvij. I.H.

Sing this as the 81. Pſalme.

THat City ſtall full well endure her ground-work ſtill doth ſtay Upon the holy hils full ſure, it can no time decay.
2 God loves the gates of Sion beſt, his grace doth there abide:
He loves them more than all the reſt of Jacobs tents beſide.

3 Full glorious things reported be in Sion and abroad:
Great things, I ſay, are ſaid of thee,
thou City of our God.
4 On Rahab I will caſt an eye, and beare in minde the ſame:
And Babylon ſhall eke apply,
and learne to know my Name.

5 Loe, Paleſtine and Tyre alſo, with Ethiope likewiſe:
A people old full long ago were borne, and there did riſe.
6 Of Sion they ſhall ſay abroad, that diverſe men of fame
Have there ſprung up, and the high God hath founded faſt the ſame.

7 In their records to them it ſhall through Gods device appeare:
Of Sion that the chief of all had his beginning there.
8 The trumpeters with ſuch as ſing, therein great plenty be:
My fountaines and my pleaſant ſprings are compaſt all in thee.

Domine Deus. Pſal. Lxxxviij. I.H.

Sing this as the 77. Pſalme.

LOrd God of health the hope and ſtay,
thou art alone to me:
I call and cry throughout the day,
and all the night to thee.
2 O let my prayer ſoone aſcend unto thy ſight on hie: Incline thine eare, O Lord attend, and hearken to my cry.

3 For why? with woe my heart is fill'd,
and doth in trouble dwell:
My life and breath almoſt doth yeeld,
and draweth nigh to hell.
4 I am eſteem'd as one of them that in the pit do fall:
And made as one among thoſe men that have no ſtrength at all.

5 As one among the dead and free from things that there remain
It were more eaſe for me to be with them the which are ſlaine.
6 As thoſe that lie in grave, I lye, whom thou haſt cleane forgot
The which thy hand hath cut away, and thou regard'ſt them not.

7 Yea like to one ſhut up full faſt within the lower pit,
In places dark and all obſcure,
and in the depth of it.
8 Thine anger and thy wrath likewiſe full ſore on me do lie:
And all thy ſtormes againſt me riſe,
my ſoule to vexe and trie.

9 Thou putſt my friends far off from me,
and mak'ſt them hate me ſore:
I am ſhut up in priſon faſt, and can come forth no more.
10 My ſight doth faile through grief and woe
I call to thee, O God:
Throughout the day my hands alſo to thee I ſtretch abroad.

The ſecond Part.

11 Doſt thou unto the dead declare thy wondrous works of fame?
Shall dead to life againe repaire, and praiſe thee for the ſame?
12 Or ſhall thy loving kindneſſe Lord, be preached in the grave?
Or ſhall with them that are deſtroid, thy truth her honour have?

13 Shall they that lie in dark full low,
of all thy wonders wot?
Or there ſhall they thy juſtice know, where all things are forgot?
14 But I O Lord to thee alwaies do cry and call apace:
My prayer eke ere it be day,
ſhall come before thy face.

15 Why doſt thou Lord abhorre my ſoule in griefe that ſeeketh thee?
And now, O Lord, why doſt thou hide
thy face away from me?
16 I am afflicted dying ſtill, from youth this many a yeare:
Thy terrors which do vexe me ill,
with troubled minde I beare.

17 The furies of thy wrathfull rage full ſore upon me fall:
Thy terrours eke do not aſſwage,
but me oppreſſe withall.
18 All day they compaſſe me about,
as waters at the tide:
And all at once with ſtormes full ſtout
beſet me on each ſide.

19 Thou ſetteſt far from me my friends, and lovers every one:
Yea and mine old acquaintance all out of my ſight are gone.

Miſericordias. Pſal. Lxxxix. I.H.

Sing this as the 77. Pſalme.

TO ſing the mercies of the Lord,
my tongue ſhall never ſpare:
And with my mouth from age to age
thy truth I will declare.

2 For I have ſaid, that mercy ſhall for evermore remaine:
In that thou duſt the heavens ſtay, thy truth appeareth plaine.

3 To mine elect, ſaith God, I made a covenant and beheſt:
My ſervant David to perſwade,
I ſwore and did proteſt.
4 Thy ſeed for ever I will ſtay, and ſtabliſh it full faſt:
And ſtill upholde thy throne alway,
from age to age to laſt.

5 The heavens ſhew with joy and mirth,
thy wondrous works, O Lord:
Thy Saints within thy Church on earth thy faith and truth record.
6 Who with the Lord is equall then,
in all the clouds abroad?
Among the ſonnes of all the gods,
what one is like our God?

7 God in aſſembly of his Saints is greatly to be dreade
And over all that dwell about,
in terrour to be had.
8 Lord God of hoſts, in all the world,
what one is like to thee?
On every ſide moſt mighty Lord, thy truth is ſeen to be.

9 The raging ſea by thine advice, thou ruleſt at thy will:
And when the waves thereof ariſe,
thou makſt them calm and ſtill.
10 And Egypt (Lord) thou haſt ſubdu'd, and thou haſt it deſtroid:
Yea, thou thy foes with mighty arme haſt ſcattered all abroad.

The ſecond Part.

11 The heavens are thine, & ſtill have been likewiſe the earth and land:
The world and all that is therein,
thou foundedſt with thy hand:
12 Both North & South with Eaſt & Weſt thy ſelfe didſt make and frame:
Both Tabor mount, and eke Hermon, rejoyce and praiſe thy Name.

13 Thine arm is ſtrong and full of power
all might therein doth lie:
The ſtrength of thy right hand each houre thou lifteſt up on hie.
14 In righteouſneſſe and equity thou haſt thy ſeat and place:
Mercy and truth are ſtill with thee,
and go before thy face.

15 That folk is bleſt that knowes aright
thy preſent power O God:
For in the favour of thy ſight
they walk full ſafe abrode.
16 For in thy Name throughout the day they joy and much rejoyce:
And through thy righteouſnes have they a pleaſant ſong and noiſe.

17 For why? their glory, ſtrength and aid,
in thee alone doth lie:
Thy goodneſſe eke that lieth us ſtaid, ſhall lift our horne on hie.

18 Our ſtrength that doth defend us well,
the Lord to us doth bring:
The holy One of Iſrael,
he is our guide and King.

19 Sometimes thy will unto thy Saints in viſion thou didſt ſhow:
And thus then didſt thou ſay to them thy minde to make them know 20 A man of might I have erect, your King and guide to be:
And ſet him up whom I elect, among the folk to me.

The third Part.

21 My ſervant David I appoint, whom I have ſearched out:
And with my holy oyle anoint him King of all the rout.
22 For why? my hand is ready ſtill with him for to remaine:
And with my arm alſo I will him ſtrengthen and ſuſtaine.

23 The enemies ſhall not him oppreſſe,
they ſhall him not devoure:
Ne yet the ſonnes of wickedneſſe, on him have any power.
24 His foes likewiſe I will deſtroy before his face in fight:
And thoſe that hate him I will plague, and ſtrike them with my might.

25 My truth and mercy eke withall,
ſhall ſtill upon him lie:
And in my name his horne eke ſhall be lifted up on high.
26 His Kingdome I will ſet to be upon the ſea and land:
And eke the running floods ſhall he embrace with his right hand.

27 He ſhall depend with all his heart on me, and thus ſhall ſay:
My Father and my God thou art,
my rock of health and ſtay.
28 As my firſt-borne I will him take,
of all on earth that ſprings:
His might and honour I will make above all earthly Kings.

29 My mercy ſhall be with him ſtill,
as I my ſelfe have told:
My faithfull covenant to fulfill,
my mercy I will hold.
30 And eke his ſeed I will ſuſtaine for ever ſtrong and ſure:
So that his ſeed ſhall ſtill remaine, while heaven doth endure.

The fourth Part.

31 If that his ſonnes forſake my Law,
and ſo begin to ſwerve:
And of my judgements have none awe,
nor will not them obſerve.
32 Or if they will not uſe aright
my ſtatutes to them made:
And ſet all my commandments light,
and will not keep my trade.

33 Then with the rod will I begin, their doings to amend:

And

And so will scourge them for their sin,
if that they do offend.
34 My mercy yet and my goodnesse,
I will not take him fro:
Nor handle him with craftinesse, and so my truth forgo.

35 But sure my covenant I will hold,
with all that I have spoke:
No word the which my lips have told,
shall alter or be broke.
36 Once swara I by my holinesse, and that performe will I:
With David I shall keep promise, to him I will not lie.

37 His seed for evermore shall reigne, and eke his throne of might,
As doth the Sun, it shall remaine for ever in my sight.
38 And as the Moone within the skie for ever standeth fast:
A faithfull witnesse from on hie,
so shall his kingdome last.

39 But now Lord us thou dost reject, and now thou changest cheare:
Yea, thou art wrath with thine elect,
thin own anointed deare.
40 The covenant with thy servant made,
Lord thou hast quite undone:
And down upon the ground also hast cast his royall crowne.

The fift Part.

41 Thou pluck'st his hedges up with might,
his wals thou dost confound:
Thou beatest eke his bulwarks down,
and breakst them to the ground.
42 That he is sore destroid and torne, of comers by throughout:
And so is made a mock and scorn to all that dwell about.

43 Thou their right hand hast lifted up,
that him so sore anoy:
And all his foes that him devoure,
loe thou hast made to joy.
44 His swords edge thou dost take away that should his foes withstand:
To him in warre no victory thou giv'st, nor upper hand.

45 His glory thou dost also waste, his throne, his joy, and mirth:
By thee are overthrowen and cast full low upon the earth.
46 Thou hast cut off and made full short his youth and lusty daies,
And sain'd of him an ill report,
with shame and great dispraise.

47 How long e'wy from us, O Lord, for ever wilt thou turne?
And shall thine ire still alwayes as fire confume and burne?
48 O call to minde, remember then,
my time consumeth fast:
Why hast thou made the sonnes of men,
as things in vaine to waste?

49 What man is he that liveth here, and death shall never feel Or from the hand of Hell his soule shall he deliver free?
50 Where is (O Lord) thine old goodnesse,
so oft declar'd before,
Which by thy truth and uprightnesse to David thou hast swore?

51 The great rebukes to minde I call that on thy servants lie:
The railings of the people all borne in my brest have I: 52 Wherewith (O Lord) thine enemies
blasphemed have thy Name:
The steps of thine anointed one they cease not to defame.

53 All praise to thee, O Lord of hoste, both now and eke for aye:
Through skie and earth, and all the coaste
Amen, Amen, I say.

Domine refugium. Psal. XC. I. II.

Sing this at the 77. Psalme.

THou Lord hast been our sure defence,
our place of ease and rest:
In all times past, yea so long since,
as cannot be expresst.
2 Ere there was made mountaine or hill,
the earth and world abroad:
From age to age, and alwaies still,
for ever thou art God.

3 Thou grindest man through grief and paine to dust, or clay, and then,
And then thou saist againe, returne,
againe ye sonnes of men.
4 The lasting of a thousand yeares, what is it in thy sight?
As yesterday it doth appeare, or as a watch by night.

5 So soone as thou dost scatter them, then is their life and trade
All as a sleepe, and like the grasse, whose beauty soon doth fade.
6 Which in the morning shines full bright but fadeth by and by:
And is cut downe ere it be night,
all withered, dead and drie.

7 For through thine anger we consume,
our might is much decaid:
And of thy fervent wrath and fume
we are full sore afraid.
8 The wicked works that we have wrought thou setst before thine eyes:
Our privy sinles, yea eke our thoughts thy countenance doth spie.

9 For through thy wrath our daies do waste, thereof doth nought remaine:
Our yeares consume as words or braths,
and are not called againe.
10 Our time is threescore yeares and tenne, that we do live in molde.
If some see fourescore, surely then we count him wondrous old.

The second Part.

11 Yet of this time the strength and chiefe

the wished for come upon,
In nothing els but paineſull griefe,
and we as blaſts are gone.
11 Who once doth know what ſtrength is there while wrath thine anger hath?
Or in his heart who doth thee feare
according to thy wrath?

12 Inſtruct us Lord to know and tryl how long our dayes remaine:
That then we may our hearts apply,
true wiſdome to attaine.
14 Returne, O Lord, how long wilt thou forth on thy wrath proceed?
Shew favour to thy ſervants now,
and help them at their need.

15 Refreſh us with thy mercy ſoone, and then our joy ſhall be,
All times ſo long as life doth laſt,
in heart re joyce will we.
16 As thou haſt plagued us before,
now alſo make us glad:
And for the yeares wherein ſad ſore affliction we have had.

17 O let thy work and power appeare and on thy ſervants light:
And ſhew unto thy children deare, thy glory and thy might.
18 Lord let thy grace and glory hand on us thy ſervants thine:
Confirme the works we take in hand,
Lord proſper them to us.

The habitation. Pſal. XCj. I. &c.

Singe this as the 81. Pſalme.

HE that within the ſecret place of God moſt high doth dwell:
In ſhadow of the mightieſt grace,
at reſt ſhall keep him well.
2 Thou art my hope and my ſtrong hold,
I to the Lord will ſay:
My God is he, in him will I my whole affiance lay.

3 He ſhall defend thee from the ſnare
the which the hunter layes:
And from the ſtaſſly plague and care,
whereof thou art afraid.
4 And with his wings ſhall cover thee,
and keep thee ſafely there:
His faith and truth thy feoffe ſhall be,
as ſure as ſhield and ſpeare.

5 So that thou ſhalt not need to fly,
to feare to be affright,
Of all the ſhafts that flie by day,
nor terrours of the night.
6 Nor of ſuch plague that privily doth walk in dark ſo faſte:
Nor yet of that which doth deſtroy,
and at noone day doth waſte.
7 Yea at thy ſide ſo thou doſt ſtand,
a thouſand dead ſhall fall:
Ten thouſand die at thy right hand,
and yet ſhalt thou be free.
8 But thou ſhalt ſee it for thy part and eyes ſhall well behold

That even like to their deſert
the wicked have reward.

9 For why? O Lord, I only luſt, to ſtay my hope on thee:
And in the higheſt I put my truſt,
my ſure defence is he.
10 Thou ſhalt not need the ill to feare, with thee it ſhall be well:
Nor yet the plague ſhall once come neare
the houſe where thou doſt dwell.

11 For why? unto his Angels all,
with charge commanded he:
That ſtill in all thy waies they ſhall
preſerve and proſper thee.
12 And in their hands ſhall beare thee up, ſtill waiting thee upon:
So that thy foot ſhall never chance to ſpurne at any ſtone.

13 Upon the Lions thou ſhalt go,
the Adder fell and long:
And tread upon the Lions young,
with Dragons ſtout and ſtrong.
14 For he that treſteth unto me,
I will acquit him quite:
And him defend, becauſe that he doth know my Name aright.

15 When he for help on me doth cry,
an anſwer I will give:
And from his griefe take him will I in glory for to live.
16 With length of yeares and daies of weale
I will fulfill his time:
The goodneſſe of my ſaving health,
I will declare to him.

Bonum eſt. Pſal. XCij. I. &c.

Singe this as the 81. Pſalme.

IT is a thing both good and meet,
to praiſe the higheſt Lord:
And to thy Name, O thou moſt High,
to ſing with one accord.
2 To ſhew the kindneſſe of the Lord,
betime ere day be light:
And eke declare his truth at hand,
when it doth draw to night.

3 Upon ten ſtringed inſtruments, on Lute and Harp ſo ſweet:
With all the mirth you can invent,
of inſtruments moſt meet.
4 For thou haſt made me rejoyce, in things ſo wrought by thee:
And I have joy in heart and voice,
thy handy works to ſee.

5 O Lord how glorious and how great are all thy works of fame:
So deeply are thy counſels ſet, that none can them attame.
6 The man unwiſe that wots not this, theſe things ſo paſſe to bring:
And all ſuch fooles are nothing fit,
to underſtand this thing.

7 When ſo the wicked at their will as graſſe do ſpring full faſt:

They

They when they flouriſh in their ill, for ever ſhall be waſte.
9 But thou art mighty Lord moſt High, yea thou doſt raigne therefore,
In every time eternally,
both now and evermore.

9 For why? O Lord, behold and ſee, behold thy foes I ſay,
How all that work iniquity, ſhall periſh and decay.
10 But thou like as an Unicorn, ſhalt lift mine horne on hie:
With freſh and new prepared oyle, thine oynted King am I.

11 And of my foes before mine eyes ſhall ſee the fall and ſhame
Of all that up againſt me riſe, mine eares ſhall heare the ſame.
12 The juſt ſhall flouriſh up on high,
as Date-trees bud and blow:
And as the Cedars multiply,
in Libanus that grow.

13 For they are planted in the place,
and dwelling of our God:
Within his courts they ſpring apace,
and flouriſh all abroad.
14 And in their age much fruit ſhal being both fat and well beſeen:
And pleſantly both bud and ſpring, with boughs and branches green.

15 To ſhew that God is good and juſt, and upright in his will.
He is my rock, my hope, and truſt,
in him there is none ill.

Dominus regnavit. Pſal. XCiij. I. H.

Sing this as the 77. Pſalme.

THe Lord as King aloft doth raigne, with glory goodly dight:
And he to ſhew his ſtrength moſt maine, hath girt himſelfe with might.
2 The Lord likewiſe the earth hath made,
and ſhaped it ſo ſure,
No might can make it move or fade,
at ſtay it doth endure.

3 Ere that the world was made or wrought thy ſeat was ſet before:
Beyond all time that can be thought,
thou haſt been evermore.
4 The floods, O Lord, the floods do riſe, they roare and make a noiſe:
The floods (I ſay) did enterpriſe, and lifted up their voice.

5 Yea, though the ſtormes ariſe in fight though ſeas do rage and ſwell:
The Lord is ſtrong and more of might,
for he on high doth dwell.
6 And look what promiſe he doth make,
his houſhold to defend:
For juſt and true they ſhall it take,
all times without an end.

Deus ultionum. Pſal. XCiiij. I. H.

Sing this as the 68. Pſalme.

O Lord thou doſt revenge all wrong that office longs to thee:
Sith vengeance doth to thee belong, declare that all may ſee.
2 Set forth thy ſelfe, for thou of right
the earth doſt judge and guide:
Reward the proud and men of might
according to their pride.

3 How long ſhall wicked men beare ſway with lifting up their voice?
How long ſhall wicked men, I ſay, thus triumph and rejoyce?
4 How long ſhall they with brags burſt out, and proudly prate their fill?
Shall they rejoyce that be ſo ſtout,
whoſe works are ever ill?

5 Thy flock, O Lord, thine heritage, they ſpoile and vexe full ſore:
Againſt thy people they do rage
ſtill daily more and more.
6 The widowes which are comfortleſſe, and ſtrangers they deſtroy:
They ſlay the children fatherleſſe, and none doth put them by.

7 And when they take theſe things in hand
this talk they have of thee:
Can Jacobs God this underſtand?
tuſh, no, he cannot ſee.
8 O folk unwiſe, and people rude, ſome knowledge now diſcern:
Ye fooles among the multitude,
at length begin to learne.

9 The Lord which made the eare of man,
he needs of right muſt heare:
He made the eye, all things muſt then before his ſight appeare.
10 The Lord doth all the world correct, and make them underſtand:
Shall he not then your deeds detect?
how can you ſcape his hand?

The ſecond Part.

11 The Lord doth know the thoughts of man, his heart he ſees full plaine:
The Lord (I ſay) mans thoughts doth ſcan and findeth them but vaine.
12 But Lord, that man is happy ſure, whom thou doſt keep in awe:
And through correction doſt procure to teach him in thy Law.

13 Whereby he ſhall in quiet reſt in time of trouble ſit:
When wicked men ſhall be ſuppreſt, and fall into the pit.
14 For ſure, the Lord will not refuſe his people for to take:
His heritage whom he did chuſe,
he will no time forſake.

15 Until that judgement be decreed, to juſtice to convert:

Then all may follow fast with speed,
that are of upright heart.
26 But who upon my part shall stand, against the cursed traine?
Or who shall rid me from their hand
that wicked works maintaine?

27 Except the Lord had been mine aid, mine enemies to repell:
My soul and life had now been laid almost as low as hell.
28 When I did say, my foot did slide,
I now am like to fall:
Thy goodnesse Lord did so provide,
to stay me up withall.

29 When with my selfe I mused much,
and could no comfort finde:
Then Lord thy goodnesse did me touch,
and that did ease my minde.
30 Wilt thou inhabit thy self, and draw with wicked men to sit?
Which with pretence instead of law,
much mischiefe do commit.

31 For they consult against the life of righteous men and good:
And in their counsels they are rife,
to shed the guiltlesse blood.
32 But yet the Lord he is to me a strong defence or lock:
He is my God to whom I flee,
he is my strength and rock.

33 And he shall cause their mischiefs all themselves for to annoy:
And in their malice they shall fall,
our God shall them destroy.

Venite exultemus. Psal. XCv. I. H.

Sing this at the 69. Psalme.

O Come let us lift up our voice,
and sing unto the Lord:
In him our rock of health rejoyce,
let us with one accord.
2 Yea let us come before his face,
to give him thanks and praise:
In singing Psalmes unto his grace, let us be glad always.

3 For why? the Lord he is no doubt,
a great and mighty God:
A King above all gods throughout,
in all the world abroad.
4 The secrets of the earth so deep and corners of the lands:
The tops of hills that are so steep,
he hath them in his hands.

5 The sea and waters all are his,
for he the same hath wrought:
The earth and all the therein is,
his hand hath made of nought.
6 Come let us bow and praise the Lord,
before him let us fall:
And kneel to him with one accord,
the which hath made us all.

7 For why? he is the Lord our God, for us he doth provide:
We are his flock, he doth us feed,
his sheep, and he our guide.
8 To day if ye his voice will heare,
then harden not your heart:
As ye with grudging many a yeare provoked me in dezert.

9 Whereas your fathers tempted me,
my power for to prove:
My wondrous works when they did see,
yet still they would me move.
10 Twice twenty years they did me grieve and I to them did say,
They erre in heart, and not believe,
they have not known my way.

11 Wherfore I sware, when that my wrath was kindled in my breast:
That they should never tread the path to enter in my rest.

Cantate Domino. XCvi. I. H.

Sing this at the 77. Psalme.

SIng ye with praise unto the Lord,
new songs with joy and mirth:
Sing unto him with one accord,
all people on the earth.
2 Yea sing unto the Lord, I say, praise ye his holy Name:
Declare and shew from day to day salvation by the same.

3 Among the heathen eke declare his honour round about:
To shew his wonders do not spare,
in all the world throughout.
4 For why the Lord is much of might,
and worthy praise alway:
And he is to be dread of right, above all gods, I say.

5 For all the gods of heathen folk are idols that will fade:
But yet our God he is the Lord that hath the heavens made.
6 All praise and honour eke do dwell for aye before his face:
Both power and might likewise excell,
within his holy place.

7 Ascribe unto the Lord alway, ye people of the world:
All might and worship eke I say, ascribe unto the Lord.
8 Ascribe unto the Lord also,
the glory of his Name:
And eke unto his courts do go,
with gifts unto the same.

The second Part.

9 Fall down and worship ye the Lord,
within his Temple bright:
Let all the people of the world be fearefull at his sight.
10 Tell all the world, be not agast,
the Lord doth raigne above:
Yea he hath set the earth so fast,
that it can never move.

11 And

11 And that it is the Lord alone that rules with princely might:
To judge the nations every one
with equity and right.
12 The heavens ſhall great joy begin,
the earth eke ſhall rejoyce:
The ſea and all that is therein,
ſhall ſhout and make a noiſe.

13 The field ſhall joy, and every thing that ſpringeth on the earth:
The wood and every tree ſhall ſing with gladneſſe and with mirth.
14 Before the preſence of the Lord, and coming of his might:
When he ſhall juſtly judge the world,
and rule his folk with right.

Cantate Domino. Pſal. XCvij. I.H.

Sing this as the 77. Pſalme.

THe Lord doth raign, whereat ſ earth may joy with pleaſant voice:
And eke the Iſles with joyfull mirth may triumph and rejoyce.
2 Both clouds and darkneſſe eke do ſwell and round about him beat:
Yea right and juſtice ever dwell,
and bide about his ſeat.

3 Yea fire and heat at once do run,
and go before his face:
Which ſhall his foes and enemies burn abroad in every place.
4 His lightnings eke full bright did blaze and to the world appeare:
Whereat the earth did look and gaze,
with dread and deadly feare.

5 The hils like waxe did melt in ſight and preſence of the Lord:
Thoſe fled before that Rulers might,
whioh guideth all the world.
6 The heavens eke declare and ſhow his juſtice all abroad:
That all the world may ſee and know
the glory of our God.

7 Confuſion ſure will come to ſuch
as worſhip idols vaine:
And eke to thoſe that glory much,
dumbe pictures to maintaine.
8 For all the idols of the world which they as gods do call:
Shall feel the power of the Lord,
and down to him ſhall fall.

9 With joy ſhall Sion heare this thing, and Juda ſhall rejoyce
For at thy judgements they ſhall ſing, and make a pleaſant noiſe.
10 That thou O Lord art ſet on high,
in all the earth abroad:
And art exalted wondrouſly above each other god.

11 All ye that feare the Lord do this, hate all things that are ill:
For he doth ſave the ſoules of his from ſuch as would them ſpill.
12 And light doth ſpring up to the juſt, with pleaſure for his part:
Great joy with gladneſſe, mirth, and luſt,
to them of upright heart.

13 Ye righteous in the Lord rejoyce;
his holineſſe proclaime:
Be thankfull eke with heart and voice,
and mindfull of the ſame.

Cantate Domino. Pſal. XCviij. I.H.

Sing this as the 77. Pſalme.

O Sing ye now unto the Lord,
a new and pleaſant ſong:
For he hath wrought throughout the world his wonders great and ſtrong.
2 With his right hand full worthily
he doth his foes devoure:
And get himſelfe the victory,
with his own arm and power.

3 The Lord doth make his people know his ſaving health and might:
The Lord doth eke his juſtice ſhow,
in all the heathens ſight.
4 His grace and truth to Iſrael,
in minde he doth record:
That all the earth hath ſeen right well
the goodneſſe of the Lord.

5 Be glad in him with joyfull voice,
all people of the earth:
Give thanks to God, ſing and rejoyce, to him with joy and mirth.
6 Upon the harp unto him ſing, give thanks to him with Pſalmes:
Rejoyce before the Lord our King, with Trumpets and with Shalmes.

7 Yea let the ſea with all therein for joy both roare and ſwell:
The earth likewiſe let it begin,
with all that therein dwell.
8 And let the flouds rejoyce their fils, and clap their hands apace:
And eke the mountaines and the hils before the Lord his face.

9 For he ſhall come to judge and trie
the world and every wight:
And rule the people mightily with juſtice and with right.

Dominus regnavit. Pſal. XCix. I.H.

Sing this as the 77. Pſalme.

THe Lord doth raigne, although at it
the people rage full ſore:
Yea he on Cherubims doth ſit, though all the world do roare.
2 The Lord that doth in Sion dwell, is high and wondrous great:
Above all folk he doth excell,
and he aloft is ſet.

3 Let all men praiſe thy mighty Name, for it is fearefull ſure:
And let them magnifie the ſame,
that holy is and pure.
4 The princely power of our King doth love judgement and right:
Thou rightly rulеſt every thing in Jacob through thy might.

5 To praiſe the Lord our God deuiſe,
all honour to him do:
Before his footſtoole worſhip him,
for he is holy too.
6 Moſes, Aaron and Samuel,
as Prieſts on him did call:
When they did pray he heard them well and gave them anſwer all.

7 Within a cloud to them he ſpake, then did they labour ſtill,
To keep ſuch lawes as he did make,
and pointed them vntill.
8 O Lord our God thou didſt them heare, and anſweredſt them againe:
Thy mercy did on them appeare, their deeds didſt not maintaine.

9 O laud and praiſe our God and Lord within his holy hill:
For why, our God throughout the world is holy ever ſtill.

Iubilate Deo. Pſal. C. I. H.

All people that on earth do dwell,
ſing to the Lord with chearfull voice,
Him ſerve with feare, his praiſe forth tell:
come ye before him and rejoyce.

2 The Lord ye know is God indeed, without our aid he did us make:
We are his flock, he doth us feed,
and for his ſheep he doth us take.

3 O enter then his gates with praiſe, approach with joy his courts vnto:
Praiſe, laud, and bleſſe his Name alwaies for it is freendly ſo to do.

4 For why the Lord our God is good,
his mercy is for ever ſure:
His truth at all times firmely ſtood, and ſtill from age to age endure.

Another of the ſame by I. H.

Sing this as the 27. Pſalme.

IN God the Lord be glad and light, praiſe him throughout the earth:
Serve him and come before his ſight,
with ſinging and with mirth.
2 Know that the Lord our God he is,
he did us make and breed:
Not we our ſelves: for we are his own flock and paſture ſheep.

3 O go into his gates alwaies, give thanks within the ſame Within his courts ſet forth his praiſe, and laud his holy Name.
4 For why, the goodneſſe of the Lord,
for evermore doth raigne:
From age to age throughout the world,
his truth doth ſtill remaine.

Miſericordiam. Pſal. Cj. N.

Sing this as the 81. Pſalme.

I Mercy will and judgement ſing,
O Lord God vnto thee:
2 And wiſely go in perfect way, untill thou come to me.
And in the midſt of my houſe walk,
in pureneſſe of my ſprite:
3 And I no kinde of wicked thing, will ſet before my ſight.

4 I hate their works that fall away,
it ſhall not cleave to me:
From me ſhall part the froward heart,
none evill will I ſee.
5 Him will I ſtroy that ſlandereth his neighbour privily:
The lofty heart I cannot beare,
nor him that looketh hie.

6 Mine eyes ſhall be on them within the land that faithfull be:
In perfect way who walketh ſhall be ſervant unto me.
7 I will no guilefull perſon have,
within my houſe to dwell:
And in my preſence he ſhall not remaine that lies doth tell.

8 Betimes I will deſtroy even all the wicked of the land:
That I may from Gods City cut,
the wicked workers hand.

Domine exaudi. Pſal. Cij. N.

Sing this as the 81. Pſalme.

OHeare my prayer Lord and let my cry come unto thee.
2 In time of trouble do not hide,
thy face away from me.
3 Incline thine eare to me, make haſte to heare me when I call:
For as the ſmoke doth fade, ſo do,
my daies conſume and fall.

4 And as an hearth my bones are burne,
my heart is ſmitten dead:
And withers like the graſſe, that I forget to eat my bread.
5 By reaſon of my groaning voice,
my bones cleave to my skin:
6 As Pelican in wilderneſſe, ſuch caſe now am I in.

7 And as an Owle in deſert is,
lo I am ſuch an one:
I watch and as a Sparrow on the houſe top am alone.
8 Lo daily in reproach full wiſe, mine enemies do me ſcorne:
And they that do againſt me rage,
againſt me they have ſworne.

9 Surely with aſhes as with bread,
my hunger I have ſtaid.

And

And mingled have my drink with teares, that from mine eyes have ſtild.
10 Becauſe of thy diſpleaſure, Lord, thy wrath and thy diſdaine:
For thou haſt lifted me aloft,
and caſt me down againe.

11 The daies wherein I paſſe my life, are like the fleeting ſhade:
And I am wither'd like the graſſe, which ſoone away doth fade.
12 But thou O Lord for ever doſt remaine in ſteady place:
And thy remembrance ever doth abide from race to race.

The ſecond Part.

13 Thou wilt ariſe, and mercy thou to Sion wilt extend:
The time of mercy, now the time
foreſet is come to end.
14 For even in the ſtones thereof thy ſervants do delight:
And on the duſt thereof they have compaſsion in their ſprite.

15 Then ſhall the heathen people feare
the Lords moſt holy Name:
And all the Kings on earth ſhall dread thy glory and thy fame.
16 Then when the Lord the mighty God
againe ſhall Sion reare:
And then when he moſt nobly in his glory ſhall appeare.

17 To prayer of the deſolate, when he himſelfe doth bend:
When he ſhall not diſdaine unto their prayers to attend.
18 This ſhall be written for the age
that after ſhall ſucceed:
The people yet uncreated
the Lords renown ſhall ſpread.

19 For he from his high Sanctuary hath looked downe below:
And out of heaven hath the Lord beheld the earth alſo.
20 That of the mourning captive he might heare the wofull cry:
And that he might deliver thoſe that damned are to die.

21 That they in Sion may declare
the Lords moſt holy Name:
And in Jeruſalem ſet forth
the praiſes of the ſame.
22 Then when the people of the lands,
and kingdomes with accord, Shall be aſſembled for to do their ſervice to the Lord.

The third Part.

23 My former force of ſtrength he hath abated in the way:
And ſhorter he hath cut my daies,
thus I therefore did ſay:
24 My God, in midſt of all my daies,
now take me not away:
Thy yeares endure eternally from age to age, I ſay.

25 Thou the foundations of the earth before all times haſt laid:
And Lord the heavens are the work which thine own hands have made.
26 Yea they ſhall periſh and decay,
but thou ſhalt tarry ſtill:
And they ſhall all in time wax old,
even as a garment will.

27 Thou as a garment ſhalt them change,
and changed they ſhall bee:
But thou doſt ſtill abide the ſame,
thy yeares do never flee.
28 The children of thy ſervants ſhall continually endure:
And in thy ſight their happy ſeed for ever ſhall ſtand ſure.

Benedic anima. Pſal. Ciij. T.S.

3 That gave thee pardon for thy faults,
and thee reſtor'd againe:
For all thy weak and fraile diſeaſe,
and heal'd thee of thy paine.
4 That did redeeme thy life from death from which thou couldſt not flee:
His mercy and compaſsion both he did extend to thee.

5 That fil'd with goodneſſe thy deſire, and did prolong thy youth:
Like as the Eagle caſts her bill, whereby her age renew'th.
6 The Lord with juſtice doth repay
all ſuch as be oppreſt:
So that their ſufferings and their wrongs are turned to the beſt.

7 His waies and his commandements to Moſes he did ſhow:
His counſels and his valiant acts
the Iſraelites did know.
8 The Lord is kinde and mercifull,

when ſinners do him grieve:
The ſloweſt to conceive a wrath,
and readieſt to forgive.

9 He chides us not continually, though we be full of ſtrife:
Nor keeps our faults in memory,
for all our ſinfull life.
10 Nor yet according to our ſins
the Lord doth us regard:
Nor after our iniquities
he doth not us reward.

11 But as the ſpace is wondrous great,
'twixt earth and heaven above:
So is his goodneſſe much more large to them that do him love.
12 God doth remove our ſins from us,
and our offences all:
As farre as is the Sun-riſing full diſtant from his fall.

The ſecond Part.

13 And look what pitie parents deare unto their children beare:
Like pitie beareth God to ſuch
as worſhip him in feare.
14 The Lord that made us knows our ſhape,
our mold and faſhion juſt:
How weake and fraile our nature is,
and how we are but duſt.

15 And how the time of mortall men is like the withering hay:
Or like the flower right faire in field,
that fades full ſoon away.
16 Whoſe gloſſe & beauty ſtormy windes do utterly diſgrace:
And make that after their aſſaults
ſuch bloſſomes have no place.

17 But yet the goodneſſe of the Lord with his ſhall ever ſtand:
Their childrens children ſhall receive his righteouſneſſe at hand.
18 I meane which keep his covenant with all their whole deſire:
And not forget to do the thing that he doth them require.

19 The heavens high are made the ſeat and foot-ſtoole of the Lord:
And by his power imperiall
he governs all the world.
20 Ye Angels which are great in power, praiſe ye and bleſſe the Lord:
Which to obey and do his will, immediately accord.

21 Ye noble hoſts and miniſters, ceaſe not to laud him ſtill:
Which ready are to execute his pleaſure and his will.
22 Yea all his works in every place
praiſe ye his holy Name:
My heart, my minde and eke my ſoule
praiſe ye alſo the ſame.

Benedic anima. Pſal. Ciij. W. K.

Y ſoule praiſe the Lord, ſpeak good of his Name: O Lord our great God, how doſt thou appeare? So paſſing in glorie, that great is thy fame. Honour and maieſtie in thee ſhine moſt cleare.

2 With light as a robe thou haſt thee beclad: Whereby all the earth
thy greatneſſe may ſee.
The heaven in ſuch ſort thou alſo haſt ſpread,
That it to a curtaine compared may be.

3 His chamber-beames lie in the clouds full ſure:
Which as his chariot are made him to beare.
And there with much ſwiftneſſe,
his courſe doth endure,
Upon the wings riding of windes in the aire.

4 He maketh his ſpirits
as Heralds to go:
And lightnings to ſerve,
we ſee alſo preſt:
His will to accompliſh,
they run to and fro,
To ſave or conſume things,
as ſeemeth him beſt.

5 He groundeth the earth
ſo firmly and faſt,
That it once to move
none ſhall have ſuch powes.
6 The deep a faire covering for it made thou haſt:
Which by his own nature
the hils would devoure.

7 But at thy rebuke
the waters do flie:
And ſo give due place thy word to obey.
At thy voice of thunder ſo fearfull they be:
That in their great raging they haſte ſoon away.

8 The mountaines full high they then up aſcend:
If thou doſt but ſpeak,
thy word they fulfill:
So likewiſe the vallies
moſt quickly deſcend,

Where thou them appointeſt, remaine they do ſtill.

9 Their bounds thou haſt ſet, how farre they ſhall run:
So that in their rage not that paſſe they can:
For God hath appointed they ſhall not return,
The earth to deſtroy more,
which made was for man.

The ſecond Part.

10 He ſendeth the ſprings to ſtrong ſtreames or lakes, Which run do full ſwift
among the huge hils.
11 Where both the wilde aſſes their thirſt oft times ſlakes, And beaſts of the mountaines thereof drink their fils.

12 By theſe pleaſant ſprings of fountaines full faire
The fowles of the ayre abide ſhall and dwell:
Who moved by nature to hop here and there Among the green branches their ſongs ſhall excell.

13 The mountaines to moiſt,
the clouds he doth uſe:
The earth with his works is wholly repleat.
14 So as the brute cattell he doth not refuſe:
But graſſe doth provide them,
and herb for mans meat.

15 Yea bread, wine and oyle
he made for mans ſake:
His face to refreſh,
and heart to make ſtrong.
16 The Cedars of Liban
this great Lord did make:
Which trees he doth nouriſh, that grow up ſo long.

17 In theſe may birds build, and make there their neſts:
In firre-trees the Storks remaine and abide.
18 The high hils are ſuccour for wilde goats to reſt:
And eke the rocks ſtony for Conies to hide.

19 The Moon then is ſet her ſeaſon to run:
The daies from the nights thereby to diſcern:
And by the deſcending alſo of the Sun,
The cold from heat alway thereby we do learn.

20 When darkneſſe doth come by Gods will and power,
Then creep forth do all the beaſts of the wood.

21 The Lions range roaring, their prey to devoure:
But yet it is thou Lord which giveſt them food.

22 As ſoon as the Sun is up, they retire:
To couch in their dens
then are they full faine:
23 That man to his work may as right doth require:
Till night come and call him,
to take reſt againe.

The third Part.

24 How ſundry O Lord, are all thy workes found?
With wiſdome full great they are indeed wrought:
So that the whole world of thy praiſe doth ſound:
And as for thy riches,
they paſſe all mens thought.

25 So is the great ſea, which large is and broad:
Where things that creep ſwarm,
and beaſts of each ſort.
26 There both mighty ſhips ſaile, and ſome lie at road:
The Whale huge and monſtrous there alſo doth ſport.

27 All things on thee wait, thou doſt them relieve:
And thou in due time
full well doſt them feed.
28 Now when it doth pleaſe thee
the ſame for to give;
They gather full gladly thoſe things which they need.

Thou openeſt thy hand,
and they finde ſuch grace,
That they with good things are filled we ſee.
29 But ſore are they troubled,
if thou turn thy face,
For if thou their breath take,
vile duſt then they be.

30 Againe when thy Spirit from thee doth proceed
All things to appoint, and what ſhall enſue:
Then are they created,
as thou haſt decreed:
And doſt by thy goodneſſe
the dry earth renew.

31 The praiſe of the Lord for ever ſhall laſt:
Who may in his works
by right well rejoyce.
32 His looks can the earth make to tremble full faſt:
And likewiſe the mountaines to ſmoke at his voice.

33 To this Lord and God,
ſing will I alwaies:

So long as I live,
my God praiſe will I:
34 Then am I moſt certaine
my words ſhall him pleaſe:
I will rejoyce in him,
to him will I cry.

35 The ſinners, O Lord, conſume in thine ire:
And eke the perverſe,
them root out with ſhame:
But as for my ſoule now,
let it ſtill deſire,
And ſay with the faithfull, praiſe ye the Lords Name.

Confitemini Dom. Pſal. Cv. N.

Sing this as the 103. Pſalme.

GIve praiſes unto God the Lord,
and call upon his Name:
Among the people eke declare his works to ſpread his fame.
2 Sing ye unto the Lord I ſay,
and ſing unto his praiſe:
And talk of all his wondrous works that he hath wrought alwaies.

3 In honour of his holy Name
rejoyce with one accord:
And let the heart alſo rejoyce of them that ſeek the Lord.
4 Seek ye the Lord, and ſeek the ſtrength of his eternall might:
And ſeek his face continually,
and preſence of his light.

5 The wondrous works that he hath done keep ſtill in mindfull heart:
No let the judgements of his mouth out of your minde depart.
6 Ye that of faithfull Abraham his ſervant are the ſeed:
Ye his elect the children that of Jacob do proceed.

7 For he, he onely is I ſay,
the mighty Lord our God:
And his moſt rightfull judgements are through all the world abroad.
8 His promiſe and his covenant which he hath made to his,
He hath remembred evermore, to thouſands of degrees.

The ſecond Part.

9 The covenant which he hath made with Abraham long ago:
And faithfull oath which he hath ſworne to Iſaac alſo.
10 And did confirme the ſame for law,
that Jacob ſhould obey:
And for eternall covenant to Iſrael for aye.

11 When thus he ſaid, Lo I to you all Canaan land will give:
The lot of your inheritance, wherein your ſeed ſhall live.
12 Although the number at that time did very ſmall appeare:
Yea very ſmall, and in the land they then but ſtrangers were.

13 While yet they walk'd from land to land without a ſure abode:
And while from ſundry kingdomes they did wander all abroad.
14 And wrong at no oppreſſors hand
he ſuffered them to take:
But even the great and mighty Kings reproved for their ſake.

15 And thus he ſaid, Touch ye not thoſe that mine anointed be:
Ne do the Prophets any harm that do pertain to me.
16 He cal'd a dearth upon the land, of bread he ſtroid the ſtore:
But he againſt the time of need had ſent a man before:

The third Part.

17 Even Joſeph which had once been ſold to live a ſlave in woe:
Whoſe feet they hurt in ſtocks, whoſe ſoul
the irons pierc'd alſo.
18 Untill the time came when his cauſe was known apparently:
The mighty word of God the Lord his faultleſſe truth did trie.

19 The King ſent and delivered him from priſon where he was:
20 The ruler of the people then did freely let him paſſe.
21 And over all his houſe he made him Lord to beare the ſway:
And of his ſubſtance made him have the rule and all the ſtay:

22 That he might to his will inſtruct
the Princes of the land:
And wiſdomes loſe his ancient men might cauſe to underſtand.
23 Then into the Egyptian land came Iſrael alſo:
And Jacob in the land of Ham
did live a ſtranger tho.

24 His people he exceedingly in number made to flow,
And over all their enemies in ſtrength he made them grow.
25 Whoſe heart he turn'd, that they with hate his people did intreat:
And did his ſervants wrongfully abuſe with falſe deceit.

The fourth Part.

26 His faithfull ſervant Moſes then,
and Aaron whom he choſe,
He did command to go to them,
his meſſage to diſcloſe.
27 The wondrous meſſage of his ſignes
among them he did ſhow:
And wonders in the land of Ham then did they work alſo.

28 Darkneſſe he ſent, and made it dark in ſtead of brighter day:
And unto his commiſsion,
they did not diſobey.

29 He turn'd their waters into blood,
he did their fiſhes ſlay:
30 Their land brought frogs even in the place where their King Pharaoh lay.

31 He ſpake, and at his voice there came great ſwarms of noiſome flies,
And all the quarters of the land were fil'd with crawling lice.
32 He gave them cold and ſtony haile
in ſtead of milder raine:
And fiery flames within their land
he ſent unto their paine.

33 He ſmote their vines and all their trees whereon their figs did grow:
And all their trees within their coaſts downe did he overthrow.
34 He ſpake, then Caterpillars did and Graſhoppers abound:
35 Which ate the graſſe in all their land and fruit of all their ground.

The fift Part.

36 The firſt-begotten in their land
eke deadly he did ſmite:
Yea the beginning and firſt fruit of all their force and might:
37 With gold and ſilver he them brought from Egypt land to paſſe:
And in the number of their Tribes
no feeble one there was.

38 Egypt was glad and joyfull then when they did thence depart:
For terrour and the feare of them was faln upon their heart.
39 To ſhroud them from the parching heat
a cloud he did diſplay:
And fire he ſent to give them light,
when night had hid the day.

40 They asked, and he cauſed Quailes to raine at their requeſt:
And fully with the bread of heaven their hunger he repreſt.
41 He opened the ſtony rock,
and waters guſhed out:
And in the dry and parched ground like rivers run about.

42 For of his holy covenant
aye mindfull was he tho:
Which to his ſervant Abraham
he plighted long ago.
43 He brought his people forth with mirth,
and his elect with joy,
Out of the cruell land, where they had liv'd in great anoy.

44 And of the heathen men he gave to them the fruitfull lands:
The labours of the people eke
they took into their hands.
45 That they his holy ſtatutes might obſerve for evermore:
And faithfully obey his lawes:
praiſe ye the Lord therefore.

Confitemini Dom. Pſal. Cvj. W. K.

Sing this in the 103. Pſalme.

PRaiſe ye the Lord, for he is good,
his mercy dures for aye:
2 Who can expreſſe his noble acts, or all his praiſe diſplay?
3 They bleſſed are that judgement keep,
and juſtly do alway:
With favour of thy people (Lord) remember me I pray.

4 And with thy ſaving health (O Lord)
vouchſafe to viſit me:
That I the great felicity of thine elect may ſee.
5 And with thy peoples joy I may a joyfull minde poſſeſſe:
And may with thine inheritance
a glorying heart expreſſe.

6 Both we and eke our fathers all,
have ſinned every one:
We have committed wickedneſſe,
and lewdly we have done.
7 The wonders great which thou (O Lord)
haſt done in Egypt land:
Our fathers though they ſaw them all,
yet did not underſtand.

Nor yet thy mercies multitude did keep in thankfull minde:
But at the ſea, yea the red ſea, rebelled moſt unkinde.
8 Nevertheleſſe he ſaved them for honour of his Name:
That he might make his power knowne and ſpread abroad his fame.

9 The red ſea he did then rebuke, and forthwith it was dry'd:
And as in wilderneſſe, ſo through the deep he did them guide.
10 He ſav'd them from the cruell hand of their deſpitefull foe:
And from the enemies hand he did deliver them alſo.

The ſecond Part.

11 The waters their oppreſſours whelm'd, not one was left alive:
12 Then they believ'd his word, & praiſe in ſong they did him give.
13 But by and by unthankfully his works they clean forgat:
And for his counſell and his will they did neglect to wait.

14 But luſted in the wilderneſſe, with fond and greedy luſt:
And in the deſert tempted God,
the ſtay of all their truſt.
15 And then their wanton mindes deſire, he ſuffer'd them to have:
But waſting leanneſſe therewithall unto their ſoules he gave.

16 Then when they lodged in their tents,
at Moſes they did grutch:
Aaron the holy of the Lord
ſo did they envy much.
17 Therefore the earth did open wide,
and Dathan did devoure:

And all Abirams company
did cover in that houre.

18 In their aſſembly kindled was,
the hot conſuming fire:
And waſting flame did then burn up the wicked in his ire.
19 Upon the hill of Horeb they an idol calfe did frame:
And there the molten image they did worſhip of the ſame.

20 Into the likeneſſe of a Calfe which feedeth on the graſſe, Thus they their glory turn'd, and all their honour did deface.
21 And God their onely Saviour unkindly they forgot:
Which many great and mighty things in Egypt land had wrought.

The third Part.

22 And in the land of Ham for them
moſt wondrous works had done:
And by the red ſea dreadfull things performed long agone.
23 Therefore for their ſo ſhewing them
forgetfull and unkinde:
To bring deſtruction on them all he purpos'd in his minde:

Had not his choſen Moſes ſtood before him in the break
To turn his wrath, leſt he on them with ſlaughter ſhould him wreak.
24 They did deſpiſe the pleaſant land, that he behight to give:
Yea and the words that he had ſpoke
they did no whit believe.

25 But in their tents with grudging heart
they wickedly repin'd:
Nor to the voice of God the Lord
they gave an hearkning minde.
26 Therefore againſt them lifted he his ſtrong revenging hand:
Them to deſtroy in wilderneſſe,
ere they ſhould ſee the land.

27 And to deſtroy their ſeed among the nations with his rod:
And through the countries of the world to ſcatter them abroad.
28 To Baal-Peor then they did adjoyne themſelves alſo:
And ate the offerings of the dead,
ſo they forſook him tho.

29 Thus with their own inventions his wrath they did provoke:
And in his ſore inkindled wrath
the plague upon them broke.
30 But Phineas ſtood up with zeal,
the ſinners vile to ſlay:
And judgement he did execute,
and then the plague did ſtay.

The fourth Part.

31 It was imputed unto him for righteouſneſſe that day:
And from thenceforth ſo counted is,
from race to race, I ſay.
32 At waters eke of Meribah they did him angry make:
Yea, ſo far forth, that Moſes was then puniſh'd for their ſake.

33 Becauſe they vex'd his ſpirit ſo ſore, that in impatient heat
His lips ſpake unadviſedly, his fervour was ſo great.
34 Nor as the Lord commanded them
they ſlew the people tho:
35 But were among the heathen mix'd, and learn'd their works alſo.

36 And did their idols ſerve, which were their ruine and decay:
37 To fiends their ſons and daughters they did offer up and ſlay:
38 Yea with unkindly murdering knife
the guiltleſſe blood they ſpilt:
Yea their own ſons and daughters bloud, without all cauſe of guilt.

Whom they to Canaan idols then offred with wicked hand:
And ſo with bloud of innocents defiled was the land.
39 Thus were they ſtained with the works of their own filthy way:
And with their own inventions
a whoring they did ſtray.

40 Therefore againſt his people was the Lords wrath kindled ſore:
And even his own inheritance
he did abhorre therefore.
41 Into the hands of heathen men
he gave them for a prey:
And made their foes their Lords, whom they were forced to obey.

The fift Part

42 Yea and their hatefull enemies
oppreſt them in the land:
And they were humbly made to ſtoope,
as ſubject to their hand.
43 Full oftentimes from thrall had he delivered them before:
But with their counſels they to wrath provok'd him evermore.

Therefore they by their wickedneſſe were brought full low to lie: 44 Yet when he ſaw them in diſtreſſe,
he hearkned to their cry.
45 He cal'd to minde his covenant, which he to them had ſwore:
And by his mercies multitude repented him therefore.

46 And favour he them made to finde, before the ſight of thoſe
That led them captive from their land, when erſt they were their foes.
47 Save us O Lord that art our God, ſave us (O Lord) we pray:
And from among the heathen folk Lord gather us away.

48 That

48 That we may ſpread the noble praiſe of thy moſt holy Name:
That we may glory in thy praiſe,
and ſounding of thy fame.
49 The Lord the God of Iſrael
be bleſt for evermore:
Let all the people ſay, Amen,
praiſe ye the Lord therefore.

Confitemini Dom. Pſal. Cvij. W. K.

Sing this as the 77. Pſalme.

GIve thanks unto the Lord our God,
for gracious is he:
And that his mercy hath no end,
all mortall men may ſee.
2 Such as the Lord redeemed hath with thanks ſhall praiſe his Name:
And ſhew how they from foes were freed and how he wrought the ſame.

3 He gathered them forth of the lands that lay ſo farre about:
From Eaſt to Weſt, from North to South his hand did finde them out.
4 They wandred in the wildernesſe, and ſtrayed from the way:
And found no city where to dwell,
that ſerve might for their ſtay.

5 Whoſe thirſt and hunger was ſo great in theſe deſerts ſo void:
That faintneſſe did them ſore aſſault, and eke their ſoules anoid.
6 Then did they cry in their diſtreſſe
unto the Lord for aid:
Who did remove their troublous ſtate
according as they praid.

7 And by that way which was moſt right
he led them like a guide:
That they might to a City go,
and there alſo abide.
8 Let men therefore before the Lord
confeſſe his kindneſſe then:
And ſhew the wonders that he doth
before the ſonnes of men.

9 For he the empty ſoul ſuſtain'd whom thirſt had made to faint:
The hungry ſoul with goodneſſe fed,
and did them eke acquaint.
10 Such as do dwell in darkneſſe deep,
where they on death do wait, Faſt bound to taſte ſuch troublous ſtorms as from chaines do threat.

The ſecond Part.

11 For that againſt the Lords own words
they ſought ſo to rebell:
Eſteeming light his counſels high,
which do ſo farre excell.
12 But when he humbled them full low,
they then fell down with grief:
And none was found ſo much to help, whereby to get relief.

13 Then did they cry in their diſtreſſe
unto the Lord for aid:
Who did remove their troublous ſtate
according as they praid

14 For he from darknes out them brought and from death dreadfull ſhade:
Burſting with force the iron bands which them before did bade:

15 Let men therefore before the Lord
confeſſe his kindneſſe then:
And ſhew the wonders that he doth,
before the ſonnes of men.
16 For he threw down the gates of braſſe and brake them with ſtrong hand:
The iron barres he ſmote in two,
nothing could him withſtand.

17 The fooliſh folk great plagues do feele and cannot from them wend:
But heap on more to thoſe they have,
becauſe they do offend.
18 Their ſouls ſo much did loath all meat that none they could abide:
Whereby death had them almoſt caught,
as they full truly trid.

19 Then did they cry in their diſtreſſe
unto the Lord for aid:
Who did remove their troublous ſtate,
according as they praid.
20 For then he ſent to them his word, which health did ſoon reſtore:
And brought them from thoſe dangers deep wherein they were before.

The third Part.

21 Let men therefore before the Lord
confeſſe his kindneſſe then:
And ſhew the wonders that he doth
before the ſonnes of men.
22 And let them offer ſacrifice with thanks, and alſo feaſts:
And ſpeake of all his wondrous works with glad and joyfull cheare.

23 Such as in ſhips and barkes bold into the ſeas deſcend:
Their merchandiſe through fearfull floods to compaſſe and to end.
24 Thoſe men are forced to behold the Lords works what they be:
And in the dangerous deep the ſame
moſt marvellous they ſee.

25 For at his word the ſtormy winde ariſeth in a rage:
And ſtirreth up the ſurges ſo that nought can them aſſwage.
26 Then are they lifted up ſo high the clouds they ſeem to gaine:
And plunging down the depth untill their ſoules conſume with paine.

27 And like a drunkard to and fro
now here, now there they reele:
As men with feare of wit bereft,
or had of ſenſe no feele.
28 Then did they cry in their diſtreſſe
unto the Lord for aid:
Who did remove their troublous ſtate
according as they praid.

29 For with his word the Lord doth make the ſturdy ſtormes to ceaſe:
So that the great waves from their rage,
are brought to reſt and peace.

30 Then

30 Then are men glad when reſt is come, which they ſo much did crave:
And are by him in haven brought,
which they ſo fayne would have.

The fourth Part.

31 Let men therefore before the Lord
confeſſe his kindneſſe then:
And ſhew the wonders that he doth
before the ſonnes of men.
32 Let them in preſence of the folk with praiſe extoll his Name:
And where the Elders do convent,
there let them do the ſame.

33 For running ſtonds to drie deſerts he doth oft change and turn:
And drieth up as it were duſt
the ſpringing well and bourn.
34 A fruitfull land with pleaſures deck'd full barren doth he make,
When on their ſinnes that dwell therein
he doth juſt vengeance take.

35 Againe the wilderneſſe full rude
he maketh fruit to beare:
With pleaſant ſprings of waters cleare, though none before were there.
36 Wherein ſuch hungry ſoules are ſet,
as he doth freely chuſe:
That they a City might them build,
to dwell in for their uſe.

37 That they may ſowe their pleaſant land and vineyards alſo plant,
To yeeld them fruit of ſuch increaſe,
as none may ſeeme to want.
38 They multiply exceedingly, the Lord doth bleſſe them ſo:
Who doth alſo the brute beaſts make by numbers great to grow.

39 But when the faithfull are low brought by the oppreſſors ſtout:
And minish do through many plagues that compaſſe them about.
40 Then doth he Princes bring to ſhame, which did them ſore oppreſſe:
And likewiſe cauſe them to erre
within the wildernеſſe.

41 But yet the poore he riſeth up out of their troubles deep:
And oft times doth their traine augment much like a flock of ſheep.
42 The righteous ſhall behold this ſight,
and alſo much rejoyce:
Whereas the wicked and perverſe with griefe ſhall ſtop their voice.

43 But who is wiſe, that now will well he may theſe things record?
For certainly ſuch ſhall perceive the kindneſſe of the Lord.

Paratum cor. Pſal. Cviij. I.H.

Sing this as the 88. Pſalme.

O God my heart prepared is,
and eke my tongue is ſo:
I will advance my voice in ſong,
and giving thanks alſo.

2 Awake my viol and my harp, ſweet melody to make:
And in the morning I my ſelfe right early will awake.

3 By me among the people Lord, ſtill praiſed ſhalt thou be:
And I among the heathen folk will ſing O Lord to thee.
4 Becauſe thy mercy Lord is great,
above the heavens hie:
And eke thy truth doth reach the clouds within the lofty ſkie.

5 Above the ſtarrie heavens high exalt thy ſelfe O God:
And Lord diſplay upon the earth thy glory all abroad.
6 That thy dearely beloved may be ſet at liberty:
Help O my God with thy right hand,
and hearken unto me.

7 God in his holineſſe hath ſpoke, whereof my joyes abound:
Sichem I will divide, and mete
the vale of Succoth ground.
8 And Gilead ſhall be mine own, Manaſſes mine ſhall be:
My head-ſtrength Ephraim, and law
ſhall Juda give for me.

9 Moab my waſh-pot, and my ſhoe on Edom will I throw:
Upon the land of Paleſtine in triumph will I go.
10 Who ſhall into the City ſtrong be guide to conduct me?
Or how by whom to Edom land conveyed ſhall I be?

11 Is it not thou O Lord which late hadſt us forſaken quite?
And thou O Lord which with our hoſts didſt not go forth to fight?
12 Give us O Lord thy living aid,
when troubles do aſſaile:
For all the help of man is vaine,
and can no whit availe.

13 Through God we ſhall do valiant acts, and worthy of renown:
He ſhall ſubdue our enemies,
yea he ſhall tread them down.

Deus laudem tuam. Pſal. Cix. N.

Sing this as the 95. Pſalme.

IN ſpeechleſſe ſilence do not hold
O God thy tongue alwaies:
O God even thou I ſay that art
the God of all my praiſe.
2 The wicked and the guileſull mouth on me diſcloſed be:
And they with falſe and lying tongues have ſpoken unto me.

3 They did beſet me round about with words of hatefull ſpight:
Without all cauſe of my deſert againſt me they did fight.

4 For my good will they were my foes,
but then gan I to prays:
5 My good with ill, my friendlineſſe with hate they did repay.

6 Set thou the wicked over him,
to have the upper hand:
At his right hand eke ſuffer thou his hatefull foe to ſtand.
7 When he is judged, let him then condemned be thereint
And let the prayer that he makes,
be turned into ſin.

8 Few be his daies, his charge alſo let thou another take:
9 His children fet be fatherleſſe, his wife a widow make, 10 Let his off-ſpring be vagabonds,
to beg and ſeek their bread:
Wandring out of the waſted place, where erſt they have been fed.

11 Let covetous extortioners catch all his goods and ſtore:
And let the ſtranger ſpoile the fruit of all his toyle before.
12 Let there be none to pitie him let there be none at all That on his children fatherleſſe will let their mercy fall.

The ſecond Part.

13 And ſo let his poſterity for ever be deſtroid:
Their name out-blotted in the age
that after ſhall ſucceed.
14 Let not his fathers wickedneſſe from Gods remembrance fall:
And let not thou his mothers ſin be done away at all.

15 But in the preſence of the Lord
let them remaine for aye:
That from the earth their memory
he may cut cleen away.
16 Sith mercy he forgot to ſhew, but did purſue with ſpight
The troubled man, and ſought to ſlay
the wofull hearted wight.

17 As he did curſing love, it ſhall
betide unto him ſo:
And as he did not bleſsing love,
it ſhall be farre him fro.
18 As he with curſing clad himſelfe, ſo it like water ſhall Into his bowels, and like oyle into his bones befall.

19 As garment let it be to him to cover him for aye:
And as a girdle, wherewith he may girded be alway.
20 Lo let the ſame be from the Lord
the guerdon of my foe:
Yea, and of thoſe that evil ſpeak againſt my ſoule alſo.

21 But thou O Lord, which art my God, deale thou (I ſay) with me After thy Name, deliver me for great thy mercies be.
22 Becauſe in depth of great diſtreſſe
I needy am and poore:
And eke within my pained breſt
my heart is wounded ſore.

The third Part.

23 Even ſo do I depart away,
as doth declining ſhade:
And as the Graſhopper, ſo I am ſhaken off and fade.
24 With faſting long from needfull food enfeebled are my knees:
And all her fatneſſe hath my fleſh enforced been to leeſe.

25 And I alſo a vile reproach, to them am made to be:
And they that did upon me look,
did ſhake their heads at me.
26 But thou O Lord, that art my God, mine aid and ſuccour be:
According to thy mercy Lord ſave and deliver me.

27 And they ſhall know thereby, that this (Lord) is thy mighty hand:
And that thou, thou haſt done it Lord,
ſo ſhall they underſtand.
28 Although they curſe with ſpite, yet thou ſhalt bleſſe with loving voice:
They ſhall ariſe and come to ſhame,
thy ſervant ſhall rejoyce.

29 Let them be cloathed all with ſhame that enemies are to me:
And with confuſion as a cloke
eke covered let them be.
30 But greatly I will with my mouth give thanks unto the Lord:
And I among the multitude his praiſes will record.

31 For he with help at his right hand will ſtand the poore man by:
To ſave him from the man that would condemne his ſoule to die.

Dixit Dominus. Pſal. Cx. N.

Sing this as the 59. Pſalme.

THe Lord did ſay unto my Lord,
ſit thou at my right hand:
Till I have made thy foes a ſtoole, whereon thy feet ſhall ſtand.
2 The Lord ſhall out of Sion ſend the Scepter of thy might:
Amid thy mortall foes be thou
the ruler in their ſight.

3 And in the day on which thy raigne and power they ſhall ſee:
Then hereby free-will-offerings ſhall
the people offer thee.
Yea with an holy worſhipping then ſhall they offer all:
Thy births-dew is the dew that doth from womb of morning fall.

4 The Lord hath ſworn, and never will repent what he doth ſay:

By th'order of Melchiſedech thou art a Prieſt for aye.
5 The Lord thy God on thy right hand that ſtandeth for thy ſtay:
Shall wound for thee the ſtately Kings upon his wrathfull day.

6 The heathen he ſhall judge and fill the place with bodies dead:
And over diverſe countries ſhall
in ſunder ſmite the head.
7 And he ſhall drink out of the brook that runneth in the way:
Wherefore he ſhall lift up on high his royall head that day.

Confitebor tibi. Pſal.Cxj. N.

Sing this as the 104. Pſalme.

WIth heart I do accord,
To praiſe and laud the Lord,
In preſence of the juſt.
2 For great his works are found,
To ſearch them ſuch are bound,
As him do love and truſt.
3 His works are glorious Alſo his righteouſneſſe
It doth endure for ever.
4 His wondrous works he would
We ſtill remember ſhould.
His mercy faileth never.

5 Such as to him love beare,
A portion full faire
He hath up for them laid,
For this they ſhall well finde,
He will them have in minde,
And keep them as he ſaid.
6 For he did not diſdaine
His works to ſhew them plaine,
By lightnings and by thunders:
When he the heathens land
Did give into their hand,
Where they beheld his wonders.

7 Of all his works enſu'th
Both judgement, right and truth, Whereto his ſtatutes tend:
8 They are decreed ſure
For ever to endure
Which equity doth end:
Redemption he gave His people for to ſave:
9 And hath alſo required,
His promiſe not to faile,
But alwaies to prevaile,
His holy Name be feared.

10 Who ſo with heart full faine
True wiſdome would attaine,
The Lord feare and obey:
Such as his lawes do keep,
Shall knowledge have full deep,
His praiſe ſhall laſt for aye.

Beatus vir. Pſal.Cxij. W.K.

Sing this as the Pater noſter.

THe man is bleſt that God doth feare,
And that his law doth love indeed:
2 His ſeed on earth God will upreare,
And bleſſe ſuch as from him proceed,
3 His houſe with good he will fulfill;
His righteouſneſſe endure ſhall ſtill.

4 Unto the righteous doth ariſe
In trouble joy, in darkneſſe light:
Compaſſion is in his eyes,
And mercy alwaies in his ſight:
5 Yea pitie moveth ſuch to lend
He doth by judgement things expend.

6 And ſurely ſuch ſhall never faile
For in remembrance had is he:
7 No tidings ill can make him quaile,
Who in the Lord ſure hope doth ſee.
8 His heart is firm, his feare is paſt,
For he ſhall ſee his foes down caſt.

9 He did well for the poore provide,
His righteouſneſſe ſhall ſtill remaine:
And his eſtate with praiſe abide,
Though that the wicked man diſdaine,
10 Yea gnaſh his teeth thereat ſhall he
And ſo conſume his ſtate to ſee.

Laudate pueri. Pſal.Cxiij. W.K.

6 He

6 He doth abaſe himſelf we know, Things to behold both here below,
and alſo in heaven above.
7 The needy out of duſt to draw,
And eke the poore which help none ſaw
His only mercy did him move.
8 And ſo him ſet in high degree,
With Princes of great dignity,
That rule his people with great fame.
9 The barren he doth make to beare,
And with great joy her fruit to reare,
Therefore praiſe ye his holy Name.

In exitu Iſrael. Pſal. Cxiiij. W. W.

Sing this as the 44. Pſalme.

WHen Iſrael by Gods addreſſe, from Pharaohs land was bent:
And Jacobs houſe the ſtrangers left,
and in the ſame traine went.
2 In Juda God his glory ſhewd, his holineſſe moſt bright:
So did the Iſralites declare his kingdome, power, and might.

3 The ſea it ſaw and ſuddenly,
as all amaz'd did flie:
The roaring ſtreames of Jordans flood recoiled backwardly.
4 As Rams afraid the mountaines skipt, their ſtrength did them forſake:
And as the ſilly trembling Lambs their tops did beat and ſhake.

5 What aild the ſea as all amaz'd, ſo ſuddenly to flie?
Ye rolling waves of Jordans flood,
why ran ye backwardly?
6 Why ſhook ye hils as Rams afraid?
why did your ſtrength ſo ſhake?
Why did your tops as trembling Lambs for feare quiver and quake?

7 O earth confeſſe thy Soveraigne Lord and dread his mighty hand:
Before the face of Jacobs God, feare ye both ſea and land.
8 I mean the God which from hard rocks doth cauſe maine flouds appeare:
And from the ſtony flint doth cauſe,
guſh out the fountaines cleare.

Non nobis Domine. Pſal. Cxv. N.

Sing this as the 119. Pſalme.

NOt unto us, Lord, not to us,
but to thy Name give praiſe:
Both for thy mercy and thy truth,
that are in thee alwaies.
2 Why ſhall the heathen ſcorners ſay,
where is their God become?
3 Our God in heaven is, and what he will, that hath he done.

4 Their idols ſilver are and gold works of mens hands they be:
5 They have a mouth and do not ſpeake, and eyes and do not ſee.
6 And they have eares joyned to their heads and do not hears at all:
And noſes eke they formed have,
and do not ſmell withall.

7 And hands they have and handle not,
and feet and do not go:
A throat they have, yet through the ſame
they make no ſound to blow.
8 Thoſe that make them are like to them and thoſe whoſe truſt they be:
9 O Iſrael truſt in the Lord,
their help and ſhield is he.

10 O Aarons houſe truſt in the Lord,
their help and ſhield is he:
11 Truſt ye the Lord that feare the Lord
their help and ſhield is he.
12 The Lord hath mindfull been of us,
and will us bleſſe alſo:
On Iſrael and on Aarons houſe, his bleſſings he will ſhow.

13 Them that be fearers of the Lord,
the Lord will bleſſe them all:
Even he will bleſſe them every one,
the great and eke the ſmall.
14 To you (I ſay) the living Lord will multiply his grace:
To you and to the children that ſhall follow of your race.

15 Ye are the bleſſed of the Lord,
even of the Lord, I ſay:
Which both the heavens and the earth hath made and ſet in ſtay.
16 The heavens, yea the heavens high belong unto the Lord:
The earth unto the ſonnes of men,
he gave of free accord:

17 They that be dead do not with praiſe
ſet forth the Lords renowne:
Nor any that into the place,
of ſilence do go downe.
18 But we will praiſe the Lord our God, from henceforth and for aye:
Sound ye the praiſes of the Lord,
praiſe ye the Lord I ſay.

Dilexi quoniam. Pſal. Cxvj. N.

Sing this as the 103. Pſalme.

I Love the Lord, becauſe my voice, and prayer heard hath he:
2 When in my daies I cald on him,
he bowed his eare to me.
3 Even when the ſnares of cruell death about beſet me round:
When pains of hell me caught, and when I woe and ſorrow fonnd.

4 Upon the Name of God my Lord
then did I call and ſay:
Deliver thou my ſoul O Lord,
I do thee humbly pray.
5 The Lord is very mercifull, and juſt he is alſo:
And in our God compaſsion doth plentifully flow.

6 The Lord in ſafety doth preſerve all thoſe that ſimple be:
I was in wofull miſery,
and he delivered me.
7 And now my ſoul ſith thou art fall, return unto thy reſt:

For

For largely, it, the Lord to thee his bounty hath expreſt.

2 Becauſe thou haſt delivered my ſoul from deadly thralls:
My moiſtned eyes from mournfull teares,
my ſliding feet from fall.
9 Before the Lord I in the land of life will walk therefore:
10 I did believe, therefore I ſpake, for I was troubled ſore.

The ſecond Part.

11 I ſaid in my diſtreſſe and feare, that all men lyars be:
12 What ſhall I pay the Lord for all his benefits to me?
13 The wholſome cup of ſaving health
I thankfully will take:
And on the Lords Name I will call,
when I my prayers make.

14 I to the Lord will pay the vowes
that I to him behight:
Yea even at this preſent time,
in all his peoples ſight.
15 Right deare and precious in his ſight
the Lord doth aye eſteem
The death of all his holy ones, what ever men do deem.

16 Thy ſervant Lord, thy ſervant lo,
I do my ſelfe confeſſe, Sonne of thy hand-maid, thou haſt broke the bonds of my diſtreſſe.
17 And I will offer up to thee
a ſacrifice of praiſe:
And I will call upon the Name of God the Lord alwaies.

18 I to the Lord will pay the vowes
that I have him behight:
Yea even at this preſent time,
in all his peoples ſight.
19 Yea in the courts of Gods own houſe, and in the midſt of thee,
O thou Jeruſalem, I ſay:
where fore the Lord praiſe ye.

Laudate Dominum. Pſal. Cxvij. N.

Sing this as the 29. Pſalme.

O All ye nations of the world,
praiſe ye the Lord alwaies:
And all ye people every where ſet forth his noble praiſe.
2 For great his kindneſſe is to us,
his truth endures for aye:
Wherefore praiſe ye the Lord our God,
praiſe ye the Lord, I ſay.

Confitemini. Pſal. Cxviij. N.

Sing this as the 93. Pſalme.

O Give ye thanks unto the Lord,
for gracious is he:
Becauſe his mercy doth endure for ever towards thee.
2 Let Iſrael confeſſe and ſay,
his mercy dures for aye:
3 Now let the houſe of Aaron ſay,
his mercy dures for aye.
4 Let all that feare the Lord our God, even now confeſſe and ſay:
The mercy of the Lord our God endureth ſtill for aye.
5 In trouble and in heavineſſe unto the Lord I cry'd:
Which lovingly heard me at large,
my ſuit was not deny'd.

6 The Lord himſelfe is on my ſide,
I will not ſtand in doubt:
Nor feare what man can do to me,
when God ſtands me about.
7 The Lord doth take my part with them that help to ſuccour me:
Therefore I ſhall ſee my deſire upon mine enemy.

8 Better it is to truſt in God, than in mans mortall ſeed:
9 Or to put confidence in Kings, or Princes in our need.
10 All nations have incloſed me,
and compaſſed me round:
But in the Name of God ſhall I mine enemies confound.

11 They kept me in on every ſide,
they kept me in, I ſay:
But in the Lords moſt mighty Name
I ſhall work their decay.
12 They came about me all like Bees,
but yet in the Lords Name
I quench'd their thorns that were on fire and will deſtroy the ſame.

The ſecond Part.

13 Thou haſt with force thruſt ſore at me,
that I indeed might fall:
But through the Lord I found ſuch help,
that they were vanquiſh'd all.
14 The Lord is my defence and ſtrength, my joy, my mirth, my ſong:
He is become for me indeed,
a Saviour moſt ſtrong.

15 The right hand of the Lord our God doth bring to paſſe great things:
He cauſeth voice of joy and health in righteous mens dwellings.
16 The right hand of the Lord doth bring moſt mighty things to paſſe:
His hand hath the preeminence, his force it ay it was.

17 I ſhall not die, but ever live to utter and declare:
The Lord his might and wondrous power,
his works, and what they are.
18 The Lord himſelfe hath chaſtiſed, and hath corrected me:
But hath not given me over yet to death as ye may ſee.

19 Set open unto me the gates of truth and righteouſneſſe:
That I may enter into them
the Lords praiſe to expreſſe.
20 This is the gate even of the Lord,
which ſhall not be ſhut:
But good and righteous men ſtraight ſhall enter into it.

The third Part.

21 I will give thanks to thee O Lord, because thou hast heard me,
And art become most lovingly
a Saviour unto me.
22 The stone which ere this time among the builders was refused:
Is now become the corner-stone,
and chiefly to be used.

23 This was the mighty work of God,
this was the Lords own fact:
And it is marvellous to behold with eyes that noble act.
24 This is the joyfull day indeed, which God himselfe hath wrought:
Let us be glad and joy therein,
in heart, in minde, and thought.

25 Now help us Lord, and prosper us,
we wish with one accord:
26 Blessed is he that comes to us in the name of the Lord.
27 God is the Lord that shews us light, binde ye therefore with cord
Your sacrifice to the altar, and give thanks to the Lord.

28 Thou art my God, I will confesse and render thanks to thee:
Thou art my God, and I will praise thy mercy towards me.
29 O give ye thanks unto the Lord,
for gracious is he:
Because his mercy doth endure for ever towards me.

Beati immaculati. Psal. Cxix. W. W.

1 Doubtlesse such men go not astray,
nor do no wicked thing:
Which stedfastly walk in his way,
without any wandring.
4 It is thy will and commandment that with attentive heed Thy noble and divine precepts, we learn and keep indeed.

5 O would to God it might chee please my waies so to addresse
That I might both in heart and voice thy lawes keep and confesse.
6 So should no shame my life attaint, whilst I thus set mine eyes,
And bend my minde alwaies to mark on thy sacred decrees.

7 Then will I praise with upright heart, and magnifie thy Name,
When I shall learn thy judgements just,
and likewise prove the same.
8 And wholly will I give my selfe to keep thy lawes most right: Forsake me not for ever Lord, but shew thy grace and might.

BETH. The second Part.

9 By what meanes may a young man best his life learn to amend?
If that he mark and keep thy word,
and therein his time spend.
10 Unfainedly I have thee sought, and thus seeking abide:
O never suffer me O Lord from thy precepts to slide.

11 Within my heart and secret thoughts thy words I have hid still:
That I might not at any time offend thy godly will.
12 We magnifie thy Name O Lord, and praise thee evermore:
Thy statutes of most worthy fame,
O Lord teach me therefore.

13 My lips have never ceased to preach,
and publish day and night,
The judgements all, which did proceed from thy mouth full of might.
14 Thy testimonies and thy wayes, please me no lesse indeed,
Then all the treasures of the earth,
which worldlings make their meed.

15 Of thy precepts I will still muse, and therein frame my talke,
As at a mark to will I aime,
thy wales how I may walke.
16 My only joy shall be in thee,
and on thy lawes so fast,
That nothing can me so farre blinde,
that I thy words forget.

GIMEL. The third Part.

17 Grant to thy servant now such grace
as may my life prolonge, Thy holy Word then will I keep,
both in my heart and tongue.
18 Mine eyes which now are dim and feeble,
so open and make bright,
That of thy law and marvellous works
I may have the clearer sight.

19 I am a ſtranger in this earth,
wandring now here now there:
Thy word therefore to me diſcloſe,
my foot-ſteps for to cleare.
20 My ſoule is raviſh'd with deſire, and never is at reſt:
But ſeeks to know thy judgements high,
and what may pleaſe thee beſt.

21 The proud men and malicious thou haſt deſtroid each one:
And curſed are ſuch as do not thy hefts attend upon.
22 Lord turn from me rebuke and ſhame which wicked men conſpire:
For I have kept thy covenants with zeale as hot as fire.

23 The Princes great in counſell ſate, and did againſt me ſpeak:
But then thy ſervant thought how he thy ſtatutes might not break.
24 For why thy covenants are my joy,
and my hearts great ſolace:
They ſerve inſtead of counſellers,
my matters for to paſſe.

DALETH. The fourth Part.

25 I am alas as brought to grave,
and almoſt turn'd to duſt:
Reſtore therefore my life againe,
as thy promiſe is juſt.
26 My waies when I acknowledged with mercy thou didſt heare.
Heare now eftſoones, and me inſtruct thy lawes to love and feare.

27 Teach me once throughly for to know thy precepts and thy lore:
Thy works then will I meditate,
and lay them up in ſtore.
28 My ſoule I feele ſo ſore oppreſt, that it melteth for grief:
According to thy word therefore,
haſte Lord to ſend reliefe.

29 From lying and deceitfull lips let thy grace me defend:
And that I may learn thee to love,
thy holy law me ſend.
30 The way of truth both ſtraight and ſure
I have cheſen and found.
I ſet thy judgements me before,
which keep me ſafe and ſound.

31 Since then (O Lord) I forc'd my ſelfe thy covenants to embrace:
Let me therefore have no rebuke,
nor check in any caſe.
32 Then will I run with joyfull cheare where thy Word doth me call,
When thou haſt ſet my heart at large,
and rid me out of thrall.

HE. The fift Part.

33 Inſtruct me Lord in the right way of thy ſtatutes divine:
And it to keep even to the end,
my heart with grace line.
34 Grant me the knowledge of thy law,
and I ſhall it obey,
With heart, and minde, and all my might,
I will it keep I ſay.

35 In the right paths of thy precepts guide me Lord I require:
None other pleaſure do I wiſh,
nor greater thing deſire.
36 Incline my heart thy lawes to keep,
and covenants to embrace:
And from al filthy avarice,
Lord ſhield me with thy grace.

37 From vaine deſires and worldly luſts turn back mine eyes and ſight:
Give me the ſpirit of life and power,
to walk thy wayes aright.
38 Confirme thy gracious promiſe Lord, which thou haſt made to me:
Which am thy ſervant and do love and feare nothing but thee.

39 Reproach and ſhame which I do feare, from me O Lord expell:
For thou doſt judge with equity,
and therein doſt excell.
40 Behold my hearts deſire is bent thy lawes to keep for aye:
Lord ſtrengthen me ſo with thy grace that it performe I may.

VAV. The ſixt Part.

41 Thy mercies great and manifold let me obtaine O Lord:
Thy ſaving health let me enjoy according to thy word.
42 So ſhall I ſtop the ſlanderous mouthes of lewd men and unjuſt:
For in thy faithfull promiſes ſtands my comfort and truſt.

43 The word of truth within my mouth
let ever ſtill be preſt:
For in thy judgements wonderfull
my hope doth ſtand and reſt.
44 And whilſt that breath within my breſt doth natural life preſerve:
Yea till this world ſhall be diſſolv'd,
thy law will I obſerve.

45 So walk will I as ſet at large,
and made free from all dread: Becauſe I ſought how for to keep thy precepts and thy read.
46 Thy noble acts I will deſcribe as things of moſt great fame:
Even before Kings I will them blaze, and ſhrink no whit for ſhame.

47 I will rejoyce then to obey thy worthy hefts and will:
Which evermore I have lov'd beſt,
and ſo will love them ſtill.
48 My hands I will lift to thy lawes, which I have dearely ſought:
And practiſe thy commandements in will, in deed, in thought.

ZAIN. The ſeventh Part.

49 Thy promiſe which thou made'ſt to me
thy ſervant, Lord remember.
For therein do I put my truſt, and confidence for ever.

50 It is my comfort and my joy,
when troubles me aſſaile:
For were my life not by thy word,
my life would ſoone me faile.

51 The proud and ſuch as God contemne ſtill made of me a ſcorne:
Yet would I not thy law forſake,
as he that were forlorne.
52 But cal'd to mind, Lord, thy great work thew'd to our fathers old; Whereby I felt the joy ſurmount my griefe an hundred fold.

53 But yet alas, for feare I quake, ſeeing how wicked men Thy law forſook, and did procure thy judgements upon them.
54 And as for me, I fram'd my ſongs thy ſtatutes to exalt:
When I among the ſtrangers dwelt,
and thoughts gan me aſſault.

55 I thought upon thy Name, O Lord, by night when others ſleept:
As for thy law, alſo I kept,
and ever will it keep.
56 This grace I did obtaine, becauſe thy covenants ſweet and deare
I did embrace, and alſo keep with reverence and with feare.

HETH. The eighth Part.

57 O God which art my part and lot,
my comfort and my ſtay:
I have decreed and promiſed,
thy law to keep alway.
58 Mine earneſt heart did humbly ſue
in preſence of thy face:
As thou therefore haſt promiſed,
Lord, grant me of thy grace.

59 My life I have examined, and tri'd my ſecret hearts,
Which to thy ſtatutes cauſed me my feet ſtraight to convert.
60 I did not ſtay nor linger long, as they that ſlothfull are:
But haſtily thy lawes to keep,
I did my ſelfe prepare.

61 The cruell bands of wicked men have made of me their preyes:
Yet would I not thy law forget,
nor from thee go aſtray.
62 Thy righteous judgements towards me
ſo great are and ſo hie:
That even at midnight will I riſe,
thy Name to magnifie.

63 Companion am I to all them which feare thee in their heart:
And never will for love nor dread from thy commandments ſtart.
64 Thy mercies Lord moſt pleateouſly do all the world fulfill:
O teach me how I may obey, thy ſtatutes and thy will.

TETH. The ninth Part.

65 According to thy promiſe Lord, ſo haſt thou with me dealt:
For of thy grace in ſundry ſorts have I thy ſervant felt.
66 Teach me to judge thinges aright, and give me knowledge ſure:
For certainly beleeve I did that thy precepts are pure.

67 Ere thou didſt touch me with thy rod
I err'd and went aſtray:
But now I keep thy holy Word,
and make it all my ſtay.
68 Thou art both good and gracious, and giv'ſt moſt liberally:
Thine ordinances how to keep,
therefore O Lord teach me.

69 The proud and wicked men have forg'd againſt me many a lie:
Yet thy commandments ſtill obſerve with all my heart will I.
70 Their hearts are ſwolne with worldly wealth as greaſe ſo are they fat:
But in thy law do I delight, and nothing ſeek but that.

71 O happy time may I well ſay, when thou didſt me correct?
For as a guide to learne thy law,
thy rod did me direct.
72 So that to me thy word and lawes is dearer manifold
Then thouſands of ſilver and gold, or ought that can be ſold.

IOD. The tenth Part.

73 Seeing thy hands have made me Lord,
to be thy creature:
Grant knowledge likewiſe now to learne to put thy lawes in ure.
74 So they that feare thee ſhall rejoyce,
when ever they me ſee:
Becauſe I have learn'd by thy Word,
to put my truſt in thee.

75 When with thy rods the world is plagu'd
I know the cauſe is juſt:
So when thou doſt correct me Lord,
the cauſe juſt needs muſt.
76 Now of thy goodneſſe I thee pray, ſome comfort to me ſends
As thou to me haſt promiſed, ſo from all ill me defends.

77 Thy tender mercies powre on me,
and I ſhall ſurely live:
For joy and conſolation both thy law to me doth give.
78 Confound the proud whoſe ſole pretence is me for to deſtroy:
But as for me thy heſts to know,
I will my ſelfe employ.

79 Who ſo with reverence do thee feare, to me let them retire:
And ſuch as do thy covenants know,
and them alone deſire.
80 My heart without all wavering let on thy lawes be bent:
That no confuſion come to me,
whereby I ſhould be ſhent.

CAPH. The eleventh Part.

81 My soule doth faint and ceaseth not,
thy saving health to crave:
And for thy words like still I trust,
my hearts desire to have.
82 Mine eyes do faile with looking for thy word, and thus I say:
O when wilt thou me comfort, Lord,
why dost thou thus delay?

83 As a skin-bottle in the smoke
so am I pinche and drie'd:
Yet will I not out of my heart let thy commandments slide.
84 Alas how long shall I yet live,
before I see the houre,
That on my foes which me torment,
thy vengeance thou wilt poure?

85 Presumptuous men have digged pits, thinking to make me sure:
Thus contrary against thy law
my hurt they do procure.
86 But thy commandments are all true,
and causelesse they me grieve:
To thee therefore I do complaine, that thou mightst me relieve.

87 Almost they had me cleane destroid, and brought me quite to grounde:
Yet by thy statutes I abode, and therein succour founde.
88 Restore me Lord again to life, for thy mercies sake tell:
And so shall I thy covenants keep,
till death my life dispell.

LAMED. The twelfth Part.

89 In heaven Lord where thou dost dwell, thy word is stablisht sure:
And shall for all eternity fast graven there endure.
90 From age to age thy truth abides,
as doth the earth witnesse:
Whose ground-work thou hast laid so fine
as no tongue can expresse.

91 Even to this day we may well see, how all things persevere
According to thine ordinance, for all things thee do feare.
92 Had it not been that in thy law
my soule had comfort sought:
Long time ere now in my distresse
I had been brought to nought.

93 Therefore will I thy precepts aye in memory keep fast:
By them thou hast my life restord,
when I was past all cast.
94 No wight to me can title make,
for I am onely thine:
Save me therefore, for so thy lawes, mine eares and heart incline.

95 The wicked men do seek my bane,
and thereto lie in wait,
But I the while considered thy noble works and great.
96 I see nothing in this wide world,
at length which hath not end:
But thy comandments and thy word beyond all bounds extend.

MEM. The thirteenth Part.

97 What great desire and fervent love do I beare to thy law?
All the day long I meditate on it with reverent awe.
98 Thy word hath taught me far to passe
my foes in policie:
For still I hold it as a thing of most excellencie.

99 My teachers which did me instruct,
in knowledge I excell:
Because I do thy covenants keep,
and them to others tell.
100 In wisdome I do passe also the ancient men indeed:
And all because to keep thy lawes,
I held it aye best reed.

101 My feet I have refrained eke from every evill way: Because that I continually thy word might keep, I say.
102 I have not swerv'd from thy judgements,
nor yet shrunk any dell:
For why? thou hast me taught thereby,
to live godly and well.

103 O Lord how sweet unto my taste
finde I thy words alway:
Doubtlesse no honey in my mouth feel ought so sweet I may.
104 Thy lawes have me such wisdome learn'd that utterly I hate:
All wicked and ungodly waies,
in every kinde or rate.

NVN. The fourteenth Part.

105 Even as a lantern to my feet,
so doth thy Word shine bright:
And to my paths where ever I go,
it is a flaming light.
106 I have both sworn and will performe
my promises doubtlesse,
That I will keep thy judgements just,
and them in life expresse.

107 Affliction hath me sore oppress, and brought me to deaths doore:
O Lord, as thou hast promised,
so me to life restore.
108 The offrings which with heart and voice most frankly I thee give, Accept, and teach me how I may after thy judgements live.

109 My soule is aye so in my hand,
that dangers me affright:
Yet do I not thy law forget,
nor it to keep will faile.
110 Although the wicked laid their nets, to catch me at a bay:
Yet did I not from thy precepts once swerve or go astray.

111 Thy law I have so claim'd alway,
as mine own heritage:
And why? for therein I delight,
and set my whole courage:
112 For evermore I have been bent thy statutes to fulfill:
Even so likewise unto the end
I will continue still.

SAMECH.

SAMECH. The fifteenth Part.

113 The crafty thoughtes & double hearts
I do alwaies deteſt:
But as for thy law and precepts,
I love them ever beſt.
114 Thou art my hid and ſecret place,
my ſhield of ſtrong defence:
Therefore have I thy promiſes look'd for with patience.

115 Go to therefore ye wicked men, depart from me anon:
For the commandements will I keep of God my Lord alone.
116 As thou haſt promis'd, ſo performe, that death me not aſſaile:
Nor let my hope abuſe me ſo, that through diſtruſt I quaile.

117 Uphold me and I ſhall be ſafe, for ought they do or ſay:
And in thy ſtatutes pleaſure take will I both night and day.
118 Thou haſt trod ſuch under thy feet,
as do thy ſtatutes breake:
For nought availes their ſubtilty, their counſell is but weake.

119 Like droſſe thou caſts the wicked out where ere they go or dwell:
Therefore can I as thy ſtatutes love nothing halfe ſo well.
120 My fleſh alas is taken with feare,
as though it were benum'd:
For when I ſee thy judgements, ſtraight
I am as one aſton'd.

AIN. The ſixteenth Part.

121 I do the thing that lawfull is,
and give to all men right:
Reſigne me not to them that would,
oppreſſe me with their might.
122 But for thy ſervant ſurety be,
in that thing that is good:
That proud men give me not the foile, which rage as they were wood.

123 Mine eyes with waiting are now blind
thy health ſo much I crave:
And eke thy righteous promiſe Lord, whereby thou wilt me ſave.
124 Intreat thy ſervant lovingly, and favour to him ſhow:
Thy ſtatutes of moſt excellency, teach me alſo to know.

125 Thy humble ſervant (Lord) I am,
grant me to underſtand,
How by thy ſtatutes I may know
beſt what to take in hand.
126 It is now time (Lord) to begin,
for truth is quite decaid:
Thy law likewiſe they have tranſgreſt, and none againſt them ſaid.

127 This is the cauſe wherefore I love thy lawes better than gold, Or jewels fine which are eſteem'd moſt coſtly to be ſold.
128 I thought thy precepts all moſt juſt,
and ſo them laid in ſtore:
All crafty and malicious waies
I do abhorre therefore.

PE. The ſeventeenth Part.

129 Thy covenants are moſt wonderfull, and full of things profound:
My ſoule therefore doth keep them ſafe,
when they are tri'd and found.
130 When men firſt enter into thy word,
they finde a light moſt cleare:
And very idiots underſtand,
when they it reade or hear.

131 For joy I have both gap'd & breath'd, to know thy commandment:
That I might guide my ſelfe thereby,
I ſought what thing it ment.
132 With mercy and compaſſion, Lord, behold me from above:
As thou art wont to behold ſuch,
as thy Name feare and love.

133 Direct my foot-ſteps by thy Word, that I thy will may know:
And never let iniquity thy ſervant overthrow.
134 From ſlanderous tongues and deadly harme
preſerve and keep me ſure:
Thy precepts then will I obſerve, and put them eke in ure.

135 Thy countenance which doth ſurmount
the Sunne in his bright hue:
Let ſhine on me, and by thy law teach me what to eſchew.
136 Out of mine eyes great flouds guſh out of dreary teares that fall:
When I behold how wicked men thy lawes keep not at all.

ZADI. The eighteenth Part.

137 In every point Lord thou art juſt,
the wicked though they grudge:
And when thou doſt ſentence propounce, thou art a righteous Judge.
138 To render right and ſtee from guile, are two chiefe points moſt high:
And ſuch as thou haſt in thy law commanded us ſtraightly.

139 With zeale and wrath I am conſum'd and even pin'd away:
To ſee my foes thy word forget,
for ought that I do may.
140 So pure and perfect is thy Word,
as any heart can deeme:
And I thy ſervant nothing more do love or yet eſteeme.

141 And though I be nothing ſet by,
as one of baſe degree:
Yet do I not thy lawes forget,
nor ſhrink away from thee.
142 Thy righteouſnes (Lord) is moſt juſt,
for ever to endure:
Alſo thy Law is truth it ſelfe, moſt conſtant and moſt pure.

143 Trouble and griefe have ſeiz'd on me and brought me wondrous low:
Yet do I ſtill all thy precepts delight to heare and know.

144 The righteouſneſſe of thy judgements doth laſt for evermore:
Then teach them me,for even in them
my life lies up in ſtore.

KOPH. The nintenth Part.

145 With fervent heart I cald and cri'd,
now anſwer me O Lord:
That thy commandments to obſerve,
I may fully accord.
146 To thee my God I make my ſuit with moſt humble requeſts:
Save me therefore,and I will keep thy precepts and thy heſts.

147 To thee I cry even in the morne, before the day waxe light:
Becauſe that I have in thy word
my confidence whole plight.
148 Mine eyes prevent the watch by night and ere they call I wake:
That by deviſing on thy Word,
I might ſome comfort take.

149 Incline thine eares to heare my voice, and pitie on me take:
As thou waſt wont, ſo judge me Lord,
leſt life ſhould me forſake.
150 My foes draw neare,and do procure my death maliciouſly.
Which from thy law are far gone back,
and ſtraid from it lewdly.

151 Therefore O Lord,approach thou neer for need doth ſo require,
For all thy precepts true they are,
then help I thee deſire.
152 But thy commandments have I learn'd not now,but long ago:
That they remaine for evermore,
thou haſt them grounded ſo.

RESH. The twelfth Part.

153 My trouble and affliction, conſider and behold:
Deliver me,for of thy law,
I ever take faſt hold.
154 Defend my good and righteous cauſe, with ſpeed ſome ſuccour ſend:
From death(as thou haſt promiſed)
Lord keep me and defend.

155 As for the wicked,farre they are from having health and grace:
Whereby they might thy ſtatutes know,
they enter not the trace.
156 Great are thy mercies Lord I grant, what tongue can them attaine:
And as thou haſt me judg'd ere now,
ſo let me life obtaine.

157 Though many men did trouble me and perſecute me ſore:
Yet from thy lawes I never ſhrunk, nor went awry therefore.
158 And truth it is for griefe I die,
when I theſe traitors ſee:
Becauſe they keep no whit thy word,
nor yet ſeek to know thee.

159 Behold,for I do love thy lawes, with heart moſt glad and faine:
As thou art good and gracious Lord,
reſtore my life againe.
160 What thy word doth decree,muſt be and ſo it hath been ever:
Thy righteous judgements are alſo moſt true and decay never.

SCHIN. The xxi. Part.

161 Princes have fought by cruelty, cauſleſſe to make me crouch:
But all in vaine,for of thy word
the feare did my heart touch.
162 And certainly even of thy word
I was more merry and glad,
Than he that of rich ſpoiles and prey, great ſtore and plenty had.

163 As for all lies and falſities,
I have moſt and deareſt:
For why thy holy law do I above all things love beſt.
164 Seven times a day I praiſe the Lord
ſinging with heart and voice:
Thy righteous acts and wonderfull,
ſo cauſe me to rejoyce.

165 Great peace and reſt ſhal all ſuch have,
as do thy ſtatutes love:
No danger ſhall their quiet ſtate empaire or once remove.
166 My only health and comfort Lord,
I look for at thy hand:
And therefore have I done thoſe things, which thou didſt me command.

167 Thy lawes have been mine exerciſe which my ſoule moſt deſir'd:
So much to them my love was bent,
that nought elſe I requir'd.
168 Thy ſtatutes and commandements,
I kept(thou know'ſt) aright:
For all the things that I have done,
are preſent in thy ſight.

TAV. The xxii. Part.

169 O Lord let my complaint and cry before thy face appeare:
And as thou haſt me promiſe made,
ſo teach me thee to feare.
170 Mine humble ſupplication, toward thee let finde acceſſe:
And grant me Lord deliverance, for ſo is thy promiſe.

171 Then ſhall my lips thy praiſes ſpeak,
after moſt ample ſort:
When thou thy ſtatutes haſt me taught,
wherein ſtands my comfort.
172 My tongue ſhall ſing and preach thy word,
and in this wiſe ſay ſhall:
Gods famous acts and noble lawes are juſt and perfect all.

173 Stretch out thy hand I thee beſeech, and ſpeedily me ſave:
For thy commandments to obſerve choſen O Lord I have.
174 Of thee alone Lord I crave health, for other I know none:

And

And in thy law and nothing els
I do delight alone.

175 Grant me therefore long daies to live
thy Name to magnifie:
And of thy judgements heertifall
let me the favour try.
176 For I was loſt and went aſtray, much like a wandring ſheep:
O ſeek me, for I have not faild thy commandments to keep.

Ad Dominum. Pſal. Cxx. T.S.

Sing this as the 111. Pſalme.

IN trouble and in thrall Unto the Lord I call,
And he doth me comfort.
2 Deliver me, I ſay,
From lyars lips alway,
And tongues of falſe report.

3 What vantage or what thing
Get'ſt thou thus for to ſting,
Thou falſe and flattering lyar?
4 Thy tongue doth hurt I ween,
No leſſe then arrowes keen,
Or hot conſuming fire.

5 Alas too long I ſlack
Within theſe tents ſo black,
Which Kedars are by name,
By whom the flock elect,
And all of Iſaacs ſect
Are put to open ſhame.

6 With them that peace did hate,
I came a peace to make
And ſet a quiet life.
7 But when my tale was told,
Cauſleſſe I was controld
By them that would have ſtrife.

Levavi oculos. Pſal. Cxxj. W.W.

I Liſt mine eyes to Sion hill,
From whence I do attend
That ſuccour God me ſend.
2 The mighty God me ſuccour will,
Which heaven and earth framed,
And all things therein named.

3 Thy foot from ſlip he will preſerve,
And will thee ſafely keep,
For he will never ſleep:
4 Lo he that doth Iſrael conſerve,
No ſleepe at all can him catch:
But his eyes ſhall ever watch.

5 The Lord is thy warrant alway,
The Lord eke doth thee cover,
As at thy right hand ever.
6 The Sun ſhall not thee parch by day,
Nor the Moone not halfe ſo bright,
Shall with cold thee hurt by naght.

7 The Lord will keep thee from diſtreſſe
And will thy life ſure ſave,
And thou ſhalt alſo have 8 In all thy buſineſſe good ſucceſſe:
Where ever thou goeſt in or out,
God will thy thought bring about.

Lætatus ſum. Pſal. Cxxij. W.K.

4 The Tribes with one accords
The Tribes of God the Lord
Are thither bent their way to take.
So God before did tell
That there his Iſrael
Their prayers ſhould together make.

5 For there are thrones erect,
And that for this reſpect,
To ſet forth juſtice orderly:
Which thrones right to maintaine,
To Davids houſe pertaine.
His folk to judge accordingly.

6 To pray let us not ceaſe
For Ieruſalems peace,
Thy friends God proſper mightily:
7 Peace be thy wals about,
And proſper thee throughout Thy palaces continually.

8 I wiſh thy proſperous ſtate,
For my poore brethrens ſake,
That comfort have by meanes of thee
9 Gods houſe doth me allure,
Thy wealth for to procure,
So much alwaies as lies in me.

Ad te levavi. Pſal. Cxxiij. T.S.

Sing this as the 92. Pſalme.

O Lord that heaven doſt poſſeſſe,
I liſt mine eyes to thee:

Even as the ſervant liſteth his,
his maſters hands to ſee.
3 As handmaids watch their miſtris hands
ſome grace for to atchieve:
So we behold the Lord our God,
till he do us forgive.

3 Lord grant us thy compaſsion, and mercy in thy ſight:
For we are filʼd and overcome with hatred and deſpight.
4 Our mindes be ſtuft with great rebuke,
the rich and worldly-wiſe
Do make of us their mocking ſtocks, the proud do us deſpiſe.

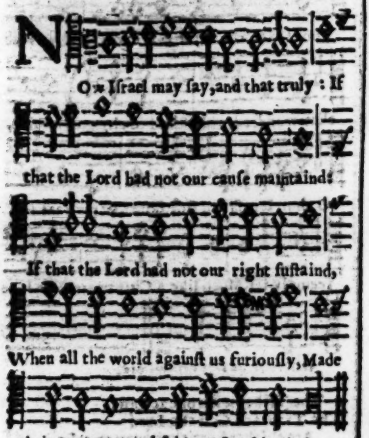
Niſi quia Dom. Pſal. Cxxiiij. W. W.



3 Now long ago
they had devourʼd us all:
And ſwallowed quick,
for ought that we could deem:
Such was their rage,
as we might well eſteeme.
4 And as the floods with mighty force do ſwim:
So had they now
our lives even brought to thrall.

5 The raging ſtreames moſt proud in roaring noiſe, Had long ago
over-whelmʼd us in the deepe.
6 But loved be God, which doth us ſafely keep From bloudy teeth,
and their moſt cruell voice,
Which as a prey,
to eat us would rejoyce.

7 Even as a bird out of the Fowlers grin Eſcapes away, right ſo it fares with us:
Broke are their nets,
and we have eſcaped thus.
8 God that made heaven and earth is our help then:
His Name hath ſavʼd us from theſe wicked men.

Qui confidunt. Pſal. Cxxv. W. K.

Sing this to the Paſsy Meaſure.

SUch as in God the Lord do truſt,
As mount Sion ſhall firmly ſtand,
And be removed at no hand,
The Lord will count them right and juſt:
So that they ſhall be ſure,
For ever to endure.

2 As mighty mountaines, huge and great Jeruſalem about do cloſe:
So will the Lord do unto thoſe,
Who on his godly will do wait:
Such are to him ſo deare,
They never need to feare.

3 For though the righteous try doth he,
By making wicked men his rod:
Leſt they through grief forſake their God
It ſhall not as their lot ſtill be.
4 Give Lord to us thy light,
Whoſe hearts are true and right.

5 But as for ſuch as turn aſide,
By crooked waies which they out-ſought:
The Lord will ſurely bring to nought:
With workers vile they ſhall abide:
But peace with Iſrael
For evermore ſhall dwell.

Another of the ſame by R.W.

Sing this as the ten Commandements.

THoſe that do put their confidence
Upon the Lord our God onely,
And flie to him for their defence,
In all their need and miſery:
Their faith is ſure ſtill to endure,
Grounded on Chriſt the corner-ſtone,
Movʼd with none ill, but ſtandeth ſtill,
Stedfaſt like to the mount Sion.

And as about Jeruſalem,
The mighty hils do it compaſſe,
So that no enemies come to them,
To hurt that towne in any caſe:
So God indeed in every need
His faithfull people doth defend,
Standing them by aſſuredly,
From this time forth world without end.

Right wiſe and good is our Lord God,
And will not ſuffer certainly,
The ſinners and ungodlies rod,
To tarry upon his family,
Leſt they alſo from God ſhould go,
Falling to ſin and wickedneſſe:
O Lord defend world without end
Thy Chriſtian flock through thy goodneſs.

O Lord do good to Chriſtians all,
That ſtedfaſt in thy Word abide:
Such as willingly from God fall,
And to falſe doctrine daily ſlide,
Such will the Lord ſcatter abroad,
With hypocrites thrown down to hell,
God will them ſend paines without end:
But Lord graunt peace to Iſrael.

Glory

Glory to God the Father of might,
And to the Son our Saviour,
And to the Holy Ghoſt whoſe light Shine in our hearts, and us ſuccour,
That the right way from day to day
We may walk, and him glorifie:
With hearts deſire all that are here
Worſhip the Lord, and Amen cry.

In convertendo. Pſal. Cxxvj. W.W.

2 The heathen folk were forced then this to confeſſe:
How that the Lord
for them alſo great things had done.
3 But much more we,
and therefore can confeſſe no leſſe:
Wherefore to joy,
we have good cauſe as we begun.
4 O Lord go forth, thou canſt our bondage ends
As to deſerts
the flowing rivers ſend.

5 Full true it is, that they which ſowe in tears indeed,
A time will come,
when they ſhall reap in mirth & joy.
6 They went and wept in bearing of their precious ſeed:
For that their foes full oft times did them annoy:
But their returne with joy they ſhall ſure feel Their ſheaves home bring, and not empaired be.

Niſi Dom. Pſal. Cxxvij. W.W.

Sing this as the Lords Prayer.

EXcept the Lord the houſe doth make,
And thereunto doth ſet his hand,
What men do build it cannot ſtand.
Likewiſe in vaine men undertake,
Cities and holds to watch and ward,
Except the Lord be their ſafeguard.

2 Though ye riſe early in the morne,
And ſo at night go late to bed,
Feeding full hardly with brown bread,
Yet were your labour loſt and vorne:
But they whom God doth love and keep,
Receive all things with quiet ſleep.

3 Therefore mark well when ever ye ſee,
That men have heires to enjoy their land
It is the gift of Gods own hand,
For God himſelfe doth multiply,
Of his great liberality,
The bleſſing of poſterity.

4 And when the children come to age,
They grow in ſtrength and ſhiverneſſe,
In perſon and in comelineſſe:
So that a ſtaft ſhot with courage,
Of one that hath a moſt ſtrong arm,
Flies not ſo ſwift, nor doth like harm.

5 O well is he that hath his quiver
Furniſh'd with ſuch artillerie:
For when in perill he ſhall be,
Such one ſhall never ſhake nor ſhiver,
When that he pleads before the Judge,
Againſt his foes that beare him grudge.

Beati omnes. Pſal. Cxxviij. T.S.

Sing this as the 127. Pſalme.

BLeſſed art thou that feareſt God,
and walkeſt in his way:
2 For of thy labour thou ſhalt eat,
happy art thou I ſay.
3 Like fruitfull vines on thy houſe ſide, ſo doth thy wife ſpring out:
Thy children ſtand like olive plants,
thy table round about.

4 Thus art thou bleſt that feareſt God, and he ſhall let thee ſee 5 The promiſed Jeruſalem, and her felicity.
6 Thou ſhalt thy childrens children ſee, to thy great joyes increaſe:
And likewiſe grace on Iſrael, proſperity and peace.

Sæpe expugnaverunt. Pſal. Cxxix. N.

Sing this as the 97. Pſalme.

OFt they (now Iſrael may ſay) me from my youth aſſail'd:
2 Oft they aſſail'd me from my youth,
yet never they prevail'd.
3 Upon my back the plowers plow'd, and furrowes long did caſt.
4 The righteous God hath cut the cords of wicked foes at laſt.

5 They that hate me ſhall be aſham'd, and turned back alſo:
6 And made as graſſe upon the houſe, which withereth ere it grow.
7 Whereof the mower cannot finde enough to fill his hand:
Nor can he fill his lap that go'th to gleane upon the land.

8 Nor paſſers by pray God on them to let his bleſſing fall:
Nor ſay, we bleſſe you in the Name of God the Lord at all.

De profundis, Pſal. Cxxx. W. W.

3 O Lord our God if thou weigh our ſins and them peruſe:
Who then ſhall eſcape and ſay,
I can my ſelfe excuſe?
4 But, Lord thou art mercifull, and turn'ſt not thy grace:
That we with hearts moſt carefull ſhould feare before thy face.

5 In God I put my whole truſt, my ſoule writes on his will:
For his promiſe is moſt juſt,
and I hope therein ſtill.
6 My ſoule to God hath regard, waiting for him alway.
More then they that watch and ward to ſee the dawning day.

7 Let Iſrael then hold on,
in the Lord put his truſt:
He is that God of mercy, that his deliver muſt
8 For he it is that muſt ſave
Iſrael from his ſins:
And all ſuch as firmly have their confidence in him.

Domine non eſt, Pſal. Cxxxj. M.

Sing this at the Lamentation.

O Lord I am not puft in minde,
I have no ſcornfull eye:
I do not exerciſe my ſelfe in things that be too high.
2 But as the childe that wained is,
even from his mothers breſt:
So have I Lord behav'd my ſelfe in ſilence and in reſt.

3 O Iſrael truſt in the Lord,
let him be all thy ſtay:
From this time forth for evermore,
from age to age, I ſay.

Memento Dom. Pſal. Cxxxij. M.

4 Till I have found out for the Lord,
a place to ſit thereon:
5 An houſe for Jacobs God to be an habitation.
6 We heard of it at Ephrata, there did we heare this ſound:
And in the fields and foreſts there, theſe voices firſt were found.

7 We will aſſay, and go in now his Tabernacle there:
Before his foot-ſtool to fall down,
and worſhip him in feare.
8 Ariſe, O Lord, ariſe I ſay, into thy reſting place:
Both thou and the Arke of thy ſtrength,
the preſence of thy grace.

9 Let all thy prieſts be clothed, Lord, with truth and righteouſneſſe:
Let all thy Saints and holy men
ſing all with joyfulneſſe.
10 And for thy ſervant Davids ſake refuſe not, Lord, I ſay,
The face of thine anoynted, Lord, nor turn thy face away.

The ſecond Part.

11 The Lord to David ſwore in truth and will not ſhrink from it: Saying, the fruit of thy body upon thy ſeat ſhall ſit.
12 And if thy ſonnes my covenant keep,
that I ſhall learne each one:
Then ſhall thy ſonnes for ever ſit upon thy princely throne.

13 The Lord himſelfe hath choſe Sion, and loves therein to dwell:
Saying, this is my reſting place,
I love and like it well.
14 And I will bleſſe with great increaſe her victuals every where:
And I will ſatiſfie with bread
the needy that be there.

15 Yea I will deck and clothe her Prieſts with my ſalvation:
And all her Saints ſhall ſing for joy of my protection.
16 There will I ſurely make the horne of David for to bud:
For there I have ordain'd for mine
a lanterne bright and good.

17 As for his enemies, I will clothe with ſhame for evermore:
But I will cauſe his crown to ſhine more freſh than heretofore.

Ecce quàm. Pſal. Cxxxiij. W.W

Sing this as the 137. Pſalme.

O How happy a thing it is,
and joyfull for to ſee Brethren together faſt to hold the band of amity!
2 It cals to minde that ſweet perfume,
and that coſtly ointment,
Which on the Sacrificers head
by Gods precept was ſpent.

It wet not Aarons head alone, but drencht his beard throughout And finally it did run down his rich attire about.
3 And as the lower ground doth drink
the dew of Hermon hill:
And Sion with her ſilver drops
the fields with fruit doth fill.

4 Even ſo the Lord doth powre on them his bleſſings manifold:
Whoſe hearts & mindes without al guile this knot do keep and hold.

Ecce nunc. Pſal. Cxxxiij. W.W.

Sing this as the 25. Pſalme.

BEhold and have regard,
ye ſervants of the Lord:
Which in his houſe by night do watch,
praiſe him with one accord.
2 Lift up your hands on high,
unto his holy place:
And give the Lord his praiſes due,
his benefits embrace.

3 For why the Lord who dwelt both earth and heaven ſtrong, Doth Sion bleſſe, and will conſerve for evermore the ſame.

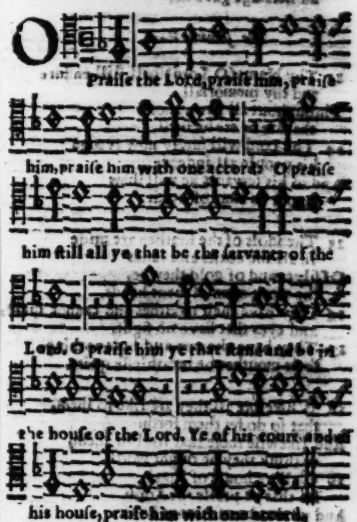
Laudate nomen. Pſal. Cxxxv. N.



1 Praiſe ye the Lord for he is good,
ſing praiſes to his Name:
't is a comely and good thing
alwaies to do the ſame.
4 For why? the Lord hath Jacob choſe, to be his own ye ſee:
And he hath choſen Iſrael,
his treaſure for to be.

5 For this I know and am right ſure, the Lord is very great:
He is indeed above all gods,
moſt eaſie to intreat.
6 For whatſoever pleaſed him,
all that full well he wrought
In heaven, in earth, and in the ſea, which he hath made of nought.

7 He lifts up clouds even from the earth,
he makes lightnings and raine:
He bringeth forth the windes alſo,
he made nothing in vaine.
8 He ſmote the firſt-borne of each thing,
in Egypt great and leſſe:
He ſpared there no living thing,
the man nor yet the beaſt.

9 He hath in thee ſhew'd wonders great,
O Egypt void of vaunts,
On Pharaon thy curſed King, and his ſevere ſervants.
10 He ſmote then many nations, and did moſt wondrous things:
He ſlew the great, the mightieſt, and chiefeſt of their Kings.

11 Sehon King of the Amorites, and Og King of Baſhan:

He ſlew alſo the kingdomes all that were of Canaan.
22 And gave their land to Iſrael an heritage to be,
To Iſrael his own people an heritage gave he.

The ſecond Part.

23 Thy Name (O Lord) ſhall ſtill endure and thy memoriall,
Throughout all generations
that are or ere be ſhall.
24 The Lord will ſurely now avenge his people all indeed:
And to his ſervants he will ſhew favour in time of need.

25 The idols of the heathen are made in all the coaſts and lands Of ſilver and of gold they be,
the work even of mens hands.
26 They have their mouthes and cannot ſpeak, and eyes that have no ſight:
27 They have eke ears and hear nothing, their mouthes be breathleſſe quite.

28 Wherefore all they are like to them,
that ſo do ſet them forth:
And likewiſe thoſe that truſt in them,
or think they be ought worth.
29 O all ye houſe of Iſrael, ſee that ye praiſe the Lord:
And ye that be of Aarons houſe,
praiſe him with one accord.

30 And ye that be of Levies houſe, praiſe ye likewiſe the Lord:
And ye that ſtand in awe of him,
praiſe him with one accord.
31 And out of Sion ſound his praiſe,
the great praiſe of the Lord,
Which dwelleth in Jeruſalem,
praiſe him with one accord.

Confitemini Dom. Pſal. Cxxxvj. N.

PRaiſe ye the Lord, for he is good,
for his mercy endureth for ever:
2 Give praiſe unto the God of gods,
for his mercy endureth for ever.
3 Give praiſe unto the Lord of lords,
for his mercy endureth for ever.
4 Which only doth great wondrous works,
for his mercy, &c.

5 Which by his wiſdome made the heavens,
for his mercy, &c.
6 Which on the waters ſtretch'd the earth,
for his mercy, &c.
7 Which made great lights to ſhine abroad,
for his mercy, &c.
8 As Sun to rule the lightſome day,
for his mercy, &c.

9 The Moone and Starres to guide the night,
for his mercy, &c.
10 Which ſmote Egypt with their firſt-borne,
for his mercy, &c.
11 And Iſrael brought out from thence,
for his mercy, &c.

12 With mighty hand and ſtretched arme
for his mercy, &c.

13 Which cut the red ſea in two parts,
for his mercy, &c.
14 And Iſrael made paſſe there-through,
for his mercy, &c.
15 And drowned Pharaoh and his hoſt,
for his mercy, &c.
16 Through wilderneſſe his people led,
for his mercy, &c.

17 He which did ſmite great noble kings,
for his mercy, &c.
18 And which hath ſlain the mighty kings
for his mercy, &c.
19 As Sehon King of Amorites,
for his mercy, &c.
20 And Og the King of Baſan land,
for his mercy, &c.

21 And gave their land for heritage,
for his mercy, &c.
22 Even to his ſervant Iſrael,
for his mercy, &c.
23 Remembring us in baſe eſtate,
for his mercy, &c.
24 And from oppreſſors reſcued us,
for his mercy, &c.

25 Which giveth food unto all fleſh,
for his mercy, &c.
26 Praiſe ye the Lord of heaven above,
for his mercy, &c.
27 Give thanks unto the Lord of lords,
for his mercy, &c.

Another of the ſame by T. C.

Sing this to the 148. Pſalme.

OLaud the Lord benigne,
Whoſe mercies laſt for ayes:
Give thanks and praiſes ſing
To God of gods I ſay.
2 For certainly,
His mercies dure
Both firme and ſure,
Eternally.

3 The Lord of lords praiſe ye,
Whoſe mercies aye do dure:
4 Great wonders only he Doth work by his great power.
For certainly,
His mercies dure
Both firme and ſure,
Eternally.

5 Which God omnipotent,
By his great wiſdome hie,
The heavenly firmament
Did frame, as we may ſee.
For certainly, &c.

6 Yea, he the heavy charge
Of all the earth did ſtretch:
And on the waters large
The ſame he did out-reach.
For certainly, &c.

7 Great lights he made to be,
For why? his love is ayes.

8 Such as the Sun we ſee,
To rule the lightſome day,
For certainly, &c.

9 And eke the Moone ſo cleare,
Which ſhineth in our ſight,
And Starres that do appeare,
To guide the darkſome night,
For certainly, &c.

10 With grievous plagues and ſore
All Egypt ſmote he then:
The firſt-borne leſſe and more,
He ſlew of beaſt and man,
For certainly, &c.

11 And from amidſt their land
His Iſrael forth brought:
12 Which he with mighty hand,
And ſtretched arme hath wrought,
For certainly, &c.

13 The ſea he cut in two,
Which ſtood up like a wall:
14 And made through it to go
His choſen children all,
For certainly, &c.

15 But there he whelmed then
The proud King Pharaoh,
With his huge hoſt of men,
And chariots eke alſo,
For certainly, &c.

16 Who led through wilderneſſe,
His people ſafe and ſound:
And for his love endleſſe,
17 Great Kings he brought to ground,
For certainly, &c.

18 And ſlew with puiſſant hand
Kings mighty and of fame,
19 As of Amorites land,
Sehon the King by name,
For certainly, &c.

20 And Og (the Gyant large)
Of Baſhan King alſo:
21 Whoſe land for heritage,
He gave his people tho,
For certainly, &c.

22 Even unto Iſrael,
His ſeruant deare, I ſay,
He gave the ſame to dwell,
And there abide for ay,
For certainly, &c.

23 To minde he did us call,
In our moſt baſe degree,
24 And from oppreſſors all
In ſafety ſet us free,
For certainly, &c.

25 All fleſh in earth abroad
With food he doth fulfill:
26 Wherefore of heaven the God
To laud be it your will,
For certainly,
His mercies dure
Both ſinne and laſt,
Eternally.

Super flumina. Pſal. Cxxxvij. W. W.

3 Then they to whom we priſoners were ſaid to us tauntingly:
Now let us heare your Hebrew ſonge, and pleaſant melody.
4 Alas ſaid we, who can once frame his ſorrowfull heart to ſing
The praiſes of our loving God
thus under a ſtrange King?

5 But yet if I Jeruſalem out of my heart let ſlide:
Then let my fingers quite forget the warbling harp to guide.
6 And let my tongue within my mouth, be ti'd for ever faſt:
If that I joy before I ſee thy full deliverance paſt.

7 Therefore (O Lord) remember now the curſed noiſe and cry
That Edoms ſonnes againſt us made,
when they raz'd our city.
Remember Lord their cruell words,
when as with one accord
They cry'd, On ſack and raze their walls, in deſpight of the Lord.

8 Even ſo ſhalt thou O Babylon, at length to duſt be brought.
And happy ſhall that man be cal'd,
that our revenge hath wrought.
9 Yea bleſſed ſhall that man be cal'd, that takes thy children young,
To daſh their bones againſt hard ſtones, that lie the ſtreets among.

Confitebor tibi. Pſal. Cxxxviij. N.

Sing this as the 121. Pſalme.

THee will I praiſe with my whole heart
my Lord my God alwaies:

Even in the preſence of the gods
I will advance thy praiſe.
2 Toward thy holy Temple, I will look and worſhip thee:
And praiſed in my thankfull mouth thy holy Name ſhall be,

Even for thy loving kindneſſe ſake,
and for thy truth withall:
For thou thy Name haſt by thy Word advanced over all.
3 When I did call, thou heardeſt me,
and thou haſt made alſo
The power of increaſed ſtrength within my ſoule to grow.

4 Yea all the Kings on earth, they ſhall give praiſe to thee O Lord:
For they of thy moſt holy mouth have heard the mighty word.
5 They of the waies of God the Lord in ſinging ſhall intreat:
Becauſe the glory of the Lord
it is exceeding great.

6 The Lord is high and yet he doth behold the lowly ſprite:
But he (contemning) knowes afarre
the proud and lofty wight.
7 Although in midſt of trouble I do walk, yet ſhall I ſtand, Renewed by thee, O my Lord,
thou wilt ſtretch out thy hand,

Upon the wrath of all my foes, and ſaved ſhall I be By thy right hand: the Lord God will performe his work to me.
8 Thy mercy Lord indures for aye,
Lord do me not forſake:
Forſake me not that am the work which thine own hand did make.

Domine probaſti. Pſal. Cxxxix. N.

Sing this as the 137. Pſalme.

O Lord thou haſt me try'd and known,
my ſitting thou doſt know, 2 And riſing eke, my thoughts afarre thou underſtand'ſt alſo.
3 My path, yea and my lying down
thou compaſſeſt alwaies:
And by familiar cuſtome are acquainted with my waies.

4 No word is in my tongue, O Lord,
but known it is to thee:
5 Thou me behinde, before, and eke thou layeſt thine hand on me.
6 Too wonderfull above my reach,
Lord is thy cunning ſkill:
It is ſo high, that I the ſame cannot attaine untill.

7 From ſight of thy all-ſeeing Spirit,
Lord, whither ſhall I go?
Or whither ſhall I flee away, thy preſence to eſcape from?
8 To Heaven if I mount aloft, lo thou art preſent there:
In Hell if I lie downe below,
even there thou doſt appeare.

9 Yea let me take the morning wings, and let me goe and hide
Even there where are the fartheſt parts, where flowing ſea doth ſlide.
10 Yea even thither alſo ſhall thy reaching hand me guide:
And thy right hand ſhall hold me faſt,
and make me to abide.

11 Yea, if I ſay, the darkneſſe ſhall yet ſhroud me from thy ſight:
Lo even alſo the darkeſt night about me ſhall be light.
12 Yea darkneſſe hideth not from thee,
but night doth ſhine as day.
To thee the darkneſſe and the light are both alike alway.

The ſecond Part.

13 For thou poſſeſſed haſt my reines,
and thou haſt covered me,
When I within my mothers wombe incloſed was by thee.
14 Thee will I praiſe, made fearefully, and wondrouſly I am:
Thy works are marvellous, right well my ſoule doth know the ſame.

15 My bones they are not hid from thee, although in ſecret place
I have been made, and in the earth beneath I ſhaped was.
16 When I was formleſſe, then thine eye
ſaw me, for in thy book
Were written all, nought was before, that after faſhion took.

17 The thoughts therfore of thee O God,
how deare are they to me?
And of them all how paſſing great the endleſſe number be!
18 If I ſhould count them, lo their ſumme more than the ſand I ſee:
And whenſoever I awake,
yet am I ſtill with thee.

19 The wicked and the bloudy men,
O that thou wouldeſt ſlay:
Even thoſe O God, to whom depart, depart from me I ſay.
20 Even thoſe of thee (O Lord my God)
that ſpeak full wickedly:
Thoſe that are lifted up in vaine,
being enemies to thee.

21 Hate I not them that hate thee Lord, and that in earneſt wiſe?
Contend I not againſt them all, againſt thee that ariſe?
22 I hate them with unfained hate,
even as my utter foes:
23 Trie me (O God) and know my heart,
my thoughts prove and diſcloſe.

24 Conſider Lord if wickedneſſe in me there any be:
And in thy way (O God my guide) for ever lead thou me.

Pſal.

Eripe me. Pſal. Cxl. N.

Sing this in the Lamentation.

1 LOrd ſave me from the evill man, and from the cruel wight Deliver me, which evil do imagine in their ſpirit.
2 Which make on me continuall warre, their tongues ſoe they have whet 3 Like Serpents, underneath their lips is Adders poyſon ſet.

4 Keep me (O Lord) from wicked hands preſerve me to abide:
Free from the cruell man that meanes to cauſe my ſteps to ſlide.
5 The proud have laid a ſnare for me,
and they have ſpread a net
With cords in my path-way, and gins for me eke have they ſet.

6 Therefore I ſaid unto the Lord, thou art my God alone:
Heare me O Lord, O heare the voice
wherewith I pray and mone.
7 O Lord my God, thou only art
the ſtrength that ſaveth me:
My head in day of battell hath been covered ſtill by thee.

8 Let not (O Lord) the wicked have the end of his deſire: Performe not his ill thoughts, leſt he with pride be fet on fire.
9 Of them that compaſſe me about,
the chiefeſt of them all,
Lord let the miſchiefe of their lips upon themſelves befall.

10 Let coales fall on them, let him caſt them in conſuming flame:
And in deep pits, ſo as they may not riſe out of the ſame.
11 For no backbiter ſhall on earth be ſet in ſtable plight:
And evill to deſtruction ſtill ſhall haunt the cruell wight.

12 I know the Lord th'afflicted will revenge, and judge the poore:
13 The juſt ſhal praiſe thy name, and ſhal dwell with thine evermore.

Domine clamavi. Pſal. Cxli. N.

Sing this in the 145. Pſalme.

1 O Lord upon thee do I call,
Lord haſte thee unto me:
And hearken Lord unto my voice,
when I do cry to thee.
2 As incenſe let my prayers be directed in thine eyes:
And the up-lifting of my hands
as evening ſacrifice.

3 My Lord, for guiding of my mouth,
ſet thou a watch before:
And alſo of my moving lips,
O Lord keep thou the doore.

4 That I ſhould wicked works commit incline thou not my heart:
With ill men of their diſeaſes
Lord let me eat no part.

5 But let the righteous ſmite me Lord,
for that is good for me:
Let him reprove me, and the ſame a precious oyle ſhall be.
Such ſmiting ſhall not breake my head,
the time ſhall ſhortly fall,
When I ſhall in their miſery make prayers for them all.

6 Then when in ſtony places down their Judges ſhall be caſt:
Then ſhall they hearе my words, for that they have a pleaſant taſte.
7 Our bones about the graves mouth, lo ſcattered are they ſound,
As he that heweth wood, or he that diggeth up the ground.

8 But O my Lord my God, mine eyes do look up unto thee:
In thee is all my truſt, let not my ſoule forſaken be.
9 Which they have laid to catch me in,
Lord keep me from the ſnare:
And from the ſubtill grins of them that wicked workers are.

10 The wicked into their own nets together let them fall:
While I do by thy help eſcape
the danger of them all.

Voce mea. Pſal. Cxliij. N.

Sing this in the 145. Pſalme.

1 BEfore the Lord God with my voice
I did ſend out my cry:
And with my ſtrained voice unto the Lord God prayed I.
2 My meditation in his ſight to powre I did not ſpare:
And in the preſence of the Lord
my trouble did declare.

3 Although perplexed was my ſpirit,
my path was known to thee:
In way where I did walke, a ſnare
they ſlily laid for me.
4 I look'd and view'd on my right hand, but none there would me know All refuge failed me, and for my ſoule none care did ſhow.

5 Then cry'd I Lord to thee, and ſaid, my hope thou only art:
Thou in the land of living art
my portion and my part.
6 Hearke to my cry, for I am brought full low: deliver me
From them that do me perſecute, for me too ſtrong they be.

7 That I may praiſe thy Name, my ſoule from priſon Lord bring out:
When thou art good to me, the juſt ſhall preſſe me round about.

Domine

Domine exaudi. Pſal. Cxliij. N.

Sing this as the 145. Pſalme.

LOrd heare my prayes, hearke the plaint that I do make to thee:
Lord in thy native truth and in thy juſtice anſwer me.
2 In judgement with thy ſervant Lord,
O enter not at all:
For juſtified be in thy ſight, not one that liveth ſhall.

3 The enemy hath purſu'd my ſoule, my life to ground hath thrown:
And laid me in the dark, like them that dead are long agone.
4 Within me in perplexity was mine accumbred ſpirite:
And in me was my troubled heart amazed and affright.

5 Yet I record time paſt, in all thy works I meditate:
Yea in thy works I meditate, that thy hands have create.
6 To thee, O Lord, my God, loe I do ſtretch my craving hands:
My ſoule deſireth after thee,
as do the thirſty lands.

7 Heare me with ſpeed, my ſpirit doth faile hide not thy face me fro:
Elſ ſhall I be like them that down into the pit do go.
8 Let me thy loving kindneſſe in the morning heare and know:
For in thee is my truſt, ſhew me
the way where I ſhall go.

9 For I lift up my ſoule to thee,
O Lord deliver me
From all mine enemies, for I have hidden me with thee.
10 Teach me to do thy will, for thou thou art my God, I ſay:
Let thy good Spirit into the land of mercy me conway.

11 For thy names ſake with quickning grace alive do thou me make:
And out of trouble bring my ſoule,
even for thy juſtice ſake.
12 And for thy mercy ſlay my foes,
O Lord, deſtroy them all:
That do oppreſſe my ſoule, for I thy ſervant am and thrall.

Benedictus Dom. Pſal. Cxliij. N.

Sing this as the 145. Pſalme.

BLeſt be the Lord my ſtrength, that doth inſtruct my hands to fight:
The Lord that doth my fingers frame to battell by his might.
2 He is my goodneſſe, fort and towre, deliverer and ſhield:
In him I truſt, my people he ſubdues to me to yeeld.

3 O Lord, what thing is man, that him
thou holdeſt ſo in priſe:
Or ſonne of man, that upon him thou thinkeſt in ſuch wiſe?
4 Man is but like to vanity, ſo paſſe his daies to end,
5 As fleeting ſhade. Bow down O Lord the heavens, and deſcend.

6 The mountains touch, and they ſhall ſmoke caſt forth thy lightning flame,
And ſcatter them: thine arrowes ſhoot, conſume them with the ſame.
7 Send down thine hand even from above:
O Lord deliver me:
Take me from waters great, from hand of ſtrangers make me free.

8 Whoſe ſubtill mouth of vanity, and fondneſſe doth intreat:
And their right hand is a right hand
of falſhood and deceit.
9 A new ſong will I ſing O God, and ſinging will I be On Viol, and on inſtrument, ten-ſtringed unto thee.

10 Even he it is that only gives deliverance to Kings: Unto his ſervant David help from hurtfull ſword he brings.
11 From ſtrangers hand me ſave & ſhield, whoſe mouth talks vanity:
And their right hand is a right hand
of guile and ſubtilty.

12 That our ſons may be as the plants, whom growing youth doth reare:
Our daughters as carv'd corner-ſtones,
like to a palace faire.
13 Our garners full, and plenty may with ſundry ſorts be found,
Our ſheep bring thouſands, in our ſtreets ten thouſands may abound.

14 Our oxen be to labour ſtrong, that none do us invade:
There be no goings out, nor cries within our ſtreets be made.
15 The people bleſſed are that with ſuch bleſſings are ſo ſtor'd:
Yea, bleſſed all the people are,
whoſe God is God the Lord.

Exaltabo te. Pſal. Cxlv. N.

his his greatneſſe none can reach: From race to race, they ſhall thy workes praiſe, and thy power preach.

5 I of thy glorious Majeſty
the beauty will record,
And meditate upon thy works
moſt wonderfull O Lord.
6 And they ſhall of thy power and of thy fearfull acts declare:
And I to publiſh all abroad,
thy greatneſſe will not ſpare.

7 And they into the mention ſhall break of thy goodneſſe great:
And I aloud thy righteouſneſſe in ſinging ſhall repeat.
8 The Lord our God is gracious, and mercifull alſo:
Of great abounding mercy, and to anger he is ſlow.

9 Yea good to all, and all his works his mercy doth exceed:
10 Lo all thy works do praiſe thee Lord,
and do thy honour ſpread.
11 Thy Saints do bleſſe thee, and they do thy kingdomes glory ſhow:
12 And blaze thy power, to cauſe the ſons of men thy power to know.

The ſecond Part.

13 And of his mighty kingdome eke to ſpread the glorious praiſe:
Thy kingdome Lord a kingdome is that doth endure alwaies:
And thy dominion through each age endures without decay.
14 The Lord upholdeth them that fall their fliding he doth ſtay.

15 The eyes of all do wait on thee, thou doſt them all relieve.
And thou to each ſufficing food in ſeaſon due doſt give.
16 Thou openeſt thy plenteous hand, and bounteouſly doſt fill
All things whatſoever do live, with gifts of thy good will.

17 The Lord is juſt in all his waies, his works are holy all:
18 Near all he is that call on him,
in truth that on him call.
19 He the deſires which they require, that feare him will fulfill:
And he will heare them when they cry,
and ſave them all he will.

20 The Lord preſerves all thoſe to him that beare a loving heart:
But he them all that wicked are will utterly ſubvert.
21 My thankfull mouth ſhall gladly ſpeak
the praiſes of the Lord:
All fleſh to praiſe his holy Name, for ever ſhall accord.

Lauda anima. Pſal. Cxlvj. I. II.

Sing this as the 137. Pſalme.

MY ſoul praiſe thou the Lord alwaies,
my God I will confeſſe.
2 While breath and life prolong my daies my tongue no time ſhall ceaſe.
3 Truſt not in worldly Princes then,
though they abound in wealth:
Nor in the ſonnes of mortall men,
in whom there is no health.

4 For why their breath doth ſoon departe, to earth anon they fall:
And then the counſels of their hearte decay and periſh all.
5 O happy is that man I ſay, whom Jacobs God doth aide:
And he whoſe hope doth not decay,
but on the Lord is ſtaid.

6 Which made the earth and waters deep the heavens high withall:
Which doth his word and promiſe keep in truth and ever ſhall.
7 With right alwaies doth he proceed,
for ſuch as ſuffer wrong:
The poore and hungry he doth feed,
and looſe the fetters ſtrong.

8 The Lord doth ſend the blinde their ſight,
the lame to limbs reſtore:
The Lord (I ſay) doth love the right, and juſt man evermore.
9 He doth defend the fatherleſſe, and ſtranger ſtaid in heart:
And quit the widow from diſtreſſe, and ill mens waies ſubvert.

10 Thy Lord and God eternally
O Sion ſtill ſhall raigne:
In time of all poſterity,
for ever to remaine.

Laudate Dominum. Pſal. Cxlvij. N.

Raiſe ye the Lord, for it is good, unto our God to ſing: For it is pleaſant, and to praiſe, it is a comely thing.

2 The Lord his own Ieruſalem, he buildeth up alone:
And the diſcauſt of Iſrael doth gather into one.

3 He heales the broken in their heart, their ſores up doth he binde:
4 He counts the number of the ſtarres, and names them in their kinde.
5 Great is the Lord great is his power,
his wiſdome infinite:
6 The Lord relieves the meek, and throws to ground the wicked wight.

7 Sing unto God the Lord with praiſe, unto the Lord rejoyce:
And to our God upon the Harp, advance your ſinging voice.
8 He covers heaven with clouds, and for the earth prepareth raine:
And on the mountaines he doth make the graſſe to grow againe.

9 He gives to beaſts their food, and to young Ravens when they cry.
10 His pleaſure not in ſtrength of horſe, nor in mans legs doth lie.
11 But in all thoſe that feare the Lord,
the Lord hath his delight.
And ſuch as doe attend upon his mercies ſhining light.

The ſecond Part.

12 O praiſe the Lord Ieruſalem, thy God O Sion praiſe:
13 For he the barres hath forged ſtrong, wherewith thy gates he ſtaies.
14 Thy children he hath bleſt in thee, and in thy borders he Doth ſettle peace, and with the flour of wheat he filleth thee.

15 And his commandement upon the earth he ſendeth out:
And eke his word with ſpeedy courſe doth ſwiftly run about.
16 He giveth ſnow like woll, hoar-froſt like aſhes he doth ſtrow:
17 Like morſels caſts his ice, thereof the cold who can abide?

18 He ſendeth forth his mighty word,
and melteth them againe:
His winde he makes to blow, and then the waters flow amaine.
19 The doctrine of his holy word to Iacob he doth ſhow:
His ſtatutes and his judgements he gives Iſrael to know.

20 With every Nation hath he not to deale, nor have they known His ſecret judgements, ye therefore praiſe ye the Lord alone.

Laudate Dominum. Pſal. Cxlviij. I. H.

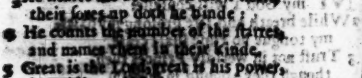
Ive laud unto the Lord, From heaven that is ſo hie: Praiſe him in deed and word



Above the ſtarrie ſkie. And alſo ye, His An gels all, Armies royall, Praiſe him with glee.

3 Praiſe him both Moone and Sun,
Which are ſo cleare and bright:
The ſame of you be done,
Ye gliſtering ſtarres of light.
4 And eke no leſſe,
Ye heavens faire,
5 And clouds of the aire,
His laud expreſſe.

6 For at his word they were All formed as we ſee:
At his voice did appeare
All things in their degree,
Which he lee faſt,
To them he made A law and trade for aye to laſt.

7 Extoll and praiſe Gods Name,
On earth ye Dragons fell:
All deeps do ye the ſame,
For it becomes you well.
8 Him magnifie,
Fire, haile, ice, ſnow,
And ſtormes that blow
At his decree.

9 The hils and mountaines all,
And trees that fruitfull are:
The Cedars great and tall,
His worthy praiſe declare.
10 Beaſts and cattell,
Yea birds flying,
And wormes creeping,
That on earth dwell.

11 All Kings both more and leſſe,
With all their pompous traines:
Princes and all Iudges
That in the world remaine, Exalt his Name.
12 Young men and maids,
Old men and babes,
Do ye like ſame.

13 For

13 For his Name ſhall we prove To be moſt excellent,
Whoſe praiſe is farre above
The earth and firmament.
14 For ſure he ſhall
Exalt with bliſſe,
The horne of his,
And help them all.

15 His Saines all ſhall forth tell
His praiſe and worthineſſe:
The children of Iſrael,
Each one both more and leſſe.
16 And alſo they
That with good will His words fulfill,
And him obey.

Cantate Domino. Pſal. Cxlix. N.

Sing this at the 145. Pſalme.

SIng ye unto the Lord our God,
a new rejoycing ſong:
And let the praiſe of him be heard his holy Saints among.
2 Let Iſrael rejoyce in him, that made him of nothing
And let the ſeed of Sion eke be joyfull in their King.

3 Let them ſound praiſe with voice of flute, unto his holy Name:
And with the timbrell and the harp
ſing praiſes of the ſame.
4 For why? the Lord his pleaſure all hath in his people ſet:
And by deliverance he will raiſe
the meeke to glory great.

5 With glory and with honour now let all his Saints rejoyce:
And now aloud upon their beds advance their ſinging voice.
6 And in their mouthes let be the acts of God the mighty Lord:
And in their hands eke let them beare
a double-edged ſword.

7 To plague the heathen, and correct the people with their hands.
8 To binde their ſtately Kings in chains, their Lords in iron bands.
9 To execute on them the doome that written is before:
This honour all his Saints ſhall have,
praiſe ye the Lord therefore.

Laudate Dominum. Pſal. CL. N.

Sing this at the 147. Pſalme.

YEeld unto God the mighty Lord
praiſe in his Sanctuary:
And praiſe him in the firmament that ſhewes his power on hie.
2 Advance his Name, and praiſe him in his mighty acts alwaies:
According to his excellency of greatneſſe give him praiſe.

3 His praiſes with the princely noiſe of ſounding trumpets blow:
Praiſe him upon the Viol, and upon the Harp alſo.

4 Praiſe him with timbrell and with flute Organs and Virginalls.
5 With ſounding Cymbals praiſe ye him, praiſe him with loud Cymballs.

6 What ever hath the benefit of breathing, praiſe the Lord:
To praiſe the Name of God the Lord, agree with one accord.

The end of the Pſalmes.

A Song to be ſung before morning prayer. T. B

Sing this at the 100. Pſalme.

PRaiſe ye the Lord ye Gentiles all,
which hath brought you into his light:
O praiſe him all people mortall,
as it is moſt worthy and right.

For he is full determined on us to powre out his mercy:
And the Lords truth be ye aſſured, abideth perpetually.

Glory be to God the Father, and unto Jeſus Chriſt his Sonne,
With the Holy Ghoſt in like manner,
now and at every ſeaſon.

A Song to be ſung before Evening prayer.

BEhold now give heed ſuch as be the Lords ſervants faithfull at reſt:
Come praiſe the Lord every degree, with ſuch things as to him are due.

O ye that ſtand in the Lords houſe, even in our owne Gods manſions:
Praiſe ye the Lord ſo bounteous, which worketh our ſalvation.

Lift up your hands in his holy place,
yea and that in the time of night:
Praiſe ye the Lord which gives all grace, for he is a Lord of great might.

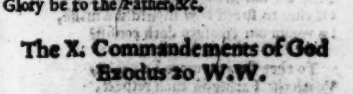
Then ſhall the Lord out of Sion, which made heaven and earth by his power,
Give to you and your nation,
his bleſſings, mercy, and favour.
Glory be to the Father, &c.

The X. Commandements of God Exodus 20 W.W.



ATtend my people and give eare, Of ſerly

in minde thou beare, And to my precepts liſten well.

1 I am thy ſoveraigne Lord and God,
Which have thee brought frō careful thral
And eke reclaim'd from Pharaohs rod,
Make thee no gods on them to call.

2 Nor faſhioned forme of any thing
In heaven or earth to worſhip it:
For I thy God by revenging
With grievous plagues this ſin wil ſmite.

3 Take not in vaine his holy Name, Abuſe it not after thy will,
For ſo thou might'ſt ſoone purchaſe blame
And in his wrath he would thee ſpill.

4 The Lord from work the ſeventh day ceaſt,
And brought all things to perfect end:
So thou and thine that day take reſt,
That to Gods hoſts ye may attend.

5 Unto thy parents honour give,
As Gods commandments do intend:
That thou long daies and good maiſt live
In earth, where God a place doth lend.

6 Beware of murther and cruell hate.
7 All filthy fornication feare.
8 See thou ſtealе not in any rate.
9 Falſe witneſſe againſt no man beare.

10 Thy neighbours houſe with not to have,
His wife, or ought that he cals mine:
His field, his Oxe, his Aſſe, his ſlave,
Or any thing which is not thine.

A Prayer.

The Spirit of grace grant us O Lord,
To keep theſe lawes our hearts reſtore,
And cauſe us all with one accord,
To magnifie thy Name therefore.

For of our ſelves no ſtrength we have To keep theſe lawes after thy will:
Thy might therefore O Chriſt we crave,
That we in thee may them fulfill.

Lord for thy Names ſake grant us this,
Thou art our ſtrength, O Saviour Chriſt:
Of thee to ſpeed how ſhould we miſſe,
In whom our treaſure doth conſiſt?

To thee for evermore be praiſe,
With the Father in each reſpect,
And with the holy Spirit alwaies,
The comforter of thine elect.

The Lords Prayer. D. Coxe.

VR Father which in heaven art, And mak'ſt us all one brotherhood, To call upon thee with one heart, Our heavenly Father and our God. Grant we pray not with lips alone, But with our hearts deepe ſigh and grone.

Thy bleſſed Name be ſanctified,
Thy holy Word might us inflame,
In holy life for to abide,
To magnifie thy holy Name.
From all errors defend and keep
The little flock of thy poore ſheep.

Thy kingdome come even at this houre
And henceforth everlaſtingly:
Thine Holy Ghoſt into us poure,
With all his gifts moſt plenteouſly.
From Sathans rage and filthy band,
Defend us with thy mighty hand.

Thy will be done with diligence,
Like as in heaven, in earth alſo:
In trouble grant us patience,
Thee to obey in wealth and wo.
Let not fleſh, blood, or any ill
Prevaile againſt thy holy will.

Give us this day our daily bread,
And all other good gifts of thine:
Keep us from war and from bloud-ſhed,
Alſo from ſickneſſe, dearth and pine.
That we may live in quietneſſe,
Without all greedy carefullneſſe.

Forgive us our offences all,
Relieve our carefull conſcience:
As we forgive both great and ſmall,
Which unto us have done offence.
Prepare us Lord for to ſerve thee,
In perfect love and unity.

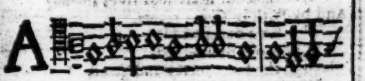
O Lord into temptation,
Lead us not when the fiend doth rage:
To withſtand his invaſion,
Give power and ſtrength to every age.
Arme and make ſtrong thy feeble hoſt
With faith and with the Holy Ghoſt.

O Lord from evill deliver us,
The daies and times are dangerous:
From everlaſting death ſave us,
And in our laſt need comfort us.
A bleſſed end to us bequeath,
Into thy hands our ſoules receive,

For

For thou, O Lord, art King of kings,
And thou haſt power over all:
Thy glory ſhineth in all things,
In the wide world univerſall.
Amen, let it be done, O Lord,
That we have praid with one accord.

The twelve Articles of the Chriſtian Faith.



ALL my beliefe and confidence, is in the Lord of might: The Father which all things hath made, the day and eke the night.

The heavens and the firmament, and alſo every ſtarre, The earth and all that is therein, which paſſe mans reaſon farre.

And in like manner I believe in Chriſt our Lord his Sonne: Coequall with the Deitie,
and man in fleſh and bone.
Conceived by the Holy Ghoſt,
his word doth me aſſure:
And of his mother Mary borne, yet ſhe a Virgin pure.

Becauſe mankinde to Satan was for ſin in bond and thrall:
He came and offered up himſelfe to death to ſave us all.
And ſuffering moſt grievous paine,
then Pilate being Judge:
Was crucified on the Croſſe, and thereat did not grudge.

And ſo he died in the fleſh, but quickned in the ſprites:
His body then was buried,
as is our uſe and right.
His ſoule did after this deſcend into the lower parts:
A dread unto the wicked ſpirits,
but joy to faithfull hearts.

And in the third day of his death
he roſe to life againe:
To th'end he might be glorifi'd, out of all griefs and paine.

Aſcending to the heavens high,
to ſit in glory ſtill.
On Gods right hand his Father deare,
according to his will.

Untill the day of judgement come,
when he ſhall come againe With Angels power (yet of that day we all be uncertaine)
To judge all people righteouſly, whom he hath dearely bought The living and the dead alſo,
which he hath made of nought.

And in the holy Spirit of God,
(my faith to ſatisfie)
The third perſon in Trinity, believe I ſtedfaſtly.
The holy and Catholike Church, that Gods Word doth maintaine:
And holy Scripture doth allow,
which Satan doth diſdaine.

And alſo I do truſt to have by Jeſus Chriſt his death:
Releaſe and pardon of my ſins,
and that only by faith.
What time all fleſh ſhall riſe againe before the Lord of might:
And ſee him with their bodily eyes,
which now do give them light.

And then ſhall Chriſt our Saviour
the ſheep and goats divide:
And give life everlaſtingly,
to thoſe whom he hath tri'd.
Within his Realme celeſtiall, in glory for to reſt:
With all his holy company of Saints and Angels bleſt.

Which ſerve the Lord omnipotent obediently each houre:
To whom be all dominion,
and praiſe for evermore.

A prayer to the holy Ghoſt, to be ſung before the Sermon.

Sing this as the 119. Pſalme.

COme holy Spirit the God of might comforter of us all:
Teach us to know thy Word aright, that we do never fall.
O Holy Ghoſt viſit our coaſt, defend us with thy ſhield:
Againſt all ſin and wickedneſſe
Lord help us win the field.

Lord keep our King and his Counſell, and give them will and might
To perſevere in thy Goſpell, which can put ſin to flight.
O Lord that giv'ſt thy holy Word,
ſend Preachers plenteouſly:
That in the ſame we may accord,
and therein live and die.

O holy Spirit direct aright
the Preachers of thy Word:
That thou by them maiſt cut down ſin,
as it were with a ſword.

Depart not from thy Pastours pure,
but aid them at their need,
Which breake to us the bread of life,
whereon our soules do feed.

O blessed Spirit of truth keep us in peace and unity:
Keep us from fetes and errours all,
and from all Papistry.
Convert all those that are our foes,
and bring them to thy light,
That they and we may well agree,
and praise thee day and night.

O Lord increase our faith in us,
and love so to abound:
That man and wife be void of strife,
and neighbours about us round.
In our time give thy peace O Lord,
to nations farre and nigh:
And teach them all thy holy Word,
that we may sing to thee.

All glory to the Trinity,
that is of mightes most:
The living Father and the Sonne, and eke the Holy Ghost.
As it hath been in all the time that hath been heretofore:
As it is now, and so shall be hencefoth for evermore.

Da pacem Domine.

Give us that peace that we do lack Through misbeleefe and all ill:
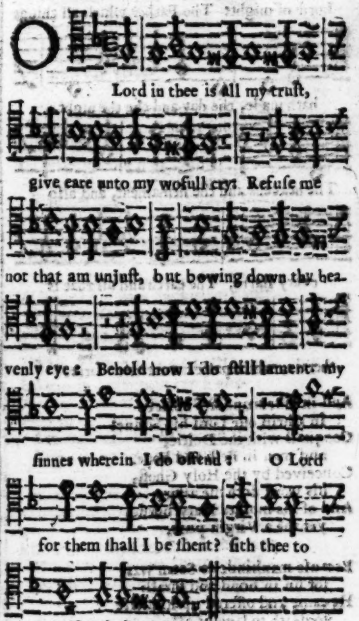
Thou wouldst us ayde thou dost not lack
Which we unkindly strive.

With fire and sword,
This healthfull word,
Some persecute and oppresse:
Some with the mouth
Confesse the truth,
Without sincere godlinesse.

Give peace, and us thy Spirit down send
With griefe and repentance true,
Pierce thou our hearts, our lives amend,
And by faith in Christ renew,
That feare and dread
Warre and blood-shed,
Through thy sweet mercy and grace,
May from us slide,
Thy truth may bide,
And shine in every place.

The Lamentation.



No, no, not so, thy will is bent,
to deale with sinners in thine ire:
But when in heart they shall repent,
thou grantst with speed their just desire,
To thee therefore still shall I crie, to wash away my sinfull crime:
Thy blood O Lord is not yet drie,
but that it may help me in time.

Haste thee O Lord, haste thee I say, to poure on me thy gifts of grace:
That when this life shall fade away,
in heaven with thee I may have place:
Where thou dost raigne eternally, with God which once did down thee send Where Angels sing continually, so thee be praise world without end.

A Thanksgiving after the receiving of the Lords Supper.

Sing this as the 137. Psalme.

THe Lord be thanked for his gifts and mercies evermore,
That he doth shew unto his Saints,
to him be laud therefore.
Our tongues cannot so praise the Lord,
as he of right deserves:
Our hearts cannot of him so think,
as he us all preserves.

His benefits they be so great to us that be but sin:
That at our hands for recompence,
there is no hope to win.
O sinfull flesh that thou shouldst have,
such mercies of the Lord:
Thou dost deserve more worthily of him to be abhord.

Nought els but sin and wretchednesse doth rest within our hearts:
And stubbornly against the Lord
we daily play our parts.
The Sun above in firmament, that is to us a light:
Doth shew it selfe more cleare and pure,
than we be in his sight.

The heavens above and all therein more holy are than we:
They serve the Lord in their estate,
each one in his degree.
They doe not strive for mastership,
nor slack their office fit:
But serve the Lord and do his will hate is to them so let.

Also the earth and all therein,
of God it is in awe:
It doth observe the Formers will,
by skilfull natures law.
The sea and all that is therein doth bend when God doth beck:
The spirits beneath do tremble all,
and feare his wrathfull check.

But we alas for whom all these were made them for to rule,
Do not so know or love the Lord,
as doth the Oxe or Mule.
A Law he gave for us to know what was his holy will:
He would us good, but we would not avoid the thing is ill.

Not one of us that seeketh out the Lord of life to please:
Nor doth the thing that might us lead to Christ and quiet ease.
Thus are we all his enemies,
we can it not denie:
And he againe of his good will would not that we should die.

Therefore when remedy was none to bring us unto life:
The Son of God our flesh he took,
to end our mortall strife.

And all the law of God the Lord
he did it full obey:
And for our sins upon the Crosse his blood our debts did pay.

And that we should not yet forget what good he to us wrought:
A signe he left our eyes to tell,
that he our bodies bought.
In Bread and Wine how visible, unto thine eyes and taste:
His mercies great thou maist record,
if that his Spirit thou hast.

As unto Corne did live and grow,
and was cut down with sythe,
And threshed out with many stripes,
out from his husk to drive:
And as the mill with violence,
did geare it out so small:
And made it like to earthly dust,
not sparing it at all.

And as the oven with fire hot did close it up with heat:
And all this done that I have told,
that it should be our meat.
So was the Lord in his ripe age cut down by cruell death:
His soule he gave in torments great,
and yeelded up his breath.

Because that he to us might be an everlasting bread:
With much reproach and troubles great on earth his life he led.
And as the grapes in pleasant time are pressed very sore:
And plucked down when they be ripe,
and let to grow no more.

Because the juyce that in them is,
as comfortable drink,
We might receive and joyfull be,
when sorrowes make us shrinke.
So Christ his bloud our pressed was with nailes and eke with speare:
The juyce thereof doth save all those that rightly do him feare.

And as the cornes by unity into one loafe are knit:
So is the Lord and his whole Church, though he in heaven sit.
As many grapes make but one wine:
so should we be but one In faith and love in Christ above, and unto Christ alone:

Leading a life without all strife,
in quiet rest and peace.
From envy and from malice both,
our hearts and tongues to cease.
Which if we do, then shall we shew that we his chosen be:
By faith in him to lead a life,
as alwaies willed he.

And that we may so do indeed,
God send us all his grace:
Then after death we shall be sure with him to have a place.

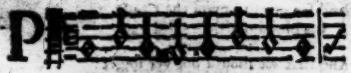
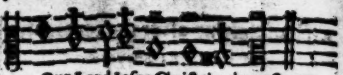
R. W.



Reserve us Lord by thy deare Word,

From Turk and Pope defend us Lord,

Which both would thrust out of his throne



Our Lord Iesus Christ thy deare Sonne.

Lord Jesus Christ shew forth thy might,
That thou art Lord of Lords by right:
Thy poore afflicted flock defend,
That we may praise thee without end.

God Holy Ghost our Comforter,
Be our patron, help, and succour:
Give us one minde and perfect peace,
All gifts of grace in us increase.

Thou living God in persons three,
Thy Name be prais'd in unity:
In all our need so us defend,
That we may praise thee without end.

FINIS.

A godly Prayer to be said at all times.

HOnour and praise be given vnto thee (O Lord God almighty) most deare Father of heauen, for all thy mercies and louing kindnes shewed vnto us, in that it hath pleased thy gracious goodnesse, freely and of thine own accord, to elect and chuse us to saluation before the beginning of the world. And euen like continuall thanks be giuen vnto thee for creating vs after thine owne image, for redeeming vs with the pretious blood of thy deare Sonne when we were vtterly lost: for sanctifying vs with thy holy Spirit, in the reuelation and knowledge of thy word, for helping & succouring vs in all our needs and necessities: for sauing us from all dangers of bodie and soule: for comforting vs so fatherly in all our tribulations & persecutions: for sparing vs so long, and giuing vs so large a time of repentance. These benefits, O most merciful Father, like as we acknowledge to haue receiued them of thy onely goodnesse, euen so we beseech thee, for thy deare Sonne Iesus Christs sake, to grant vs alwaies thy holy Spirit, whereby we may continually grow in thankfulnesse towards thee, and be led into all truth, and comforted in all aduersities. O Lord strengthen our faith: kindle it more in feruentnes & loue towards thee and our neighbour for thy sake. Suffer us not, most deare Father, to receiue thy word any more in vaines but grant vs alwaies the assistance of thy grace and holy Spirit, that in heart, word and deed, we may sanctifie and doe worship to thy name, help to amplifie and increase thy kingdome, and whatsoeuer thou sendest, wee may be heartily well content with thy good pleasure and will: let vs not lacke the thing O Father, without the which we cannot serue thee: but blesse thou so all the workes of our hands, that we may haue sufficient, and not be chargeable, but rather helpefull vnto others. Be mercifull O Lord, to our offences: and seeing our debt is great which thou hast forgiuen vs in Iesus Christ, make vs to loue thee and our neighbours so much the more. Be thou our Father, Captaine, and defender in all temptations. Hold thou vs by thy mercifull hand, that wee may be deliuered from all inconueniences, and end our liues in the sanctifying and honoring of thy holy name, through Iesus Christ our Lord and onely Sauiour. So be it.

Let thy mighty hand and outstretched arme (O Lord) be still our defence, thy mercie and louing kindnesse in Iesus Christ thy deare Sonne our saluation: thy true and holy word our instruction: thy grace and holy Spirit our comfort and consolation, unto the end and in the end. So be it.

A Confession for all estates and times.

O Eternall God and most mercifull Father we confesse and acknowledge here before thy diuine maiestie, that we are miserable sinners, conceiued and borne in sinne and iniquitie so that in vs there is no goodnesse: for the flesh euermore rebelleth against the spirit, whereby we continually transgresse thy holy precepts and commandements, and so purchase to our selues, through thy iust iudgement death and damnation. Notwithstanding (O heauenly Father) forasmuch as we are displeased with our selues for the sinnes that we haue committed against thee, and vnfainedly repent vs of the same, we most humbly beseech thee for Iesus Christs sake to shew thy mercy on vs, to forgiue vs all our sinnes, and to increase thy holy Spirit in vs, that we acknowledging from the bottome of our hearts our owne vnrighteousnesse, may from henceforth not onely mortifie our sinfull lusts and affections, but also bring foorth such fruites as may be agreeable to thy most holy will: not for the worthinesse thereof, but for the merits of thy dearely beloued Sonne Iesus Christ our onely Sauiour, whom thou hast alreadi giuen an oblation and offering for our sinnes, and for whose sake we are certainely perswaded, that thou wilt deny vs nothing that we shall aske in his name according to thy will. For thy Spirit doth assure our consciences, that thou art our mercifull Father, and so louest vs thy children through him, y nothing is able to remoue thy heauenly grace and fauour from vs. To thee therefore, O Father, with the Son, and the holy Ghost, be all honour and glory world without end. So be it.
